PAC ANNOUNCES MEN'S AND WOMEN'S ALL-SPORTS TROPHY WINNERS

GROVE CITY, PA., May 7, 1992---Washington & Jefferson College has captured the 1991-92 Presidents' Athletic Conference Men's All-Sports Trophy, while Grove City College has earned its fourth straight PAC Women's All-Sports Award.

The PAC Men's and Women's All-Sports Trophies are given annually to the institution totaling the most points after all ten men's and seven women's sports are completed. Schools are awarded five points for a first-place finish, four points for a second place finish, and so on.

The Presidents won the men's all-sports trophy with 37 points, two and one-half points ahead of Grove City College. Washington & Jefferson claimed men's titles in football, basketball, and baseball, and placed second in swimming, wrestling, and tennis. Grove City, winner of the last two men's all-sports trophies, took three PAC crowns in cross country, swimming, and tennis. The Tomcats of Thiel College finished third in the men's standings, winning championships in wrestling and track & field.

In the women's division, Grove City College notched its fourth consecutive all-sports honor by posting PAC championships in cross country and tennis. The Lady Wolverines, which totaled 24.5 points, placed second in swimming and volleyball. Washington & Jefferson finished a close second with 22.5 points, taking the '92 swimming title. Waynesburg, which grabbed the volleyball and basketball crowns, assumed the third slot with 20 points.

Complete all-sports trophy standings are listed on the following page.
