TEAM NOTES

Austin Peay (23-23, 14-13 OVC): Austin Peay dropped a home-and-home non-conference series with Western Kentucky during the week before losing two of three against UT Martin over the weekend, marking its first series loss to the Skyhawks since the 1994 season. The Govs slipped to 14-13 in OVC play and are now in seventh place in the standings (with three games to go) which puts the team on the outside looking in at the six-team OVC Tournament field. Sophomore Alex Robles won his sixth-straight outing on Friday night in tossing his third complete game of the season. Robles scattered eight hits and allowed three runs but struck out nine and walked only two to improve to 6-2 on the season. The sophomore now has a 3.09 E.R.A. on the season which ranks second in the OVC while his six Conference victories is tied for the most in the League. Robles also hit a home run and drove in two runs in the victory; on the season Robles is hitting .329 with 36 RBI. Garrett Copeland hit .450 with a home run and four RBI last week; he is second on the team with a .350 batting average this season. Logan Gray is second in the OVC with 14 home runs this season. Austin Peay will host second place SIUE in a key OVC series this weekend. This is the last Conference weekend series for the Govs who will play a non-conference series at Evansville next weekend.

Belmont (25-21, 13-10 OVC): Belmont completed a two-game season series sweep of No. 6 Vanderbilt last week, topping the defending national champions 4-1 at Rose Park; two weeks prior Belmont had topped the No. 4 ranked Commodores 3-2 at Hawkins Field. It marked the first time a non-SEC opponent had won two regular season games against Vanderbilt since 2012 and Belmont was the first mid-week opponent to defeat the Commodores twice in the same regular season since 2003. The Bruins finished the week by sweeping Murray State to move into fourth place in the OVC standings. Senior left-handed pitcher Patrick McGrath was named OVC Pitcher of the Week after beating Vanderbilt and picking up the win in Sunday's finale against MSU. For the week McGrath pitched 14.2 innings allowing seven hits, 1 earned run (0.61 E.R.A.) and striking out eight while walking only one batter. He pitched 7.2 innings in the win over Vanderbilt, allowing four hits (three singles) and striking out five while retiring 13 of the final 15 batters he faced. Against Murray State he scattered three hits over seven innings and struck out three. McGrath is now 7-3 on the season with the seven victories tied for the most in the OVC. William Dodd hit .417 (5-for-12) with three runs scored and four RBI during the week. Matt Beaty continues to lead all Division I players in averaging 1.30 RBI/game and is sixth nationally in total bases (126). Beaty is first in the OVC with 26 multi-hit games this season. Belmont will play a non-conference game at Tennessee on Wednesday before traveling to Tennessee Tech for a key three-game OVC series. Entering this week the Bruins are just half a game ahead of the Golden Eagles in the league standings.

Eastern Illinois (11-31, 7-17 OVC): Eastern Illinois topped Saint Louis in non-conference action to open last week before winning one of three games at Morehead State over the weekend. Senior Caleb Howell hit .688 (11-for-16) with six runs score, two doubles and four RBI in four games last week. The 11 hits moved his career total to 284, which now ranks him seventh in OVC history; with seven games remaining in the season Howell is almost assured of moving into the Top 4 in OVC history and would need 19 hits (2.7/game) to move into second place all-time. Howell currently ranks second in the OVC in batting average (.396). Demetre Taylor, who ranks 6th nationally in triples/game (0.10) drove in a team-high nine runs while two home runs and a .700 slugging percentage during the week. Eastern Illinois will host UT Martin in a three-game series this weekend.

Eastern Kentucky (17-27, 8-15 OVC): Eastern Kentucky took both ends of a home-and-home non-conference series with Miami (Ohio) last week, winning 8-6 in Richmond before coming out victorious 6-5 in 11 innings in Oxford the following day. The Colonels were then swept by Jacksonville State in OVC play over the weekend. Junior Kyle Nowlin tied his own school record by smashing three home runs in the first game of the Jax State series; it marked the third time in his career he has hit three home runs in the same game. Nowlin now leads the OVC and all Division I players with 17 home runs this season. For the week Nowlin hit .500 (11-for-22) with 10 runs scored, nine RBI and three stolen bases. Teammate Mandy Alvarez is third in the OVC with 11 total home runs in 2015. TJ Alas leads the team and ranks fifth in the OVC in batting average (.377). Eastern Kentucky will play a three-game series at Murray State this weekend.

Jacksonville State (26-21, 13-11 OVC): Jacksonville State lost a non-conference game to Alabama A&M to start last week but won three key OVC games at Eastern Kentucky over the weekend to jump into a tie for fifth place in the OVC standings. The top six teams will make the OVC Tournament field and last week the Gamecocks were on the outside looking in at the field after making the field in every year the team has competed in the OVC. Paschal Petrongolo hit .500 (10-for-20) with five runs scored, three doubles, two home runs and nine RBI during the week; he hit a grand slam in Sunday's contest to help his team come from behind and win 16-13. Petrongolo ranks seventh in the OVC in batting average (.375) entering this week and has 23 multi-hit and 12 multi-RBI games this season. Senior closer Travis Stout had three saves last week to move into the NCAA career Top 10 for saves with 44, which currently ranks him sixth all-time. The saves increased his season total to 12 which is the sixth-highest total in OVC history; Stout already owns the second (17) and third (15) highest save outputs in league history. He pitched four innings last week and allowed just one hit while striking out five batters. Zachary Fowler picked up his seventh victory of the season on Friday night, tying him for the OVC lead; Fowler currently ranks fourth in the OVC in E.R.A. (3.80). Jacksonville State will host rival Samford on Tuesday before hosting second-place Morehead State for an important OVC series over the weekend.

Morehead State (30-18, 15-9 OVC): Morehead State continued its offensive surge last week scoring 64 runs in four games last week, topping Northern Kentucky (20-4) before winning two of three from Eastern Illinois (winning by margins of 15-2 and 20-14). In the latest NCAA national statistical leaders Morehead State ranks first nationally in batting average (.336), scoring (8.6 runs/game), total runs (415), hits (596), doubles/game (2.88), slugging (.527) and on-base per-

2015 OVC TOURNAMENT

This year marks the sixth at The Ballpark at Jackson for the Ohio Valley Conference Baseball Championship. The tournament made its debut in Jackson, Tennessee in 2010 after nine years in Paducah, Ky. The 2014 OVC Baseball Championship will be held May 20-23 (24). Every game of the event can be seen live and on-demand on the OVC Digital Network (<http://www.OVCDigitalNetwork.com>).

The Ballpark at Jackson is the home of the Jackson Generals, the Double-A affiliate of the Seattle Mariners. The 6,000-seat natural grass stadium opened in 1998.

This marks the 15th year the tournament has been held at a neutral site; prior to the 2001 season, the event was held at campus sites.

Last season Jacksonville State made event history by becoming the first team to lose its opening game and then win six consecutive elimination games to claim the tournament crown. Overall it was the fourth OVC Tournament crown for JSU.

The first official OVC Tournament was held in 1979; prior to that only playoff series between divisional winners were played.

centage (.421). MSU had 20-plus hits in three of its four games last week. The Eagles have now won 30 games on the season for just the second time in school history and are just one win behind the school's all-time wins record set in 1993; the team is also assured of its second consecutive winning season the first time that has happened for the program since 1994 and 1995. Senior Clayton Meyer, who had been used mainly in a pinch hitting role prior to last week, was named OVC Player of the Week after earning four starts as the designated hitter and hitting .600 (12-for-20) with eight runs scored, two doubles, two home runs and 11 RBI; Meyer had a career-high six RBI in Saturday's game against EIU. Catcher Chris Robinson, who leads the OVC with a .406 batting average, hit .571 (12-for-21) during the week with 10 RBI; he currently ranks second nationally in runs/game (1.37) and eighth in batting average. Senior Nick Newell broke the MSU single-season record for doubles and now has 24 on the season; he ranks third nationally in that category (0.50/game). Morehead State will play a three-game OVC series at Jacksonville State this weekend.

Murray State (14-35, 9-15 OVC): Murray State saw its losing streak extend to 17 games after a non-conference, neutral site loss to UT Martin in Union City, Tennessee and a three-game OVC series sweep at Belmont over the weekend. The Racers have also lost nine OVC games in a row (after winning six of seven Conference games at one point). Tyler Lawrence led the team with a .375 batting average and two home runs last week; Lawrence leads the team in batting average (.283), doubles (11), home runs (8) and RBI (32) this season. Kipp Moore added a .353 average while Derek Yoder added a pair of stolen bases. Yoder, Anthony Bayus and Taylor Mathews all have double-digit steal totals this season for the Racers. Brock Downey allowed six hits and two earned runs in eight innings on Saturday but was the hard-luck loser in a 3-2 defeat at Belmont. Murray State will host Eastern Kentucky in a three-game series this weekend.

Southeast Missouri (30-17, 20-7 OVC): Southeast Missouri clinched a spot in the six-team OVC Tournament field but came up just short of clinching at least a share of the OVC Regular Season Championship in dropping its first OVC series of the season to Tennessee Tech. After topping Missouri S&T during the week, the Redhawks opened up the TTU series with a 9-1 victory behind the pitching performance of Joey Lucchesi; the junior tied his career-high with 13 strikeouts (matching his effort from the previous week) and surrendered only four hits over eight innings in improving to 6-1 on the season. Lucchesi ranks 30th nationally in hits allowed per nine innings (6.25). The team's victory on Friday was its 30th of the season marking the second-straight season and third time in five years the team has reached that win plateau. Offensively Brandon Boggetto has the longest active hitting streak in the OVC at 12 games entering the week. Andy Lennington continues to lead the team in hitting at .351. In the latest NCAA statistical rankings the Redhawks rank second nationally in base on balls (264), fourth in total runs (378) and fifth in runs/game (8.0) and slugging (.482). This week Southeast Missouri will play at No. 21 Missouri before stepping away from Conference play over the weekend in playing a three-game series at Indiana State.

SIUE (16-25, 15-9 OVC): SIUE stepped outside of OVC play last week playing a midweek game at Western Illinois before playing a four-game series at Illinois State over the weekend. In the opener against the Redbirds the Cougars broke through and won its first non-conference game of the season (snapping a 13-game non-conference losing streak) in winning 4-1. Junior P.J. Schuster was instrumental in the victory, scattering four hits while striking out eight (and walking none) in eight innings. The junior improved to 6-3 on the season with the victory (the six wins are fourth-most in the OVC) while Brett Thomas pitched the ninth to pick up his sixth save of the season. Keaton Wright had three hits and two RBI in the victory while Skyler Geissinger and Jacob Stewart also drove in runs for the Cougars. Senior Alec Saikal hit .400 (8-for-20) with four runs, a double, two home runs and four RBI over the five games last week. SIUE will travel to Austin Peay for a three-game Conference series this weekend. The Cougars enter the week tied for second place (with Morehead State) in the OVC standings.

Tennessee Tech (22-23, 13-11 OVC): Tennessee Tech became the first OVC team to take a weekend series from Southeast Missouri this season, taking games two (11-5) and three (11-10) from the Redhawks over the weekend to improve to 13-11 in Conference play. The Golden Eagles, who have won four-straight OVC series, are now tied with Jacksonville State for fifth place in the OVC standings with two Conference weekends remaining. Freshman Trevor Putzig hit .636 (7-for-11) with four runs scored, two RBI and two stolen bases last week including going 3-for-5 with a stolen base in Saturday's win and driving in two runs and scoring two runs in Sunday's victory. On the mound Jeb Scoggins struck out 11 in 6.2 innings of work in two appearances last week; that included 10 strikeouts in 5.2 innings of relief in Sunday's win over Southeast Missouri. Scoggins has appeared in 21 games in relief this season and compiled a 2.97 E.R.A., 3-1 record and four saves in 39.1 innings of work. Senior Dylan Bosheers broke the TTU program record for career doubles last week in increasing his total to 57 after the weekend; he is eight doubles away from tying the OVC career mark. Tennessee Tech will host Belmont for a key three-game OVC series this weekend; the two teams are separated by just half a game in the OVC standings.

It marked the first time the Skyhawks had won an OVC series from the Governors since the 1994 season. UTM lost the Friday night game to APSU but rebounded with 16-7 and 9-7 wins over the final two games. Austin Taylor hit .714 (10-for-14) with six runs scored and five RBI during the week, including a four-hit game on Saturday and a three-hit effort on Sunday. Taylor Douglas added eight runs scored and 10 RBI including a six-RBI game in Saturday's victory. Andrew Castillo added a pair of home runs on Saturday as the UTM team had five total home runs, the most in a single game since April 2013. Dillon Symon allowed two hits over five innings in picking up the victory on the mound on Sunday. Patrick Bernard notched a pair of saves over the weekend to increase his season total to eight, setting a new UT Martin single-season record and tying him for the program's career mark. The Skyhawks will travel to Evansville for a Wednesday contest before playing a three-game series at Eastern Illinois over the weekend.

double-elimination tournament will be held May 20-24 and marks the 37th OVC Baseball Championship. The first elimination style tournament was held in 1979, most usually being played at the site of the regular season champion. Beginning in 2001 the tournament switched to a neutral site for the first time (and was held at Brooks Stadium in Paducah, Kentucky for nine years). The Ballpark at Jackson opened in 1998 and has a seating capacity of 6,000. The venue hosted the 1999 and 2011 Southern League All-Star Games. The Ballpark also has luxury suites, a video board and merchandise shop that will be used for the championship. Jackson, Tennessee is located 130 miles from Nashville and 77.2 miles from Memphis on Interstate 40. Tickets for the event will be $10 per day or $28 for an all-session pass (up to 11 total games). There is also an $8 a day rate for students/faculty of OVC-member schools or groups. All seats at the 6,000-seat park are general admission for the OVC Championship. Fans can purchase tickets in person at the Generals box office or by calling (731) 988-5299.
