

Presidents Athletic Conference

1986 PAC ALL-CONFERENCE SOFTBALL TEAM NAMED

Don Lyle, Audrey Warnock and Monica Maryasz headline the 1986 all-Presidents' Athletic Conference softball award winners in the league's first season of sponsoring the sport.

Lyle was name Coach of the Year for leading Grove City College to the league pennant. His squad won a tie-breaker playoff game over Hiram 9-3 to claim the title. His squad finished 8-3 in the PAC and 14-9 overall.

Warnock, a John Carroll University freshman, was named the loop's Most Valuable Player. A catcher, Warnock led the league in batting average (.492) while tying for PAC bests in hits (32), runs batted in (23) and triples (6). She was also a first team all-PAC choice in basketball this year.

Maryasz, of Bethany College, was named Pitcher of the Year as she paced the league's hurlers with a 1.63 earned run average. She also tossed 11 complete games and three shutouts while striking out 44 batters, all league-leading figures.

The complete all-conference team is as follows:
