*Fourteen Patriot League student-athletes were named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans including American's Heidi Hershberger (field hockey), Army's Nick Hill (baseball), Lindsey Gerheim (softball) and Patrick Beverly (golf), Bucknell's Shannon Curd (women's soccer), David Frisbey (football) and Melanie Buczko (women's cross country/track and field), Lafayette's James Conrad (baseball) and Navy's Lizzie Barnes (women's soccer), Kari Weniger (women's soccer), Chris Renninger (golf), Kelly Zahalka (women's swimming and diving), Michael Niemi (men's cross country/track and field) and Kirsten Andrews (women's cross country/track and field).

*54 Patriot League student-athletes earned ESPN The Magazine All-District Academic All-America honors.

*American field hockey spent the entire season ranked in the top-20 in the NFHCA national poll.

*Three Patriot League field hockey student-athletes were named NFHCA All-Americans including American's Camila Infante and Denise Infante on the Second-Team and American's Irene Schickhardt on the Third-Team.

*Colgate's Mike Gallihugh led the Football Championship Subdivision in tackles and was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award.

*Lehigh was the first team in Patriot League history to receive a first-round bye in the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament and the second to advance to the third round.

*The Patriot League had two teams win a game in the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament for the first time in its history (Bucknell and Lehigh), with 2006 being the second year it sent multiple teams to the postseason.

*Lehigh women's soccer student-athlete Daniela Molina was selected to play for the Colombian National Team at the World Cup.

*Navy women's soccer owned the longest winning streak among NCAA Division I schools, posting 19-straight victories, and captured its first NCAA Tournament victory.

*Navy goalkeeper Lizzie Barnes posted the seventh-longest shutout streak in NCAA women's soccer history.

*American volleyball twin freshmen Ann and Clair Recht were featured on national morning shows for setting the record of being the tallest female twins in the Guinness Book of World Records.

*The Patriot League had two post-season participants in the sport of women's basketball for the first time since 2002 with Holy Cross playing in the NCAA Tournament and Bucknell in the WNIT.

*Holy Cross' Keith Simmons was named All-America Honorable Mention by the Associated Press in the sport of men's basketball.

*Navy's Paul Harris earned All-America status after finishing sixth in the 800 meters at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championship.

*Four different men's lacrosse teams spent time in the national polls, including Army, Bucknell, Colgate and Navy. Navy ended the year ranked a Patriot League-best eighth in the nation.

*Three Patriot League student-athletes were chosen in the Major League Lacrosse Draft including Navy's Billy Looney (first round, fifth pick), Colgate's Colin Hulme (second round, 16th pick) and Navy's Ian Dingman (third round, 30th pick). Looney became the highest drafted Patriot League student-athlete into MLL.

Athletic and Academic Achievements in 2006-07

*Four Patriot League student-athletes were named USILA All-Americans including Navy's Billy Looney on the First-Team and Navy's Jordan DiNola and Colgate's Colin Hulme and Brandon Corp as Honorable Mentions.

*Bucknell's Nick Sciubba ended the year ranked first in the nation in goals against average and save percentage in the sport of men's lacrosse.

*Seventeen Patriot League rowers were named CRCA National Scholar-Athletes.

*Bucknell's Katherine Brewster-Duffy and Navy's Lindsey Spiese were named CRCA All-Americans.

*Five Patriot League student-athletes were selected in the MLB draft including Army's Nick Hill and Milan Dinga, Bucknell's Jason Buursma and Navy's Mitch Harris and Jonathan Johnston.

*Lehigh's Kate Marvel ranked first in the nation in triples per game in the sport of softball, while Lehigh as a team ranked first in the same category.

*Navy's Kevin Teague became the first male diver in Patriot League history to win four consecutive 1-meter and 3-meter Patriot League Championship titles and to be named Patriot League Diver of the Meet four times

In its second decade of combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors 23 sports – 11 for men and 12 for women. Initially started as a NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy as full members, and Fordham and Georgetown as associate members in football. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have, and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Success Rate report. In addition, the Patriot League finished as one of the nation's leaders in the NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR) among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid. The APR is used to measure academic eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes.

Patriot League student-athletes and teams continue to enjoy success at the national level, with opening round victories coming in several NCAA Championships, including wins in men's basketball during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, a championship game appearance in both football and men's lacrosse, and a sixth-place individual finish at the NCAA Cross Country Championship.

The Patriot League's mission is simple, to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.

PATRIOT LEAGUE STAFF

Carolyn Schlie Femovich - Executive Director

Appointed the fourth Executive Director of the Patriot League in July 1999, Carolyn Schlie Femovich's selection by the Patriot League Council of Presidents continued its adherence to equity and innovation in its approach to intercollegiate athletics.

One of three women to hold the top post of a combined men and women's conference at the NCAA Division I level, Femovich brought with her 17 years of experience in NCAA Division I athletics.

During her first year as Executive Director of the Patriot League, membership was enhanced with the announcement that American University would become a full League member in the fall of 2001, and that Georgetown University would join the Patriot League in football beginning with the 2001 season.

Femovich focused her energies on setting a strategic direction for the future of the Patriot League during the 2001-02 academic year. In recent years, primary efforts have aimed at increasing League visibility and competitiveness, as well as the quality of services to the membership.

Femovich recently finished a four-year term as the Patriot League's representative on the NCAA Management Council and is currently serving as chair of the NCAA Championship and Competition Cabinet and NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She was also the chairperson of the prestigious Collegiate Women's Sports Awards Program and continues to serve on the Board.

Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Femovich served in a leadership role in the administration of a highly-successful Ivy League athletic program at the University of Pennsylvania.

During her tenure as Senior Associate Athletics Director (1986-99) and Associate Athletics Director (1982-85), her responsibilities included administration of intercollegiate sports and recreation programs, strategic planning and facilities development, human resource management and event planning.

In her first position at Penn, Femovich oversaw 15 intercollegiate programs, coaching staffs and athletics facilities. She also served as Penn's Interim Director of Athletics in 1985. Femovich represented the University in a variety of external capacities with the Ivy League and NCAA, and on a number of sports committees and boards.

Femovich's career in intercollegiate athletics began in 1974 at Indiana University as a graduate teaching assistant. In 1975, she moved to Gettysburg College as head coach of the women's basketball and tennis programs as well as assistant professor of health and physical education and the Coordinator of Women's Athletics.

Included in the impressive list of regional and national committees Femovich has served on are the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, the NCAA Basketball Marketing Sub-Committee and the NCAA Division I Business/Finance Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee.

She played a primary role in bringing the 2000 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four to Philadelphia and is a member of the executive board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. She also held the office of President of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) in 1996, which now includes more than 300 member institutions.

A graduate of Valparaiso University, Femovich received a masters of science degree from Indiana University. She and her husband, Robert, reside in Hellertown, Pa.

PATRIOT LEAGUE STAFF

JoAnna Kreps - Associate Executive Director for Sports Management and Governance

Kreps was promoted to Associate Executive Director for Sports Management and Governance in July of 2006, after joining the Patriot League in December 2004 as an Assistant Executive Director. Kreps supervises the governance and management of the League's 23 sports. She also oversees the League's compliance program and contributes to championship administration.

Prior to joining the Patriot League, Kreps served as the Assistant Commissioner for Compliance and Business Operations and Senior Woman Administrator for the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference. In her post at the RMAC she coordinated NCAA and RMAC compliance among the 14-member institutions and managed the internal fiscal operations of the conference office. She was the liaison to the seven conference coordinators of officials and assisted in the administration of the officiating programs, created conference schedules and directed the National Letter of Intent Program and coaches certification testing.

She worked with the RMAC senior woman administrators, faculty athletic representatives and the RMAC Student Athlete Advisory Committee. Kreps also assisted with championship event administration as well as conference meetings, the RMAC Hall of Fame, officiating clinics, the RMAC golf outing and the Wells Fargo SHOOTOUT (RMAC basketball tournament).

Kreps also spent time assisting with compliance at the University at Albany (N.Y.), where her main responsibility was determining and maintaining NCAA Division I eligibility for 19 male and female varsity programs for over 450 student-athletes. Also, while at Albany, she served as Co-Coordinator of the SEFA/United Way Campaign for over 5,000 University at Albany state employees.

Kreps currently serves on the NCAA Sportsmanship and Ethical Conduct Committee.

Kreps is a 1997 graduate of the University at Albany, where she majored in English and earned a Bachelor's Degree. She played on the Albany women's basketball team and earned a Masters of Science Degree in Educational Administration and Policy Studies in 1999.

Kaitlyn Cerco - Assistant Director for Sport Management and Compliance

Cerco was named Assistant Director for Sport Management and Compliance in May 2006, after completing a one-year internship with the League office. She will primarily assist in the areas of compliance and sport governance and also contribute to the League's championship administration.

A native of Clarks Summit, Pa., Cerco received a bachelor's degree in History with a minor in Business Management from Moravian College, Bethlehem, Pa., where she also played lacrosse.

She completed her master's degree in Sport Management from East Stroudsburg University in December 2005. While at ESU, she was a graduate assistant for the Intramural and Recreation Department. In addition, she is an assistant lacrosse coach at Moravian College.

Grisel Ortiz-Ludovico - Executive Assistant and Business Manager

Grisel Ortiz-Ludovico became the Patriot League's Executive Assistant and Business Manager in October 2005.

Ortiz-Ludovico's primary responsibilities are to direct the League's business and human resource affairs maintain its financial records and coordinate office functions.

Most recently, Ortiz-Ludovico was the Administrative Assistant and Building Manager at the Laboratory for Surface Modification at Rutgers University. While at Rutgers she was responsible for all personnel and fiscal matters for the Laboratory for Surface Modification, coordinated office functions, and assisted with the preparation of grant proposals for the department. She was also responsible for the management of the Nanophysics Building.

Prior to Rutgers, Ortiz-Ludovico was the Executive Assistant to the Chair of the Albert Einstein College of Medicine in Bronx, N.Y. While there she worked directly with the Chairman, handled the fiscal matters, and faculty recruitment activities.

She also worked as the Assistant to the Executive Director for Graduate Tax Program at New York University School of Law and also as the Executive Assistant to the President for Geto & de Milly Inc., one New York's most well-regarded public relation/public policy firms.

Ortiz-Ludovico graduated from Berkeley College (N.Y.) with a degree in marketing and management

PATRIOT LEAGUE STAFF

Richard Wanninger - Associate Executive Director for External Relations

Entering his third year with the Patriot League, Wanninger was promoted to Associate Executive Director for External Relations during the summer of 2006 after joining the Patriot League as an Assistant Executive Director in August 2005. He is responsible for the planning and operation of the 22 Patriot League Championships, as well as the League's television and broadband packages, marketing and sponsorship initiatives, and the overall promotion of the League.

Wanninger came to Center Valley, Pa., after four years at the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency where he served as Director of Communications and Public Affairs. While at USADA, he developed and implemented communications and public affairs plans and managed editorial content for publications and U.S. Anti-Doping Agency website.

Other experiences in Colorado Springs included holding the post of Communications Director for USA Cycling (1998-2000) and working at the U.S. Olympic Committee. A veteran of six Olympic Games and numerous other major international and national championship events, Wanninger has an extensive background in the fields of communications, marketing, and event and press operations. Wanninger managed the Main Press Center at the 1996 Summer Olympics in Atlanta and was the Director of External Affairs for the U.S. Olympic Festival-'95, which was held in Boulder, Denver and Colorado Springs, Colo.

He also worked at USA Volleyball for three years as the Director of Communications and got his start in intercollegiate athletics as an Assistant Sports Information Director at Arizona State in 1985, spending six years in Tempe, Ariz.

Wanninger received his Master's Degree from the University of Colorado in Public Administration after earning his undergraduate degree in journalism from ASU. In 2006, he completed the executive management program at the Sports Management Institute, which provides specialized executive management programs for sports management professionals.

A member of NACMA and CoSIDA, Wanninger and his wife, Kim, have two sons - Nicholas and Nathan.

Matthew Dougherty - Media Relations Director

Dougherty joined the Patriot League staff in June 2007 and oversees the Patriot League's media relations department, serving as the primary contact for football and men's basketball, as well as various other Olympic sports. He also contributes to the Patriot League's championship administration and creation of publications and provides oversight for the Patriot League website.

Dougherty comes to the Patriot League after a three-year stint at The Sports Network, serving as the Executive Director of I-AA/FCS Football. In his role at The Sports Network, Dougherty was solely responsible for the content and direction of FCS coverage, wrote national articles and all press releases, coordinated media and sports information voting for The Sports Network Top-25 poll, major awards and All-America teams and selected national players of the week. He managed the FCS national award show, served as a guest analyst for television and radio and attended football games and conference media days across the country.

During the 2003-04 academic year, Dougherty worked at Dartmouth College as a sports information intern and was the primary contact for four sports, including men's basketball. During his time with the Big Green, he worked on press releases, game notes, media guides, wrote feature stories for monthly publications and updated the athletics website.

The 2003 Saint Bonaventure graduate worked as a sports information intern in the Bonnies' athletic department during the 2002-03 school year.

Jessica Siegel - Associate Media Relations Director

Siegel joined the Patriot League staff in October 2004 and serves as the primary Patriot League contact for women's basketball and various other sports. In addition to her media relations duties, she contributed to the League's championship administration and branding and public relations initiatives.

Before coming to the Patriot League she completed a year at the Northeast Conference as the administrative intern. In her post at the NEC, Siegel handled media relations efforts for five of the league's sponsored sports, provided support at championship events and televised basketball games and assisted in day-to-day operations. She also conducted student-athlete interviews and wrote articles for the conference's quarterly newsletter.

The Dayton, N.J., native earned her bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing from Ramapo College in May 2003. During her time there she served as the assistant to the sports information and marketing director.

She recently completed her master's degree in Sports and Recreation Administration from Temple University.

Prior to her time at the Northeast Conference, Siegel spent two summers as the promotions and group sales intern at the Somerset Patriots, an independent minor league baseball team based out of Central New Jersey.

2007 PATRIOT LEAGUE PREVIEW

SEASON NOTEBOOK

Leopards Go For a Fourth

Lafayette will try to add its name to exclusive company in league history with a fourth consecutive Patriot League crown. The Leopards have captured a share of the league title in each of the past three seasons to become just the third team in Patriot League history to accomplish that feat (Holy Cross, 1989-91 and Lehigh, 1998-01). Now the Leopards will try to match the Mountain Hawks' run of four consecutive league titles and four consecutive playoff appearances.

Biddle moving up the ladder

Colgate head coach Dick Biddle already owns the Patriot League records for wins in league games (53) and overall victories (88). Now, he's set to pass former Lafayette head coach Bill Russo in Patriot League games coached. Biddle enters the season with 67 games coached in the league, which means he's in position to tie Russo's mark of 70 when the Raiders visit Lafayette on Oct. 27. Biddle has coached 130 games overall, and still trails Russo by 24 in that department.

Patriot Leaguers leading the nation

Two Patriot Leaguers begin the season with the highest returning marks in all of the Football Championship Subdivision. Colgate linebacker Mike Gallihugh led all players with 84 solo tackles and 12.73 tackles per game a year ago. Fordham punter Benjamin Dato notched 44.6 yards per punt in 2006, good for the top mark of any qualified returnee in 2007.

Division I exclusive

Fifteen conferences participate in the Football Championship Subdivision, but only two play a schedule that features all Division I opponents. The Patriot League will be one of those two (along with the Ivy League) as all seven PL teams are set to play a full schedule against teams from Division I. The league's non-conference schedule features opponents from the Ivy, Colonial Athletic Association (formerly Atlantic 10), Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, Northeast Conference and Pioneer Football League.

Rams Return the Most

Fordham finished in sixth place in the conference a year ago, but the Rams are in good shape coming back with a Patriot League-best 17 returning starters. They bring back 10 starters on offense, including quarterback John Skelton, and seven on defense.

Position Standouts

The Patriot League boasted a handful of players that were rated as the best at their position by The Sports Network heading into the 2007 season. Lehigh's Sedale Threath and Holy Cross' Dominic Randolph both ranked among the top 15 returning quarterbacks. Gallihugh and Dato both placed in the top five at their positions, and so did Lehigh center John Reese and Holy Cross cornerback Casey Gough. Colgate's Jordan Scott ranked sixth among returning running backs.

Breaking a tie at the end of the regular season ...

In the case of ties in the final standings for regular season League play, the following process will be used until all ties are broken and the seeding process is completed (ties will be broken in rank order beginning with the highest seed):

1. Head-to-head competition - the higher seed will go to the team that has won the most League contests played against the other team(s) involved in the tie.
 2. If a tie still exists, a comparison of records will be made between the tied institutions starting at the highest possible seed and continuing through the lowest seed, if necessary.
 3. Sport specific tie-breaking procedure.
 - a. A comparison of records against common out-of-League opponents will be made.
 - b. If a tie still exists, a committee consisting of the athletic directors of each of the institutions not involved in the tie will make a final decision considering each of the following, in no particular order:
 - *strength of schedule
 - *overall record
 - *computer rankings
- The committee will meet immediately following the conclusion of the final game of the season's final weekend. A three-fourths vote of the members of the committee will be needed to determine the champion.
5. Coin flip (two teams) or draw (multiple teams).

* The winner of the tiebreaker in the Patriot League for football earns the League's automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

2007 PATRIOT LEAGUE PREVIEW

Lafayette the preseason pick in Patriot League football

Threatt, Gallihugh earn Preseason Awards

Lafayette, which has captured a share of the last three Patriot League crowns and made three consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (formerly I-AA) playoffs, has been chosen in a preseason vote by coaches and sports information directors to claim its fourth title in a row in 2007, it was announced Wednesday.

The Leopards have compiled a 15-3 league record in the past three seasons under head coach Frank Tavani, who has a 24-21 Patriot League record during his seven-year tenure in Easton. They have faced a national championship game participant in each of the past two postseasons.

Last year, the Leopards finished 6-6 overall, with a 5-1 record in the League. They came on strong with victories in the final four league contests of the year, with a 49-27 triumph over arch-rival Lehigh on the final day of the regular season to take a share of the league title with the Mountain Hawks and earn the Patriot League automatic berth to the postseason.

The Leopards feature a roster with six returning starters on each side of the ball. Though last year's top skill position players have departed, Lafayette boasts an offensive line with three starters back. Linebacker Andy Romans headlines the defensive returnees after leading the team with 109 total tackles a year ago. Kyle Sprenkle (61 TT, 13.5 TFL) and Keith Bloom (46 TT, 10.5 TFL) are back on the defensive line, with starting cornerbacks Adrian Lawson and Marvin Clecidor leading the secondary.

Lafayette received six of 16 first-place votes and finished with 63 points, while Lehigh was just one point behind with five first-place votes and 62 total points.

The Mountain Hawks, who have claimed a share of the league title in two of the past three seasons, will have 2007 Preseason Offensive Player of the Year Sedale Threatt directing the offense at quarterback. Threatt garnered First-Team All-Patriot League honors a year ago when he threw for 2,008 yards with 14 touchdowns and five interceptions and also ran for 310 yards and eight scores. Lehigh brings back three starters on the offensive side of the ball and five on defense for second-year head coach Andy Coen, who went 6-5 with a 5-1 conference record in his inaugural campaign.

Colgate and Holy Cross ran neck and neck for the third and fourth positions in the poll, with the Raiders placing third with 52 points and one first-place vote and the Crusaders coming in fourth with 50 points and two first-place votes.

Colgate (4-7, 3-3 PL) boasts the Preseason Defensive Player of the Year in linebacker Mike Gallihugh as well as running back Jordan Scott. Gallihugh led the nation in tackles per game and solo tackles a year ago, and finished the season as an All-American and a candidate for the Buck Buchanan Award, given to the top defensive player in the Football Championship Subdivision. Scott has amassed more than 1,200 rushing yards in each of his first two campaigns.

Holy Cross (7-4, 4-2 PL) featured a potent offense in 2006 and will once again be led by quarterback Dominic Randolph, who threw for 2,237 yards with 19 touchdowns and six interceptions a year ago. The Crusaders also have First-Team All-Patriot Leaguer Casey Gough returning at cornerback.

Rounding out the poll were Bucknell (6-5, 3-3 PL), Fordham (3-8, 1-5 PL) and Georgetown (2-9, 0-6 PL). The Bison completed a five-game turnaround a year ago and feature 15 combined returning starters on offense and defense. Fordham and Georgetown are both directed by second-year head coaches, with Tom Masella leading the Rams and Kevin Kelly at the helm for the Hoyas.

Gallihugh, Scott and Gough are among the top returning All-America candidates from the Patriot League, with Fordham punter Benjamin Dato and Lehigh center John Reese also beginning the season as strong candidates.

The 2005 Patriot League football season gets underway on Sept. 1 with six of the league's seven teams starting the season with non-league action. Lafayette (Marist) and Colgate (Albany) will host thier openers, while Holy Cross visits defending national runner-up Massachusetts, Fordham is at Rhode Island, Georgetown goes to Stony Brook and Bucknell visits Duquesne. League play kicks off the following week with defending champion Lafayette going to Georgetown.

SHARING THE TITLE

Lehigh and Lafayette finished the season 1-2 in all-time Patriot League titles. The Mountain Hawks' share of the 2006 crown was their eighth championship, while the 2006 banner gave the Leopards' their sixth Patriot League title. The Patriot League had co-champions for the third-straight season, and fourth time in the past five seasons. Overall, just five Patriot League championships have been shared in the League's 21-year history, and all five shared titles have come in the last seven years.

SELECT COMPANY

Lafayette received one of the eight automatic qualifiers to the 2006 NCAA Division I Football Championships with its regular-season ending win over Lehigh. This marked the second time in three years that Lafayette has received the Patriot League's AQ. The Leopards were one of only six teams to qualify for the post-season for the third year in a row, joining New Hampshire, Hampton, Southern Illinois, Montana and Furman. Lafayette joins Hampton and Montana as the only teams to win at least a share of their conference titles in the past three campaigns.

MAJOR AWARD WINNERS

Below are the recipients of the 2006 Patriot League Major Award. Both Charlie Houghton of Georgetown and Jason Leo of Lehigh return for the 2007 season.

- Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year
Jonathan Hurt, Lafayette
- Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year
Marcus Taylor, Fordham
- Patriot League Special Teams Player of the Year
Jason Leo, Lehigh
- Patriot League Rookie of the Year
Charlie Houghton, Georgetown
- Patriot League Coach of the Year
Tom Gilmore, Holy Cross

BREAKING THROUGH

Brad Maurer's 243-yard passing performance in Lafayette's Patriot League title-clinching win over Lehigh left him with 4,974 career passing yards, moving him into the Patriot League's Top 20 all-time (18th). He became the 18th Patriot League signal caller to throw for more than 5,000 yards.

MAKING A LIST, CHECKING IT TWICE

Colgate's Mike Gallihugh was on the final Sports Network Buck Buchanan Watch list. Gallihugh led the nation with 12.7 tackles per game. His 84 solo stops is 13 more than anyone else in the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision.

QUARTET OF ALL-AMERICANS

Three Patriot League student-athletes were tabbed to the Associated Press All-American football team, as Fordham's Benjamin Dato, Colgate's Mike Gallihugh and Mike Saint Germain of Lafayette were all third-team selections. Fordham linebacker Marcus Taylor joined Gallihugh on The Sports Network All-America team. All four student-athletes were 2006 First-Team All-Patriot League selections.

First-Team All-Patriot League selection Mike Saint Germain became the 30th Patriot League scholar-athlete named to the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) All-American team as the Lafayette senior offensive lineman received a nod on the 2006 AFCA squad.

Bucknell senior defensive back David Frisbey added another scholar-athlete honor to his already impressive resume when he was named to the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-America Football Team. Frisbey, a second-team selection, was named to Academic All-District teams in both 2005 and 2006, and this is his first time on the national team.

HITTING THE BOOKS

Lafayette's Brad Maurer was named the 2006 Patriot League Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was one of 107 student-athletes to be named to this year's Patriot League Football Academic Honor Roll. Bucknell's Nick Mozal was the lone student-athlete on this year's academic honor roll list to achieve a 4.00 grade-point average in the fall semester.

Maurer, a neuroscience major and Spanish minor, owns a 3.51 cumulative grade-point average and is a two-time member of the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll. The senior from Loveland, Ohio accumulated many academic awards this season, including being named an ESPN The Magazine All-District selection for the third-straight year, a semifinalist for the Draddy Trophy, known as the "Academic Heisman", and a member of the I-AA Athletic Directors Academic All-Star team. He was also a finalist for the ARA National Sportsmanship award.

Georgetown recorded a League-best 32 members on the Academic Honor Roll, followed by Bucknell (18), Holy Cross (16), Fordham (14), Lehigh (12), Fordham (8) and Lafayette (7). To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the fall semester and be awarded a varsity letter in their respective sport.

RUNNING INTO HISTORY

Jordan Scott of Colgate became the first running back since Erik Marsh of Lafayette (1992, 1993) to lead the Patriot League in rushing for two consecutive campaigns. Scott tallied 1,234 rushing yards in 2006 after accumulating 1,365 yards on the ground during his freshman season (2005). His total of 2,598 ranks among the top 25 in Patriot League chronicles, and at this rate, he would finish his four-year career with the Raiders as the top rusher in League history. Marsh recorded 4,834 yards from 1991 through 1994.

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL

Lafayette's Brad Maurer Named 2006 Patriot League Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year

Lafayette's Brad Maurer was named the 2006 Patriot League Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was one of 107 student-athletes to be named to this year's Patriot League Football Academic Honor Roll, announced Executive Director Carolyn Schlie Femovich Friday. Bucknell's Nick Mozal was the lone student-athlete on this year's academic honor roll list to achieve a 4.00 grade-point average in the fall semester.

Maurer, a neuroscience major and Spanish minor, owns a 3.51 cumulative grade-point average and is a two-time member of the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll. The senior from Loveland, Ohio accumulated many academic awards this season, including being named an ESPN The Magazine All-District selection for the third-straight year, a semifinalist for the Draddy Trophy, known as the "Academic Heisman", and a member of the I-AA Athletic Directors Academic All-Star team. He was also a finalist for the ARA National Sportsmanship award.

On the field, the Second-Team All-Patriot League selection paced the Patriot League in pass efficiency in League games for the second-straight year with a 155.3 rating. The senior quarterback threw for 2,239 total yards and 13 touchdowns in 2006. Maurer completed 181-of-307 pass attempts and had 94 carries for 295 yards and five touchdowns.

VILLANOVA, Pa. — In the first appearance ever by a Patriot League team in the Division I-AA playoffs, the Colgate Raiders battled the nation's No. 1 team, Villanova, to a virtual standoff for three quarters before succumbing to a 22-point fourth quarter outburst by the Wildcats in first round action on Nov. 29.

Behind a fine offensive performance, which included a game-high nine receptions for 141 yards and two touchdowns from junior wide receiver Corey Hill, the Raiders led Villanova 28-27 as the final period began. However, Villanova scored on its first three possessions of the fourth quarter and held Colgate in check to come away with the 49-28 win.

Colgate's offense once again proved that it could move the football against anyone. The Raiders piled up 406 yards of total offense and 24 first downs against the Wildcats. Sophomore quarterback Ryan Vena completed 16-of-26 passes for 229 yards and two touchdowns. Vena also carried the ball 13 times for 48 yards, including a 28-yard touchdown run on the option. Sophomore running back Ed Weiss paced the ground attack with 81 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries.

Senior linebacker Matt Domyancic and senior safety Jamal Patterson led the Raider defensive effort with 10 tackles apiece.

STATESBORO, Ga. — For the second year in a row the Colgate Raiders drew the nation's top-ranked team in the I-AA playoffs, and for the second year in a row its offense proved it could move the football against anyone. In fact, the Raiders gained more yards (291) and scored more points (21) in the first half against Georgia Southern than any team the Eagles played this season.

However, the top-ranked and undefeated Eagles were not to be denied, piling up 183 yards and 21 unanswered points in the third quarter en route to a 49-28 victory.

Colgate quarterback Ryan Vena rushed for a team-high 90 yards and scored a touchdown, and passed for 186 yards and two additional scores. Wide receivers R.J. Gregory and Corey Hill each caught four passes to lead the receiving corps.

Seniors Tom McCarroll and Eric Zaleski led the Raider defensive unit with nine tackles apiece.

Colgate, the first at-large selection from the Patriot League in the I-AA playoffs, concluded its season with an 8-4 record.

RICHMOND, Va. — Sophomore place-kicker Jaron Taaffe connected on a 30-yard field goal with just three seconds remaining on the clock to give Lehigh a stunning 24-23 victory over Richmond in the first round of the NCAA Div. I-AA playoffs.

The Mountain Hawks led for most of the fourth quarter, but Richmond's Jasper Pendergrass scored on a five-yard run with just 1:18 remaining to give the Spiders the lead, 23-21.

However, in what may have been the biggest play of the day, Lehigh's Sam Brinley broke through the line to block the ensuing extra-point attempt, opening the door for Taaffe's game-winning kick.

Lehigh quarterback Phil Stambaugh, who completed 26-of-37 passes for 281 yards and a touchdown without an interception, engineered the winning drive for the Mountain Hawks.

Stambaugh completed five passes on the drive, including a fourth-down completion to senior Deron Braswell which kept Lehigh's hopes alive. Braswell led all receivers with eight receptions for 108 yards.

Although the No. 3-seeded Spiders held a decided 13-minute advantage in time of possession, the No. 14-seeded Mountain Hawks managed more total yardage, 377-375. The win was the 13th in a row for Lehigh dating back to 1997.

AMHERST, Mass. — Lehigh failed on four attempts to get into the end zone from the nine-yard line, and came up just short against Massachusetts, 27-21, in the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Championship.

In what many figured to be a shootout, the defenses rose to the occasion as each team was held below its season scoring average. Massachusetts' Chris Price, who recorded seven tackles and two sacks, came up with one of the biggest defensive plays of the afternoon when he sacked Lehigh quarterback Phil Stambaugh on second down from the nine with just over a minute to play. Lehigh still had two shots at the end zone from the 15-yard line but the Minutemen defended both passes, fade patterns to the left corner of the end zone, to secure the win.

The third quarter proved to be the downfall for Lehigh. The Mountain Hawks struggled offensively, gaining just 26 yards while the Minutemen put up nearly 150 and scored to regain a lead they would never relinquish.

Stambaugh completed 26-of-43 passes for 302 yards, while Deron Braswell led all receivers with 10 receptions for 127 yards.

NORMAL, Ill. — Colgate took on the sixth seeded Red Birds of Illinois State in Normal, Illinois and were handed a 56-13 loss. Colgate, the 11th seed in the tournament, played most of the game without 1999 Patriot League Player of the Year Ryan Vena, who left the game in the second quarter with a shoulder injury.

Colgate was ambushed by an Illinois State offense that scored 49 unanswered points to open the game. The Redbirds scored touchdowns on the ground, off a blocked punt, on a punt return and through the air. Illinois State racked up 282 yards rushing on a Colgate defense that was giving up only 69.5 yards per game, which was ranked fourth in Division I-AA.

Vena was knocked out of the game in the second quarter with a shoulder injury and was replaced by freshman Tom McCune. McCune, who had attempted only eight passes all season, ended the game with 107 yards passing on eight of 15 attempts and one TD pass.

Colgate running back Randall Joseph ended the game with 176 yards rushing on 17 attempts and one touchdown.

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. — The 14th-seeded Lehigh Mountain Hawks failed to capitalize on several scoring opportunities and fell to third-seeded Hofstra, 27-15.

Lehigh recovered a Hofstra fumble on the first play of the game and turned it into a quick three points with a 23-yard field goal by Jaron Taaffe. Moments later Lehigh took advantage of a high snap on a Hofstra punt attempt and scored on a two-yard Ronald Jean run to take a 10-0 lead.

Lehigh added yet another Taffee field goal to take a 13-3 lead early in the second quarter. The 13 points turned out to be the only points the Mountain Hawks offense would score in the game. Lehigh added a safety late in the game to bring their point total to 15, making it their lowest output of the season.

Hofstra would answer in crunch time as they converted on a 27-yard field goal and a six-yard TD pass in the fourth quarter. Lehigh QB Phil Stambaugh finished the day with 323 yards passing on 30 of 44 attempts, but threw three costly interceptions. Jean, the 1999 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year, was held to only 52 yards rushing by the Hofstra defense.

MACOMB, Ill. — Lehigh improved to 12-0 on the season and advanced to the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I-AA Championship with a dominating 37-7 road victory over Western Illinois. The Mountain Hawks entered the game as the #10 seed despite bringing an 11-0 record into the contest.

Lehigh, the only undefeated team in the country, was able to capitalize on five interceptions and run away for its second opening-round playoff win in three years. LU registered its other NCAA victory in 1998 when the 14th-seeded Mountain Hawks upset third-ranked Richmond, 24-23.

Junior quarterback Brant Hall came full circle as he led the Mountain Hawks in passing and rushing yards despite being hampered by a severe head cold. Hall completed 73% of his passes (22-for-30) for 283 yards and three touchdowns while also carrying the ball 17 times for 78 yards.

The Mountain Hawks scored on their first three possessions to take a 20-0 lead. The Lehigh defense held the Leathernecks to just 13 rushing yards and 98 passing yards in the first half while the Mountain Hawk offense clicked to the tune of 335 yards of total offense en route to a 30-7 halftime lead.

Lehigh's domination continued in a rain-soaked second half as the defense allowed only five first downs for 83 yards of total offense.

NEWARK, Del. — The 2000 Lehigh football season came to an end when the Mountain Hawks lost to second-seeded Delaware, 47-22, in the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division I-AA Championship. Lehigh finished the season 12-1 overall, including the team's second undefeated regular season in three years.

Lehigh jumped out to a 7-0 lead on the first drive of the game when Brant Hall found Brian Endler in the end zone from 12 yards out. The Blue Hens also scored on their opening drive when Craig Cummings tied the game with a one-yard touchdown run. A 21-yard field goal by Brian Kelley put LU up 10-7, but from that point everything seemed to go downhill for the visitors.

Delaware scored 40 unanswered points until Lehigh scored late in the fourth quarter. A combination of penalties and four costly turnovers led to 28 Delaware points, which proved to be the difference in the game. Lehigh tacked on two late touchdowns by Josh Snyder and Dave Crockett, both on Hall passes.

Lehigh's Matt Salvaterra, Bryant Appling and James Young each contributed 11 tackles.

BETHLEHEM, Pa. — Lehigh's first home playoff game in 21 years resulted in one of the most exciting finishes in Goodman Stadium history as the fifth-seeded Mountain Hawks rallied for a 27-24 overtime victory over ninth-seeded Hofstra in the first round of the 2001 NCAA playoffs.

Lehigh's Jermaine Pugh muscled his way into the end zone from four yards out on a short dump pass from reserve quarterback Luke Ciannello with 19 seconds left in the fourth quarter to force overtime. That score capped a 92-yard drive in the final three minutes after a Hofstra fumble inside the LU 10-yard line.

In overtime, Abdul Byron intercepted a Hofstra tipped aerial in the end zone, setting up the Mountain Hawks' offense for the game-winning possession. Brian Kelley then drilled a 24-yard field goal in the extra frame to send the home crowd into a wild celebration and the undefeated Mountain Hawks into the NCAA quarterfinal round for the third time in the last four years.

Hofstra scored the first two TDs of the game and still held a 14-point advantage midway through the third quarter before Ciannello replaced Brant Hall and guided the hosts to the final three scores of the game.

Pugh (16-for-72 yds.) and Ciannello (10-for-59 yards) also led LU's rushing game.

GREENVILLE, S.C. — Furman's Toreico O'Neil rushed for 128 yards and two touchdowns on just 12 carries and led a 332-yard ground game for the fourth-seeded Paladins, who topped fifth-seeded Lehigh 34-17 in the quarterfinal round of the 2001 NCAA Championship.

The Mountain Hawks, which posted an undefeated regular-season for the second-straight year and won its fourth-consecutive Patriot League title, finished the season with an 11-1 overall record. Furman advanced to the National Championship game, losing 13-6 to Montana, before ending the season with a 12-3 overall record.

Lehigh took a 7-3 lead with 4:21 left in the first quarter on a one-yard TD run by Justin Barrasso. However, the Paladins answered with a 65-yard kickoff return and a 35-yard sprint to paydirt by O'Neil on the next two plays to take a lead the hosts never surrendered. Furman also added two TDs in the second quarter for a 24-7 halftime lead, and the Mountain Hawks never threatened in the final 30 minutes.

Brian Kelley converted a 29-yard field goal attempt late in the third quarter and Darin Henry hauled in a 12-yard scoring pass from Luke Ciannello in the final minutes of the fourth quarter to finish LU's scoring.

BROOKLINE, Mass. — Fordham's Matt Fordyce kicked a League and NCAA Division I-AA playoff-record five field goals and Kevin Eakin threw for 269 yards and a touchdown as the Rams defeated fourth-seeded Northeastern Saturday, 29-24, in the opening round of the 2002 NCAA Tournament. Fordham's win marks the fourth time in five years that the Patriot League advanced a team to the NCAA Division I-AA quarterfinal round.

The Rams scored twice in the first quarter and took a 16-7 lead to the halftime break. Peter Modelski pulled in a 52-yard scoring pass from Eakin just over two minutes into the game, and Fordyce added FGs of 35, 45 and 23 yards in the opening 30 minutes.

After the teams traded third-quarter field goals, the host Huskies cut Fordham's lead to 19-17 heading into the final 15 minutes on a 31-yard pass from Shawn Brady to Cory Parks.

Fordham responded with a 30-yard TD burst up the middle by Kirwin Watson and Fordyce's record-breaking fifth FG from 42 yards out with 2:50 left. Northeastern scored on a one-yard run in the final minute, but the Rams recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock.

VILLANOVA, Pa. — Villanova's Brett Gordon connected on 26-of-30 passes for 219 yards and two touchdowns, leading Villanova to a 24-10 victory over Fordham in the NCAA Division I-AA quarterfinal-round playoffs Saturday at Villanova Stadium.

Fordham's Matt Fordyce booted a 31-yard FG late in the third quarter for the Rams' first points after trailing 10-0 at halftime. Gordon then led VU (11-3) on two long touchdown drives in the second half. He completed seven passes for 36 yards on a 14-play, 66-yard third-period march, capped by a four-yard TD run with 38 second left by Terry Butler that gave the hosts a 17-3 lead.

The Patriot League-co-champion Rams cut the deficit to 17-10 on their next possession on Kirwin Watson's one-yard TD run with 9:49 remaining. However, Gordon, who played most of the game with an injured thumb on his throwing hand, engineered a game-clinching 76-yard drive on its next possession.

Fordham's 10-3 final record was just the second time since 1918 that the Rams reached double digits in the wins column. The Rams' success came just three seasons after going winless in 11 games under then first-year coach Dave Clawson.

Kevin Eakin hit 16-of-32 passes for 115 yards and became the 12th player in PL history to throw for 3,000 yards in a season. Watson finished with a team-leading 54 rushing yards, raising his season total to 1,467, which is the fourth-highest total in PL history.

HAMILTON, N.Y. — A pair of Chris Brown to J.B. Gerald touchdown passes, sandwiched around a Jamaal Branch TD run, lifted fourth-seeded Colgate (13-0) to a 19-7 victory over Massachusetts (10-3) in the first round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Colgate, riding the longest Division I football win streak in the country (19 games), became the first Patriot League team to win 13 games in a season. It was also the fourth-straight year, and fifth time in the last six years, that the PL representative won a first-round playoff game and advanced to the national quarterfinals.

The teams played on a snow-covered field and playing in blizzard-type conditions during much of the first half. Massachusetts opened the scoring midway through the first quarter when Leroy Brooks broke through to block a Colgate punt. James Ihedigbo scooped up the ball and barreled 25 yards into the end zone for a 7-0 Minuteman lead.

The Raiders evened the score at 9:44 of the second quarter by capping an 80-yard drive with a 13-yard post-pattern pass from Brown to Gerald. On the next possession, a dropped snap on a Minuteman punt attempt allowed CU to take possession at the six-yard line. A pair of Branch carries, the second reaching paydirt from two-yards out, gave the Raiders the lead.

Colgate increased its lead early in the fourth quarter on the first play after a Massachusetts fumble. Starting on the right side, Gerald again cut across the middle and pulled in a 30-yard pass from Brown and sprinted into the end zone untouched for his first career two-TD performance.

HAMILTON, N.Y. — Colgate Jamaal Branch bulled into the end zone from the one-yard line on third-and-goal in the final two minutes of the game, and Lane Schwarzberg added his fourth PAT of the game to lift fourth-seeded Raiders (14-0) to a 28-27 victory over 10th-ranked Western Illinois in the second round of the 2004 NCAA Division I-AA football playoffs at Andy Kerr Stadium.

For the second-straight week, the Raiders and their opponents played in a driving snowstorm, which dumped more than a foot of snow on the field. Branch scored a pair of touchdowns and Chris Brown added a pair of scoring passes for CU.

CU took a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter on a seven-yard TD pass from Brown to J.B. Gerald. After WIU scored a FG and a TD, the Raiders regained the advantage just before the half ended on a one-yard scoring plunge by Branch.

WIU cut its deficit to 14-13 with another FG early in the third quarter, setting up an explosive fourth frame that saw both teams reach the end zone twice. Branch's game-winning TD, with 1:50 remaining, was set up by a 28-yard punt return by Gerald to the WIU 25-yard line and a 24-yard pass on the following play from Brown to Luke Graham.

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. — Colgate's Chris Brown threw for 207 yards and three touchdowns while rushing for another score to lead the fourth-seeded Raiders (15-0) to a 36-24 victory over Florida Atlantic (11-3) in the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals at Lockhart Stadium.

CU, with the longest win streak in the country (21), intercepted three passes on the way to becoming the first Patriot League team to advance to a National Championship game.

CU's Jamaal Branch broke or tied five NCAA records in the victory. Branch scored the first TD of the game on CU's first possession and finished with 130 yards on 45 carries. He broke the Division I-AA single-season marks for rushing attempts (430), rushing yards (2,271), rushing touchdowns (29) and 100-yard performances (12).

Brown helped break the game open with a pair of TD passes to Luke Graham in the final four minutes of the first half, giving the Raiders a 23-7 lead at the break. The key play was Colgate recovering a short pop-up kickoff at the Florida Atlantic 30-yard line, setting up the second Brown-to-Graham scoring play. Brown finished with 285 yards total offense while Graham, despite playing with an injured shoulder, finished with six receptions for 77 yards.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. — Second-seeded Delaware (15-1) scored three of its first four touchdowns on drives of less than 35 yards and played dominant defense to win the NCAA Division I-AA National Championship with a 40-0 victory over fourth-seeded Colgate (15-1).

Delaware posted the first shutout and the largest margin of victory in the history of the I-AA Championship game. The Blue Hens also set an NCAA record for fewest points allowed in a four-game I-AA playoff season, allowing just 23. The Raiders, who had a 21-game win streak snapped, were trying to become the first team to win 16 games in a season since Yale accomplished the feat in 1894.

Delaware's Andy Hall completed 12-of-20 passes for 141 yards and a pair of TDs to David Boller. Antawn Jenkins and Germaine Bennett combined for 113 rushing yards on 34 carries and each scored two rushing TDs. The Blue Hens did not commit a turnover.

Colgate's offense was limited to 157 yards, less than half of the 398 yards per game the Raiders had averaged through the first 15 games of the season. Jamaal Branch, who won the Walter Payton Award as the I-AA Player of the Year the night before the Championship game, gained just 55 yards on 20 rushes. It was the third time in CU's four playoff games that the record-setting ballcarrier was held to 60 yards or less.

BETHLEHEM, Pa. — Lehigh's 2004 season came to an end on Saturday afternoon in the NCAA I-AA Playoffs, as the Mountain Hawks dropped a tough 14-13 decision to James Madison in front of 6,116 in attendance at Goodman Stadium. With the loss the Brown and White ended its season at 9-3 overall.

The two teams battled feverishly throughout the final quarter with Lehigh having its best chance to put some points on the board when it drove inside of the Dukes' 30-yard line, but the drive stalled, forcing the Mountain Hawks to punt to James Madison. The Dukes took over and tried to secure the victory by gaining first downs, but the Lehigh defense was more than up to the challenge, stuffing the Dukes at the Mountain Hawk 49-yard line on fourth down giving the ball back to the Brown and White with just 2:44 remaining in the contest.

The Mountain Hawks were unable to score, giving the ball back to the Dukes and after Raymond Hines raced his way for a first down, James Madison downed the ball and secured the victory. Lehigh quarterback Mark Borda finished his day with 215 yards through the air, while Eric Rath rushed for a team high 43 yards. Justin Rascati threw for 122 yards through the air and Hines gained 191 yards on the ground for James Madison. JMU outgained the Mountain Hawks 329 to 237 on the afternoon, including 207 net rushing yards to the Mountain Hawks' 22.

NEWARK, Del. — Senior free safety Garron Bible scooped up a fumble deep inside Delaware territory and rambled 87 yards for a touchdown with 2:56 left to play to clinch the University of Delaware's 28-14 victory over 25th-ranked Lafayette in an NCAA I-AA football first round playoff game Saturday afternoon at Delaware Stadium.

The 10th-ranked Blue Hens, the defending NCAA I-AA national champion, won their third straight game, and fifth straight NCAA playoff game since last season, to improve to 9-3.

Lafayette, which captured the Patriot League title, was making its first-ever NCAA tournament appearance and ended the season with a mark of 8-4. Quarterback Brad Maurer gave an outstanding effort, completing 19 of 27 passes for a career-high 211 yards and one touchdown.

McCourt was held to 50 yards on 13 carries, but his fourth-quarter touchdown equaled Tom Costello's single-season school record of 16 rushing scores.

Dion Witherspoon and Maurice Bennett led the defense with 11 tackles apiece.

AMHERST, Mass. — No. 3 Massachusetts rode a stout defensive effort and the legs of senior tailback Steve Baylark to a 35-14 win over Lafayette in the first round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

Baylark carried 24 times for 152 yards and scored a pair of touchdowns in the first quarter, and Liam Coen was 9-of-15 for 151 yards and three scores for the Minutemen. Meanwhile, the defense limited the Leopards to 201 yards of total offense (61 rushing, 140 passing).

Lafayette rallied to pull within a touchdown at halftime, as a pair of turnovers gave the Leopards the ball in UMass territory and senior quarterback Brad Maurer capitalized on the opportunities. An interception and 18-yard return by Torian Johnson gave Lafayette the ball at the 34 with 3:08 left before the half, and Maurer hit Shaun Adair for a 26-yard touchdown.

Courtney Robinson broke the ensuing kickoff near midfield, but Adrian Lawson knocked the ball loose and Adair fell on it at the 43-yard line. Maurer hooked up with Duaeno Dorsey for a 31-yard scoring pass following a short completion to Hurt.

Lafayette's senior class compiled a four-year record of 27-20 and leaves College Hill as the three-time defending Patriot League champions.

FOOTBALL

One Division I

As most football fans know, three classifications – Division I-A, I-AA and I-AAA – were used to differentiate the administration of a school's football program. As of December 15, 2006, those three classifications were declared out of bounds and new designations were kicked off.

The Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) will be used to describe football programs that compete to participate in the postseason bowl system that includes the 32 NCAA-licensed bowls that make up the Bowl Championship Series.

The NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) now will be used to describe schools that participate in the NCAA championship postseason structure (one of 88 NCAA national championships that formerly was described as the I-AA football championship).

PREVIOUS NAME > NEW NAME

Division I-A > Football Bowl Subdivision

I-A (short hand) > Bowl Subdivision

I-A (acronym for NCAA manual use) > FBS

Division I-AA > NCAA Football Championship Subdivision

I-AA (short hand) > Football Championship Subdivision

I-AA (acronym for NCAA manual use) > FCS

NCAA Division I-AA Football Championship > NCAA Division I Football Championship

Division I-AA Football Committee > Division I Football Championship Committee

Division I-AAA > Division I

Division I (all other sports) > Same

The Reason for the Change

The I-A, I-AA and I-AAA designations were confusing and as result, misapplied by college football fans and the media when referring not only to football programs (e.g., I-AA basketball). And because of greater awareness of specific conferences and schools, the I-A label was rarely emphasized by the I-A membership, which only caused greater confusion about the I-AA classification.

This initiative, voted into effect by the presidents and chancellors who comprise the NCAA Division I Board of Directors last August, is not intended to confuse or devalue the importance of the BCS format.

Why These Titles Were Chosen

These labels communicate in a positive and clear way about the differences between the Division I football classifications, chiefly the postseason opportunity, while still defining them within the Division I experience.

The name change also clearly defines the student-athlete experience. Rather than being incorrectly referred to by a football classification, they'll simply be a Division I student-athlete.

Spreading the Word

The use of the new football labels was rolled out at the 2006 NCAA Division I Football Championship game. During the course of the 2007 season, expect these new football designations to be used by members of the college football community, which includes student-athletes, corporate supporters, university/college officials, community leaders and media partners.

Coaches, administrators and staff have been asked to use the new classifications in media guides, game programs, Web sites, tickets and promotional materials.

Get to know the new names for the teams in your favorite game – the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).
