IRVINE, Calif. -- All three Hawai'i teams are traveling to southern California for a four-match stretch, and Chaminade and Hawai'i Hilo will put their undefeated conference records to the test this week. There will be a total of 12 matches next week featuring two of the top seven teams in the conference facing each other.

Chaminade is 9-0 on the season, which is the Silverswords' best start in program history. Their trip will begin with a Monday match at Biola. On Thursday, the two PacWest teams that are receiving votes in the AVCA National Coaches Poll will face each other as Azusa Pacific hosts Chaminade.

Hawai'i Hilo will play at Concordia on Wednesday and will conclude its trip by facing Point Loma on Saturday. The four southern California schools that Chaminade, Hawai'i Hilo and Hawai'i Pacific will face have a combined conference record of 13-3 so far this season.

Last week, Biola and Point Loma faced each other in a battle of undefeated teams in conference play and Point Loma won three narrow sets at home to earn the 3-0 victory. Then on Saturday, Azusa Pacific remained undefeated in conference play by beating Point Loma in three sets.

With the win over Point Loma, Azusa Pacific received votes in the most recent national poll. All four of the Cougars losses so far this year have been against nationally-ranked teams. Hawai'i Hilo swept Notre Dame de Namur to stay undefeated on Monday.
