IRVINE, Calif. -- Natalie Diaz led Dominican to two wins in the first week of the conference season and remained the national leader in scoring as she recorded a season-high 41 points against Concordia.

Diaz is now averaging 33 points per game and is on the verge of cracking the PacWest's all-time top-10 lists in rebounding, scoring and field goals after she became the 11th player in PacWest history to reach the milestone of 500 career field goals made.

Azusa Pacific also started the conference season with two wins, beating Holy Names and Notre Dame de Namur. Zoe March had 28 points, 13 assists and nine steals in the two victories. Biola and Hawai'i Pacific also went 2-0 on the week, including the Sharks' impressive win over Fresno Pacific.

This week, Fresno Pacific wraps up its trip to Hawai'i on the big island against the Vulcans on Monday night. The Sunbirds are looking to become the first PacWest team to reach six wins on the season.

On Wednesday, Biola will try to remain undefeated in conference play as the Eagles travel to Point Loma. The Sea Lions picked up their first win of the season last week and are looking to build on that success with a young roster.

On Saturday, Notre Dame de Namur will host Academy of Art as both teams look for their first conference win of the season. For Academy of Art, it will be the only conference game of the week.
