PATRIOT LEAGUE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

CAROLYN SCHLIE FEMOVICH

Appointed the fourth Executive Director of the Patriot League in July 1999, Carolyn Schlie Femovich's selection by the Patriot League Council of Presidents continued its adherence to equity and innovation in its approach to intercollegiate athletics.

One of two women to hold the top post of a combined men and women's conference at the NCAA Division I level, Femovich brought with her 17 years of experience in NCAA Division I athletics.

During her first year as Executive Director of the Patriot League, membership was enhanced with the announcement that American University would become a full League member in the fall of 2001, and that Georgetown University would join the Patriot League in football beginning with the 2001 season.

Femovich focused her energies on setting a strategic direction for the future of the Patriot League during the 2001-02 academic year. In recent years, primary efforts have aimed at increasing League visibility and competitiveness, as well as the quality of services to the membership.

Femovich recently finished a four-year term as the Patriot League's representative on the NCAA Management Council and is currently serving as chair of the NCAA Championship and Competition Cabinet and NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She was also the chairperson of the prestigious Collegiate Women's Sports Awards Program and continues to serve on the Board.

Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Femovich served in a leadership role in the administration of a highly-successful Ivy League athletic program at the University of Pennsylvania.

During her tenure as Senior Associate Athletics Director (1986-99) and Associate Athletics Director (1982-85), her responsibilities included administration of intercollegiate sports and recreation programs, strategic planning and facilities development, human resource management and event planning.

In her first position at Penn, Femovich oversaw 15 intercollegiate programs, coaching staffs and athletics facilities. She also served as Penn's Interim Director of Athletics in 1985. Femovich represented the University in a variety of external capacities with the Ivy League and NCAA, and on a number of sports committees and boards.

Femovich's career in intercollegiate athletics began in 1974 at Indiana University as a graduate teaching assistant. In 1975, she moved to Gettysburg College as head coach of the women's basketball and tennis programs as well as assistant professor of health and physical education and the Coordinator of Women's Athletics.

Included in the impressive list of regional and national committees Femovich has served on are the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, the NCAA Basketball Marketing Sub-Committee and the NCAA Division I Business/Finance Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee.

She played a primary role in bringing the 2000 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four to Philadelphia and is a member of the executive board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. She also held the office of President of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) in 1996, which now includes more than 300 member institutions.

A graduate of Valparaiso University, Femovich received a masters of science degree from Indiana University. She and her husband, Robert, reside in Hellertown, Pa.

PATRIOT LEAGUE ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC SUCCESSES

In its second decade of combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 23 men and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy as full members, and Fordham and Georgetown as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have, and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Rate Report. In addition, the Patriot League finished first in the new NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR) among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid (combining with all eight of its full-time member institutions for an average of 984 out of 1,000). The APR is used to measure academic eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes.

Patriot League student-athletes and teams continue to enjoy success at the national level, with opening round victories coming in several NCAA Championships, including consecutive wins in men's basketball, a final four appearance in men's lacrosse and a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Cross Country Championship.

The Patriot League's mission is simple, to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.

2006 PATRIOT LEAGUE FOOTBALL NOTEBOOK

THE RETURN

Lehigh introduced Andy Coen as the 28th head coach in program history on Jan. 3, 2006 ... Coen is no stranger to the Patriot League or Lehigh, having served as the Mountain Hawks' offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1994-99 helping Lehigh to three Patriot League titles and the second round of the 1998 NCAA I-AA playoffs ... Coen returns after a six-year sabbatical where he served as Penn's offensive coordinator, helping the Quakers to three Ivy League championships.

WELCOME

Fordham and Georgetown also introduced new head coaches during the offseason ... Fordham announced Tom Masella as the program's 14th head coach since 1922 on Dec. 8, 2005 ... Georgetown introduced Kevin Kelly in January as its 28th head coach in the program's 99 seasons ... The three new hires is the most since 2001 when Pete Lembo and Bob Benson started the season with Lehigh and Georgetown, respectively.

DEAN OF THE PATRIOT LEAGUE

Colgate's Dick Biddle is the veteran of the Patriot League head coaching corp, beginning his 11th season at the helm of the Raiders ... Biddle is second all-time in Patriot League history in years of service, three behind Bill Russo's 14 seasons (1986-99) at Lafayette ... Only Biddle and Russo have coached a Patriot League team for 10 seasons or more.

ADVANTAGE, BUCKNELL

With 18 returning starters, Bucknell holds the edge in experience with its 2006 lineup ... Three teams follow with 13 returning starters - Holy Cross, Lafayette and Lehigh ... Holy Cross leads the way with 41 overall returning letterwinners ... Colgate and Fordham are second with 36 returning student-athletes.

141 AND COUNTING

This season will mark the 142nd edition of college football's most played rivalry - Lafayette vs. Lehigh ... Lafayette has won the last two games and 74 overall (there have been five ties) ... The Leopards' 24-10 win over Lehigh in 2004 gave Lafayette a share of the Patriot League title with Lehigh, the Leopards first League title in 10 years ... Overall, the Lafayette-Lehigh winner has gone on to capture four outright Patriot League banners (1992, 1993, 1995, 1998) and three shared championships (1999, 2004, 2005).

BRAGGING RIGHTS

Lafayette's two-straight Patriot League banners gives the Leopards the distinction of becoming the first Patriot League program to win back-to-back titles since Lehigh won four-straight from 1998-2001 ... Since the new millennium, four teams have laid a claim to the Patriot League championship trophy - Lehigh (2000-01, 2004); Fordham (2002); Colgate (2002-03, 2005); and Lafayette (2004-05) ... Lehigh's seven crowns are the most in Patriot League history ... Colgate, Lafayette and Holy Cross are second with five Patriot League banners.

TIEBREAKING PROCEDURES

In the case of ties in the Patriot League final regular-season standings, the following process will be used until all ties are broken and the seeding process is completed (ties will be broken in rank order beginning with the highest seed):

Head-to-Head Competition The higher seed will go to the team that has won the most Patriot League contests played against the other team(s) involved in the tie.

If a Tie Still Exists, a comparison of records will be made between the tied institutions starting at the highest possible seed and continuing through the lowest seed if necessary.

Sport-Specific Tiebreaking Procedure

A Comparison of Records against common out-of-League opponents will be made.

If a Tie Still Exists, a committee consisting of the athletic directors of each of the institutions not involved in the tie will make a final decision considering each of the following, in no particular order:

- Strength of Schedule
- Overall Record
- Computer Rankings

The committee will meet immediately following the conclusion of the final game of the season's final weekend. A three-fourths vote of the members of the committee will be needed to determine the champion.

Coin Flip (two teams) or draw (multiple teams).

The winner of the tiebreaker in the Patriot League for football earns the Patriot League's automatic bid to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

2005 PATRIOT LEAGUE FOOTBALL SEASON IN REVIEW

SHARING THE CROWN

For the third time in four years, and fourth overall in 20 seasons, two teams tied for the Patriot League title in 2005 - Colgate and Lafayette ... All four ties for the Patriot League banner have come since 1999 ... Lafayette has claimed a share of the last two Patriot League crowns, tying Lehigh for the 2004 championship.

WE'LL TAKE TWO

The Patriot League sent two squads to the NCAA I-AA playoffs for the fourth time in eight years in 2005 ... Colgate and Lafayette represented the Patriot League in the postseason, with the Raiders earning the automatic bid on the strength of its regular-season win over Lafayette ... The Leopards received its first-ever at-large invitation ... The Patriot League's all-time NCAA I-AA postseason record is 6-14 with Colgate advancing the farthest - the 2003 National Championship game ... Colgate and Lehigh have both participated in a Patriot-League high five NCAA's postseasons.

THREE'S NOT A CROWD

Three Patriot League teams finished the 2005 campaign ranked in the USA Today/ESPN final Top 25 - Lafayette (20), Colgate (22) and Lehigh (25). Both Lafayette and Colgate also placed in the final SportsNetwork Top 25 poll as well, with the Leopards ranked 21st and the Raiders 23rd.

HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

Holy Cross' Steve Silva claimed the 2005 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year award, becoming the first Crusader in 14 years to earn the honor ... Former-Holy Cross signal-caller Tim Ciaccio took home the award last in 1990 ... Silva is also just the third Crusader to be named offensive player of the year, with quarterback Jeff Wiley earning the honor in 1987.

FOR THE DEFENSE

A Colgate player has cornered the market on the Patriot League's Defensive Player of the Year, as Jared Nepa became the second Raider in four years to earn the Patriot League's highest-defensive honor ... Tem Lukabu shared the award in 2002 and took sole honors in 2003.

DOUBLE DIPPING

Holy Cross' Steve Silva became the first Patriot League student-athlete since Towson's Andrew Hollingsworth to walk home with two major Patriot League postseason awards ... In addition to Silva's offensive player of the year award in 2005, he was also named the Patriot League Special Teams Player of the Year ... Hollingsworth was named the Patriot League Player of the Year (award was only given until the 2000 season) and the Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year award in 2000.

HAT TRICK

Dick Biddle's 2005 Patriot League Coach of the Year award was the Raider's head coach's third in 10 years ... Biddle is the only Colgate head coach to ever earn the Patriot League award.
