THIS YEAR IN PAC-12 TRACK & FIELD

SAN FRANCISCO - The Pac-12 capped one of the most successful men's and women's outdoor track & field seasons in league history with the OREGON men and women sweeping the NCAA titles, the first-ever sweep for the Ducks and first sweep since Texas A&M did so in 2009, 2010 and 2011.

The men successfully defended their title from last year posting a 29-point victory over the second-place team, the largest margin of victory in 21 years. The women won the NCAA title for the first time in 30 years, pulling out a nine-point win. It is the Conference's seventh women's outdoor title since the NCAA began sponsoring women's sports in 1982 and the league's 47th all-time men's outdoor crown.

Six Pac-12 athletes won eight NCAA individual crowns. UO's Edward Cheserek (5,000 meters and 10,000 meters) and USC's Andre De Grasse (100 meters and 200 meters) were each double winners. UO's Sam Crouser won the javelin and Trojan Conor McCullough was a winner in the hammer. Duck teammates Jenna Prandini and freshman Raevyn Rogers won the 100 meters and 800 meters, respectively.

Pac-12 honors went to De Grasse, who was voted the Pac-12 Men's Track Athlete of the Year, and ARIZONA's Pau Tonnesen was tabbed the Men's Field Athlete of the Year. The Trojans' Marquis Morris was named the Men's Freshman of the Year. On the women's side, ARIZONA STATE's Shelby Houlihan was voted the Pac-12 Track Athlete of the Year, while UO's Jasmine Todd was the Field Athlete of the Year. COLORADO's Erin Clark was tabbed the Freshman of the Year. USC's Caryl Smith Gilbert, who is only in her second year with the Trojans, was voted the Pac-12 Men's Coach of the Year and Pac-12 Women's Coach of the Year after her women's squad came in second by just three points behind the Pac-12 Champion Ducks, while her men's squad also finished second.

NATIONAL HONORS... After leading his teams to a sweep of the NCAA Men's and Women's Outdoor Track & Field titles, head coach Robert Johnson took home both the men's and women's USTFCCA National Coach of the Year honors. Under his watch, the men's squad successfully defended its title, while the women won their first crown since 1985. He wins the men's honor for the second-straight year and the women's honor for the first time.

Oregon assistant coach Andy Powell was also voted the National Men's Assistant Coach of the Year, the first time he has earned the outdoor honor. Powell's main focus is with the distance runners, who collected 47 points of the team's total of 85.

OREGON SWEEPS NCAA TITLES... The Oregon men defended their NCAA crown, scoring 89 points and posting a twenty-nine point victory over Florida, the biggest margin of victory in 21 years. It is the Pac-12's 47th all-time track and field crown and Oregon's seventh overall. The men won with the help of three individual titles, two coming from Edward Cheserek (5,000m and 10,000m) and one from Sam Crouser (javelin).

The Duck women claimed a slim nine-point win over Kentucky, the team's second title all-time and first since 1985. It is also the Pac-12's seventh outdoor women's crown all-time. Jenna Prandini scored 26 points alone, including claiming the 100-meter title, while teammate Raevyn Rogers, a freshman, won the 800 meters to help the team claim their first title in 30 years.

On the men's side, USC scored 40.5 points to place fifth, Stanford was 16th with 12 points, Arizona tied for 19th (10), Arizona State and Colorado tied for 51st (4), and California scored two points to tie for 68th.

On the women's side, USC's 34 points were good for seventh place, Stanford had 18 points to tie for 13th, ASU scored 10 to tie for 20th, Colorado was tied for 35th (6), Washington was tied for 42nd (5) and Arizona (3) tied for 51st.

USTFCCCA PROGRAM OF THE YEAR... The Oregon men's and women's track & field teams were crowned the USTFCCCA men's and women's Program of the Year. The award honors the institution that has achieved the most success in each academic year (spanning the cross country, indoor track & field, and outdoor track & field seasons) based on the institution's finish at the NCAA Championships. Colorado also ranked ninth on the men's side. On the women's side, the Ducks edged out Arkansas by just one point to claim the award. Stanford finished third and Washington was 13th in the final standings.

PAC-12 HONORS ANNOUNCED... At the conclusion of the Pac-12 Track & Field Championships, the Conference of- fice announced the major award winners as voted on by the league's men's and women's coaches:

Men's Track Athlete of the Year: Andre De Grasse, USC
Women's Track Athlete of the Year: Shelby Houlihan, ASU
Men's Field Athlete of the Year: Pau Tonnesen, ARIZ
Women's Field Athlete of the Year: Jasmine Todd, ORE

BOWERMAN UPDATE... In the final update of the season, OREGON's Jenna Prandini is one of 10 women on the latest Bowerman Watch List and UO's Edward Cheserek and USC's Conor McCullough are on the men's watch list. The Bowerman, which debuted in 2009, is presented annually by the USTFCCCA to the most outstanding male and female collegiate track & field athletes in the nation.

THE FINAL RANKINGS... Here is where Pac-12 ranked in the final USTFCCCA Top-25 heading into the NCAA Championships (June 1):

MEN	WOMEN
4. Oregon	1. USC
5. USC	4. Oregon
21. Stanford	14. Stanford

Here is where the Pac-12 ranks as a league in the national index.

MEN	Points	Top 25	WOMEN	Points	Top 25
1. SEC	1995.35	9	1. SEC	1961.02	8
2. Pac-12	918.03	3	2. Pac-12	964.31	3

TOP MARKS... Three different Pac-12 athletes have posted the nation's top times or marks.

Jenna Prandini's 10.92 which she recorded in April is the fastest women's collegiate time in the country and the fastest in Pac-12 history. Raevyn Rogers' 1:59.71 in the 800 meters is also tops in the event. She is the only female collegian this year to break two minutes in the event and is the fastest freshman in NCAA history at the distance. The time also ranks fifth all-time in Conference history.

STANFORD's Jessica Tonn ran 15:18.85 in the 5000 meters this year, which is the second-fastest time in the event in Pac-12 history.

USC's Conor McCullough threw a 252-4/76.91m in the hammer throw at the NCAA Championships to claim the title, tops in the nation and fourth-best in league history.

USC's Andre De Grasse ran a wind-aided 9.75 in the 100 meters to claim the individual national title, which is the fastest time among collegians and fastest all-conditions time in the event in Conference history.

OREGON CLAIMS PAC-12 TITLES... For the seventh-consecutive year, the OREGON men and women swept the Pac-12 Men's and Women's Track & Field Championships which were held at Drake Stadium on the campus of UCLA. The men's squad claimed its ninth-straight title, while the women won their seventh in a row. The Duck women won a close competition, scoring a meet-high 185 points while the men scored 152 points. Individual recognition went to UO's Jasmine Todd who was the Pac-12 Women's Athlete of the Meet, tallying 35 points. USC's Andre De Grasse was the Pac-12 Men's Athlete of the Meet, scoring 22.5 points for the Trojans.

Todd's 35 points came from a win in the 100 meter and the triple jump, a second-place in the long jump, third in the 200 meters and by helping the 4x100-meter relay team place second for 35 points. De Grasse 22.5 points were on the strength of a pair of wins in the 100- and 200-meter races, while also helping the Trojans 4x100-meter relay squad to a win, as well.

- more -

The OREGON women held off USC who had the lead after the 200-meter race and only two events left. The Ducks quickly regained the lead after the 5000-meter race, and eventually won, 185-182. It was the closest margin of victory in the women's competition since a 2.5-point win by ARIZONA STATE over STANFORD in 2006.

On the men's side, the Trojans also grabbed the lead after the 200-meter but lost the lead again after the Ducks scored 25 points in the 5,000 meters to regain the lead. The Trojans ended the meet with 121 points and WASHINGTON jumped ahead of UCLA in the final event to score 84.50 points, 1.5 points better than the host Bruins.

In addition to De Grasse breaking the meet record in the 100 meters that had stood for 19 years, ARIZONA STATE's Shelby Houlihan also set a new meet record in the 1,500 meters. The women's 400-meter race was one of the fastest in Pac-12 history as the top-two times ranked in the top-10 all-time. USC also set a meet record in the women's 4x100 meter relay, a record they had established last year. The Trojan women also scored 34 points in a single event, the 200 meters, sweeping the 1-3 spots, as well as 5-8.

PAC-12 MEET RECORDS FALL... Three records were broken at the Pac-12 Track & Field Championships, two of which had stood for over a decade. Andre De Grasse of USC won the 100-meter race, becoming the first-ever sprinter run a legal win of under 10 seconds at the distance at the meet. De Grasse took down the old record set by former UCLA Bruin Ato Boldon. Boldon had recorded a 10.03 in 1996. ARIZONA STATE's Shelby Houlihan broke a 12-year old meet record in the 1,500 meter. She clocked a 4:11.06, besting for UCLA Bruins' Lena Nilsson's time of 4:13.21.

Individual to the individual records that were broken, the USC women's 4x100 team broke its own record set last year in the event. They ran a 43.10 this year, just a hair better than last year's 43.21.

2016 NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS... The University of Oregon hosts next year's NCAA Championships, June 8-11, 2016 at Hayward Field in Eugene, Oregon. The University of Kansas (West) and the University of North Florida (East) will host the regional competition, May 26-28, 2016.

2016 PAC-12 CHAMPIONSHIPS... Washington will host the 2016 Pac-12 Championships, to be held May 7-8 and 14-15 at Husky Outdoor Track in Seattle.
