2011 OVC TOURNAMENT

This year marks the second at Pringles Park for the Ohio Valley Conference Baseball Championship. The tournament made its debut in Jackson, Tenn. in 2010 after nine years in Paducah, Ky. The 2011 OVC Baseball Championship will be held May 25-28 (29). Every game of the event can be seen live and on-demand at OVCsports.TV.

Pringles Park is the home of the Jackson Generals (formerly the West Tenn DiamondJaxx), the Double-A affiliate of the Seattle Mariners. The 6,000-seat natural grass stadium opened in 1998. The OVC and Pringles Park agreed to a three-year agreement in 2009, guaranteeing tournaments through 2012 will be held in Jackson.

This marks the 11th year the tournament has been held at a neutral site; prior to the 2001 season, the event was held at campus sites.

Last season Jacksonville State was 3-0 in its way to its third OVC Tournament Championship and first since the 2006 season. The Gamecocks topped Eastern Illinois and then Tennessee Tech twice to win the title.

The first official OVC Tournament was held in 1980; prior to that only playoff series between divisional winners were played.

NOTES FROM AROUND THE LEAGUE

OVC Overview/This Week's Highlights: After two weekends of OVC play, Jacksonville State is on top of the Conference standings with a 4-2 record...There are three teams (Austin Peay, Murray State and Southeast Missouri) who are just half of a game behind the Gamecocks and another team (Eastern Illinois) who is just a game back...One of this weekend's matchup includes second-place Murray State playing at first-place Jacksonville State...Murray State sophomore infielder Brandon Elliott currently leads the OVC in batting average (.429) and sacrifice bunts (9), which makes him the only player nationally to currently lead a Division I conference in both of those stats.

The OVC in the NCAA Statistical Leaders: In the latest set of national statistical leaders (released on Tuesday, March 29) the OVC had several individuals among the leaders. Individually Jacksonville State's Ben Waldrip is 11th in slugging (.740) while Austin Peay's John Hogan is first in sac flies (6). Austin Peay's Jeremy Dobbs and JSU's Hunter Rivers are tied for fifth in victories (5) while APSU's Zach Toney is fifth in strikeouts per nine innings (12.44). JSU's Todd Hornsby is seventh in saves (7). The next set of NCAA rankings will be released on Tuesday.

Coaching Milestones: OVC coaches have hit several victory milestones during the 2011 season while several others are nearing in on records. Jacksonville State head coach Jim Case (now in his 10th season overall) won his 300th career game on March 13 with a victory over Southern Illinois. With a win over Austin Peay on April 2, Eastern Illinois head coach Jim Schmitz reached career victory No. 600 in his 24 years as a head coach. Austin Peay head coach Gary McClure, now in his 24th season, is just 10 wins away from 700 victories while SIUE head coach Gary Collins is 17 victories away from 1,000 in his 33th season as a head coach.

College Baseball Foundation National All-Star Lineup: Each week the College Baseball Foundation and Diamond Sports releases a "National All-Star Lineup" which gives accolades to the past week's top performers around the country. The "National All-Star Lineup" is nominated by college coaches, staff, and baseball media contacts. Below are a list of OVC players who have been honored by the CBF this season.

March 7 - Zach Noonan, Murray State

Pringles Park to Host 2011 OVC Baseball Championship: For the second year in a row Pringles Park in Jackson, Tenn. will host the Ohio Valley Conference Baseball Championship. The Championship was held there for the first time last year as part of a three-year contract with the venue, which is the home of the Jackson Generals (formerly the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx), the AA affiliate of the Seattle Mariners. This year the six-team, double-elimination tournament will be held May 25-29 and marks the 32nd OVC Baseball Championship. The first elimination style tournament was held in 1980, most usually being played at the site of the regular season champion. Beginning in 2001 the tournament switched to a neutral site for the first time (and was held at Brooks Stadium in Paducah, Ky. for nine years). Pringles Park opened in 1998 and has a seating capacity of 6,000. The venue hosted the 1999 Southern League All-Star Game and will also host that event in 2011. Pringles Park also has luxury suites, a video board and merchandise shop that will be used for the championship. Jackson, Tenn. is located 130 miles from Nashville and 77.2 miles from Memphis on Interstate 40. Tickets for the event will be $10 per day or $30 for an all-session pass (up to 11 total games). There is also an $8 a day rate for students/faculty of OVC-member schools or groups. All seats at the 6,000-seat park are general admission for the OVC Championship. Fans can purchase tickets in person at the Generals box office or by calling (731) 988-5299.

2012 OVC Schedule to Switch to Friday-Saturday-Sunday Format: In February 2011 the OVC announced a change in its Conference series format for the 2012 season. Currently the OVC plays a three-game series spread over two days, with the teams playing a doubleheader on Saturday (with one of those games being a 7-inning game, the other a 9-inning affair) and a single 9-inning game on Sunday. Starting in 2012 the series schedule will move to a three-game series over three days (Friday-Saturday-Sunday), with a single 9-inning game being played each day. Games on Friday will begin no earlier than 3 p.m. local time and no later than 6 p.m. local time. The item was unanimously approved by the OVC Board of Presidents at its meeting in early February. The OVC was previously one of just six Division I Conferences that consistently played a three-game series over just two days. One of the biggest advantages of the new schedule is the improvement of student-athlete welfare. The new format will lessen the burden of long Saturday doubleheaders (that in the past could last up to 9-10 hours) and help protect the teams from an increased risk of injury. It will also give OVC programs a competitive advantage as it will allow them to use their ace pitchers (who will normally pitch during the Friday contest) during important mid-week contests with the appropriate amount of rest, thus improving the league's performance in those key matchups. Another advantage is the flexibility in playing the three-game series when weather becomes an issue. Previously when the Saturday doubleheader was rained out, the teams played a doubleheader on Sunday if possible and missed at least an entire game in the series. Should weather be a factor with the new schedule, teams could play a doubleheader on either Saturday or Sunday and avoid missing as many key Conference games.

ALL-TIME OVC COACHING VICTORIES

Three current OVC coaches rank among the Top 10 in total number of wins in OVC history (total wins at OVC schools only were counted). The all-time OVC leader is Murray State's Johnny Reagan (776). The three current coaches who rank in the Top 10 include Austin Peay's Gary McClure (2nd), Southeast Missouri's Mark Hogan (5th) and Eastern Illinois' Jim Schmitz (8th). McClure, in his 24th season at APSU, has a chance to become the OVC's all-time leader, as he is just 86 wins behind Reagan.

PRESEASON HONORS/WATCH LISTS

Several OVC baseball players have landed on award watch lists or preseason All-American teams. Below is a complete list of those honors.

Pro-Line NCBWA Preseason All-American Team
Chad Oberacker, Tennessee Tech (3rd Team)

Louisville Slugger/TPX Preseason All-American
Chad Oberacker, Tennessee Tech (2nd Team)

College Baseball Lineup Preseason All-American Team

Rules Committee voted to mandate the use of a timing device and implemented penalties for non-compliance this season (after the rules were used experimentally last season). The rule will require pitchers to start their delivery in no more than 20 seconds without runners on base. Pitchers who do not comply initially receive a warning with additional violations resulting in a ball being added to the count of the current batter. If the batter is at fault for the pitch not being thrown in 20 seconds, a warning will be given initially and additional violations will add a strike to the count. Additionally, in non-televised games, umpires will enforce a 90 second limit between innings. The new ruling allows conferences to choose to use a visible clock or assigned an umpire to administer the rules (in OVC games, the umpires will keep the clock).

College Baseball Gets New Bats for 2012: In NCAA baseball this season the Ball-Bat Coefficient of Restitution (BBCOR) standard has gone into effect (the standard was announced in Sept. 2008). The new BBCOR formula provides a better measure of the bat's performance and therefore allows the rules committee and bat testing laboratories to better predict field performance based on lab tests. The goal is that non-wood bats that meet this new standard will perform similarly to wood bats.

TTU's Oberacker Named Candidate for Lowe's Senior CLASS Award: Tennessee Tech senior All-American outfielder Chad Oberacker is one of 30 NCAA baseball student-athletes named as a candidate for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. The list of candidates follows this release. Oberacker, the preseason OVC Player of the Year, is the only returning All-American from the OVC last season. Despite being drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 19th round, the outfielder decided to return to school for one more season. Last year he was third nationally with a .452 batting average while setting OVC single-season records for hits (108) and doubles (29). An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School, the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

EKU's Purcell Named to NCBWA Stopper of the Year Watch List: Eastern Kentucky University senior closer Ryne Purcell was one of 45 players named to the initial watch list for the seventh annual National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Award, given to the top relief pitcher in all of Division I baseball. Purcell, who arrived at EKU from Kaskaskia College before last season, led the OVC and was 12th in the country with 12 saves in 2010. The right-hander from Vincennes, Ind. appeared in 30 games, all in relief, with a 2-1 record and 34 strikeouts in only 31.1 innings of work. He sealed the Colonels' first postseason victory since 2007 when he saved a 4-3 win over Murray State in the OVC Tournament on May 26. Of the 45 pitchers on the list, Purcell is the lone representative from the OVC. The Big 12, SEC and Conference USA led the way with four players each on this year's watch list. The Big 10, Atlantic 10 and Atlantic Sun each have three pitchers on the list. Nominations for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award were made by baseball sports information/media relations contacts. The initial list will be updated with a mid-season release the week of April 18, including the national saves leaders. At the conclusion of the regular season, the Division I national saves leader and four other relief pitching standouts will be selected as finalists and released Wednesday, June 1, prior to start of NCAA regional tournament competition. The NCBWA's All-America Committee then will select the winner, with this year's recipient to be announced in Omaha on the opening day of the College World Series on June 18.

Six OVC Coaches Coaching at Their Alma Mater: This season six of the 10 OVC head baseball coaches are currently coaching at their alma maters. That lists includes third-year head coach Jason Stein who played at Eastern Kentucky from 1992-95 and graduated in 1997. He played against Morehead State head coach Jay Sorg who was at MSU from 1992-94. Ironically in the 1994 season, Sorg was named OVC Player of the Week on April 11 while Stein earned the same honor on May 2. The other coaches currently at their alma mater are Austin Peay's Gary McClure (1987), Murray State Rob McDonald (1984), Southeast Missouri's Mark Hogan (1977) and SIUE's Gary Collins (1970).

Jacksonville State Picked as Preseason Favorite: Despite not having a preseason All-OVC selection, OVC head coaches still believed Jacksonville State was the top team in the league. After finishing 1.5 games out of first place in the regular season in 2010, JSU swept through the OVC Tournament, including besting regular season champion Tennessee Tech twice on its way to its third OVC Championship (2004, 2006, 2010) since joining the league in 2004. The Gamecocks did lose five positional starters from that team (three who were All-OVC selections). Jax State claimed four first-place votes and 59 total points to be picked as the favorites. Southeast Missouri finished next with three first-place votes and 55 points while Tennessee Tech, last year's regular season champions, were third with two first-place votes and 54 points. Eastern Illinois was picked fourth (36) and was followed by Eastern Kentucky (33), Murray State (28), Austin Peay (25), Morehead State (19) and UT Martin (10).

TTU's Oberacker, EIU's Hoekstra Earn Preseason OVC Player/Pitcher of the Year Honors: Tennessee Tech senior All-American outfielder Chad Oberacker was named OVC Preseason Player of the Year while Eastern Illinois junior hurler Mike Hoekstra was tabbed OVC Preseason Pitcher of the Year in a vote of OVC head coach. Oberacker is the only returning All-American from the OVC last season. Despite being drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 19th round, the outfielder decided to return to school for one more season. Last year he was third nationally with a .452 batting average while setting OVC single-season records for hits (108) and doubles (29). Hoekstra started last season as EIU's No. 3 pitcher on paper and finished the season with a team-best 4.16 E.R.A. while winning four games in 11 starts. Hoekstra had a pair of complete games and a shutout on his resume during the season and walked only five batters in 67 innings of work (a mark that set a new OVC single-season record and ranked him first nationally in walks allowed per nine innings - 0.67).

SIU Edwardsville Joins the OVC: On July 1 Southern Illinois University Edwardsville became the 11th member of the Ohio Valley Conference. SIU Edwardsville, who is in the reclassification process to Division I, will begin regular season competition in the OVC next season (2011-12) and will be eligible for postseason competition in 2012-13. The exception is the SIUE softball program, which will be eligible for both regular season and tournament competition this year; the softball program was the department's women's sport designee to be fast-tracked to Division I, making it eligible to compete at Division I prior to other SIUE sports. SIUE is located in Edwardsville, Ill., which is just northeast of St. Louis (the 18th largest media market in the United States).
