THIS WEEK'S OVC PLAYERS OF THE WEEKPLAYER*GARRETT RICE • 1B, SR., 6'2 • MOBILE, ALA. • SAMFORD

Rice helped lead Samford to a three-game sweep at UT Martin over the weekend, as the Bulldogs finished the season with six straight OVC victories and went from ninth place to fourth in the final standings. Rice hit .533 (8-for-15) with four runs scored, two doubles, two home runs and seven RBI against the Skyhawks. He had a slugging percentage of 1.067 and was a combined 5-for-10 in Saturday's doubleheader sweep. The award is the second of his career (he also won once during the 2006 season).

Others Nominated: Jake Lane, Austin Peay; Erik Huber, Eastern Illinois; Kyle McCreary, Jacksonville State; Omar Padilla, Southeast Missouri.

PITCHERDONOVAN HAND • RHP, JR., 6'4 • HATTON, ALA. • JACKSONVILLE STATE

Hand scattered just three hits over 10 innings in leading Jacksonville State to a 2-1 extra inning win over Murray State over the weekend. He allowed an unearned run in the fourth inning but came back to retire the final 19 batters of the game and limited the Thoroughbreds to just a .091 batting average on the day. Hand struck out eight batters (and did not issue a walk) to increase his career strikeout total to 233, fifth in JSU history. He threw 123 pitches and did not allow a leadoff batter to reach base. The victory was his seventh of the season and the complete game his sixth (all of which have come against OVC opponents). Hand wins the award for the fourth time this season and sixth time in his career. His four awards in one season is the most since Southeast Missouri's Todd Pennington won an OVC-record five Pitcher of the Week awards in 2001.

Others Nominated: Matt Reynolds, Austin Peay; Alex Guttosch, Eastern Illinois; Christian Friedrich, Eastern Kentucky; Anthony Stacy, Murray State; Matt Smith, Tennessee Tech.

TEAM NOTES FROM AROUND THE DIAMOND

AUSTIN PEAY (36-20, 19-8 OVC): Austin Peay claimed its sixth OVC regular season crown by taking two of three games from Eastern Kentucky over the weekend. The Governors finished one game ahead of Jacksonville State in the tight race. The Govs were also OVC regular season champions in 1971, 1994, 1996, 2003 and 2004. APSU finished 19-8 in the Conference this season and all eight of the losses came against the five other teams who made the 2007 OVC Tournament. After starting the year 3-4 in OVC play, Austin Peay finished the season 16-4 in League action. Overall APSU's 36 regular season wins is fourth all-time in APSU history, trailing three other teams that were OVC Champions. For only the second time in school history the Govs had three pitchers with seven or more wins (which ranks in the top 20 in school history). Shawn Kelley (10 wins, 5th all-time), Matt Reynolds (9 wins, 8th) and Ryne Mantooth (7 wins, 20th) matched the feat also done by the 1989 trio of Jesse Cash, Jon Frazier and Bill Kooiman. Austin Peay's defense fielded at a .972 clip during the season, which set a new school record (beating the .965 mark of the 2004 team). As the regular season champions, Austin Peay receives a first round bye and will meet its to be determined opponent Thursday night.

EASTERN ILLINOIS (23-28, 12-14 OVC): Eastern Illinois was one of nine schools that had a chance of making the six-team OVC Tournament field entering last week. And the Panthers did everything they had too - sweeping a three-game road series at Morehead State - but did not get the necessary help from other teams and finished seventh in the OVC race, a half game behind Murray State (the No. seed). EIU finished with the same number of Conference wins as the Thoroughbreds (12) but Murray had one more game cancelled due to snow and earned the sixth spot by winning percentage. Ironically the third game of the EIU-Murray series was cancelled by poor weather and could have made a difference had Eastern won that game. The Panthers also lost a pair of non-conference games at the beginning of last week, falling at Southern Illinois and to Northern Illinois in a neutral site contest. Senior Erik Huber finished his season in style, hitting .435 (10-for-23) with six RBI during the week. He finished the season with an OVC-best .409 batting average (the only player over .400 on the year) and recorded back-to-back years with .400+ batting averages. He became the first player in EIU's Division I Era to accomplish that feat. Huber also led the OVC in slugging (.679) and on-base percentage (.473). His .424 average in OVC-only games also led the Conference. Mark Chagnon finished sixth in the OVC in batting (.365). Coach Jim Schmitz finished the season with 517 total victories in his 20 years of coaching, 323 of those coming at EIU.

EASTERN KENTUCKY (23-27-1, 12-12 OVC): Eastern Kentucky won one of three games at OVC Champion Austin Peay last week and finished the season at 12-12 and earned the fifth seed for this week's O'Reilly OVC Tournament. The team got another great performance out of ace Christian Friedrich who tossed his second one-hitter of the season on Friday. He retired the first 11 batters he faced and struck out five. However, he walked four and gave up two earned runs on a home run as the Colonels fell 2-0 to Austin Peay. The complete game was his third in the row for Friedrich, who unfortunately was only 1-2 in those starts. He finished the regular season first in the OVC in earned run average (2.29), opponent batting average (.158) and strikeouts (91). Junior reliever McKenzie Willoughby continued his effective outings, increasing his streak of not allowing an earned run to 11.1 (which spans five appearances). The Colonels will face No. 4 seed Samford in the first round of the 2007 O'Reilly OVC Tournament.

JACKSONVILLE STATE (31-25, 18-9 OVC): Jacksonville State lost a non-conference game at home to Kennesaw State this week and then dropped its series opener at Murray State before winning the final two against the Thoroughbreds to finish 18-9 in the OVC, one game behind league champion Austin Peay. The Gamecocks, the defending tournament champions, did earn the No. 2 overall seed for the 2007 O'Reilly OVC Tournament and will get a first round bye. They will not play until Thursday afternoon. Junior Donovan Hand was named OVC Pitcher of the Week for the fourth time this season (and sixth in his career) after a 10-inning gem against Murray State. Hand scattered three hits over 10 innings and after allowing an unearned run in the fourth inning, retired the final 19 batters of the game as JSU won 2-1 in extra innings. The four awards in one season is the most since Southeast Missouri's Todd Pennington won an OVC-record five in 2001; the six career awards is believed to have also set an OVC record. Hand now has 233 career strikeouts, which is fifth in school history. Senior Jake Ball became the program's all-time hits leader after going 4-for-6 on Saturday; he passed JSU All-American Stewart Lee (241) on the all-time list and now has 244 hits. Ball also holds the Jax State record for career games played (219), career starts (214), career at-bats (744) and career walks (107). Junior Clay Whittemore finished the regular season with 30 multiple-hit games (tops in the OVC) and 20 multiple-RBI games (also first). Whittemore led the Conference with 88 hits and is now just six away from the JSU career record (94, set by Bobby Hicks in 2004).

MOREHEAD STATE (16-36, 9-18 OVC): Morehead State entered the final week of the year with an outside chance of making the six-team OVC Tournament field but a sweep at home at the hands of Eastern Illinois ended any hope the Eagles had. MSU lost five of its last six OVC games of the year and finished ninth in the final standings. The Eagles "ran away" with the OVC stolen bases title this season, stealing a school record 110 bases in 156 attempts. No other OVC school was over 100 swipes (EKU was second at 98). Senior Dustin Miles led the team with 23 steals, a mark that ranked him tied for second in the Conference; his 14 steals in OVC games was the tops in the Conference. Senior centerfielder Nick Bobrowski had a memorable end to his final game at Morehead State; he had three hits, two doubles and a triple, and knocked in eight runs in Saturday's game. Eagle shortstop Nick Nail was injured in pre-game practice for the Southeast Missouri series and missed the last six games of the season. Drew Lee, who ended the season as MSU's top hitter (.362) among regulars, suffered a sprained ankle in infield practice before the first game of the EIU series and missed all three games. It was announced on Monday that head coach John Jarnagin's contract will not be renewed after 12 years as coach.

MURRAY STATE (18-33, 12-13 OVC): Murray State lost two of three at home to Jacksonville State last weekend but the win in the opener was enough to lock the Thoroughbreds into the 2007 O'Reilly OVC Tournament field as the No. 6 overall seed. Murray State is making its second appearances under head coach Rob McDonald; MSU last won an OVC Tournament Championship in 2003. Seth Hudson continued his hot streak and finished the regular season with a .373 batting average, a mark that was third in the Conference. Tyler Owen's .356 average was the seventh best in the League. The 'Breds will play rival and No. 3 Southeast Missouri in the opening round of the OVC Tournament. The 6:30 p.m. start time for the contest should bring a big crowd to Brooks Stadium as those two schools are the closest in proximity to Paducah.

SAMFORD (29-26, 14-13 OVC): Just two weeks ago Samford had its back against the wall, as the Bulldogs - the preseason OVC favorites - found itself in ninth place overall with just six games to play. But the team did exactly what it had to do, winning its final six Conference games, including sweeping UT Martin on the road last week, to finish fourth in the final league standings. After not sweeping an OVC opponent through the first seven season series, the Bulldogs swept its final two of the year, and overall have won seven of its last eight games. Samford has now qualified for three of four OVC Tournaments since joining the League in 2003. The Bulldogs will play No. 5 seed Eastern Kentucky in the first round of the OVC Tournament. Samford lost to in-state rival Jacksonville State in last year's tournament championship game. Garrett Rice hit .533 (8-for-15) last week, smashing two home runs and driving in seven runs; that earned him OVC Player of the Week honors. Samford actually played better on the road this season than at home; the Bulldogs were 14-10 on the road overall (15-16 in home games) and 8-4 in OVC road games (6-9 in OVC home games). Sophomore Michael Marseco finished the regular season with the team lead in batting average (.351). Senior Parker Gargis swatted a team-high and OVC-best 12 home runs, a mark that ranked among national leaders; his 116 total bases on the year were second most in the Conference.

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI (31-22, 16-10 OVC): Southeast Missouri State entered the final weekend of the season with an outside chance at the OVC regular season crown but dropped two of three games at Tennessee Tech to finish the season 16-10 in League play. That earned them the No. 3 overall seed for the tournament. The series loss to Tennessee Tech was only the second of the year in OVC play for the Redhawks, who also lost a series to Austin Peay earlier this season. The 31 regular season victories for the team was the most since 2002 when the squad won 32 times, won the OVC Tournament Championship and defeated Alabama on its home field in the opener of the NCAA Regional. That team won 37 games overall, a school record. Southeast played its sixth consecutive one-run game on Friday, falling 6-5 in 11 innings. The team is 7-8 on the season in one-run games and 6-6 in one-run games against OVC teams. The Redhawks broke the school single-season record for times hit-by-pitch during a year, doing so for the 75th time over the weekend. If the team's .965 fielding percentage holds up through the end of the postseason, SEMO will set a new school record (the current record is .964 set in 2005). Junior pitcher Dustin Renfrow finished the regular season with a 2.33 ERA and slipped to second in the OVC earned run average race (behind Christian Friedrich's 2.29 ERA). Southeast Missouri will open the OVC Tournament with rival and No. 6 seed Murray State. The 6:30 p.m. matchup on Wednesday should bring a big crowd to Brooks Stadium, as Southeast and Murray are the two closest teams to Paducah.

TENNESSEE TECH (26-28, 12-15 OVC): Despite winning two of its final three games of the season, Tennessee Tech saw Samford pass it in the final standings and the Golden Eagles are in the outside looking in for the 2007 O'Reilly OVC Tournament. TTU topped Southeast Missouri in 11 innings on Friday behind a gutsy pitching performance from senior Matt Smith. Smith lasted all 11 innings (the longest outing in the OVC this season) and after allowing five runs in the first inning did not allow anything over the final 10 frames. He allowed only six hits over the final 10 innings and retired the last 15 SEMO batters he faced in improving to 5-3 on the year. He struck out six and was just two-thirds of an inning away from tying the Tech record for innings pitched in a game. Junior Sean Reilly continued his hot streak, hitting in all four games last week (Tech lost to Tennessee to begin the week) and finished the season with a 22-game hitting streak that he will look to extend at the beginning of the 2008 season. Senior Brian Sprowl hit .455 during the Southeast series, going 5-for-11 with three RBI, two doubles and two runs scored.

UT MARTIN (19-36, 7-19 OVC): Tennessee-Martin saw its season come to an end last week by dropping three games at home to Samford. The Skyhawks also dropped a neutral site game to Memphis last week and ended the season on a four-game losing streak. UTM finished the year 16-14 overall at Skyhawk Field, the team's second straight winning season at home. Eleven UT Martin seniors were honored before the season's final game against Samford, with 10 of the 11 seeing action in the game. Senior William Blackmon had five strikeouts in the second game against Samford and finished the year with 64, the eighth most in UTM single-season history. Pitcher Travis Webb ended the year with 29 appearances, the second most in school history. Teammate Calen Sutton made 21 appearances on the mound during the season, the ninth most in single-season school history. Junior Kyle Dudley finished the season with 62 hits, the 10th most in school history. Senior Chad Green swiped his 20th base of the season over the weekend and finished the year sixth in school history for a season. Bryce Carden finished the season as UT Martin's leading hitter (.329), one point ahead of Dudley who claimed the team lead for hits. Lance Renton's 34 RBI led the squad.

TOURNAMENT NOTES

O'Reilly OVC Baseball Championship Set For Paducah Once Again: For the seventh consecutive year the O'Reilly Ohio Valley Conference Baseball Championship will return to historic Brooks Stadium in Paducah, Ky. The top six teams from the Conference will meet in Paducah for games from May 23-27. Austin Peay earned the No. 1 overall seed while Jacksonville State earned the No. 2 seed; those two teams have a bye through Wednesday's first round. The field was rounded out by No. 3 Southeast Missouri, No. 4 Samford, No. 5 Eastern Kentucky and No. 6 Murray State.

Let's Do It For the 43rd Time: This is unofficially the 43rd OVC Tournament, with the first event being held in 1963. There may be some discrepancy in when the first event was held (records are unclear), but the OVC record books have the event starting in 1963.

Parity in Paducah: Fans who have made their way to Paducah the past several years have seen every team enter the event with a chance to win. Over the last six tournaments (all held in Paducah), five different teams have captured a tournament championship (Tennessee Tech, Southeast Missouri, Murray State, Jacksonville State and Austin Peay). Only Jacksonville State has won multiple titles since the event moved to Paducah (the Gamecocks won in 2004 and 2006).

Parity Part II: While the event has been exciting in Paducah, it has been exciting overall the past eight years, as seven different teams have won a title in the previous eight years (adding Eastern Illinois and former member Middle Tennessee to the above list).

Balanced Champions List: Eight of the league's current 10 baseball-playing institutions have won at least one OVC Tournament Championship in their history (Samford and UT Martin are the only ones who have not won a title). Former OVC member Middle Tennessee has won the most titles (10), followed closely by Eastern Kentucky and Murray State (7 titles apiece).

Not Many Regular Season and Tournament Repeats: Only twice in the past 11 years and four times in the last 18 years has a team won both the OVC Regular Season and Tournament Championship in the same year. The last team to do so was Southeast Missouri State in 2002. Since 2002, the League has seen a different champion at the tournament than the team who came away on top during the regular season. The other teams to do it over the past 20 years are: Eastern Kentucky (1989), Middle Tennessee (1990), Middle Tennessee (1995) and Eastern Illinois (1999).

A Look Back at 2006: Jacksonville State's Clay Whittemore had a one-out, two-run double to push the Gamecocks to a 9-8 come-from-behind victory over in-state rival Samford in last year's championship game. Jax State scored four times in the final inning to record the victory as Whittemore was named the tournament's MVP. JSU went on to play at the Tuscaloosa Regional of the NCAA Tournament, falling to host Alabama and Southern Miss in the event.

The Field Against The Field: For the six teams who made the OVC Tournament - Austin Peay, Jacksonville State, Southeast Missouri, Samford, Eastern Kentucky and Murray State - they have played well against each other this season. The top team was Jacksonville State who was a combined 11-5 against the other five teams. Southeast Missouri was 8-6, Murray State 7-7, Austin Peay 8-9, Eastern Kentucky 5-8 and Samford 5-10.

Tournament MVP's: At the conclusion of the tournament, the OVC will award the tournament's MVP award. Here is a look back at the Tournament MVP's since 1993.

OTHER NOTES FROM AROUND THE LEAGUE

Austin Peay Claims Sixth OVC Regular Season Crown: Despite a slow start - the team dropped its first three OVC games and were 4-5 after nine games - Austin Peay rebounded nicely and claimed its sixth OVC regular season crown, finishing the season 19-8 in Conference games. The Governors also won titles in 1971, 1994, 1996, 2003 and 2004 (and OVC Tournament titles in 1971, 1996 and 2005).

Close Race: Since the league switched a 27-game Conference schedule, this year's race was one of the closest. From top to bottom in the league the difference was 11.5 games, the closest during a 27-game schedule, edging out a 12.5 top-to-bottom difference in 2005. The top three teams ended the year separated by only 2.5 games (Jacksonville State was one back on Austin Peay and Southeast Missouri was 2.5 back of the Govs). The closest race occurred in 2003 when Austin Peay topped Southeast Missouri by 0.5 games and were 1.5 games ahead of Tennessee Tech (who they topped on the final day of the season).

OVCsports.TV: For the first time this season, the Ohio Valley Conference is offering live and on-demand streaming video/audio straight to your computer during the 2007 season. This feature can be accessed through the league's Official Web Site, OVCsports.com, or directly through OVCsports.TV. Subscription packages for baseball start at $15.95 for the season.

May 23-26 - OVC Baseball Tournament (all game live and on-demand - $15.95 for the package)

Samford Picked as League Preseason Favorite: Defending Ohio Valley Conference regular season champion Samford has been picked to win the 2007 OVC baseball crown this season by a narrow margin over rival and 2006 OVC Tournament Champion Jacksonville State, according to a preseason poll of the league's 10 head coaches. The Bulldogs, who won an OVC-record 21 Conference games a season ago, received six first-place votes (78 points in total), two more than second-place Jacksonville State. Jacksonville State (74 points), who won the OVC regular season title in 2005 and represented the OVC in the NCAA Tournament a year ago, fell just four points behind Samford in the poll, as the two teams racked in all 10 first-place votes. Eastern Kentucky (58 points) was picked third for the second straight year, edging out Austin Peay (53 points) and Eastern Illinois (53 points), who tied for fourth, and Southeast Missouri (44 points), who were fifth. Tennessee Tech (28 points) was tabbed seventh, Murray State (24 points) eighth, UT Martin (20 points) ninth and Morehead State 10th (15 points).

Several OVC Players Named to Preseason All-American Teams/Watch Lists: The OVC had several players named to preseason All-American teams and Award Watch lists. Eastern Kentucky's Christian Friedrich (6'3, So., LHP) was named a third-team preseason All-American by both the NCBWA and the Collegiate Baseball News (Louisville Slugger). He was also one of 62 pitchers named to the Roger Clemens Award Watch List (given to the nation's top pitcher) and the Brooks Wallace Watch List (given to the nation's top player by the College Baseball Foundation). Samford's Josh Ehmke (5'9, Sr., LHP) and Jacksonville State's Nick Clecker (5'10, Sr., OF) were also selected to the Brooks Wallace Watch List. In a revised Wallace List released in late April, those three players were no longer on the list but had been replaced by Jacksonville State's Clay Whittemore (6'1, Sr., OF), Southeast Missouri's Asif Shah (6'1, Sr., RHP/DH) and Eastern Illinois Erik Huber (6'6, Sr., 1B/OF). Ehmke was also named to the Louisville Slugger Preseason All-American team while teammate Joseph Edens (5'10, Sr., RHP) was one of 35 pitchers named to the NCWBA's Stopper of the Year Award Watch List (given to the nation's top closer). Morehead State senior catcher Donald Cheney was named to the Watch List for the 2007 Coleman Company Johnny Bench Award, delivered by AT&T; the award is given to the top catcher in the nation and it marks the third straight year Cheney has been on the list.

OVC Players in Major League Baseball: The Ohio Valley Conference currently has four former players playing Major League Baseball this season. Those players include Austin Peay's Jaime Walker (Baltimore) and George Sherrill (Seattle), Jacksonville State's Todd Jones (Detroit - although Jones played at JSU before they were members of the OVC) and Morehead State's Jon Rauch (Washington). Southeast Missouri's Kerry Robinson began the year with Boston but was released in May.

EIU's Schmitz Picks Up 500th Career Victory: Eastern Illinois head coach Jim Schmitz picked up his 500th career victory on Saturday, March 24 as EIU topped Tennessee Tech 9-7 in the opening game of a doubleheader. Schmitz, who is in his 13th year at EIU after stints at Wilmington and Cincinnati, has recorded 336 of his victories at Eastern Illinois. Schmitz has been tabbed OVC Coach of the Year three times in his career (1998, 1999, 2001). Schmitz finished the year with a 517-500 career record.

Hogan Sets Southeast Missouri All-Time Victories Mark: Southeast Missouri State head coach Mark Hogan established a new Southeast Missouri State head coaching victories mark with his 374th victory at SEMO in a 17-3 victory over Murray State on Saturday, March 31. The victory put his past Joe Uhls, who had 373 victories in his career. Hogan, in his 13th season at Southeast Missouri, has amassed more than 750 career victories in 26 years, which included stops at Lurleen B. Wallace Community College and West Alabama before coming to Cape Girardeau.

Southeast Ties NCAA Grand Slam Record: With hitting three grand slams in a 27-16 victory over Freed-Hardeman on March 28, Southeast Missouri State tied the NCAA record for grand slams in a single game. The Redhawks are the eighth team to hit three grand slams in a game and first since Youngstown State did so against Oakland University on May 6, 2001. The grand slams came off the bats of Asif Shah, Phillip Riley and Nick Harris. The 27 runs in the game was a Southeast Missouri record (breaking a mark of 24 set in 1985 and equaled in 2001) as was the combined 43 runs by the two teams (breaking a record of 38 set in 1977).

Austin Peay's Win Streak Reaches 11 Before Ending: Austin Peay saw its winning streak of 11 games come to an end in the second game of a doubleheader at Murray State on May 12. When it ended the streak was the second longest nationally, trailing only a 13-game streak by Rice. The 11 wins in a row tied a school record for the Governors.
