THIS WEEK'S adidas® OVC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

PLAYER

Trenton Moses, 3B • R-Jr., 6-4, 228 • Advance, Mo. • Southeast Missouri

In four games last week Moses hit .692 (9-for-13) with six runs scored, two doubles, a home run, six RBI and a stolen base and Southeast Missouri State went 3-1 overall and locked up the No. 2 seed (and a first round bye) for this week's OVC Tournament. The junior had a 1.077 slugging percentage and .722 on-base percentage for the week and finished the regular season hitting .405, the first Redhawk player to do that since the 2003 season. Moses started the week by going 3-for-4 with a run scored and two RBI in a non-conference loss at Ole Miss. He followed that game up with another three-hit performance in the first game of the Eastern Illinois series, going 3-for-4 with two runs scored, a double and RBI. In game two against EIU he was 1-for-3 with a run scored, a double and a RBI and capped the series sweep of the Panthers by going 2-for-2 with two runs scored, two walks, an opposite field home run and two RBI. This marks the third time this season Moses has been named OVC Player of the Week.

Others Nominated: Greg Bachman, Austin Peay; Zach Borenstein, Eastern Illinois; Richie Rodriguez, Eastern Kentucky; Erik Underwood, Jacksonville State; Taylor Davis, Morehead State; Zach Noonan, Murray State; Chad Hayes, Tennessee Tech; Drew Mason, UT Martin.

PITCHER

Todd Hornsby, RHP • Jr., 6-4, 220 • Clay, Ala. • Jacksonville State

Hornsby earned his fourth OVC Pitcher of the Week honor of the season after setting the OVC single-season saves record last week. The junior recorded his 13th save of the season in game one of Friday's doubleheader, breaking the record of 12 previously held by two Eastern Kentucky players. In that game Hornsby entered the game in the seventh inning with JSU holding a 6-3 lead and pitched the final three frames, not allowing a hit while striking out two batters to earn the save. In the second game of Friday's doubleheader he entered the game with his team clinging to a 7-6 lead and needed just 10 pitches to record three outs and pick up his 14th save of the season. Overall Morehead State hit just .077 in four innings against Hornsby, who has not walked a batter in his last 9.2 innings of work on the mound. The junior has also not allowed an earned run in his last nine appearances, a stretch of 23.2 innings.

Others Nominated: Jeremy Dobbs, Austin Peay; Brad LaBruyere, Southeast Missouri.

All-Time OVC Record: 22-68

TEAM NOTES

Austin Peay (34-24, 17-6 OVC): After failing to make the OVC Tournament each of the past two seasons, Austin Peay not only got back in the tournament but won the regular season (its sixth title and first since 2007) and tournament championship along the way...Overall it marked the fourth OVC Tournament Championship for the Governors, who went on to the Atlanta Regional in the NCAA Championship... There the Govs knocked off host Georgia Tech in its first game but lost to Mississippi State and Georgia Tech on the following two days to be eliminated...In beating Georgia Tech 2-1 in the opener, OVC Tournament Jack Snodgrass scattered seven hits over seven innings, allowing just one run while striking out three and picking up the victory; Snodgrass finished the year with a 3.50 E.R.A., tops among starters on the team...Normally a starter Zach Toney entered that game in relief and pitched the final 1.1 innings, picking up his second save of the season...Junior Jeremy Dobbs was named OVC Pitcher of the Year in 2011 after going 9-3 overall with 87 strikeouts in 90.1 innings of work (including an appearance in the NCAA Regional)...Head coach Gary McClure picked up his fifth OVC Coach of the Year award, the second-most in league history (behind only the seven won by Murray State's Johnny Reagan); McClure ended the year with 712 career victories and is now only 64 away from Reagan's all-time OVC record...Austin Peay made its 21st appearance in the OVC Tournament this year, second all-time to only EKU (27 appearances)...By winning the tournament after not appearing in it the previous season, Austin Peay became only the second team to accomplish that feat (Tennessee Tech in 2001 was the other)...Following the year catcher Matt Wollenzin was named a first-team Freshman All-American by the NCBWA; In 44 games this season he hit .343 with 36 hits, 18 runs and 20 RBI...Teammate Jordan Hankins was named a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball newspaper; Hankins led APSU in batting (.351) with 66 hits, 15 doubles and 31 RBI.

Eastern Illinois (18-33, 9-12 OVC): Eastern Illinois entered the final week of the season needing just one OVC victory to lock up a berth in the OVC Tournament field for the 13th time in the last 15 years...But at Southeast Missouri the Panthers were unable to come up with the needed win, losing by margins of 9-5, 9-6 and 8-7...That left Eastern Illinois in seventh place in the OVC standings, just .007 points out of sixth place (which would have put them in the tournament field)...EIU finished the season by losing eight of its last 10 (eight of which were on the road) and 11 of its last 15 overall...Zach Borenstein finished the season by leading the Panthers in hitting (.349) while adding seven home runs and 29 RBI; the junior eclipsed the 100 RBI mark for his career, and is just 18 shy of cracking the EIU Top 10 lists...Ben Thoma had the team lead with 11 home runs and 37 RBI...Despite posting a 10.23 E.R.A. in the weekend series at Southeast Missouri, the Panthers pitching staff finished the year leading the OVC in team E.R.A. (4.56)...That included Brent McNeil who led the OVC in E.R.A. at 2.18; McNeil appeared in 21 games, pitching 53.2 innings and allowing just 13 earned runs....He started his only game of the season on Saturday in the season finale; he surrendered his first earned run in 24.1 innings (since April 16) in that game...Matt Miller ended the year with a team-high seven saves.

Eastern Kentucky (21-36, 11-13 OVC): Despite not playing an OVC series the last weekend of the regular season, EKU was able to secure a spot in the OVC Tournament field as others teams lost, giving the Colonels the No. 5 overall seed...The team qualified for the OVC Tournament for the 27th time in its history (in the 33-year old event); the 27 appearances is an OVC all-time record...After not appearing in the tournament in 2008 or 2009, the Colonels were back in the field for the second year in a row...The team did not stay long in Jackson, however, losing its first two games and being eliminated by UT Martin on the second day of the event...Richie Rodriguez finished the season leading the team in hitting with a .357 average in 57 games; Rodriguez had 82 hits, 14 doubles, 5 triples and 2 home runs on the season to go along with his team-high 19 stolen bases...Stephen Hefler was named a first-team All-OVC selection as a pitcher after going 7-5 with a 3.77 E.R.A. in 88.1 innings on the season...Third baseman Bryan Soloman, the OVC Rookie of the Year, was named a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball newspaper following the season; Soloman hit .310 with 66 hits, 29 runs, 17 doubles, 9 home runs and 40 RBI in 57 games.

Jacksonville State (36-23, 14-9 OVC): Despite sweeping Morehead State to conclude the regular season, Jacksonville State finished a half a game out of second place in the OVC, just missing out on a first round bye in the OVC Tournament...The Gamecocks would win its first two games at the tournament, beating UT Martin and No. 2 seed Southeast Missouri, before falling to Austin Peay...Jax State would battle out of the loser's bracket into the Championship Round but lost to Austin Peay 7-3 in the Championship game and being unable to defend its 2010 title...Overall it was the eighth-straight appearance in the tournament for JSU, who is 22-11 all-time in the event...Jax State did reach the 30-win plateau on the year, doing so for the ninth-straight season, which is tied for the longest stretch in school history...Junior closer Todd Hornsby finished the season with 15 saves, which established a new OVC single-season record, breaking the previous mark of 12; Hornsby now has 20 saves in two seasons, 11 off the OVC career mark...Overall on the year Hornsby made 30 appearances, going 5-4 overall with a 2.16 E.R.A. and the 15 saves; he struck out 45 in 58.1 innings of work...Coty Blanchard was named a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball newspaper following the season; Blanchard hit .335 with 78 hits, 16 doubles and 32 RBI during the season...Sam Eberle led the team in hitting, batting .356 on the season with eight home runs and 54 RBI.

Morehead State (10-39, 6-16 OVC): Morehead State entered the final weekend of the regular season having already been eliminated from OVC Tournament play...The Eagles had the tough task of traveling to defending tournament champion and preseason favorite Jacksonville State to end the year, getting swept by the Gamecocks...For the last week of the season (which also included a Monday game with Murray State) junior catcher Taylor Davis hit .571 (8-for-14) with two doubles, three runs scored, a home run and eight RBI...Davis finished the season with an OVC-best .414 batting average in 47 games and earned All-OVC first-team honors...Davis also led the OVC in hits/game (1.53), home runs/game (0.28), total bases/game (2.72), slugging (.736) and on-base percentage (.510)...Davis also ended the season with a 16-game hitting streak, which was the longest active streak in the Conference...Teammate Andrew Deeds ended the year as the OVC leader in triples/game (0.14); Deeds ended the year with 25 multiple-hit games, the most in the OVC.

Murray State (19-32, 9-13 OVC): Entering the final week of the season Murray State needed to win all of its games and get a little help from some other teams if it wanted to make the OVC Tournament field...The Thoroughbreds started the right way, sweeping a Friday doubleheader (winning each game by one run) from Tennessee Tech to stay alive...On Sunday the 'Breds fell behind 9-0 after three innings but managed to make the game 10-8 before falling by that margin and coming up just short of making its 21st appearance in the OVC Tournament...Brandon Elliott led the team in hitting, batting .384 in 45 total games; he had 61 hits, scored 40 runs, had 11 doubles and 22 RBI...Paul Ritzheimer was second on the squad with a .336 average while Zach Noonan hit .335...Jake Donze had four complete games to lead the 'Breds pitching staff; Donze was 6-5 on the season with 52 strikeouts in 80.1 innings of work.

Southeast Missouri (34-22, 14-8 OVC): Southeast Missouri State finished the regular season with a three-game sweep of Eastern Il-

Illinois to finish 14-8 in OVC play and earn the No. 2 seed and a first round bye in the OVC Tournament field; it marked the first time in the seven-year history of the first round bye that the Redhawks have finished first or second in the OVC...Overall Southeast appeared in the OVC Tournament for the 17th-consecutive year, which extends its OVC record; the team has appeared in the tournament in every year under head coach Mark Hogan...At the Championship the Redhawks were topped by Jacksonville State in its first game and had to battle out of the loser's bracket, only to fall to JSU in the game prior to the Championship Round... The team did finish the year with 34 victories, third-most in program history...Hogan reached another milestone in his career at the end of the regular season when he won his 500th game as the Redhawks head coach; overall Hogan has 888 victories in 30 years as a head coach... Redshirt junior third baseman Trenton Moses was named the OVC Player of the Year, the first Redhawk to earn the award since 2001...Moses finished the regular season hitting .405, the first Southeast player to do that since 2003...Following the tournament Moses ended the year hitting .395 with 70 hits, 44 runs, 14 doubles, 11 home runs and 53 RBI and was named an All-American by Louisville Slugger/Collegiate Baseball News and College Baseball Lineup... As a team Southeast led the OVC in team batting average (.316).

SIU Edwardsville (28-24): SIUE ended its season by topping Evansville and then sweeping Eastern Kentucky a three-game series to end the year on an eight-game winning streak...The Cougars finished the season 28-24 overall, marking the first time the team ended the year above .500 since beginning its reclassification to Division I (the team was last above .500 in 2008, its last year of Division II)...SIUE finished the year 15-4 (.789) against OVC teams; had the team been eligible for the OVC regular season championship, it would have finished in first place...Instead the Cougars will have to wait until next season to claim a regular season crown, and it will not be eligible for postseason play until the 2013 season...Head coach Gary Collins, in his 33rd season at his alma mater, won his 1000th career game on the final Friday of the season, making him the 55th coach in NCAA history to reach that milestone; he is one of just 17 active coaches with 1,000 or more wins, finishing the 2011 season with 1,001 wins and a 1001-738-7 career record...Senior Spencer Patton finished the year 9-2 on the mound; the nine wins were the third most in a single-season in SIUE history...Patton also had 109 strikeouts, which was the second-most in SIUE single-season history...Outfielder Devin Caldwell was named Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American after the season.

Tennessee Tech (25-29, 12-12 OVC): Tennessee Tech was the No. 4 seed in the OVC Tournament this season after being 12-12 in OVC play during the season...The program appeared in the OVC Tournament for the 14th time and fourth year in a row...The Golden Eagles topped Eastern Kentucky in the first game of the tournament before losing to eventual champion Austin Peay in the second round; the Golden Eagles were then eliminated by Southeast Missouri the following day...All-OVC selection Casanova Donaldson led the team in hitting during the year (.327) while adding 70 hits, 10 doubles, 3 triples, 5 home runs and 36 RBI...Chad Oberacker, who was drafted for the second consecutive year following the season, hit .325 with 10 doubles, 10 home runs, 48 RBI and 14 stolen bases and also made 13 appearances on the mound, winning two games and striking out 47 in 46.1 innings of work...Oberacker was named a first-team All-OVC selection as a utility player...First baseman Zach Stephens was named a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball newspaper; Stephens hit .309 with 64 hits, 33 runs, 13 doubles, 10 home runs and 49 RBI.

UT Martin (20-36, 10-13 OVC): When all was said and done UT Martin overcame all odds to pull off an improbable victory over league champion Austin Peay on the final day of the regular season to clinch the sixth and final spot in the 2011 OVC Tournament field...UTM fell behind 5-0 to Austin Peay and trailed by that margin entering the seventh inning before the Skyhawk bats awoke and the team scored three times in the seventh and added four runs in the eighth inning and then withstood a APSU rally in the ninth by getting a double play to end the game...Shortly after the game was over Tennessee Tech held on to beat Murray State by two runs and then 30 minutes after the game had gone final, Southeast Missouri beat Eastern Illinois, giving UTM the tournament berth...It marked only the second OVC Tournament berth for the Skyhawks (who joined the league prior to the 1993 season), who last qualified for the event in 1996 (when the format was different)...UTM would lose its first game at the event (9-8 to Jacksonville State) but rebounded to beat Eastern Kentucky 6-2, marking its first-ever win in the event...The following day UTM would be eliminated by Southeast Missouri...The team finished the season with 10 OVC victories, which tied the program record also set in 2009...Following the season DH Phil Sorensen was named a Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball newspaper; Sorensen led the Skyhawks in batting (.340) while adding 50 hits, 15 doubles, four home runs and 33 RBI.

NOTES FROM AROUND THE LEAGUE

Austin Peay Claim Fourth OVC Tournament Crown: After not appearing in either the 2009 or 2010 OVC Tournament field (by finishing outside the top six), Austin Peay got back into the field this year after winning the OVC Regular Season Championship. It marked only the second time in league history that a team had failed to make the OVC Tournament field the previous year and then gone on to win the Championship in the following year (Tennessee Tech in 2001 was the other team). The Governors swept through the Championship by going 3-0 with wins over Tennessee Tech and Jacksonville State (twice). The NCAA Tournament appearance was the fourth all-time for Austin Peay who also appeared in the NCAAAs in 1996, 2005 and 2007. In this year's Atlanta Regional Austin Peay topped host Georgia Tech before losing to Mississippi State and then falling to the host Yellow Jackets. APSU is now 2-8 all-time in the NCAA Tournament.

Harper Named to All-Regional Team: Austin Peay State University sophomore shortstop Reed Harper was named to the Atlanta All-Region team, announced Sunday following the conclusion of the regional tournament. Harper, of Clarksville, led the Govs offense with three hits and a .273 batting average during the tournament. However, he was most impressive defensively where he did not commit an error in 16 chances, including having a hand in each of the team's three turned double plays. Harper becomes the fourth Govs player to receive all-region recognition, joining a group of three players named to the 2007 Nashville All-Region squad.

More on the OVC Tournament Championship: This season marked the 33rd OVC Baseball Tournament, as the first event was held in 1979. Prior to the 1979 event, the winner of each division matched up in a three-game series to determine who the OVC champion was in that season. Since 2001 the tournament has been played at a neutral site (prior to that, the event was held at the No. 1 seed and regular season champion). From 2001-09 that neutral site was Brooks Stadium in Paducah, Ky.; the 2010 and 2011 events were each played at Pringles Park in Jackson, Tenn. and the 11th time the event has been held at a neutral site.

Austin Peay Wins 2011 OVC Regular Season Championship: After not qualifying for the OVC Tournament (by finishing in the top six in the league) each of the last two seasons, Austin Peay completed quite the turnaround in 2011 going from seventh place (8-13) in the OVC to being regular season champions in 2011 (17-6). It marks the sixth time since divisional play ended that Austin Peay has been the regular season champions; the team also won in 1994, 1996, 2003, 2004 and 2007. Austin Peay also claimed divisional crowns in 1971 and 1984; in 1971 the Govs went on to win a three-game playoff series and were deemed "OVC Champions" but in 1984 the team lost in the four-team OVC Tournament and was not deemed the "champion" that season.

More on Austin Peay: After not qualifying for the six-team OVC Tournament last year, Austin Peay rebounded to win the OVC Regular Season Championship this season. The Governors are one of just two OVC teams to fail to qualify for the tournament one year (meaning they finished seventh or worst in the league) and win the regular season the following year. The other team was Samford in 2006. Only once had a team failed to make the OVC Tournament one year and gone on to win the Tournament Championship the following year (Tennessee Tech in 2001).

Southeast Missouri's Moses, Austin Peay's Dobbs and McClure, EKU's Solomon Take Home Top OVC Honors: Southeast Missouri State third baseman Trenton Moses was named the 2011 OVC Player of the Year, Austin Peay junior Jeremy Dobbs was named OVC Pitcher of the Year, Eastern Kentucky's Bryan Solomon was named OVC Rookie of the Year and Austin Peay's head coach Gary McClure took home OVC Coach of the Year honors (the fifth time he has won the award) following the 2011 season. The awards are voted on by the league's head coach and sports information directors. Regular-season champion Austin Peay had the most first-team selections (3), while Eastern Kentucky, Jacksonville State and Southeast Missouri had two selections apiece. Jacksonville State led the way with five second-team selections and four All-Freshman Team picks. Overall Jacksonville State's 11 selections across the three teams were the most of any school, one more than Austin Peay's 10 picks.

OVC Tournament History: This season marked the 33rd OVC Baseball Tournament, as the first event was held in 1979. Prior to the 1979 event, the winner of each division matched up in a three-game series to determine who the OVC champion was in that season. Since 2001 the tournament has been played at a neutral site (prior to that, the event was held at the No. 1 seed and regular season champion). From 2001-09 that neutral site was Brooks Stadium in Paducah, Ky.; the 2010 event was the first at Pringles Park in and this year is the 11th time the event has been held at a neutral site.

Nine Selected in MLB First-Year Player Draft: After a record 13 OVC players were selected in the 2010 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, nine players were selected in 2011. Below is a list of those nine players.

A record six OVC players were named to the Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American Team by Collegiate Baseball newspaper while the OVC had one selection each on the NCBWA Team (a first for the league in the three-year history of that award) and the Baseball America Team (a first since the 2006 season).

OVC in NCAA Statistical Leaders: In the final set of NCAA baseball statistical leaders, Southeast Missouri State finished the year ranked 10th nationally in batting average (.316) and eighth in home runs (1.02/game) and slugging (.474). Morehead State was 11th in doubles (2.27/game) while Jacksonville State was 12th in batting average (.314). Individually Morehead State catcher Taylor Davis was eighth in batting (.414), sixth in slugging (.736) and ninth in on-base percentage (.510). Teammate Andrew Deeds was eighth in triples (0.14/game) while Jacksonville State reliever Todd Hornsby was 10th in saves (15).

SIUE's Patton Earns Rawlings Gold Glove: SIUE senior pitcher Spencer Patton earned a Rawlings Gold Glove as chosen by the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA). The prestigious awards are chosen by the ABCA All-American Committee for each Division. All Gold Glove Award recipients distinguished themselves as the best defensive players at their respective positions throughout the course of the season. Patton is the only pitcher on the Division I list as the ABCA chooses only one player at each position. The right-hander did not commit an error this past season in 27 total chances. Patton finished 9-3 in his senior season with a 2.55 earned run average. He struck out 109 hitters in 88 1/3 innings.

UT Martin Qualifies for OVC Tournament For First Time Since 1996: With a win on the final day of the season (and some help from Southeast Missouri and Tennessee Tech), UT Martin clinched a spot in the 2011 OVC Tournament field. It marked only the second time the Skyhawks had qualified for the Championship since the program joined the league prior to the 1993 season. UTM had previously only been in the field in 1996, a tournament that was played under a different format than the league currently uses. UTM went 1-2 in the tournament, winning its first-ever game in the event.

Southeast Missouri Makes Record 17th Straight OVC Tournament Appearance: Southeast Missouri State appeared in its 17th straight OVC Baseball Tournament in 2011, which is an all-time OVC record for consecutive appearances. The Redhawks set the record three years ago, passing Eastern Kentucky's mark of 13-straight appearances from 1981-93. Southeast Missouri has made the tournament field in every season under head coach Mark Hogan.

Eastern Kentucky Makes Record 27th OVC Tournament Appearance: Eastern Kentucky appeared in the OVC Tournament for the 27th time this season, which is an OVC all-time record. Austin Peay's 21 all-time appearances ranks second in league history.

Hornsby Sets OVC Single-Season Saves Mark: Jacksonville State closer Todd Hornsby recorded his 13th save of the season on May 20, which set a new OVC record, passing Eastern Kentucky's Joe Witten (1995) and Ryne Purcell (2010). Hornsby would finish the season with 15 saves, setting the all-time OVC record. The OVC career record is 31 held by Eastern Kentucky's Joe Witten (1995-98); Hornsby, who had five saves in 2010, would need 11 saves his senior season to tie that record.

UT Martin Wins OVC Team Sportsmanship Award: UT Martin was named the recipient of the 2010-11 OVC Team Sportsmanship Award for baseball. Voted on by the student-athletes and coaches of the respective sports, the team awards are bestowed upon the Conference squads deemed to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical behavior as outlined by the OVC and NCAA. Included in the areas for evaluation are the conduct of student-athletes, coaches, staff and administrators and fans. The 2010-11 school year marks the sixth year the team sportsmanship honors have been awarded. This marks the first award for the Skyhawks program. Implemented in August 2005, the team honors are the most recent addition to an awards program that recognizes and celebrates sportsmanship within the Conference. In 1998, the league established the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, presented annually to a male or female student-athlete of junior or senior status who best exemplifies the characteristics of the late Morehead State student-athlete, coach and administrator. Five years later, the Conference added the OVC Sportsmanship Award, presented annually to the member institution selected by its peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical behavior as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

Coaching Milestones: OVC coaches hit several victory milestones during the 2011 season. Jacksonville State head coach Jim Case (in his 10th season overall) won his 300th career game on March 13 with a victory over Southern Illinois. With a win over Austin Peay on April 2, Eastern Illinois head coach Jim Schmitz reached career victory No. 600 in his 24th year as a head coach. Austin Peay head coach Gary McClure, in his 24th season, reached win No. 700 on May 1 with a 24-5 victory over Morehead State. Southeast Missouri State head coach Mark Hogan won his 500th game at SEMO on May 20 while SIUE head coach Gary Collins won his 1,000 in his 33th season as a head coach also on May 20.

Hitting Streaks: Austin Peay sophomore Reed Harper had a 29-game hitting streak come to and end on the final day of the regular season. The streak was the longest in the OVC this year. The all-time OVC mark is 42 games by Austin Peay's Chuck Abbott, set in the 1996 season (that streak is the fifth longest in NCAA history). Although a full list of all-time OVC hitting streaks are not available, below are a list of streaks of 25 or more games over the last nine years (2003-present).

Morehead State's Davis Named to Johnny Bench Award Watch List: Morehead State junior catch Taylor Davis was one of 49 collegiate catchers named to the 2011 Johnny Bench Award Watch List. The award is given to the top catcher in the nation. Presented by the Greater Wichita Sports Commission, the award winner was announced on June 30, 2011.

Adamson Named Academic All-American: Southeast Missouri State senior outfielder Michael Adamson has named to the Capital One Academic All-America® Baseball Team as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Adamson was a third-team selection. There have been 30 OVC baseball players named Academic All-America all-time. Adamson is the 25th Southeast Missouri student-athlete to earn Academic All-America honors since the school joined the OVC in 1991 (the program has also had 10 additional Academic All-Americans prior to joining the OVC or in sports not sponsored by the league). Adamson carries a 3.78 grade point average in education. In 52 regular season games this season he hit .365 with 77 hits, 59 runs, 10 doubles, seven home runs, 36 RBI and 14 stolen bases. Adamson had a .512 slugging percentage and a .432 on-base percentage and did not commit an error in the field. He helped the Redhawks to a 32-20 overall record and 14-8 mark in the OVC, which earned the team the No. 2 seed for this week's OVC Tournament. To be eligible, a student-athlete must be a varsity starter or key reserve, maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.30 on a scale of 4.00, have reached sophomore athletic and academic standings at his/her current institution, be nominated by his/her sports information director and be a first-team selection at the district level. Since the program's inception in 1952, CoSIDA has bestowed Academic All-America honors on more than 15,000 student-athletes in Divisions I, II, III and NAIA, covering all NCAA championship sports.

Three OVC Baseball Student-Athletes Named to Capital One Academic All-District Team: Three Ohio Valley Conference baseball student-athletes have been named to the Capital One Academic All-District Teams as selected by CoSIDA. The selections included UT Martin senior Cody Terry and Southeast Missouri State senior Michael Adamson (both were first-team selections) and Austin Peay sophomore Reed Harper (who was a second-team selection). To be eligible for nomination, a student-athlete must be a sophomore academically and have at least a 3.30 GPA.

Moses Earns Pair of National Player of the Week Honors (April 25): Southeast Missouri State redshirt junior 3B Trenton Moses was named the Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and the National Hitter of the Week by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) on April 25-26. The honors came after hitting .778 (7-for-9) with six runs scored, a double, four home runs and 11 RBI in three Southeast Missouri State games. Moses had a 2.222 slugging percentage and a .833 on-base percentage during the week, reaching base in 10-of-12 total plate appearances. Moses began the week by going 3-for-4 with three runs scored, two home runs, a walk and six RBI in a 13-7 victory over Arkansas State. In the first game of a doubleheader with Jacksonville State, Moses was 2-for-2 with two runs scored, a home run, two walks and three RBI in a 9-8 Redhawk victory. He finished out the twin bill by going 2-for-3 with a run, double, home run and two RBI. For the week his 11 RBI were almost half the total of the entire Redhawk team (23).

College Baseball Foundation National All-Star Lineup: Each week the College Baseball Foundation and Diamond Sports releases a "National All-Star Lineup" which gives accolades to the past week's top performers around the country. The "National All-Star Lineup" is nominated by college coaches, staff, and baseball media contacts. Below is a list of OVC players who have been honored by the CBF this season.

March 7 - Zach Noonan, Murray State
 April 4 - Jacob Rhodes, Murray State & Jim Schmitz, Eastern Illinois (600th win)
 April 25 - Trenton Moses, Southeast Missouri
 May 2 - Gary McClure, Austin Peay (700th win)
 May 25 - Gary Collins, SIUE (1000th win), Mark Hogan, Southeast Missouri (500th win)

JSU's Hornsby Added to NCBWA Stopper of the Year Mid-Season Watch List: Jacksonville State junior closer Todd Hornsby was one of 45 players named to the midseason watch list for the seventh annual National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Award, given to the top relief pitcher in all of Division I baseball. Hornsby is the OVC leader in saves and approaching the OVC single season record in that category. Of the 45 pitchers on the list, he is the lone representative from the OVC. Eastern Kentucky University senior closer Ryne Purcell was on the preseason watch list but not on the most updated list. Nominations for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award were made by baseball sports information/media relations contacts. At the conclusion of the regular season, the Division I national saves leader and four other relief pitching standouts will be selected as finalists and released Wednesday, June 1, prior to start of NCAA regional tournament competition.

OVC Players in Major League Baseball: Entering the 2011 season, there were five players from OVC schools on Major League Baseball Opening Day rosters. Austin Peay has the distinction of having four former players on teams including 2008 All-Star reliever George Sherrill (Atlanta Braves), reliever Matt Reynolds (Colorado Rockies), catcher A.J. Ellis (Los Angeles Dodgers) and relief pitcher Shawn Kelley (Seattle), who starts the season on the DL and should return in May or June. Former Morehead State pitcher Jon Rauch is now with Toronto and starts the season as the Blue Jays closer. One OVC school - Eastern Illinois - has two alumni who are coaching at the highest level of professional baseball. Former Panther Kevin Seitzer is the Kansas City Royals hitting coach with Tim Bogar is the Boston Red Sox third base coach.

2012 OVC Schedule to Switch to Friday-Saturday-Sunday Format: In February 2011 the OVC announced a change in its Conference series format for the 2012 season. Currently the OVC plays a three-game series spread over two days, with the teams playing a doubleheader on Saturday (with one of those games being a 7-inning game, the other a 9-inning affair) and a single 9-inning game on Sunday. Starting in 2012 the series schedule will move to a three-game series over three days (Friday-Saturday-Sunday), with a single 9-inning game being played each day. Games on Friday will begin no earlier than 3 p.m. local time and no later than 6 p.m. local time. The item was unanimously approved by the OVC Board of Presidents at its meeting in early February. The OVC was previously one of just six Division I Conferences that consistently played a three-game series over just two days. One of the biggest advantages of the new schedule is the improvement of student-athlete welfare. The new format will lessen the burden of long Saturday doubleheaders (that in the past could last up to 9-10 hours) and help protect the teams from an increased risk of injury. It will also give OVC programs a competitive advantage as it will allow them to use their ace pitchers (who will normally pitch during the Friday contest) during important mid-week contests with the appropriate amount of rest, thus improving the league's performance in those key matchups. Another advantage is the flexibility in playing the three-game series when weather becomes an issue. Previously when the Saturday doubleheader was rained out, the teams played a doubleheader on Sunday if possible and missed at least an entire game in the series. Should weather be a factor with the new schedule, teams could play a doubleheader on either Saturday or Sunday and avoid missing as many key Conference games.

NCAA Institutes Pace of Play Rules for 2011 Season: Last July the NCAA Baseball Rules Committee voted to mandate the use of a timing device and implemented penalties for non-compliance this season (after the rules were used experimentally last season). The rule will require pitchers to start their delivery in no more than 20 seconds without runners on base. Pitchers who do not comply initially receive a warning with additional violations resulting in a ball being added to the count of the current batter. If the batter is at fault for the pitch not being thrown in 20 seconds, a warning will be given initially and additional violations will add a strike to the count. Additionally, in non-televvised games, umpires will enforce a 90 second limit between innings. The new ruling allows conferences to choose to use a visible clock or assigned an umpire to administer the rules (in OVC games, the umpires will keep the clock).

College Baseball Gets New Bats for 2012: In NCAA baseball this season the Ball-Bat Coefficient of Restitution (BBCOR) standard has gone into effect (the standard was announced in Sept. 2008). The new BBCOR formula provides a better measure of the bat's performance and therefore allows the rules committee and bat testing laboratories to better predict field performance based on lab tests. The goal is that non-wood bats that meet this new standard will perform similarly to wood bats.

TTU's Oberacker Named Candidate for Lowe's Senior CLASS Award: Tennessee Tech senior All-American outfielder Chad Oberacker is one of 30 NCAA baseball student-athletes named as a candidate for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. The list of candidates follows this release. Oberacker, the preseason OVC Player of the Year, is the only returning All-American from the OVC last season. Despite being drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 19th round, the outfielder decided to return to school for one more season. Last year he was third nationally with a .452 batting average while setting OVC single-season records for hits (108) and doubles (29). An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

Six OVC Coaches Coaching at Their Alma Mater: This season six of the 10 OVC head baseball coaches are currently coaching at their alma maters. That list includes third-year head coach Jason Stein who played at Eastern Kentucky from 1992-95 and graduated in 1997. He played against Morehead State head coach Jay Sorg who was at MSU from 1992-94. Ironically in the 1994 season, Sorg was named OVC Player of the Week on April 11 while Stein earned the same honor on May 2. The other coaches currently at their alma mater are Austin Peay's Gary McClure (1987), Murray State Rob McDonald (1984), Southeast Missouri's Mark Hogan (1977) and SIUE's Gary Collins (1970).

Jacksonville State Picked as Preseason Favorite: Despite not having a preseason All-OVC selection, OVC head coaches still believed Jacksonville State was the top team in the league. After finishing 1.5 games out of first place in the regular season in 2010, JSU swept through the OVC Tournament, including besting regular season champion Tennessee Tech twice on its way to its third OVC Championship (2004, 2006, 2010) since joining the league in 2004. The Gamecocks did lose five positional starters from that team (three who were All-OVC selections). Jax State claimed four first-place votes and 59 total points to be picked as the favorites. Southeast Missouri finished next with three first-place votes and 55 points while Tennessee Tech, last year's regular season champions, were third with two first-place votes and 54 points. Eastern Illinois was picked fourth (36) and was followed by Eastern Kentucky (33), Murray State (28), Austin Peay (25), Morehead State (19) and UT Martin (10).

TTU's Oberacker, EIU's Hoekstra Earn Preseason OVC Player/Pitcher of the Year Honors: Tennessee Tech senior All-American outfielder Chad Oberacker was named OVC Preseason Player of the Year while Eastern Illinois junior hurler Mike Hoekstra was tabbed OVC Preseason Pitcher of the Year in a vote of OVC head coach. Oberacker is the only returning All-American from the OVC last season. Despite being drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 19th round, the outfielder decided to return to school for one more season. Last year he was third nationally with a .452 batting average while setting OVC single-season records for hits (108) and doubles (29). Hoekstra started last season as EIU's No. 3 pitcher on paper and finished the season with a team-best 4.16 E.R.A. while winning four games in 11 starts. Hoekstra had a pair of complete games and a shutout on his resume during the season and walked only five batters in 67 innings of work (a mark that set a new OVC single-season record and ranked him first nationally in walks allowed per nine innings - 0.67).

SIU Edwardsville Joins the OVC: On July 1 Southern Illinois University Edwardsville became the 11th member of the Ohio Valley Conference. SIU Edwardsville, who is in the reclassification process to Division I, will begin regular season competition in the OVC next season (2011-12) and will be eligible for postseason competition in 2012-13. The exception is the SIUE softball program, which will be eligible for both regular season and tournament competition this year; the softball program was the department's women's sport designee to be fast-tracked to Division I, making it eligible to compete at Division I prior to other SIUE sports. SIUE is located in Edwardsville, Ill., which is just northeast of St. Louis (the 18th largest media market in the United States).

Belmont Also Joins the OVC: On May 13, 2011 the OVC announced that Belmont University is joining the Ohio Valley Conference beginning with the 2012-13 season (they will compete for the final time in the Atlantic Sun in 2011-12). Belmont, located in Nashville, will become the 12th member of the OVC, marking the first time the league has ever had 12 members. Belmont's campus is just nine miles north of the OVC's Brentwood headquarters and the University will be the second OVC school located in Nashville, joining Tennessee State. Belmont competes in 17 sports (8 men's sports and 9 women's sports), 16 of which will compete in the OVC (the exception being men's soccer which is not sponsored by the OVC).
