Grove City Wins Tenth Straight Title

Grove City completed a decade of women's tennis dominance by capturing its tenth straight title at the 1996 PAC Championships, hosted by Grove City College October 3-4. For the second year in a row, the Lady Wolverines won the crown by winning all six singles championships and all three doubles finals. In the two-day event, Grove City swept all 18 matches in straight sets, taking 216 of 248 games. Grove City senior Cathy Tiberia (Hermitage, PA/Hickory) was named PAC Most Valuable Player after winning matches at first singles and first doubles, while fifth-year head coach Cathy Jacobs was voted PAC Coach of the Year. With the clean sweep, Grove City filled the entire PAC First Team. Runner-up Bethany finished with five PAC Second Team awards, while W&J had four Second Team placements. Alfred, who tied W&J for third place overall in its first-ever PAC championship appearance, and Waynesburg were not represented in the nine final matches.
