2014-15 Patriot League Women's Basketball Preview

The Patriot League

Now in its third decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 24 sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Boston University, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola and Navy as full members, and Fordham, Georgetown, MIT and Richmond as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Rate Report. The League also had more than 93 percent of its teams score above the national APR average in the most recent data, and 92 Patriot League teams earned NCAA Academic Performance Program Public Recognition Awards after posting academic progress rate scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports.

The Patriot League's mission is simple: to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.

During the 2013-14 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams have accomplished the following:

*The Patriot League ranked second among all conferences in multi-year APR rating, and led all leagues in men's basketball APR.

*81 Patriot League teams recorded perfect graduation success rates and 92 earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for ranking in the top 10 percent of their sport in APR.

*More than 93 percent of Patriot League teams scored above the national average in APR.

*Patriot League teams won NCAA Tournament games in seven different sports, with American winning twice to advance to the Round of 16 in volleyball.

*League squads also won NCAA first-round or regional contests in football (Fordham), men's soccer (Navy), women's soccer (Boston University), women's lacrosse (Loyola), softball (Boston University) and baseball (Bucknell).

*Navy won the overall Patriot League Presidents' Cup for the second time in three years, while Army took first place on the men's side and Boston University claimed the women's title in its inaugural season.

*Fifteen student-athletes earned Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America recognition, with Fordham's Brett Biestek (Football), Bucknell's Joe Meyer (Men's Soccer) and Navy's Elizabeth Hoerner (Women's Soccer) on the first team.

*Thirty-five student-athletes received Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition.

*There were 2,450 student-athletes on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2013-14, including 128 with a semester GPA of at least 4.0.

*American women's basketball standout Alexis Dobbs and Navy women's soccer star Elizabeth Hoerner both earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships and were later named the Patriot League's nominees for the NCAA Woman of the Year Award.

*Fordham's Brett Biestek earned a Postgraduate Scholarship from the FCS Athletic Directors Association.

*Loyola's Joe Fletcher (Men's Lacrosse) and Boston University's Allison Barwise (Track and Field) were named the Patriot League Male and Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year recipients, respectively.

*The Patriot League Sportsmanship Awards went to a pair of basketball student-athletes in American's Darius Gardner on the men's side and Army's Krishawn Tillett for the women.

*Lafayette's Alec Golini (Men's Soccer) and Lehigh's Brooke Astor (Women's Track and Field) earned the Patriot League Outstanding Leadership and Character Awards for their excellence in leadership and service.

*Four Patriot Leaguers were named Senior CLASS Award finalists, including three in men's lacrosse.

*Loyola's Joe Fletcher was one of five finalists for the Tewaaraton Award given to the top player in men's lacrosse, and also earned the William C. Schmeisser Outstanding Defensive Player Award from the USILA.

*Fordham's Mike Nebrich placed fifth in the voting for the Walter Payton Award as the top FCS player.

*Twenty-four Patriot Leaguers were named first, second or third-team All-Americans in team sports, including six in football, five in men's lacrosse, four in women's lacrosse and three in men's soccer.

*Loyola spent the majority of the season as the No. 1-ranked team in the men's lacrosse national polls.

*Fordham football and Loyola men and women's lacrosse each finished in the top 10 of national polls, while Navy men's soccer and American volleyball and field hockey each placed in the top 25 of their sport's final national rankings.

*Navy's Jay Stell placed third in the javelin at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships, matching the best-ever finish for a Patriot League male and earning first-team All-America honors.

2014-15 Patriot League Women's Basketball Preview

Army selected as Patriot League Preseason Favorite

Army capped off the 2013-14 Patriot League season in March by capturing its first League title since 2006. The coaches and sports information directors don't believe the Black Knights will have to wait another eight years for their next title after choosing Army as the top team in the women's basketball preseason poll.

Army received 16 first place votes in a process where voters are not eligible to rank their own team. The Black Knights totaled 159 points to come in front of second-place American, which totaled 132 points and one first-place vote.

Bucknell and Holy Cross were tied for the third spot at 123 points, with the Bison receiving two first place votes. They are followed by Lehigh (88), Navy (85), Lafayette (70), Colgate (47), Boston University (39) and Loyola Maryland (34). The Mids, who finished as the regular season champion last season, received the remaining first place vote.

Army will also enter the Patriot League season with the Preseason Player of the Year, as junior guard Kelsey Minato was given the honor by the poll voters. Minato, a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, is joined on the Preseason All-Patriot League team by American senior guard Jen Dumiak, Bucknell senior forward Audrey Dotson, Lafayette senior forward Emily Homan and Holy Cross junior forward Raquel Scott.

Army (25-8, 14-4 Patriot League in 2013-14) returns four starters from a team that won 10 of its final 12 games during the regular season and rode that momentum in to the postseason with three wins at Christl Arena en route to the Patriot League crown. Minato led the Patriot League in scoring (22 ppg), free throw percentage (92.4) and 3-point field goal percentage (44.3). All three marks also ranked in the top 20 nationally. Other starters returning for the Black Knights include senior forward Olivia Schretzman, junior forward Aimee Oertner and junior guard/forward Brianna Johnson.

American (22-10, 14-4 PL) reached the Patriot League semifinals in their first season under coach Megan Gebbia before falling to eventual champ Army. The Eagles will miss guard Alexis Dobbs, who was a first team All-Patriot League selection as a senior, but return a pair of third-team performers in guard Jen Dumiak (10 ppg) and forward Arron Zimmerman (10.1 ppg). American was chosen for the field of the 2014 Women's NIT and hung tough with Seton Hall before losing the first round contest 63-60 on the road.

Bucknell (16-14, 11-7) graduated a 1,500-point scorer in Shelby Romine, but brings back senior forward Audrey Dotson (16.1 ppg), a preseason All-Patriot League selection, and 2013-14 Patriot League Rookie of the Year Claire DeBoer (9.8 ppg). The Bison also return sophomore Megan McGurk and a pair of juniors, Claire Maree O'Bryan and Tyler Craig, who figure prominently in coach Aaron Roussell's rotation.

Holy Cross (20-12, 10-8) lose a pair of fixtures in the backcourt with the graduation of Alex Smith and Brisje Malone, but preseason All-Patriot League forward Raquel Scott is back for her junior season. Scott is a double-double machine who averaged 16.3 points and 9.8 rebounds as a sophomore. Her 18 double-doubles were 19th nationally in 2013-14. Also returning in the front court are senior forward Emily Parker and senior center Molly Hourigan. Junior guard Lisa Mifsud is also back after averaging 10.1 points per game over 29 starts as a sophomore.

Lehigh (13-18, 5-13 PL) returns its top five scorers and six players who started at least half of the Mountain Hawks games in 2013-14. Junior forward Kerry Kinek, a third-team All-Patriot League selection as a sophomore, led the team in scoring (15.3 ppg) and rebounding (7.4 rpg). Senior guards Katie O'Reilly (10.1 ppg) and Sarah Williams (8 ppg) also return along with junior forward Elizabeth Sharlow (8.8 ppg).

Navy (24-8, 15-3) won the Patriot League regular season but fell short in their quest for a fourth straight berth in the NCAA tournament after suffering a loss to Holy Cross in the tournament semifinals. The Mids graduated the most decorated class in program history and Coach Stefanie Pemper will have to break in four new starters around senior guard Chloe Stapleton (8.8 ppg).

Lafayette (14-16, 8-10 PL) will continue its quest to move into the Patriot League upper half when they begin their fifth season under Coach Dianne Nolan. The Leopards bring back their top three scorers, led by preseason All-Patriot League selection Emily Homan (13.7 ppg, 6.8 rpg). Also returning are senior guards Linnel Macklin (9.8 ppg) and Maddie Peabody (5.6 ppg) along with junior guard Jamie O'Hare (8.7 ppg).

Colgate (8-22, 4-14 PL) will return three of its top four scorers under fourth-year head coach Nicci Hays Fort. Forward Carole Harris averaged 12.1 points and 7.9 rebounds as a junior to lead the Raiders in both categories. Fellow seniors Mariah Jones (10.7 ppg) and Missy Repoli (7.8 ppg) are also back along with juniors Randy Butler and Josie Stockill.

Boston University (13-20, 7-11) will welcome a new coach in Katy Steding and plenty of new faces as seven of the ten rostered players are either freshmen or sophomores. Senior forward Mollie McKendrick (9.1 ppg, 6.4 rpg) and junior guard Clodagh Scannell (6.8 ppg, 4.5 rpg) will provide the upperclass leadership. Guard Sarah Hope also returns after starting 24 games as a freshman.

Loyola Maryland (5-25, 2-16 PL) is looking to bounce back after a first season in the Patriot League derailed by close losses and injury. Guard Nai Brown (14.6 ppg), a third-team All-Patriot League selection as a junior, returns along with All-Rookie team performer Lisa Mirachi (7.6 ppg). A return to form by senior guard Kara Marshall (13.5 ppg), who missed the entire League slate due to injury, could provide a boost to Loyola along with steady improvement from junior forward Jeneh Perry.

The women's basketball season begins on Nov. 14, with the 18-game Patriot League schedules opening up for all teams on Dec. 31. The Patriot League Tournament will include all teams and be played entirely at home sites, and concludes with the championship on March 14 at 6 p.m. on CBS Sports Network.

2014-15 Patriot League Women's Basketball Preview

2014-15 Army Black Knights

PRESEASON POLL: 1st

2013-14 RECORD: 25-8 overall, 14-4 Patriot League (T-2nd)

PRESEASON ALL-PATRIOT LEAGUE: Kelsey Minato (Jr., G) - Preseason POY

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT: Beat Boston University in quarterfinals; Beat American in semifinals; Beat Holy Cross in championship.

POSTSEASON: Lost to Maryland in NCAA Tournament.

HEAD COACH: Dave Magarity, 9th Season at Army/32nd Overall

The Black Knights are the preseason choice to win the Patriot League championship in 2015 after capturing their first League title since 2006 in March. Led by two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Kelsey Minato, Coach Magarity appears to have the nucleus to make a run at an NCAA Tournament berth again.

Minato led the Patriot League in scoring at 22.0 points per game and also in free throw percentage (92.4) and 3-point field goal percentage (44.3). All three figures ranked in the top-20 nationally. Three other starters return in senior forward Olivia Schretzman (6.2 ppg) and junior forward Aimee Oertner (5.8 ppg). Schretzman and Oertner also combine to grab nearly 10 boards per game. Junior Brianna Johnson (5.2 ppg) rounds out the returning starters.

The Black Knights open on the road at Quinnipiac and have a homecoming, of sorts, for Minato when they take on UCSB and Pepperdine in late November.

2014-15 Boston University Terriers

PRESEASON POLL: 9th

2013-14 RECORD: 13-20 Overall, 7-11 Patriot League (7th)

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT: Defeated Loyola Maryland in first round; lost to Army in quarterfinals.

HEAD COACH: Katy Steding, 1st Season at BU/Overall

Katy Steding takes over as head women's basketball coach at Boston University with a wealth of professional playing experience on the sideline that will be trying to maximize the performance of a primarily young group on the court.

Steding and assistants Cindy Blodgett and Taj McWilliams-Franklin combine for more than 20 years in the WNBA and other professional leagues, but the Terriers return only one player who started more than 20 games a year ago. Sophomore guard Sarah Hope started 24 games as a freshman and averaged 6.4 points per game -- including a career-high 19 against Marist.

Junior guard Clodagh Scannell and senior forward Mollie McKendrick started 15 and 14 games, respectively, in 2013-14. McKendrick averaged 9.1 points and 6.4 rebounds per contest and delivered a strong 17-point, 10 rebound effort in the Terriers narrow loss to eventual champion Army in the Patriot League quarterfinals. Scannell averaged 6.8 points and 4.5 rebounds as a sophomore.

Boston University opens the season with four games against other Division I programs in New England (at Northeastern, Harvard, at Boston College, Vermont) before heading to New Mexico to take part in the Lobos Thanksgiving Tournament along with Stephen F. Austin and UC Riverside.

PRESEASON POLL: 3rd (tie)

PRESEASON ALL-PATRIOT LEAGUE: Audrey Dotson (Sr., F)

2013-14 RECORD: 16-14 Overall, 11-7 Patriot League (4th)

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT: Lost to Holy Cross in quarterfinals

POSTSEASON: Lost to Maine in Women's Basketball Invitational.

HEAD COACH: Aaron Roussell, 3rd Season at Bucknell/11th Season Overall

Perhaps no team in the Patriot League had more exciting finishes than the 2013-14 Bucknell women's squad. The Bison took regular-season champion Navy to double overtime before falling 94-92, beat Holy Cross in overtime and then knocked them off again on a buzzer-beater and nipped champion Army 56-55 in another thriller.

Head coach Aaron Roussell has plenty to be excited about in 2014-15, as Bucknell returns a nice nucleus despite losing versatile Shelby Romine to graduation. Senior forward Audrey Dotson, a preseason All-Patriot League selection, is back after finishing third among League scoring leaders at 16.1 ppg and also ranked in the top 10 with 6.9 rebounds per contest.

The Bison also boast two sophomores who contributed greatly in their first season in Claire DeBoer, the 2013-14 Patriot League Rookie of the Year, and Megan McGurk. The duo combined to average 16 ppg as freshman starters. Juniors Tyler Craig, Sheaira Jones and Claire Maree O'Bryan also were prominent in Roussell's rotation.

Bucknell opens with four games on the road, including three games in the Midwest against Bowling Green, Michigan and Youngstown State.

PRESEASON POLL: 8th

2013-14 RECORD: 8-22 Overall, 4-14 Patriot League (9th)

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT: Lost to Lehigh in first round

HEAD COACH: Nicci Hays Fort, 4th Season at Colgate/7th Overall

A 71-60 win over eventual Patriot League champion Army was the highlight of a 2013-14 season for a Colgate team that continued to make progress under third-year head coach Nicci Hays Fort.

The Raiders return three of their top four scorers from a year ago, including senior forward Carole Harris who finished third in the Patriot League in rebounding at 7.9 per contest and 14th in scoring at 12.1 per game. Like Harris, senior guard Mariah Jones started all 30 games for Colgate and finished second on the team in scoring at 10.7 ppg while eclipsing the 20-point plateau on four occasions.

Also back are senior guard Missy Repoli, who knocked down 40-percent of her three-point field goal attempts a year ago and finished fourth on the team in scoring at 7.8 ppg. In the front court Kelly Reid, a 5-11 junior, returns to team with Harris after starting 24 games as a sophomore. Sophomore Randyll Butler, who emerged late in her freshman season, also returns to bolster a deep backcourt.

The Raiders will play five of their first six games away from Cotterell Court, opening at Harvard on Nov. 15 and also traveling for games at Georgia and Rutgers in late November.

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT: Defeated Bucknell in quarterfinals; defeated Navy in semifinals; lost to Army in Patriot League Championship game.

HEAD COACH: Bill Gibbons, 30th Season at Holy Cross/Overall.

Also returning are junior center Molly Hourigan, who started 18 games a year ago, senior forward Emily Parker and junior guard Lisa Mifsud. Parker and Mifsud each averaged 10 points per game last season.

HEAD COACH: Dianne Nolan, 5th Season at Lafayette/38th Overall

Lafayette returns four players who started at least a dozen games last year -- including their top three scorers -- as they try to break into the upper half of the Patriot League for the first time under head coach Dianne Nolan.

Leading the way will be Emily Homan (13.7), a preseason All-Patriot League selection. The senior forward finished in the top 10 in the League in rebounding, scoring, field goal percentage and blocked shots as a junior. Homan will serve as captain along with fellow seniors Brya Freeland, Linnel Macklin and Maddie Peabody. Macklin (9.8 ppg) and Peabody (5.6 ppg) were starters in the backcourt for the majority of the 2013-14 season.

Other key returnees are junior guard Jamie O'Hare, who was the Leopards third leading scorer at 8.7 ppg and junior forward Annette Snow who averaged more than 10 minutes per contest.

Lafayette opens the season at home against Delaware on Nov. 14 and plays seven non-conference games on the road, including a Nov. 28 date at perennial powerhouse Louisville.

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT: Beat Colgate in first round; Lost to Navy in quarterfinals

HEAD COACH: Sue Troyan, 20th Season at Lehigh/Overall

The Mountain Hawks return five players who started at least half of the games during the 2013-14 season. Led by a returning All-Patriot League third team performer in junior forward Kerry Kinek and All-Rookie selection Kayla Burton, coach Sue Troyan has some experience on a roster that includes only two seniors.

Kinek led Lehigh in scoring with 15.3 ppg and rebounding at 7.4 per contest, both figures placed her in the top five in the Patriot League a year ago. Guards Katie O'Reilly and Sarah Williams are back for their final season after averaging 10.1 and 8.0 ppg, respectively, as juniors.

Also returning are Burton, who started 22 games and averaged 5.4 ppg as a freshman, and junior guard Amina Affini who started 19 games and contributed nearly four points a contest. Sophomore forwards Kiernan McCloskey and Lexi Martins return to give the Mountain some additional experience in the post.

The Mountain Hawks face a non-League schedule that includes a trip to Tempe, Ariz. to participate in the ASU Classic against host Arizona State and a second round matchup versus either Eastern Illinois or Northwestern.

HEAD COACH: Joe Logan, 10th Season at Loyola Maryland/Overall

Loyola Maryland will begin its second season in the Patriot League trying to build around a pair of returning guards in All-Patriot League third team member Nai Brown and All-Rookie team selection Lisa Mirarchi. 2014-15 Patriot League Women's Basketball Preview

2013-14 Patriot League Season in Review

ARMY CAPTURES SECOND PATRIOT LEAGUE TITLE

Army won its second Patriot League title, and first since 2006, when it defeated Holy Cross 68-58 in the championship game on March 15 at Christl Arena. The Black Knights set a program Division I record by winning 25 games (25-8). Army earned a No. 13 seed in the Louisville Region of the NCAA Tournament and faced fourth-seeded Maryland in the first round.

FOUR PATRIOT LEAGUE TEAMS MAKE THE POSTSEASON

A record four Patriot League teams reached the postseason in 2013-14. In addition to Army, who earned the Patriot League automatic berth in to the NCAA tournament, regular season champion Navy and American made the 64-team field for the Women's NIT. Bucknell also was selected to participate in the Women's Basketball Invitational. All four teams were defeated in the first round as Army fell to Maryland, Navy lost at Old Dominion, Seton Hall edged American and Maine downed Bucknell.

MINATO DELIVERS A RECORD-SETTING SOPHOMORE CAMPAIGN

Two-time Patriot League Player of the Year Kelsey Minato, of Army, added a Patriot League Tournament MVP award to her resume after scoring a tournament finals record 31 points to lead the Black Knights to the championship title. Earlier in the season, the Huntington Beach, Calif. native set numerous team, league, arena and NCAA records in a 92-85 loss to Holy Cross. According to the Army Athletic Communications Department, Minato set 18 records, including three NCAA marks, during a 49-point night that included an amazing 26-for-26 from the free throw line. The accuracy from the line set new single-game standards in the NCAA record books and the 49 points eclipsed the old Christl Arena standard of 46 set by Kevin Houston in 1986.

PATRIOT LEAGUE ENJOYS SUCCESS IN NON-LEAGUE CONTESTS

Patriot League teams finished the non-conference portion of the 2013-14 schedule with a respectable 61-50 record. This included a 9-4 mark against America East, 5-3 versus the CAA, 10-3 against MAAC teams and 7-4 versus the NEC. The Patriot League split head-to-head meetings against the Ivy League (9-9) and the Atlantic 10 (6-6).

KELSEY MINATO, DAVE MAGARITY EARN RECOGNITION

Kelsey Minato was named to the All-Met women's basketball first team by the Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association in April. Minato was a second team selection as a freshman and is the fifth Black Knight player to earn multiple All-Met honors. Army head coach Dave Magarity was selected for the 2014 Mike Krzyzewski Teaching Character Through Sport Award in early May. The award recognizes West Point athletes and coaches for their outstanding commitment to the development of noble character through athletic participation and leadership.

AMERICAN'S ALEXIS DOBBS RECEIVES POST-GRADUATE SCHOLARSHIP

In March, American's Alexis Dobbs joined Army's Erin Anthony (2011) as the only three-time winners of the Patriot League Women's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year award. Upon graduation, Dobbs was awarded an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship to continue work toward an M.S. in physician assistant studies in a joint program through Cleveland State and Cuyahoga Community College.
