PATRIOT LEAGUE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

CAROLYN SCHLIE FEMOVICH

In selecting Carolyn Schlie Femovich as its fourth Executive Director, the Patriot League Council of Presidents continued its adherence to equity and innovation in its approach to intercollegiate athletics. Femovich brought 17 years experience at the NCAA Division I level to the Patriot League when she was appointed Executive Director in July of 1999. She is one of three women to hold the top post of a combined men and women's conference at the NCAA Division I level.

Throughout her tenure at the Patriot League, Femovich has focused on key areas including the development of a comprehensive multimedia package, expansion of League membership, improvement of League competitiveness, and quality of services to the membership.

Under her direction, Patriot League basketball has gained increased television exposure through contracts with national outlets and as a result of the League's broadband initiative, which streams more than 100 men and women's basketball games live annually via the Internet. Additionally, selected Patriot League Olympic sports have found a home as a part of the League's all-sport packages with various television entities and have seen increased visibility through the streaming of Patriot League Championship events.

In 2001 Femovich orchestrated the addition of American University as a full member and Georgetown as an associate member in football, which has helped to strengthened and stabilize the membership. She has also increased service to the membership with improvements in championship administration, League governance and a focus on the student-athlete experience. During her time with the Patriot League, emphasis has been placed on the competitiveness of its men and women's basketball programs, as well as other key sports that present unique opportunities for the League.

Femovich currently chairs the NCAA Division I Championships/Competition Cabinet and recently finished a four-year term as the League's representative on the NCAA Management Council. She was also the chairperson of the prestigious Collegiate Women's Sports Awards Program where she continues to serve as a board member. Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Femovich served in a leadership role in the administration of a highly-successful Ivy League program at the University of Pennsylvania.

During her tenure as Senior Associate Athletics Director (1986-99) and Associate Athletics Director (1982-85), her responsibilities included administration of intercollegiate sports and recreation programs, strategic planning and facilities development, human resource management and event planning. In her initial years with the Quakers, Femovich supervised 15 intercollegiate programs, coaching staffs and athletics facilities. She also served as Penn's Interim Director of Athletics in 1985. Femovich represented the University in a variety of external capacities with the Ivy League and NCAA, and on a number of sports committees and boards.

Femovich's career in intercollegiate athletics began in 1974 at Indiana University as a graduate teaching assistant. In 1975, she moved to Gettysburg College as head coach of women's basketball, women's tennis, assistant professor of health and physical education and the Coordinator of Women's Athletics.

Included in the impressive list of regional and national committees Femovich has served on are the NCAA Basketball Marketing Sub-Committee, the NCAA Division I Business/Finance Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, arguably the most prestigious women's sport committee in the NCAA. She played a primary role in bringing the 2000 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four to Philadelphia and is a member of the executive board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. She also held the office of President of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) in 1996, which now includes more than 300 member institutions.

Femovich is a graduate of Valparaiso University and received a master of science degree from Indiana University. Femovich and her husband Robert reside in Hellertown, Pa.

2010 PATRIOT LEAGUE BASEBALL NOTEBOOK

PLENTY OF TOP RETURNEES AROUND THE LEAGUE

Each Patriot League squad has reason for optimism with at least one returning player that earned All-League honors last season. Army returns five of its six players that earned First-Team All-League honors a year ago, while Bucknell has five of its eight All-League players back. Holy Cross, Navy, Lafayette and Lehigh all have at least one All-League player from a year ago. Ten of last year's 12 First-Team All-League players are back in 2010, and 16 of the 25 return overall. The major award winners are all back, too, with Patriot League Player of the Year Matt Perry manning third base for Holy Cross, Pitcher of the Year Ben Koenigsfeld still on the mound and at the plate for Army and Rookie of the Year Zach Price back on the Black Knights' infield.

KEEPING THEIR AVERAGE UP

Army's junior class has already helped the program to the 2009 Patriot League Baseball Championship and back-to-back regular-season crowns. Now, the group of four players that all earned First-Team All-League recognition a year ago is creeping up on categories in the Patriot League record book. Shortstop Clint Moore (.373) is fifth and first baseman Kevin McKague (.364) is eighth in League annals in career batting average, while designated hitter Joey Henshaw (.353) is just outside the top 10 as all three players move up on more career lists soon.

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT

The Patriot League Baseball Tournament will include four teams and be played over two weekends for the third straight season. The best-of-three semifinals will be at the site of the top two seeds on May 15 and 16, with the best-of-three Patriot League Championship at the site of the highest remaining seed on May 22-23.

2010 PATRIOT LEAGUE PRESEASON POLL

1. Army, 46 (8)
2. Bucknell, 39 (4)
3. Holy Cross, 35
4. Navy, 27
5. Lafayette, 21
6. Lehigh, 12

First-place votes in parentheses

Defending Patriot League Baseball champion Army was selected by coaches and sports information directors to claim the crown again in 2010. Army garnered 46 points and eight first-place votes to take the spot in the League's preseason poll. The Black Knights were followed by Bucknell, which had 39 points and the remaining four first-place votes. Holy Cross was picked third with 35 points, and followed in order by Navy (27), Lafayette (21) and Lehigh (12). Patriot League Baseball head coaches and sports information directors voted in the poll, and were not eligible to vote for their team

TIEBREAKING PROCEDURES

The following is the Patriot League tie-breaking procedure. In the case of ties in the final regular-season standings, the following process will be used until all ties are broken and the seeding process is completed (ties will be broken in rank order beginning with the highest seed):

In the case of a two-way tie, the following process is used;

Head-to-head competition the higher seed will go to the team that has won the most League contests played against the other team involved in the tie.

A comparison of records will be made between the tied institutions starting at the highest possible seed and continuing through the lowest seed, if necessary.

Record versus out-of-League common opponents. - Note - For the common opponents tiebreaker to be used, the teams must have played the same amount of games against the opponent.

RPI Comparison based on data available the week after the end of the original Patriot League regular-season schedule

In the case of multiple ties, the following process will be used;

Note The entire process for multiple-team ties must be completed. The Patriot League does not revert back to the two-way tie formula once the multiple-team tie has been resolved.)

Records between the tied teams will be evaluated to determine if one team won more contests against the other tied institutions.

A comparison of records will be conducted for each team starting with the highest seed not involved in the tie and continuing through the lowest seed, if necessary.

Record versus out-of-League common opponents. Note - For the common opponents tiebreaker to be used, the teams must have played the same amount of games against the opponent.

2009 PATRIOT LEAGUE BASEBALL SEASON IN REVIEW

2009 PATRIOT LEAGUE STANDINGS

Army	13-7	.650	34-19	.642
Holy Cross	11-7	.611	22-27	.449
Lafayette	9-11	.450	24-29	.453
Navy	8-12	.400	20-26-1	.436
Lehigh	4-14	.222	11-36-1	.240

ARMY WINS FIRST TITLE SINCE 2005

Army returned to the top stage in the Patriot League, as the Black Knights claimed their first title since 2005 and tied Navy for the most all-time crowns with five. The Black Knights took out Holy Cross in three games in the Patriot League semifinals on May 9-10, then swept Lafayette in the League Championship series on May 16. Sophomore Ben Koenigsfeld was named Tournament MVP.

BLACK KNIGHTS MAKE NATIONAL NOISE, TOO

Army was not done after winning the Patriot League Tournament. The Black Knights lost their first game of the NCAA Regional, 3-1 at No. 1 seed Texas, before staving off elimination twice by beating Texas State, 7-4, and Boston College, 4-3, to advance to the regional finals against the Longhorns. Army held a 10-6 lead entering the bottom of the ninth with a chance to force a winner-take-all games against Texas, but the Longhorns came back to tie and ended Army's hopes on a walk-off grand slam.

TIGHT AT THE TOP

Bucknell, Army and Holy Cross engaged in a competitive race for the regular-season Patriot League crown, and the Bison and Black Knights emerged in a first-place tie at 13-7 in League play. Bucknell earned the No. 1 seed and Army the No. 2 because of their head-to-head matchups. Holy Cross finished at 11-7, and did not make up a postponed doubleheader with Lehigh because they could not emerge higher than the No. 3 seed even with two victories to tie for the regular-season crown.

ARMY STUDENT-ATHLETE DOMINANT THE HONORS

A talented group of sophomores keyed Army's run, and obtained plenty of regional and national recognition while they were at it. Joey Henshaw and Clint Moore were named to the ABCA All-America team, with Henshaw a second-team selection and Moore on the third. Henshaw was a second-team pick by the ECAC, while Moore was named an honorable mention selection by Ping! Baseball. Henshaw, Moore and Kevin McKague all enter the 2010 season in the Patriot League career batting average top 10. Freshman Zach Price was named the third-team second baseman on the Ping! All-Freshmen team, and earned Freshman All-America honors from Louisville Slugger. The honors for Army student-athletes came from the Patriot League, too, with Ben Koenigsfeld named Pitcher of the Year and Tyler Anderegg Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

OFFENSIVE NUMBERS FALL HARD

The 2009 season produced some of the best offensive numbers in Patriot League history. Army set single-season team records for runs (446), batting average (.329) and home runs (57), while Henshaw, Moore and Holy Cross' Matt Perry finished in the top 10 for single-season hits. Perry's .423 batting average was the sixth-best mark in Patriot League annals. Henshaw set a League record with 75 RBIs, and placed second for a single season with 13 home runs. Moore was fourth all-time with 63 RBIs.

No-No

Navy's Sam Long threw the ninth no-hitter in Patriot League history when he kept Lehigh out of the hit column on April 4. It was the first no-hitter since Holy Cross' Scott Lampe did it to the Mountain Hawks in 2007.
