THIS WEEK'S adidas® OVC PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

PLAYER

John Hogan, 1B • So., 5-11, 227 • St. Louis, Mo. • Austin Peay

Hogan earned his second Player of the Week honor in the past three weeks after hitting .353 (6-for-17) with three runs scored, three home runs and six RBI in four games last week. The sophomore slugger had an .882 slugging percentage and a .353 on-base percentage as Austin Peay locked up the OVC regular season championship (the team's first since 2007) by winning two of three games from Southeast Missouri. After homering in the team's non-conference game with Evansville last Wednesday, Hogan started the SEMO series by going 2-for-4 with another home run. His home run led off the sixth inning and helped start the team to a 6-5 come-from-behind victory. In the finale on Sunday the first baseman was 2-for-4 with four RBI. He hit a three-run home run in the sixth inning of that game and later added a RBI-single as his team won 7-5. Hogan did not strikeout during the week, was perfect in the field in 33 chances and also stole his first base of the season. His award marks the third-straight week a Governors player has taken home the honor.

Others Nominated: Zach Borenstein, Eastern Illinois; Kyle Bluestein, Jacksonville State; Daniel Pugh, Morehead State; Trenton Moses, Southeast Missouri; Chad Oberacker, Tennessee Tech; Chase Okey, UT Martin.

CO-PITCHER

Jon Dicus, RHP • Sr., 6-0, 186 • Rochelle, Ill. • Southeast Missouri

Dicus tossed the first complete game of the season for Southeast Missouri (and first for the program since March 2010) as the Redhawks topped first place Austin Peay 3-2 in game two of Saturday's doubleheader. The senior scattered nine hits over seven innings while striking out six and not walking an APSU batter to improve to 4-4 on the season. Dicus gave up a leadoff double which led to the first run of the game for the Governors but the senior prevented any further damage in the inning, striking out the final two batters of the frame after the bases were loaded. After Austin Peay scratched out another run in the third inning, Dicus gave up just four hits to the remaining 14 batters in picking up the win.

CO-PITCHER

Cullen Park, RHP • Jr., 6-3, 195 • Forest City, N.C. • Tennessee Tech

Park made three relief appearances, pitching eight total innings and picking up a win and a save as Tennessee Tech completed a perfect 4-0 week and clinched a spot in the OVC Tournament field with a three-game sweep of UT Martin. For the week he allowed only two hits and two walks while striking out nine batters. The junior started the week by pitching the final 2.1 innings and picking up the save against Lipscomb. Park did not allow a hit in that game and struck out two as TTU won 12-9. In the first game of Saturday's doubleheader with UTM, Park pitched two innings and struck out a batter. He returned in the nightcap of the twin bill to toss 3.2 innings of relief, allowing only one hit and striking out six as he picked up the victory in the Golden Eagles 8-7, 12-inning victory. He is the third different Tennessee Tech player to earn Pitcher of the Week honors this season.

Others Nominated: Jeremy Dobbs, Austin Peay; Brent McNeil, Eastern Illinois; Stephen Hefler, Eastern Kentucky; Todd Hornsby, Jacksonville State; Garrick Whittle, Morehead State.

TEAM NOTES

Austin Peay (27-21, 15-5 OVC): With two wins over Southeast Missouri this weekend Austin Peay claimed the 2011 OVC Championship and the No. 1 seed in the OVC Baseball Tournament...This comes after the Governors had failed to qualify for the last two OVC Tournaments...The title is the seventh overall for Austin Peay (eighth if you count the South Divisional title in 1984; however, that year the team lost in the OVC Tournament for the right to be called overall OVC Champion)...The Gobs are 15-5 in OVC play and have not lost an OVC series this season (they split with Murray State in a rain-shortened series to open the season)...Sophomore SS Reed Harper had hits in each of APSU's game last week to extend his hitting streak to 26 games, which is tops in the OVC this season (he also has a hit in 19-straight OVC contests, failing to get a hit only in his first OVC game of the season)...Sophomore 1B John Hogan hit .353 (6-for-17) with three runs scored, three home runs and six RBI last week to earn OVC Player of the Week honors...After homering in a non-conference game at Evansville during the week, Hogan led off the sixth inning of game one of the Southeast Missouri series, a blast that propelled the Gobs comeback in the 6-5 victory...Hogan also added a three-run home run in the final game of the series against the Redhawks; the sophomore did not strikeout during the week, stole a base (his first of the season) and did not commit an error in 33 chances in the field...Junior 3B Greg Bachman and freshman 2B Jordan Hankins each had six hits in the week's four games...Freshman catcher Matt Wollenzin's bases-loaded walk provided the game-winning run in APSU's Game 1 victory against Southeast Missouri...This week the Gobs will play at Lipscomb on Wednesday night and then travel to UT Martin for games on Friday and Saturday to conclude the regular season...As the No. 1 seed for the OVC Tournament, Austin Peay knows it has received a first round bye and will not play until the late game on Thursday night once the tournament starts in two weeks.

Eastern Illinois (17-30, 9-9 OVC): Eastern Illinois had the busiest week of most any OVC team, playing five total games including mid-week contests at Saint Louis and home against Illinois State before playing at future OVC for SIU Edwardsville over the weekend...The Panthers started the week by topping Saint Louis 5-2 on Tuesday night...EIU got off to a 4-0 after an RBI-triple by Jake Samuels and RBI-double by Shawn Ferguson...Christian Slaznik got his second victory of the season on the mound, scattering three hits and allowing just one run over five innings...The following day the team would lose its final home game of the season to Illinois State by a 5-2 margin...Against future OVC foe SIUE, the Panthers suffered a three-game sweep, losing games 10-1, 2-1 and 5-3...Pitcher Brent McNeil made three appearances during the week, pitching 3.1 innings and not allowing a run while striking out five; McNeil now has a 1.72 E.R.A. which is tops in the OVC...McNeil has not surrendered an earned run in his last eight appearances (17.2 innings; the last time McNeil allowed an earned run was on April 16 against Tennessee Tech...Sophomore Nick Priessman was the only Panther to have a multi-hit game in the series with SIU Edwardsville, posting two hits in the first and last game of the series...EIU only hit .209 as a team last week and only managed to bat .179 against the Cougars... Zach Borenstein paced the offense last week, hitting .333 (5-for-15) with three runs, a double and a home run...The Panther pitching staff continued to keep its E.R.A. low, posting a 3.38 ERA throughout the week with 26 strikeouts...With three OVC games to go, Eastern Illinois finds itself 9-9 in OVC play and currently in fifth place...The Panthers will play at Bradley on Tuesday and then head to Southeast Missouri for the key OVC series, needing wins to lockdown a berth in the OVC Tournament.

Eastern Kentucky (20-31, 11-13 OVC): Eastern Kentucky finished up its Conference schedule this past weekend with three games at Jacksonville State...The Colonels, who are now 11-13 in OVC play and in sixth place in the standings (having won five of its last seven OVC games), have a non-conference series this weekend, so they will be scoreboard watching while everyone else plays an OVC series...EKU currently holds a slight percentage points lead over seventh place UT Martin (.458 to .450), who still has three Conference games to go...This past week the Colonels topped Jax State 4-1 in the first game of the series before dropping the final two games by scores of 2-1 (in extra innings) and 13-6...Senior Stephen Hefler continued his hot streak by picking up the win in game one against JSU, his third consecutive victory for EKU...Hefler scattered five hits over 6.1 innings while striking out two and allowing just one run in running his season record to 7-4 and lowering his E.R.A. to 3.48, which is second in the OVC, but first among starting pitchers...In that win, SS Richie Rodriguez had three hits while Bryan Solomon added two hits and also scored two of his team's four runs...In the nine-inning loss in game two, Matt Harris started on the mound for EKU and allowed just four hits and one earned run over seven innings but did not factor into the decision...Dustin Dunlop had three hits in the game but Jacksonville State would win on a walk-off single by Michael Bishop in the bottom of the ninth...This week the Colonels will host Dayton on Tuesday night and then travel to future OVC foe SIU Edwardsville for games on Friday and Saturday.

Jacksonville State (30-21, 11-9 OVC): After losing a non-conference home-and-home two-game series with UAB to begin the week, Jacksonville State took care of business over the weekend, winning two of three from Eastern Kentucky to improve to 11-9 in OVC play, which puts the team in third place with three Conference games to go...Jax State, the defending tournament champions, has clinched a spot in the six-team OVC Tournament field...Sunday's win was the 30th of the season for JSU; the Gamecocks have now posted at least 30-wins or more for the ninth straight season, which is the longest such stretch in school history and that is currently the 20th longest active streak in the country...The Gamecocks opened the ECU series with a 4-1 loss, as the team managed just six hits and a seventh inning run in the game...The team had more timely hitting in game two of Saturday's doubleheader as Michael Bishop singled up the middle with one out in the ninth inning (in what was a scheduled seven-inning game) to give his team the one-run victory...Jax State has now posted 18 come-from-behind wins this season and nine final at-bat wins; the Gamecocks are also 21-3 when holding the opponents to 5-runs or less...On Sunday the bats finally came alive as JSU scored three times in the first inning on its way to a 13-6 victory; the team had 19 total hits in the game, the same number it had in the past three games combined...In that game OF Kyle Bluestein was 4-for-5 with five RBI; the for weekend Bluestein, who missed almost a month of action, hit .500 (5-for-10) with three runs scored, two doubles, a home run and the five RBI...Junior reliever Todd Hornsby appeared in two games last week, tossing 5.2 total innings and picking up a victory...Hornsby pitched the final 4.2 innings in Saturday's second game with Eastern Kentucky, striking out five and not walking a batter as JSU came back to win 2-1...Hornsby has not allowed an earned run in his last 19.2 innings (seven total appearances)...Junior Sam Eberle leads the team with 22 multiple-hit games and 13 multiple-RBI games...Eberle also now has 51 career multiple-hit games, which is tops among active Gamecock players, and 36 career multiple-RBI games (also a team-high)...Eberle hit his 28th career home run during the week, which is tied for 12th on the Gamecocks career home run list (tied with Jason Nunn)...Freshman Michael Bishop is batting .467 over the last five games and hit his first career home run on Sunday versus ECU...The Gamecock pitching staff allows just 3.20 walks per nine innings (440.2 IP), which is the lowest in the school's Division I history (since 1995)...Jacksonville State, the defending OVC Tournament champions, closes out the regular season at home this weekend with three games with Morehead State.

Morehead State (10-36, 6-13 OVC): Morehead State kept its season alive on Sunday with a doubleheader sweep of Murray State to improve to 6-12 in OVC play...That gave the Eagles three OVC wins in its last five games...Due to a scheduling conflict the team finished up its series with the Thoroughbreds on Monday and the Eagles came out on the short-end of the score, losing 9-6 and being eliminated from the possibility of making the OVC Tournament field...In the first two games of the series senior outfielder Daniel Pugh hit .556 (5-for-9) with four runs scored, three home runs and five RBI; the home runs were the first of the season for Pugh and came on his Senior Day...Catcher Taylor Davis increased his hitting streak to 13 games (third longest active

2011 OVC TOURNAMENT

This year marks the second at Pringles Park for the Ohio Valley Conference Baseball Championship. The tournament made its debut in Jackson, Tenn. in 2010 after nine years in Paducah, Ky. The 2011 OVC Baseball Championship will be held May 25-28 (29). Every game of the event can be seen live and on-demand at OVCSports.TV.

Pringles Park is the home of the Jackson Generals (formerly the West Tenn DiamondJaxx), the Double-A affiliate of the Seattle Mariners. The 6,000-seat natural grass stadium opened in 1998. The OVC and Pringles Park agreed to a three-year agreement in 2009, guaranteeing tournaments through 2012 will be held in Jackson.

This marks the 11th year the tournament has been held at a neutral site; prior to the 2001 season, the event was held at campus sites.

Last season Jacksonville State was 3-0 in its way to its third OVC Tournament Championship and first since the 2006 season. The Gamecocks topped Eastern Illinois and then Tennessee Tech twice to win the title.

The first official OVC Tournament was held in 1980; prior to that only playoff series between divisional winners were played.

Murray State (17-31, 7-12 OVC): Murray State did not have a mid-week contest last week but instead traveled to Morehead State for a doubleheader on Sunday and a single game on Monday (after a conflict on campus forced the games off the normal Saturday/Sunday schedule)...In Sunday's action the Thoroughbreds were swept by the Eagles, falling by scores of 9-5 and 9-7 to fall to 6-12 on the season...On Monday with the team in a must-win situation (or face elimination from the OVC Tournament field), Murray State came through with a 9-6 victory to keep its hopes of making the six-team field alive...Cody Larson had three hits and drove in three runs to lead the 'Bred attack...On the mound Luke Shuemaker went 6.2 innings and allowed nine hits and five runs while striking out six and walking only one in picking up the victory...Will Handlin pitched the final 2.1 frames on Monday to pick up his first save of the season...On Sunday MSU senior outfielders Elliot Frey and Zach Noonan made history as they became the ninth and 10th players in Murray State history to record 200 hits in a career...In Sunday's second game Jacob Rhodes had three hits while Travis Isaak had two hits and drove in two runs; that was Isaak's 11th multi-RBI game of the season (seventh-most in the OVC)...This week the Thoroughbreds will wrap-up the regular season with three homes games with Tennessee Tech on Friday and Saturday...The Thoroughbreds will need to sweep the Golden Eagles and hope that Eastern Illinois is swept at Southeast Missouri and that UT Martin wins no more than one game against Austin Peay so MSU can slip into the sixth spot in the standings.

Southeast Missouri (29-19, 11-8 OVC): Second place Southeast Missouri traveled to first place Austin Peay for a three-game series last week, winning one of three games and remaining in second place in the standings with just three OVC games to play...The Redhawks have now officially clinched a spot in the six-team OVC Tournament field which marks the 17th consecutive season they have done so, which extends what is already the all-time OVC record; the team has qualified in every year under head coach Mark Hogan...In game one against Austin Peay, Southeast Missouri led 4-0 after two innings before the Gavs rallied and took a lead only to see the Redhawks tie it at 5-5 in the top of the eighth; but in the ninth APSU would score with a bases loaded walk to win 6-5...The Redhawks would turn the tables in game two of the series as senior Jon Dicus tossed a complete game, the first for the program since March 2010...Dicus scattered nine hits over seven innings, allowed two runs and struck out six without walking a batter as the Redhawks won 3-2; he was named OVC Co-Pitcher of the Week for his efforts...In that game Southeast pushed across the winning run in the sixth inning on a wild pitch...The weekend ended with a 7-5 loss to Austin Peay, as the Gavs locked up the OVC Championship with the victory...For the week junior Trenton Moses hit .364 (4-for-11) with three runs scored, a home run and three RBI; his home run came in the first inning of game two of the series, giving the Redhawks the 2-0 lead...This week Southeast will play at Ole Miss on Tuesday night and return home to host Eastern Illinois (who currently sits in fifth place in the OVC standings) for a three-game series.

SIU Edwardsville (24-24): SIUE completed a perfect 4-0 record last week to even its record at .500 (24-24) for the first time this season...The team has now won four in a row and five of its last six...The Cougars started the week with a 10-9 victory over Indiana State; leading 10-7 entering the ninth inning, SIUE allowed the Sycamores to score twice in the final frame before Thad Hawkins got a flyout to end the game...This weekend the team hosted future OVC foe Eastern Illinois for a three-game set at the Simmons Baseball Complex and swept the Panthers by scores of 10-1, 2-1 and 5-3...SIUE, who will not play a full OVC schedule until next season, is now 12-4 this season against OVC opponents, which would put them in a tie for first place in the standings if they were eligible this season... After winning by nine runs in the first game on Saturday, the Cougars overcame a one-run deficit in game two by scoring two runs in the fourth inning when Zach Hawkins and Brett Keeler each had RBI singles in the frame...In that game Josh Malin tossed his third complete game of the season for SIUE...In Sunday's victory Spencer Patton tossed six innings to improve to 8-3 on the season; he struck out four Panther batters to move to 100 strikeouts on the season, the fourth SIUE player to accomplish that feat... This week the Cougars will host Evansville in a non-conference game on Tuesday before playing future OVC opponent Eastern Kentucky in a three-game set on Friday and Saturday.

Tennessee Tech (23-25, 11-10 OVC): After entering the week in seventh place in the OVC standings, Tennessee Tech completed a perfect 4-0 week with a three-game sweep of UT Martin this weekend to improve to 11-10 in Conference play and jump to fourth place in the standings with one weekend to play...The team also locked up a spot in the OVC Tournament field...The week opened with a 12-9 victory over Lipscomb, as the team scored five times in the sixth inning to go on to victory...In that game Austin Wulf had three hits and Evan Frazier and Devin Rivers each drove in three runs...In the first game of the UT Martin series the Golden Eagles scored five times in the third and four times in the fourth to grab a lead it would not relinquish in an 11-5 victory...The second game of Saturday's twin bill was scheduled for just seven innings but it would go 12 after Tech tied it in the bottom of the seventh with a sacrifice fly by Ben Burgess and won it (8-7) in the final frame on a single by Chad Hayes...Sunday's game would also go to extra innings as Tech would once again win by an 8-7 margin after a squeeze bunt by Trice Powers scored Chad Oberacker...Oberacker also got the victory on the mound, entering the game in relief in the fourth inning and pitching the final 7.1 innings, striking out nine batters and allowing just four hits and two runs...For the week Oberacker hit .500 (8-for-16) at the plate with four RBI and three stolen bases...Junior Cullen Park made three relief appearances last week, pitching 8.0 total innings and allowing only two hits and no runs while striking out nine; he picked up the save in the mid-week game with Lipscomb and the win in game two of the UTM series...Park was named OVC Co-Pitcher of the Week for his performance...Tennessee Tech will travel to Murray State for a three-game series this weekend.

UT Martin (18-31, 9-11 OVC): UT Martin entered the week tied for third in the OVC standings, having won seven of its last eight OVC games...But the Skyhawks had a rough week, getting swept in a non-conference doubleheader at Belmont by scores of 24-3 and 14-5 on Wednesday and then getting swept in a crucial OVC series at Tennessee Tech over the weekend...UTM lost game one to the Golden Eagles 11-5 and then suffered extra inning defeats in game two (8-7 in 12 innings - a game that was scheduled for just seven frames) and game three (8-7 in 11 innings)...With the losses the Skyhawks are now 9-11 in OVC play, which places them in seventh place with just three games remaining...UT Martin is now 2-3 in extra inning games this year and 8-9 in one-run games in 2011...Junior catcher Chase Okey hit .417 (5-for-12) during the week with two runs scored and four RBI; in game one at Tech he drove in three runs...Freshman Phil Sorensen hit .333 with a homer and four RBI this week, slugging .600 and reaching base at a .474 clip...Senior Trey Karlen also drove in four runs and led the team with seven runs scored this week...Senior Cody Terry became UT Martin's all-time hits leader in Game 2 of the Tennessee Tech series; by adding another hit on Sunday, he now has 220 career hits, passing Bryant Jones (2001-04) atop the career hits list...The Skyhawks got respectable production from its bullpen this weekend at Tennessee Tech including on Sunday when Alex Boshers tossed a career-best 9.2 innings in relief, allowing four earned runs and issuing zero walks...This week UT Martin will play at Arkansas on Tuesday, the team's last non-conference games of the regular season, before hosting league champion Austin Peay for three games on Friday and Saturday...UT Martin enters the week one of seven teams competing for the five remaining spots in the OVC Tournament field; the Skyhawks needs to win at least one game against Austin Peay, and get some help from other teams, if it hopes to make the field.

NOTES FROM AROUND THE LEAGUE

OVC Overview/This Week's Highlights: With one weekend to play the OVC race now has a regular season champion and four teams who have clinched a spot in the field, but the middle of the pack is tight and every game will be important for seeding this weekend...With a two-game to one series victory over Southeast Missouri, Austin Peay improved to 15-5 in OVC play and clinched its first OVC Regular Season Championship since 2007...This comes on the heels of the Governors not making the tournament field in each of the past two seasons...The Governors know they will be joined in the field by Southeast Missouri, defending tournament champion Jacksonville State and last year's OVC regular season champion Tennessee Tech (who if they are swept this weekend and end in a tie with Eastern Kentucky, would have the head-to-head tiebreaker)...That leaves two spots for four teams to compete for this weekend as Eastern Illinois, Eastern Kentucky, UT Martin and Murray State all have hopes of playing in the postseason...So far only Morehead State has been eliminated from contention...This weekend's matchups include Austin Peay at UT Martin, Southeast Missouri hosting Eastern Illinois, Morehead State at Jacksonville State and Tennessee Tech at Murray State...Eastern Kentucky, who is currently in sixth place in the standings, completed its OVC schedule last week and will have to scoreboard watch for the second-straight season to see if it will make the field (the Colonels play at future OVC foe SIUE this weekend).

Austin Peay Wins 2011 OVC Regular Season Championship: After not qualifying for the OVC Tournament (by finishing in the top six in the league) each of the last two seasons, Austin Peay completed quite the turnaround in 2011 going from seventh place (8-13) in the OVC to being regular season champions in 2011 (15-5 with 3 games remaining). It marks the sixth time since divisional play ended that Austin Peay has been the regular season champions; the team also won in 1994, 1996, 2003, 2004 and 2007. Austin Peay also claimed divisional crowns in 1971 and 1984; in 1971 the Gobs went on to win a three-game playoff series and were deemed "OVC Champions" but in 1984 the team lost in the four-team OVC Tournament and was not deemed the "champion" that season.

More on Austin Peay: After not qualifying for the six-team OVC Tournament last year, Austin Peay rebounded to win the OVC Regular Season Championship this season. The Governors are one of just two OVC teams to fail to qualify for the tournament one year (meaning they finished seventh or worst in the league) and win the regular season the following year. The other team was Samford in 2006. Only once had a team failed to make the OVC Tournament one year and gone on to win the Tournament Championship the following year (Tennessee Tech in 2001).

Morehead State's Davis Named to Johnny Bench Award Watch List: Morehead State junior catch Taylor Davis is one of 49 collegiate catchers who have been named to the 2011 Johnny Bench Award Watch List. The award is given to the top catcher in the nation. Presented by the Greater Wichita Sports Commission, the award winner will be announced on June 30, 2011.

OVC and Jackson Generals to Hold Youth Clinic in Conjunction with OVC Baseball Championship: The Ohio Valley Conference and the Jackson Generals will hold a free Youth Clinic in conjunction with this year's OVC Baseball Championship. The clinic will be held on Tuesday, May 24 (the day before the tournament begins) from 5-6:15 p.m. at Pringles Park. The clinic will feature OVC coaches and student-athletes interacting with youth in hitting, pitching and fielding drills. The clinic is free and open to boys and girls 12 years of age and under. All participants are asked to wear athletic attire (shorts, t-shirt, tennis shoes) and bring their own glove. Registration will take place at Pringles Park on May 24 (there is no pre-registration).

Three OVC Baseball Student-Athletes Named to Capital One Academic All-District Team: Three Ohio Valley Conference baseball student-athletes have been named to the Capital One Academic All-District Teams as selected by CoSIDA. The selections included UT Martin senior Cody Terry and Southeast Missouri State senior Michael Adamson (both were first-team selections) and Austin Peay sophomore Reed Harper (who was a second-team selection). For making the first-teams, Adamson and Terry will now appear on the national ballot for consideration for Academic All-America honors. To be eligible for nomination, a student-athlete must be a sophomore academically and have at least a 3.30 GPA.

Hornsby Ties OVC Single-Season Saves Mark: Jacksonville State closer Todd Hornsby recorded his 12th save of the season on April 30, which tied the OVC single season record. Hornsby now shares the OVC record with Eastern Kentucky's Joe Witten (1995) and Ryne Purcell (2010).

Coaching Milestones: OVC coaches have hit several victory milestones during the 2011 season while several others are nearing in on records. Jacksonville State head coach Jim Case (now in his 10th season overall) won his 300th career game on March 13 with a victory over Southern Illinois. With a win over Austin Peay on April 2, Eastern Illinois head coach Jim Schmitz reached career victory No. 600 in his 24th year as a head coach. Austin Peay head coach Gary McClure, now in his 24th season, reached win No. 700 on May 1 with a 24-5 victory over Morehead State. SIUE head coach Gary Collins is three victories away from 1,000 in his 33th season as a head coach.

Moses Earns Pair of National Player of the Week Honors (April 25): Southeast Missouri

State redshirt junior 3B Trenton Moses was named the Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper and the National Hitter of the Week by the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) on April 25-26. The honors came after hitting .778 (7-for-9) with six runs scored, a double, four home runs and 11 RBI in three Southeast Missouri State games. Moses had a 2.222 slugging percentage and a .833 on-base percentage during the week, reaching base in 10-of-12 total plate appearances. Moses began the week by going 3-for-4 with three runs scored, two home runs, a walk and six RBI in a 13-7 victory over Arkansas State. In the first game of a doubleheader with Jacksonville State, Moses was 2-for-2 with two runs scored, a home run, two walks and three RBI in a 9-8 Redhawk victory. He finished out the twin bill by going 2-for-3 with a run, double, home run and two RBI. For the week his 11 RBI were almost half the total of the entire Redhawk team (23).

College Baseball Foundation National All-Star Lineup: Each week the College Baseball Foundation and Diamond Sports releases a "National All-Star Lineup" which gives accolades to the past week's top performers around the country. The "National All-Star Lineup" is nominated by college coaches, staff, and baseball media contacts. Below is a list of OVC players who have been honored by the CBF this season.

March 7 - Zach Noonan, Murray State

April 4 - Jacob Rhodes, Murray State & Jim Schmitz, Eastern Illinois (600th win)

April 25 - Trenton Moses, Southeast Missouri

May 2 - Gary McClure, Austin Peay (700th win)

JSU's Hornsby Added to NCBWA Stopper of the Year Mid-Season Watch List: Jacksonville State junior closer Todd Hornsby was one of 45 players named to the midseason watch list for the seventh annual National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association Stopper of the Year Award, given to the top relief pitcher in all of Division I baseball. Hornsby is the OVC leader in saves and approaching the OVC single season record in that category. Of the 45 pitchers on the list, he is the lone representative from the OVC. Eastern Kentucky University senior closer Ryne Purcell was on the preseason watch list but not on the most updated list. Nominations for the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award were made by baseball sports information/media relations contacts. At the conclusion of the regular season, the Division I national saves leader and four other relief pitching standouts will be selected as finalists and released Wednesday, June 1, prior to start of NCAA regional tournament competition. The NCBWA's All-America Committee then will select the winner, with this year's recipient to be announced in Omaha on the opening day of the College World Series on June 18.

Pringles Park to Host 2011 OVC Baseball Championship: For the second year in a row Pringles Park in Jackson, Tenn. will host the Ohio Valley Conference Baseball Championship. The Championship was held there for the first time last year as part of a three-year contract with the venue, which is the home of the Jackson Generals (formerly the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx), the AA affiliate of the Seattle Mariners. This year the six-team, double-elimination tournament will be held May 25-29 and marks the 32nd OVC Baseball Championship. The first elimination style tournament was held in 1980, most usually being played at the site of the regular season champion. Beginning in 2001 the tournament switched to a neutral site for the first time (and was held at Brooks Stadium in Paducah, Ky. for nine years). Pringles Park opened in 1998 and has a seating capacity of 6,000. The venue hosted the 1999 Southern League All-Star Game and will also host that event in 2011. Pringles Park also has luxury suites, a video board and merchandise shop that will be used for the championship. Jackson, Tenn. is located 130 miles from Nashville and 77.2 miles from Memphis on Interstate 40. Tickets for the event will be $10 per day or $30 for an all-session pass (up to 11 total games). There is also an $8 a day rate for students/faculty of OVC-member schools or groups. All seats at the 6,000-seat park are general admission for the OVC Championship. Fans can purchase tickets in person at the Generals box office or by calling (731) 988-5299.

OVC Players in Major League Baseball: Entering the 2011 season, there were five players from OVC schools on Major League Baseball Opening Day rosters. Austin Peay has the distinction of having four former players on teams including 2008 All-Star reliever George Sherrill (Atlanta Braves), reliever Matt Reynolds (Colorado Rockies), catcher A.J. Ellis (Los Angeles Dodgers) and relief pitcher Shawn Kelley (Seattle), who starts the season on the DL and should return in May or June. Former Morehead State pitcher Jon Rauch is now with Toronto and starts the season as the Blue Jays closer. One OVC school - Eastern Illinois - has two alumni who are coaching at the highest level of professional baseball. Former Panther Kevin Seitzer is the Kansas City Royals hitting coach with Tim Bogar is the Boston Red Sox third base coach.

2012 OVC Schedule to Switch to Friday-Saturday-Sunday Format: In February 2011 the OVC announced a change in its Conference series format for the 2012 season. Currently the OVC plays a three-game series spread over two days, with the teams playing a doubleheader on Saturday (with one of those games being a 7-inning game, the other a 9-inning affair) and a single 9-inning game on Sunday. Starting in 2012 the series schedule will move to a three-game series over three days (Friday-Saturday-Sunday), with a single 9-inning game being played each day. Games on Friday will begin no earlier than 3 p.m. local time and no later than 6 p.m. local time. The item was unanimously approved by the OVC Board of Presidents at its meeting in early February. The OVC was previously one of just six Division I Conferences that consistently played a three-game series over just two days. One of the biggest advantages of the new schedule is the improvement of student-athlete welfare. The new format will lessen the burden of long Saturday doubleheaders (that in the past could last up to 9-10 hours) and help protect the teams from an increased risk of injury. It will also give OVC programs a competitive advantage as it will allow them to use their ace pitchers (who will normally pitch during the Friday contest) during important mid-week contests with the appropriate amount of rest, thus improving the league's performance in those key matchups. Another advantage is the flexibility in playing the three-game series when weather becomes an issue. Previously when the Saturday doubleheader was rained out, the teams played a doubleheader on Sunday if possible and missed at least an entire game in the series. Should weather be a factor with the new schedule, teams could play a doubleheader on either Saturday or Sunday and avoid missing as many key Conference games.

NCAA Institutes Pace of Play Rules for 2011 Season: Last July the NCAA Baseball Rules Committee voted to mandate the use of a timing device and implemented penalties for non-compliance this season (after the rules were used experimentally last season). The rule will require pitchers to start their delivery in no more than 20 seconds without runners on base. Pitchers who do not comply initially receive a warning with additional violations resulting in a ball being added to the count of the current batter. If the batter is at fault for the pitch not being thrown in 20 seconds, a warning will be given initially and additional violations will add a strike to the count. Additionally, in non-televvised games, umpires will enforce a 90 second limit between innings. The new ruling allows conferences to choose to use a visible clock or assigned an umpire to administer the rules (in OVC games, the umpires will keep the clock).

College Baseball Gets New Bats for 2012: In NCAA baseball this season the Ball-Bat Coefficient of Restitution (BBCOR) standard has gone into effect (the standard was announced in Sept. 2008). The new BBCOR formula provides a better measure of the bat's performance and therefore allows the rules committee and bat testing laboratories to better predict field performance based on lab tests. The goal is that non-wood bats that meet this new standard will perform similarly to wood bats.

TTU's Oberacker Named Candidate for Lowe's Senior CLASS Award: Tennessee Tech senior All-American outfielder Chad Oberacker is one of 30 NCAA baseball student-athletes named as a candidate for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as an NCAA Division I senior and have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. The list of candidates follows this release. Oberacker, the preseason OVC Player of the Year, is the only returning All-American from the OVC last season. Despite being drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 19th round, the outfielder decided to return to school for one more season. Last year he was third nationally with a .452 batting average while setting OVC single-season records for hits (108) and doubles (29). An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities.

Six OVC Coaches Coaching at Their Alma Mater: This season six of the 10 OVC head baseball coaches are currently coaching at their alma maters. That list includes third-year head coach Jason Stein who played at Eastern Kentucky from 1992-95 and graduated in 1997. He played against Morehead State head coach Jay Sorg who was at MSU from 1992-94. Ironically in the 1994 season, Sorg was named OVC Player of the Week on April 11 while Stein earned the same honor on May 2. The other coaches currently at their alma mater are Austin Peay's Gary McClure (1987), Murray State Rob McDonald (1984), Southeast Missouri's Mark Hogan (1977) and SIUE's Gary Collins (1970).

Jacksonville State Picked as Preseason Favorite: Despite not having a preseason All-OVC selection, OVC head coaches still believed Jacksonville State was the top team in the league. After finishing 1.5 games out of first place in the regular season in 2010, JSU swept through the OVC Tournament, including besting regular season champion Tennessee Tech twice on its way to its third OVC Championship (2004, 2006, 2010) since joining the league in 2004. The Gamecocks did lose five positional starters from that team (three who were All-OVC selections). Jax State claimed four first-place votes and 59 total points to be picked as the favorites. Southeast Missouri finished next with three first-place votes and 55 points while Tennessee Tech, last year's regular season champions, were third with two first-place votes and 54 points. Eastern Illinois was picked fourth (36) and was followed by Eastern Kentucky (33), Murray State (28), Austin Peay (25), Morehead State (19) and UT Martin (10).

TTU's Oberacker, EIU's Hoekstra Earn Preseason OVC Player/Pitcher of the Year Honors: Tennessee Tech senior All-American outfielder Chad Oberacker was named OVC Preseason Player of the Year while Eastern Illinois junior hurler Mike Hoekstra was tabbed OVC Preseason Pitcher of the Year in a vote of OVC head coach. Oberacker is the only returning All-American from the OVC last season. Despite being drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 19th round, the outfielder decided to return to school for one more season. Last year he was third nationally with a .452 batting average while setting OVC single-season records for hits (108) and doubles (29). Hoekstra started last season as EIU's No. 3 pitcher on paper and finished the season with a team-best 4.16 E.R.A. while winning four games in 11 starts. Hoekstra had a pair of complete games and a shutout on his resume during the season and walked only five batters in 67 innings of work (a mark that set a new OVC single-season record and ranked him first nationally in walks allowed per nine innings - 0.67).

SIU Edwardsville Joins the OVC: On July 1 Southern Illinois University Edwardsville became the 11th member of the Ohio Valley Conference. SIU Edwardsville, who is in the reclassification process to Division I, will begin regular season competition in the OVC next season (2011-12) and will be eligible for postseason competition in 2012-13. The exception is the SIUE softball program, which will be eligible for both regular season and tournament competition this year; the softball program was the department's women's sport designee to be fast-tracked to Division I, making it eligible to compete at Division I prior to other SIUE sports. SIUE is located in Edwardsville, Ill., which is just northeast of St. Louis (the 18th largest media market in the United States).
