

Grove City Captures Second Straight Men's Golf Crown

Grove City, unbeaten in the regular season, secured its second consecutive league title as three Wolverines posted top-five scores at the PAC Men's Golf Championship, held at Oglebay's Speidel Golf Club in Wheeling, WV. Thiel's Bill Wadrose earned MVP honors, firing the low 36-hole total (157). John Marhefka, Grove City's second-year mentor, bagged his second straight coach of the year award. Grove City's Dave Pifer (159) was the championship's runner-up, placing two strokes back.

Both were joined on the PAC First Team by Chuck Fountain of W&J (162), Mike Liptak of Grove City (163) and Jim Russell of W&J (166), who tied Grove City's Burt Romanoff (166) for fifth after 36 holes and then won a sudden-death playoff to round out the first team.
