*-Clinched share of PacWest title

IRVINE, Calif. -- Azusa Pacific secured at least a share of the 2018 PacWest title by beating Biola 1-0 on Saturday with a goal in the 78th minute by Arturo Astorga. It is the Cougars' second PacWest title in men's soccer after winning the crown in 2014.

Azusa Pacific can clinch the title outright tonight against Notre Dame de Namur in the Cougars' penultimate regular season home game. The Cougars will wrap up the regular season at home on Friday against Point Loma as they try to secure the right to host the first two rounds of the NCAA West Regional.

Fresno Pacific strengthened its case for an at-large bid into the NCAA West Regional with wins against Chaminade and Dominican to improve to 12-2-1 on the regular season.

The Sunbirds remained at No. 5 in the latest NCAA West Regional rankings ahead of Cal Poly Pomona at No. 6 thanks in part to a victory against the Broncos during non-conference play.

Fresno Pacific gets to wrap up the regular season at home with Hawai'i Pacific on Tuesday and Hawai'i Hilo on Saturday. The top six teams in the West Region will advance to the NCAA West Regional with the bracket being announced following the conclusion of the regular season. Biola will wrap up the regular season at home against Holy Names and Dominican, as the Eagles battle to qualify for the NCCAA postseason.
