NOTES FROM AROUND THE GRIDIRON

Let's Get It Started: The 71st season of Ohio Valley Conference football got underway earlier than usual this season as Jacksonville State will play in the Guardian Credit Union FCS Kickoff in Week Zero on Saturday, August 25. Three other OVC teams will play on Thursday, August 30 while the final five teams will play on Saturday, September 1. The OVC is made up of nine football-playing schools; since its beginning, 15 of the 18 total schools that have played football in the league have claimed at least one championship.

ESPN+: The OVC has announced an extension of its media rights deal with ESPN that will make ESPN+, the first multi-sport, direct-to-consumer subscription streaming service from The Walt Disney Company Direct-to-Consumer & International segment, the exclusive home of regular season and OVC Championship broadcasts. This season 36 OVC football games will air on ESPN+ (eight other games will be on ESPN3). Fans can subscribe to ESPN+ for $4.99 a month (or $49.99 per year). ESPN+ is an integrated part of the completely redesigned ESPN App and also available on the web, iPhone, iPad, tvOS, Android Handset, Apple TV, Roku, Chromecast and FireTV. More information can be found at www.OVCsports.com/ESPN.

OVC Teams Against FBS Opponents: OVC teams will play 10 games against Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponents in 2018. OVC teams are a combined 35-277-1 all-time against FBS foes, including wins over FBS teams in five of the past six seasons.

National Polls: A pair of OVC teams - Austin Peay and Jacksonville State - begin the season ranked in the FCS Top 25 polls. Jacksonville State is No. 6 in both the STATS and AFCA FCS Coaches Top 25 polls while Austin Peay is No. 22 in the STATS and No. 23 in the Coaches poll. It marks the 60th-straight week JSU had been ranked in the Top 10, dating back to final polls of 2013 (North Dakota State) only other team to do that during the stretch; the Gamecocks were as high as No. 2 in the polls a year ago. Austin Peay is ranked in a Top 25 football poll for the first time in its program history, after finishing last year No. 27 in both polls.

Jacksonville State Sets OVC Record For Consecutive Conference Wins: With a victory over Eastern Kentucky on October 14, 2017, Jacksonville State won its 27th consecutive Conference game (dating back to the end of the 2013 season) which set the OVC all-time record, breaking the mark of 26 previously held by Eastern Kentucky (1992-95). The now 32-game streak is the second-longest in FCS history, trailing only 39-straight wins by Duquesne in the MAAC from 1999-2006. The streak is currently the longest active streak in Division I. Below is a list of active Conference winning streaks in the FCS.

- 32 - Jacksonville State
- 26 - Grambling
- 21 - San Diego
- 19 - James Madison

OVC Game of the Week on ESPN3: For the sixth-straight year the OVC is producing a "Game of the Week" package that will air on ESPN3 this fall. The eight-game schedule is once again in conjunction with Tupelo Raycom. Kevin Ingram, host of "The Wake Up Zone" on 104.5 The Zone in Nashville, will handle play-by-play duties while Bob Belvin, on-air talent and contributor at 104.1 FM/AM 540 (ESPN Clarksville), will provide analysis. The duo has worked together each of the past six years in the league's TV package. Four of the eight contests are "Wildcard Selections" which will be announced 12 days before the game, guaranteeing the top matchups will be broadcast.

- Sept. 29 - Austin Peay at Jacksonville State, 3 p.m.
- Oct. 6 - Tennessee State at Austin Peay, 6 p.m.
- Oct. 13 - Eastern Illinois at Jacksonville State, 3 p.m.
- Oct. 20 - UT Martin at Eastern Illinois, 2 p.m.
- Oct. 27 - Wild Card
- Nov. 3 - Wild Card
- Nov. 10 - Wild Card
- Nov. 17 - Wild Card

Two OVC Players on the Buck Buchanan Award Watch List: Jacksonville State junior safety Marlon Bridges and Austin Peay junior defensive end Jaision Williams are two of 25 players nationally named to the preseason Buck Buchanan Award Watch List. The award, sponsored by STATS, is given to the top defensive player in the FCS. A national panel of sports information/media relations directors, broadcasters, writers and other dignitaries will vote on the winner following the regular season. Last season JSU defensive end Darius Jackson became the first OVC player to win the award since the award began in 1995.

SEMO's Marquis Terry on Walter Payton Award Watch List: Southeast Missouri senior RB Marquis Terry is one of 25 players nationally on the preseason Walter Payton Award Watch List. The award, sponsored by STATS, is given to the top offensive player in the FCS. A national panel of sports information/media relations directors, broadcasters, writers and other dignitaries will vote on the winner following the regular season. Two OVC players, Eastern Illinois' Tony Romo (2002) and Jimmy Garoppolo (2013), have previously won the award, which began in 1987.

Three OVC Players on Senior Bowl Watch List: Three OVC players have been named to the Senior Bowl Watch List, that includes student-athletes from every level of college football.

The Senior Bowl will be held on Saturday, January 29, 2019 in Mobile, Alabama. The OVC players on the preseason list were Jacksonville State offensive lineman B.J. Autry, Murray State quarterback Drew Anderson and JSU defensive lineman Denzil Ware.

League Shifts From Offense to Defense: At the end of the season (2017), three OVC teams ranked in the top seven nationally in total defense: Jacksonville State (2nd), UT Martin (6th) and Tennessee State (7th). In the past five years there have never been more than two OVC teams rank in the Top 25 in total defense at the end of the season. On the flip side, only one team (Austin Peay) finished in the Top 50 nationally in total offense (49th).

Sgt. York Trophy Presented by Delta Dental of Tennessee Enters 12th Season: This year marks the 12th of the Sgt. York Trophy presented by Delta Dental of Tennessee. The trophy (founded in 2007 by the Nashville Sports Council and OVC) goes to the winner of the quadrangular season football series between the four OVC football-playing schools located in the state of Tennessee (Austin Peay, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech and UT Martin). The award is only the second traveling trophy that involves more than two teams in college sports; the other is the Commander in Chief's Trophy which has been contested between Air Force, Army and Navy annually since 1972. The award is named in honor of Alvin C. York, the most noted Soldier of World War I. As a corporal in the 2nd battalion, 328th Infantry, in the Battle of the Meuse River-Argonne (Oct. 8, 1918), York and seven other soldiers captured 132 prisoners, was promoted to sergeant and received the Distinguished Service Cross, the French Croix de Guerre, the French Legion of Honor, the Croce di Guerra of Italy and the War Medal of Montenegro. Upon his return to the United States in 1919, he was bestowed the Congressional Medal of Honor. The trophy goes to the team with the best record against the other schools (in case of a tie there will be co-champions and the actual trophy will be retained by the defending champion if they are involved in the tie or if the defending champion is not involved in the tie it will go to the institution that has gone the most seasons without winning the trophy).

NCAA Division I Playoff Information: This season marks the sixth of an expanded 24-team field for the NCAA Division I Football Championship; in 2010 the Football Championship Sub-division (FCS) playoff field expanded to 20 teams, up from 16 previously, and in 2013 the field increased to 24 for the first time. The expansion in 2010 to 20 teams was the first since the field grew from 12 to 16 teams in 1997. The 24-team field is comprised of 10 automatic bids and 14 at-large berths. There are eight first round matchups (16 total teams), while eight (8) teams receive a bye into the second round. For the ninth time in 2018, the championship game will be played in Frisco, Texas at Toyota Stadium, a 20,500-seat multi-purpose stadium. The Southland Conference serves as the host of the championship, which will be held on Saturday, January 5.

Academic Success: During the past academic year (2017-18) there were 103 OVC football student-athletes who were named to the Commissioner's Honor Roll for having a 3.25 grade point average or higher. In addition, 11 student-athletes were awarded the OVC Academic Medal of Honor for achieving perfect 4.0 GPAs. The OVC also awards a Team Academic Award for the football program with the highest percentage of players with a 3.25 grade point average or higher; that award went to Jacksonville State for 2017-18.

A Look at the Coaches: There is only one new head coach in the OVC this season as Dewayne Alexander, taking over at his alma mater (Tennessee Tech), after having previously been an assistant coach. He is one of three OVC coaches, joining Jacksonville State's John Grass and Tennessee State's Rod Reed, who are currently coaching at their alma mater. The longest tenured coach in the league is UT Martin's Jason Simpson who enters his 13th season with the Skyhawks in 2018. Simpson has 78 overall victories in his career, seventh-most in OVC history.

Week Zero Games: For the second-straight season, Jacksonville State competed in a "Week Zero" game when they opened the season against nationally-ranked North Carolina A&T on Aug. 25 in the Guardian Credit Union FCS Kickoff at the Cramton Bowl in Montgomery, Alabama. The FCS Kickoff began in 2014 and allows teams to play a game a week ahead of the start of the season if the game is broadcast on national television. It was the only FCS vs. FCS game during the week (there were four other games involving FBS teams on the schedule).

Preseason Forecasts: For the fifth-straight year and seventh time in the past nine years, Jacksonville State was picked the preseason football favorite in the Ohio Valley Conference for 2018. The Gamecocks, who have won four-straight OVC Championships and 32-straight Conference games, received 14 of a possible 18 first-place votes in a poll of league head coaches and communications directors. The Gamecocks totaled 126 total points to out-distance Austin Peay, last year's league runner-up, who picked up the other four first-place votes and was tabbed second (112 points). The second-place prediction is the highest-ever for the Governors program. UT Martin was picked third (95) and followed by Eastern Illinois (73), Eastern Kentucky (69), Tennessee State (64), Southeast Missouri (62), Murray State (24) and Tennessee Tech (23).

SEMO's Terry and JSU's Bridges Headline Preseason All-OVC Team: Southeast Missouri senior running back Marquis Terry and Jacksonville State junior defensive back Marlon Bridges were named the 2018 OVC Preseason Offensive and Defensive Players of the Year in a vote of by the league's head football coaches and communications directors. Jacksonville State led the way with six total preseason selections, while Austin Peay followed with five picks. Eastern Illinois, Eastern Kentucky, Southeast Missouri, Tennessee State and UT Martin had three picks apiece while Murray State and Tennessee Tech had two selections each. Returning players who were first-team All-OVC selections last year (seven in total) were automatic selections to the preseason team this year. The squad also included 16 players who were second-team picks in 2017. Of the 30 total selections, 18 were seniors, seven were juniors and five were sophomores.

Instant Replay: For the second-straight year, the OVC will have instant replay for all non-conference and conference home football contests. The league has partnered with DVSPORT to implement replay which is defined by Rule 12 of the NCAA Football Rule Book.

I-AA No More: Although some people may still refer to it as I-AA football, the term that represents the level of Division I football in which the Ohio Valley Conference competes has been long retired. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game, the term Football Championship Subdivision (or FCS) is to be used. Teams who play at the FCS level can offer a maximum of 63 scholarships (Football Bowl Subdivision teams can offer 85) and compete in a 24-team playoff at the end of the season to determine the national champion.

SGT. YORK TROPHY

The 2018 season marks the 12th of competition for the Sergeant York Trophy, an award created by the Nashville Sports Council and the Ohio Valley Conference. The trophy is contested between the four OVC football-playing schools in the state of Tennessee - Austin Peay, Tennessee State, Tennessee Tech and UT Martin - and goes to the team with the best combined record versus those schools in a given year.

The 2018 season is the fifth that the award has been presented by Delta Dental of Tennessee.

In the event of a tie, the award will be shared; however, the previous winner will retain the trophy if they are part of the tie. If the tie is between two other institutions, the trophy will go to the institution that has gone the most seasons without winning the trophy.

The award is only the second traveling trophy that involves more than two teams in college sports; the other is the Commander in Chief's Trophy which has been contested between Air Force, Army and Navy annually since 1972. The award is named in honor of Alvin C. York, the most noted Soldier of World War I. Upon his return to the United States in 1919, he was bestowed the Congressional Medal of Honor. Following the war York returned his home in Pall Mall, Tenn. where he dedicated his life to improving education and facilitating educational opportunities for children in the state of Tennessee.

Austin Peay completed a perfect 3-0 record in 2017 to win its first Sgt. York Trophy.

GAME NOTES: Murray State and Southern Illinois meet for the 22nd time on Thursday night, and first since 2016. That meeting two years ago was the first between the schools, separated by just two hours, since the 2003 season. SIU has won two in a row in the series, although MSU won the three games before that (with the last win coming in Murray in 2002). In the 2016 matchup, the Salukis rolled up 558 yards of total offense on its way to a 50-17 victory. Daquan Isom had a game-high 104 rushing yards for Southern Illinois while quarterback Josh Straughan passed for 289 yards and four touchdowns. The Racers were led by Mareio McGraw who had 78 rushing yards while Cameron Birse passed for 210 yards and a touchdown.

SCOUTING SOUTHERN ILLINOIS: Southern Illinois will play the first of two OVC opponents this season by opening the year with Murray State. The Salukis will host Southeast Missouri in week three. Third-year head coach Nick Hill, who played quarterback for SIU, will look to an experienced quarterback to run the team's spread offense. Fifth-year senior quarterback Sam Straub is on the CFPA FCS Performer of the Year Watch List to begin this season. A year ago he passed for 1,886 yards and 20 touchdowns in eight games before suffering a season-ending injury. Also back is junior running back D.J. Davis who was a HERO Sports Sophomore All-American after accounting for 124.8 all-purpose yards/game, including catching 35 passes out of the backfield. SIU should be strong on the defensive line, which includes Anthony Knighton (39 tackles, 11.0 TFL, 6.5 sacks) and Malik Haynes (22 tackles, 5.5 TFL, 1 sack) and added Michigan State transfer Kyonta Stallworth.

SCOUTING MURRAY STATE: A season ago Murray State ranked eighth nationally in turnovers gained (28) and 16th in turnover margin (+0.82/game). That defense had 17 total interceptions, including three by returner Marquez Sanford. Sanford is one of five defensive starters returning this season. The Racers defensive line includes senior Kenny Wooten, a Preseason All-OVC selection, who had 10 sacks and forced two fumbles a year ago. The MSU linebacker group includes Quincy Williams who tallied 57 tackles in 2017. On the flip side of the ball, Murray State threw only seven interceptions in 422 passing attempts a year ago. Senior Shuler Bentley (brother of South Carolina quarterback Jake Shuler) played in nine games last year, passing for 1,789 yards and 13 touchdowns. Bentley and the Racers offense was 22-for-24 (91.7%) in the red zone a year ago, a mark that ranked third in the FCS. That offense also returns running back D.J. Penick who had a team-high 431 rushing yards in 2017. Also back is kicker Gabriel Vicente, a Preseason All-OVC selection, who was 14-of-18 on field goal attempts in his first season of football at any level.

GAME NOTES: Eastern Kentucky and Morehead State will play for the 73rd time on Thursday night as the two teams open the 2018 season. The longtime rivals have not played since 2014, a run of three-straight years of meetings between the teams. Morehead State, who plays in the OVC in all other sports, is a member of the Pioneer League for football. The two teams played annually until 1995 (the last season for the Eagles playing OVC football) but did not play again until 2008. Overall EKV has won nine in a row and 27 of the last 28 in the series; the lone victory for MSU in that stretch was a 27-17 win in the 1990 season. EKV holds a 28-9-1 advantage in games played in Richmond. In the last meeting, EKV had over 500 yards of total offense and led 46-0 at halftime on its way to a 55-13 victory. In that game Bennie Coney tossed a pair of touchdowns while Dy'Shawn Mobley rushed for 123 yards and a touchdown for the Colonels. Austin Gahafer had 272 rushing yards and one passing and one rushing touchdown for the Eagles.

SCOUTING MOREHEAD STATE: Morehead State is coming off back-to-back 4-7 season after finishing the 2015 campaign with a 7-4 mark. The Eagles were predicted to finish eighth in the Pioneer Football League this season in a vote of league head coaches. Senior wide receiver Jarin Higginbotham was named to the Preseason All-Pioneer League Team after hauling in 48 catches for 974 yards and 10 touchdowns a season ago. The 974 yards were the third-most in MSU single-season history, while his 1,440 career yards is eighth-most in school history entering the year. He will catch passes from senior Lawson Page, who passed for more than 2,500 yards and 20 scores a year ago.

SCOUTING EASTERN KENTUCKY: A year ago Eastern Kentucky won three of its final five games and the two games the team lost came by a combined 10 points (including an overtime contest). Third-year head coach Mark Elder hopes to carry that momentum into this season with 14 returning starters coming back for his program. A year ago the Colonel defense registered 26 sacks and returns Preseason All-OVC selection Aaron Patrick, who had 10.0 tackles-for-loss and seven sacks in 2016 before missing most of last season with an injury. A year ago the Eastern Kentucky offensive line allowed just eight sacks in 11 games, a mark that was first in the OVC and fifth nationally. Four of those starters return this season and will look to block for senior running back LJ Scott who rushed for 294 yards and six touchdowns a year ago. Scott was also one of the top return specialists in the country in 2017, averaging 30.0 yards on 21 total returns, which earned him Preseason All-American honors this season. Who will start under center is still to-be-determined for EKV as five players are competing for the job; one of those players is sophomore Austin Scott who played at least one series in every Colonel game a year ago.

GAME NOTES: Tennessee Tech and Chattanooga will kick off the 2018 season with the first matchup between the programs since 2014. In that game UTC won 38-17 to extend its advantage in the all-time series to 29-10. Overall UTC has won the last three meetings in the series; prior to that Tennessee Tech won three-straight in the series (2002-04). In the last meeting, the Mocs were ranked No. 9 nationally and jumped out to a 28-10 lead on the way to the victory. Jacob Huesman completed 21-of-27 passes for 234 yards and four touchdowns while rushing for 89 yards and another score for Chattanooga. Ladarius Vanlier led Tennessee Tech with 81 rushing yards and a touchdown.

SCOUTING TENNESSEE TECH: Tennessee Tech is under the direction of new head coach Dewayne Alexander, who is no stranger to the program. Alexander, who spent seven years as head coach at Cumberland University (2006-12), played at Tennessee Tech, was a graduate assistant (1997-98) for the program, served two stints as an assistant coach (2002 and 2013-15) with the Golden Eagles and was acting head coach from December 2015 through January 2016. Alexander inherits a team coming off a one-win season but returns eight offensive and seven defensive starters. The defense includes senior defensive end Tim Collins, a Preseason All-OVC selection who tallied 51 tackles, 5.0 tackles-for-loss and six quarterback hurries in 2017. That defense also welcomes back junior linebacker Josh Poplar who missed all of last season with a medical issue; a now healthy Poplar will look to amass similar stats to 2016 when he had a team-best 105 tackles while also recovering three fumbles. Senior kicker/punter Nick Madonia returns after making 9-of-14 field goals (including a long of 51 yards) while also averaging 40.1 yards/punt. True freshman Bailey Fisher currently holds the top spot in the Tech offensive depth chart; he enrolled at TTU in January after passing for 3,341 yards and 43 touchdowns and rushing for 1,283 yards his senior season of high school.

SCOUTING CHATTANOOGA: Chattanooga plays the first of two OVC opponents this season; the Mocs will take on UT Martin in week three. The Mocs begin year number two under head coach Tom Arth, who was the D3 National Coach of the Year in 2016 at John Carroll University. A year ago, Arth led the team to wins in two of the final three games of the season. The team led the SoCon and ranked 25th nationally in total defense (326.4 yards/game allowed) and were 12th nationally in passing defense (163.2 yards/game allowed). This year the team has 16 starters back and were picked to finish fifth in the Southern Conference in the coaches poll. Among the team's returning players is senior Isaiah Mack who had 54 tackles, 7.0 tackles-for-loss and 1.5 sacks a season ago; he was selected to the Preseason All-SoCon Team this season. Junior Nick Tiano is back at quarterback after missing the final six games of last season due to injury. In the five games he did play, he amassed 873 passing yards and six touchdowns.

GAME NOTES: For the first time in its history, the Austin Peay Governors are ranked in a Top 25 poll, coming in at No. 22/23 in the FCS polls. Its reward is to take on last year's CFP national runner-up in Georgia, the No. 3 ranked team in the Football Bowl Subdivision team entering the season. The matchup is the first between the two programs. It will mark the highest-ranked FBS opponent for an OVC team since UT Martin played No. 1 Mississippi State on Nov. 8, 2014. Austin Peay is 1-24 all-time against FBS opponents, with its last win coming 25-22 over Kansas State in 1987.

SCOUTING AUSTIN PEAY: Despite a tough test in its opening game of the year, expectations have never been higher for the Austin Peay program. A year ago Will Healy, in his second year as the Govs coach, orchestrated one of the top turnarounds in FCS history. During the year the team snapped a 29-game overall losing streak, a 21-game OVC losing streak and a 45-game road losing streak as Healy was named the winner of the Eddie Robinson Award as the FCS National Coach of the Year. APSU finished the season 8-4 overall and was the first team left out of the 24-team playoff field. This season the team has an experienced group of returning players who are hoping to carry to team to its first-ever FCS playoff appearance. The offense is led by sophomore quarterback Jeremiah Oatsvall, who was selected the OVC Preseason Player of the Year in a vote of league media. Oatsvall took over as the full-time starter halfway through the season and finished the year with 1148 passing yards, seven touchdowns as well as 453 rushing yards and six rushing scores touchdowns. On the other side of the ball is junior defensive end Jaison Williams, one of 25 players on the Buck Buchanan Award Watch List to start the 2018 campaign. A year ago Williams had 44 tackles, 11.5 tackles-for-loss, 9.5 sacks, 13 quarterback hurries and four forced fumbles.

SCOUTING GEORGIA: Georgia was one play away from winning the College Football Playoff National Championship a year ago, before ultimately falling 26-23 in overtime. The Bulldogs finished last year 13-2 overall and are 21-7 in two years under Kirby Smart, who played at Georgia and was an assistant coach with the program before serving as the defensive coordinator at Alabama from 2008-15. This year's team returns a lot of key contributors from a year ago in addition to adding the nation's top-ranked recruiting class. Sophomore quarterback Jake Fromm will look to lead the team after passing for 2,615 yards and 24 touchdowns on his way to SEC Freshman of the Year honors. At running back D'Andre Swift returns after rushing for 618 yards and three touchdowns as the team's No. 3 back a year ago. The team also added the nation's No. 1 recruit in Zamir White who rushed for 7,169 yards in his high school career. Among the defensive returning players are senior defensive end Jonathan Ledbetter (38 tackles) and linebacker D'Andre Walker (13.5 tackles-for-loss).

GAME NOTES: Eastern Illinois head coach Kim Dameron returns to his alma mater on Saturday as the Panthers take on SEC foe Arkansas for the first time in program history. Dameron played WR/DB from 1978-82 and was part of four bowl games during his time in Fayetteville. EIU is 10-36 all-time against Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponents, including two wins in the last five years (San Diego State in 2013 and Miami (Ohio) in 2016). Saturday's matchup includes a pair of running backs - Jamal Scott (EIU) and Rakeem Boyd (Arkansas) who played together at Independence Community College and were featured on the Netflix show "Last Chance U."

SCOUTING EASTERN ILLINOIS: Head Coach Kim Dameron enters his fifth season in Charleston and has led the Panthers to three-straight winning seasons, and never had a losing mark in OVC play. This season his team will make a shift to an "Air Raid" offense under new offensive coordinator Scott Parr, who helped Navarro Junior College rank among the nation's top offensive units in each of the last three seasons. The Panthers have plenty of options at quarterback, including returning sophomore Scotty Gilkey, Jr. (606 passing yards, three touchdowns; 275 rushing yards, six touchdowns in five starts last year) and transfers Johnathan Brantley (Tulane) and Harry Woodbery (Navarro JC). The quarterback will have the luxury of throwing to Preseason All-OVC wide receiver Alexander Hollins, who ranked in the top 10 in the OVC in receptions (47), receiving yards (694) and touchdown receptions (7) in his debut season with the Panthers. In the backfield Isaiah Johnson returns after rushing for a team-high 683 yards and five touchdowns in 2017. On defense, sophomore Mark Williams will be looking to build on a Freshman All-American season that saw him tally 49 tackles, three interceptions and eight pass breakups.

SCOUTING ARKANSAS: Arkansas enters its first season under the direction of head coach Chad Morris, who spent the previous three years as head coach at SMU, turning around a team that was 1-11 prior to his arrival. He also spent four years as the offensive coordinator at Clemson, installing an offense that broke the Tigers to national prominence. This season Morris has a team that returns nine offensive and nine defensive starters from a season ago. Arkansas has five offensive linemen with starting experience who will play key roles in a new spread offensive attack. On the other side of the ball, new defensive coordinator John Chavis has several key returning players including the linebacker duo of Dre Greenlaw (103 tackles) and De'Jon Harris (115 tackles).

GAME NOTES: UT Martin will travel to Missouri for the first-ever matchup between the two schools on Saturday. The Skyhawks are 1-24 all-time against Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponents, with the lone win coming 20-17 over Memphis in 2012.

SCOUTING UT MARTIN: UT Martin was picked third in the OVC preseason coaches poll. The team begins its 13th season under head coach Jason Simpson who has recorded a .500 or better OVC finish in each of his seasons. Simpson enters this year ranked seventh in OVC history with 78 total victories. This year he returns 63 players and 13 starters from a year ago, including Preseason All-OVC running back selection LaDarius Galloway. Galloway tallied 859 rushing yards and 307 receiving yards a year ago for the Skyhawks. Galloway will bolster an offensive attack that includes junior wide receiver Jaylon Moore (18 receptions, 297 yards, four touchdowns) and sophomore quarterback Dresser Winn (744 passing yards and five TDs in five games). The defensive side of the ball should once again be a strength for the Skyhawks, who ranked sixth in the FCS in total defense (273.8 yards/game allowed) a year ago. Among the returning defensive players are senior linebackers James Gilleylen (88 tackles, 9.0 tackles-for-loss, three forced fumbles) and Kevin Prather, Jr. (77 tackles, 10.0 tackles-for-loss, eight quarterback hurries).

SCOUTING MISSOURI: A year ago Barry Odom guided his alma mater to a seven-win season and the program's first bowl appearance since 2014. Odom has been associated with the program for 16 years, including as a student-athlete, administrator, assistant coach and now head coach. A year ago Drew Lock set the SEC record with 44 passing touchdowns, a mark that led all FBS players. That earned him first-team All-SEC honors last year and puts him in the Heisman Trophy conversation to begin this year. Lock keyed an offense that averaged 37.5 points (14th nationally) and 502.2 yards of offense/game (eighth nationally). He will look to complete passes to Emanuel Hall and Johnathon Johnson who combined for 74 catches, 1,541 yards and 14 touchdowns in 2017. In the backfield Damarea Crockett and Larry Rountree III return; Crockett ran for 1,062 yards as a freshman in 2016 before missing half of last year with an injury. Senior defensive tackle Terry Beckner (38 tackles, 11.0 TFL, 7.0 sacks) and junior defensive back DeMarkus Acy (48 tackles) were each named to the Preseason All-SEC team in a vote of league head coaches.

GAME NOTES: The 20th annual John Merritt Classic returns to the first game of the season for Tennessee State, after being played in week five a season ago. The Tigers lost last year's game to OVC foe Eastern Illinois (19-16 in overtime) but are 13-6 all-time in the game. This year marks the second time Bethune-Cookman has been the opponent for the JMC; the Wildcats topped the Tigers 12-9 to kick off the 2013 season. Overall this will be the 10th meeting between the schools, with the teams last playing in 2016, a 31-24 win for Tennessee State in Daytona Beach. In that game, Ronald Butler connected with Patrick Smith on a seven-yard touchdown pass with 3:55 to play to break a tie and give TSU the win. That was one of two touchdown passes on the day for Butler while the TSU rushing attack ran for 210 yards on the ground (113 yards coming from Earl Harrison). Anthony Cruz passed for 45 yards and ran for a team-high 81 yards for BCU.

SCOUTING BETHUNE-COOKMAN: Bethune-Cookman finished last season 6-2 in MEAC play and won its last four and six of its final seven games overall. The Wildcats also played MEAC and HBCU Champion North Carolina A&T tough, falling by just four points on the road. The team was projected fourth in the MEAC in a preseason poll of league coaches. Senior offensive lineman Dwayne Brown has been named to the Black College Player of the Year Watch List. He paved the way for the Wildcats offense to average 341.2 yards/game a season ago. A year ago on defense, Bethune-Cookman ranked 11th nationally in allowing just 161.5 passing yards/game. Among the returning defensive players for the team are lineman Todney Evans (a second-team All-MEAC selection last year) and linebacker Marquis Hendrix (the team's top returning tackler with 68 stops in 2017).

SCOUTING TENNESSEE STATE: Tennessee State is coming off a season that included six wins, including one over FBS foe Georgia State to open the season. As usual the Tigers were tough on defense, ranking seventh nationally in total defense (278.5 yards/game allowed). That defense includes a pair of sophomore defensive backs who were named to the Preseason All-OVC team in Vincent Sellers and Dajour Nesbeth. Sellers was a finalist for the Jerry Rice Award (given to the top freshman in the FCS) after recording 49 tackles and two interceptions that he returned for touchdowns. Nesbeth had 48 tackles, two interceptions and nine pass breakups in 11 games in 2017. Also returning is Preseason All-OVC wide receiver Steven Newbold who caught 34 passes for 627 yards and four touchdowns as a sophomore after posting similar numbers as a freshman (41 catches, 784 yards, six touchdowns). The Tigers also have its top five running backs returning, including sophomore Sabree Curtis (439 yards) and junior Seth Rowland (423 yards).

GAME NOTES: Southeast Missouri will open the 2018 season by traveling to Arkansas State for the first matchup between the teams since 2003. The teams have played 11 previous games with the first 10 taking place between 1916 and 1947. The programs then went 56 years without playing before the Red Wolves won 21-3 in 2003. In that game, Arkansas State outgained Southeast Missouri 312 to 259 and scored a touchdown in each the first, second and fourth quarters to slowly pull away. Jack Tomco completed 13-of-19 passes for 69 yards for the Redhawks. Southeast Missouri is 1-22 all-time against Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) opponents, with the lone win coming against Middle Tennessee in 2002. Saturday's game is the first time the Redhawks have played a Sun Belt opponent in 15 seasons.

SCOUTING SOUTHEAST MISSOURI: Southeast Missouri was picked seventh in the 2018 OVC football preseason poll. The Redhawks begin year five under head coach Tom Matukewicz, who has three victories over ranked opponents during his tenure, tops in program history. His team has 10 returning starters, including five on each side of the ball. Among those starters is senior running back and Preseason OVC Offensive Player of the Year Marquis Terry, who led the OVC in rushing a year ago (1,076 yards) while also catching 20 passes out of the backfield. Terry had four 100-yard rushing games, including a season-best 184 yards in a win over Eastern Kentucky, last year. Also back on offense is junior wide receiver Kristian Wilkerson, who led the team with 52 catches for 553 yards and five touchdowns in nine starts. Northern Illinois transfer Daniel Santacaterina has been named the team's starting quarterback. He played in six games at NIU, completing 62-of-97 passes for 712 yards and seven touchdowns; he had 128 passing yards in a win over Nebraska. Last season Southeast recorded 37 total sacks, which ranked sixth in the FCS; this year the program returns junior linebacker Zach Hall who was a big part of that defense. Hall, a second-team All-OVC pick in 2017, led Southeast in tackles (79), tackles-for-loss (15) and sacks (9).

SCOUTING ARKANSAS STATE: Arkansas State picked as the Sun Belt preseason favorites for 2018; this season marks the first of a divisional format that will lead up to a Championship Game. The Red Wolves are receiving votes in each the AP and Coaches Top 25 polls. ASU has won five Sun Belt Championships, including two (2015, 2016) under current head coach Blake Anderson. Anderson has led the team to four-straight bowl appearances. This season all eyes will be on senior quarterback Justice Hansen, who has been named to multiple preseason watch lists including most recently the Manning Award and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Watch Lists. Last year Hansen was the Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year, setting new school and conference records a year ago with 37 passing touchdowns and total offense (4,389 yards). He ranked among the top 10 players nationally in seven statistical categories.
