NCAA DIVISION I FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

College football coaches often say the greatest improvement a team makes is between its first and second game. Team Frisco certainly agrees. After staging a successful championship game in 2011, its first of at least three at FC Dallas Stadium in Frisco, Texas, year two and three were even better.

In the first title game played in Frisco, Eastern Washington erased 16-point deficit to beat Delaware 20-19 in January 2011. The entertaining game certainly did not disappoint the 13,000-plus fans who attended the first college football game in Frisco.

A year later, the perfect blend of two passionate fan bases combined with a "local" team making it to the championship game led to a standing-room only crowd of 20,586 to watch North Dakota State beat Sam Houston State 17-6. North Dakota State quarterback Brock Jensen threw a touchdown pass right after a fake punt and then added a 1-yard run for another score following a long interception return to help the No. 2 seed Bison upset the top-seeded Bearcats, snapping Sam Houston's 16-game win streak and preventing it from winning its first national championship. It was NDSU's first national championship at the Division I level to go with five Division II titles, the last in 1990.

Last season the title game was a rematch between the Bison and Bearcats with North Dakota State claiming its second-straight title with a 39-13 victory. The game was played in front of 21,411 fans, including more than 10,000 wearing green and gold. Brock Jensen ran for three touchdowns and Sam Ojuri added two more scores as NDSU broke a 10-10 halftime tie as they outscored SHSU 29-3 in the second half.

While the games have no doubt been the highlight, it is a week's worth of events that have separated the event in Frisco from past championships – not to mention the great Texas hospitality.

The teams arrive in Texas four days before the game starts. They're greeted by signs and banners around town as well as great crowds at their respective team headquarters. The next day, the teams visit local elementary schools where they are welcomed by students eager to show off their school spirit for their newly adopted college teams. Later that night, the two participating teams gather for the Great Texas Barbecue Bowl that showcase the legendary Texas culture and hospitality. On Friday, teams attend the Champions Luncheon and make last-minute tweaks in game preparation.

The day of the game, fans begin gathering at restaurants and parking lots surrounding FC Dallas Stadium and take part in Tailgate Town that features quality entertainment and even more Texas sounds, flavors and hospitality.

"The NCAA national championship game in Frisco was an experience our players, fans and coaching staff will never forget," Sam Houston State head coach Willie Fritz said. "What a great week. The NCAA, Southland Conference and city of Frisco put on a first class event from start to finish."

The local organizing committee, collectively known as Team Frisco consists of the City of Frisco, its Economic Development Corporation and Convention & Visitors Bureau, Hunt Sports Group/FC Dallas Stadium, the Frisco Chamber of Commerce and Frisco-based Southland Conference.

The Football Championship Subdivision is comprised of the conferences and institutions that compete in the NCAA Division I Football Championship - Big Sky, Big South, Colonial Athletic Association, Ivy League, Mid-Eastern Athletic, Missouri Valley Football, Northeast, Ohio Valley, Patriot League, Pioneer, Southern, Southland and the Southwestern Athletic. The Ivy League and Southwestern Athletic Conference choose not to participate in the football championship. The FCS embodies a tradition of excellence through high level competition, student-athlete character and sportsmanship throughout the regular season and the championship experience.

FCS/I-AA PLAYOFFS HISTORY

The I-AA (re-named the Football Championship Subdivision at the end of the 2006 season) Playoffs began in 1978. FCS schools are the only Division I institutions who compete in a playoff format for a national championship (Football Bowl Subdivision - formerly I-A - compete for the Bowl Championship Series Championship).

Eastern Kentucky, which won the I-AA national championship in 1979 and 1982, has been to the playoffs 20 times in the 35-year history of the event. That is the second-most appearances all-time (trailing only Montana). EKU, along with fellow OVC members Eastern Illinois, Jacksonville State, Southeast Missouri, Tennessee Tech and UT Martin have also been in the field during the past seven years.
