All-Sports Trophy

Grove City Captures Women's and Men's All-Sports Trophies

Winner of 10 of the league's 19 championships, Grove City captured both the women's and men's all-sports trophies in 1997-98, becoming the first school to claim both awards since Washington & Jefferson's sweep in 1993-94. Grove City won six of nine women's titles to secure the all-sports trophy for the fourth year in a row and eighth time in the last nine years. The Lady Wolverines won PAC crowns in soccer, cross country, tennis, swimming, softball and golf, and placed second in basketball, track & field, and volleyball (tie). On the men's side, Grove City ended W&J's four-year reign as all-sports trophy titleholder with four conference championships, three seconds, a third, and a fourth. The Wolverines took first in football, cross country, swimming, and tennis, and second in soccer, baseball, and golf. W&J edged Grove City by less than one point in the men's race the last two years. Grove City last swept both PAC all-sports trophies in 1993. It now has four sweeps to its credit in the nineties.
