IRVINE, Calif. -- Azusa Pacific got a strong start to its trip to Hawai'i last week, snapping Chaminade's double-digit winning streak and then Hawai'i Pacific's double-digit winning streak as the Cougars improved to 10-1 in conference play this season.

Chaminade bounced back from its first conference loss of the season with a 3-1 win over Point Loma to remain in first place in the conference standings with a 13-1 record. Emma Tecklenburg had a match-high 21 kills for the Silverswords.

Hawai'i Hilo also defeated Point Loma to extend its winning streak to 11 matches in a row, which is now the longest active winning streak in the conference. Azusa Pacific and Hawai'i Hilo will play each other on the Big Island on Monday afternoon.

Hawai'i Pacific defeated Point Loma earlier in the week and is now 11-3 in the PacWest, putting only two matches between the top four teams in the conference.

Academy of Art has now won three matches in a row following Saturday's sweep of Fresno Pacific. Jillian Wheaton had 14 kills and one error on 20 attacks in the victory and added two blocks.

This week, Hawai'i Hilo will go to Oahu for a pair of important matches against Hawai'i Pacific and Chaminade following Monday's match against Azusa Pacific. If the Vulcans win all three matches, they will move into first place in the conference standings. Azusa Pacific is on the edge of cracking the AVCA Top 25.
