W & J NETS THIRD STRAIGHT PAC TITLE...

Washington and Jefferson clinched its third straight conference championship last Wednesday by posting a 99-91 win over runner-up Grove City. Junior guard Greg Colbert (Pittsburgh, PA/Montour), named PAC Player of the Week, scorched the nets with six three-point buckets in eight attempts en route to a 20-point night, while senior center Terry Wilkins (Washington, PA/Washington) posted a team-high 23 points and 11 rebounds. The Presidents, under first-year head coach Tom Reiter, completed a perfect 8-0 league record with an 89-70 triumph at Bethany last Saturday. W & J becomes the third consecutive team to three-peat as PAC champion. John Carroll, now a member of the Ohio Athletic Conference, won three in a row from 1986 through 1988, and Grove City took home the title in 1989, 1990, and 1991. No PAC men's basketball team has ever won four straight crowns. The Presidents now await a possible bid to the 1994 NCAA Division III Men's Basketball Championship. The brackets will be announced Sunday, February 27.
