1985-86 ALL-PAC TEAMS NAMED; KELLY REPEATS AS MVP, RHOADS AS COACH OF THE YEAR

Cindy Kelly, 5-9 forward of Washington & Jefferson College, is the Most Valuable Player of the Presidents' Athletic Conference women's basketball season for the second straight year.

Kelly led the league in scoring with an average of 22.1 points per game. She is a native of McKeesport, Pa. She is a senior.

Also taking top honors for the second year in a row is Thiel College head coach Gie Rhoads. She repeats as Coach Of The Year after having led her squad to a second consecutive PAC title.

Rhoads' husband, Posey, was named earlier as the PAC men's basketball Coach Of the Year. He led Thiel to a second place finish this year after the squad had placed last in the loop for seven years in a row.

The complete 1985-86 all-PAC women's selections are as follows:
