IRVINE, Calif. -- Biola completed its trip to Hawai'i with three wins to extend its winning streak to eight matches and move within half a match of first place in the PacWest standings.

Biola avenged one of its conference losses earlier in the season by beating Hawai'i Hilo 3-1 on Friday to wrap up a successful trip to the islands. The Eagles also defeated Chaminade and Hawai'i Pacific, dropping only two sets during the trip.

Azusa Pacific held onto first place in the league with wins at Holy Names and Academy of Art. Against the Hawks, Julianne Miller had a .857 hitting percentage, breaking Azusa Pacific's single-match record while reclaiming her spot as the conference leader in hitting percentage for the season.

Point Loma has kept pace with the two teams ahead in the conference standings by winning all of its last six matches. The Sea Lions have won seven-consecutive sets after sweeping Holy Names and Academy of Art.

This week, Point Loma will host Azusa Pacific on Tuesday. Azusa Pacific will also travel to Fresno Pacific as the Cougars try to stay in first place in the conference. Biola will host Notre Dame de Namur before making a trip to Concordia.

Chaminade, Hawai'i Hilo and Hawai'i Pacific are back in California to take on the Bay Area schools, starting on Saturday with Hawai'i Hilo playing against Holy Names. The first regional rankings will come out on Wednesday.
