The Patriot League

Now in its third decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 24 sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Boston University, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola and Navy as full members, and Fordham, Georgetown, MIT and Richmond as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Rate Report. The League also had more than 93 percent of its teams score above the national APR average in the most recent data, and 92 Patriot League teams earned NCAA Academic Performance Program Public Recognition Awards after posting academic progress rate scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports.

The Patriot League's mission is simple: to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.

During the 2013-14 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams have accomplished the following:

*The Patriot League ranked second among all conferences in multi-year APR rating, and led all leagues in men's basketball APR.

*81 Patriot League teams recorded perfect graduation success rates and 92 earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for ranking in the top 10 percent of their sport in APR.

*More than 93 percent of Patriot League teams scored above the national average in APR.

*Patriot League teams won NCAA Tournament games in seven different sports, with American winning twice to advance to the Round of 16 in volleyball.

*League squads also won NCAA first-round or regional contests in football (Fordham), men's soccer (Navy), women's soccer (Boston University), women's lacrosse (Loyola), softball (Boston University) and baseball (Bucknell).

*Navy won the overall Patriot League Presidents' Cup for the second time in three years, while Army took first place on the men's side and Boston University claimed the women's title in its inaugural season.

*Fifteen student-athletes earned Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America recognition, with Fordham's Brett Biestek (Football), Bucknell's Joe Meyer (Men's Soccer) and Navy's Elizabeth Hoerner (Women's Soccer) on the first team.

*Thirty-five student-athletes received Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition.

*There were 2,450 student-athletes on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2013-14, including 128 with a semester GPA of at least 4.0.

*American women's basketball standout Alexis Dobbs and Navy women's soccer star Elizabeth Hoerner both earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships and were later named the Patriot League's nominees for the NCAA Woman of the Year Award.

*Fordham's Brett Biestek earned a Postgraduate Scholarship from the FCS Athletic Directors Association.

*Loyola's Joe Fletcher (Men's Lacrosse) and Boston University's Allison Barwise (Track and Field) were named the Patriot League Male and Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year recipients, respectively.

*The Patriot League Sportsmanship Awards went to a pair of basketball student-athletes in American's Darius Gardner on the men's side and Army's Krishawn Tillet for the women.

*Lafayette's Alec Golini (Men's Soccer) and Lehigh's Brooke Astor (Women's Track and Field) earned the Patriot League Outstanding Leadership and Character Awards for their excellence in leadership and service.

*Four Patriot Leaguers were named Senior CLASS Award finalists, including three in men's lacrosse.

*Loyola's Joe Fletcher was one of five finalists for the Tewaaron Award given to the top player in men's lacrosse, and also earned the William C. Schmeisser Outstanding Defensive Player Award from the USILA.

*Fordham's Mike Nebrich placed fifth in the voting for the Walter Payton Award as the top FCS player.

*Twenty-four Patriot Leaguers were named first, second or third-team All-Americans in team sports, including six in football, five in men's lacrosse, four in women's lacrosse and three in men's soccer.

*Loyola spent the majority of the season as the No. 1-ranked team in the men's lacrosse national polls.

*Fordham football and Loyola men and women's lacrosse each finished in the top 10 of national polls, while Navy men's soccer and American volleyball and field hockey each placed in the top 25 of their sport's final national rankings.

*Navy's Jay Stell placed third in the javelin at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships, matching the best-ever finish for a Patriot League male and earning first-team All-America honors.

*Boston University's Allison Barwise, Rich Peters and Rosa Moriello also competed at the NCAA Outdoor Championships and earned All-America recognition, with Barwise receiving first-team status by placing sixth in the high jump for the best NCAA finish by a Patriot League female since 1993.

*Peters and his BU teammate, Monica Adler, both recorded top-10 finishes in the mile at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships to earn first-team All-America recognition.

*Navy's Tom Duvall came in the top 10 in the 500 freestyle at the NCAA Men's Swimming Championship to earn All-America honors, and was one of four Patriot Leaguers to compete in an individual event at either the NCAA Men or Women's Championship.

*Lehigh's Tyler Mueller and Loyola's Kiera Harrison ran in the NCAA Cross Country Championships.

*Bucknell's Katelyn Miller was selected as the IWFLCA Division I Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Fordham Enters Season as Overwhelming Favorite in Patriot League Football

In its first year of eligibility for the Patriot League football title since 2009, Fordham has been selected as the unanimous choice to win the crown in the League's pre-season poll announced on July 30 at Patriot League Football Media Day at Green Pond Country Club.

The Rams notched all 12 first-place votes from their opponents to finish with 72 points in the poll. Lehigh came in second with 54 points, followed by Lafayette with 51 and the remaining two first-place nods as voters could not select their own school. Bucknell (43), Colgate (33), Holy Cross (29) and Georgetown (12) rounded out the preseason rankings which were voted on by Patriot League football head coaches and sports information directors.

Fordham comes off a historic season where it finished 12-2 overall, made the second round of the FCS playoffs and placed in the top ten of both national polls. The Rams are predicted to pick up right where they left off as they feature a senior-laden roster that has received plenty of preseason accolades. Quarterback Mike Nebrich and wide receiver Sam Ajala are both candidates for the Walter Payton Award as the Most Outstanding Player in the FCS, while linebacker Stephen Hodge is up for the Buck Buchanan Award as the Top Defensive Player in the nation. Nebrich and Hodge were the Patriot League Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year, respectively, last season, and carry those same titles for the preseason. All three players are all Preseason All-America selections along with tight end Dan Light and offensive lineman Mason Halter. Seven others joined the group as Pre-season All-Patriot League picks including wide receivers Tebucky Jones and Brian Wetzell, placekicker Michael Marando, defensive linemen DeAndre Slate and Brett Biestek, defensive back Ian Williams and punter Joe Pavlik. Linebacker Austin Hancock and defensive backs Jordan Chapman and Levon Williams were also All-Patriot League picks last season as the Rams return all but two of their 17 All-League players. Fordham will be in search of its first Patriot League title since 2007.

Lehigh has won at least eight games in each of the last four seasons, though the Mountain Hawks will be searching for their first League crown since 2011 after losing contests with the title at stake at home the last two years. The Mountain Hawks have a nucleus that includes offensive lineman Ned Daryoush and defensive lineman Tim Newton as returning first-team All-Patriot League players as well as preseason picks. Lehigh loses seven All-Patriot League players, including first-team All-American wide receiver Lee Kurfis, but has other key returnees back in wide receiver Josh Parris, defensive lineman Arturo Gyles and linebackers Colton Caslow and Isaiah Campbell. Nick Shafnisky and Matt McHale both have experience at quarterback after seeing action in the final three games last season.

Lafayette came on strong late in the 2013 season to win the Patriot League title for the first time since 2006 and first outright since 1994. The Leopards dealt Fordham its lone regular-season loss with a 27-14 win at home on Nov. 16, then won at rival Lehigh 50-28 to claim the League crown on Nov. 23. The late-season success was due in part to the play of quarterback Drew Reed, who started the final six games of his freshman season and completed 72.5% of his passes for 1,887 yards and 17 touchdowns. He has a huge weapon returning in running back Ross Scheuerman, a Preseason All-American who had 1,920 all-purpose yards last season. Luke Chiarolanzio and Zack Masur were All-Patriot League picks on the offensive line, with Demetrius Dixon and Justin Adams back at wide receiver hoping to make up for the loss of first-team All-Patriot Leaguer Mark Ross. Matt Smalley was a first-team All-Patriot League pick at both defensive back and return specialist, while defensive back Jared Roberts and defensive lineman Steve Mercado were second-team All-Patriot League picks last year.

Lehigh and Lafayette will conclude the season with the 150th meeting of the Most-Played Rivalry in College Football, and will mark the occasion by playing at Yankee Stadium on Nov. 22 at 3:30 p.m.

Bucknell rivaled Lafayette and Fordham as the hottest Patriot League team at the end of the 2013 season as the Bison concluded the year with wins in five of the last six games, with the only defeat coming on a blocked field goal as time expired against the Rams. The Bison have a strong nucleus back which includes six Preseason All-Patriot League players led by linebacker Evan Byers, who paced the Patriot League with 129 tackles last year and is a Preseason All-American. He is joined on the Preseason All-Patriot League squad by running back C.J. Williams, offensive linemen Lonnie Rawles and Julie'n Davenport, defensive lineman Demetrius Baldwin-Youngblood and defensive back Matthew Steinbeck as the Bison trail only Fordham in Preseason All-League honorees. Bucknell does have to replace All-American defensive end Tracey Smith and four-year starting quarterback Brandon Wesley. RJ Nitti and Trey Lauetta both have starting experience at quarterback, and will rely on Williams as well as wide receivers Josh Brake and Will Carter among others to contribute.

2014 Patriot League Football Preseason Poll

1. Fordham, 72 points (12 first-place votes)
2. Lehigh, 54
3. Lafayette, 51 (2)
4. Bucknell, 43
5. Colgate, 33
6. Holy Cross, 29
7. Georgetown, 12

For the first time since 1995, Colgate enters the season with a head coach other than Dick Biddle. The winningest coach in Patriot League history retired after 18 seasons and seven Patriot League titles, and long-time associate head coach Dan Hunt was elevated to the position in December. Hunt takes over an offense that graduated 2012 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year Gavin McCarney at quarterback. Jake Melville gained experience as the signal-caller as a freshman when he subbed for an injured McCarney in five games, and has skill position players returning in running backs Demetrius Russell and John Wilkins, first-team All-Patriot League fullback Ed Pavalko and wide receiver Jimmy DeCicco as well as Jordi Dalmau to lead the offensive line. The defense has veteran contributors in place with Preseason All-Patriot League selections Kris Kent at linebacker and Mike Armiento at defensive back.

Holy Cross dropped its final five games to finish 3-9 last season, though the team was more competitive than its record indicates with six losses by a touchdown or less. The biggest bright spot was from quarterback Peter Pujals, who was named Patriot League Rookie of the Year while throwing for 2,261 yards and 19 touchdowns and rushing for 469 yards and eight scores. Pujals has running back Gabe Guild and wide receiver Kalif Raymond back at the skill positions, though Mike Fess graduated with a school record 209 receptions. The defense will be led by lineman Mike Galantini and defensive back Matt Bhaya.

Another school with a change at the top is Georgetown, with 18-year assistant Rob Sgarlata promoted to take over as head coach after the departure of Kevin Kelly. The Hoyas' strength appears to be on the defensive side of the ball where linemen Alec May and Jordan Richardson and linebacker Nick Alfieri were each All-Patriot League picks last season and lineman Richard Shankle and linebacker Pat Boyle are key players as well as the group hopes to account for the graduation of linebacker Dustin Wharton. The Hoyas have Kyle Nolan at quarterback, Jo'el Kimpela at running back at Justin Hill at wide receiver to lead the offense along with seniors Michael Kasten, Mike Roland and Nick Quintans on the line.

The Patriot League football season kicks off on Aug. 30 with five teams in non-League action. The first Patriot League games will be played on Sept. 27 when Fordham visits Holy Cross and Georgetown heads to Colgate. The winner of the Patriot League title receives the League's automatic berth to the FCS playoffs, which begin on Nov. 29.

Patriot League Football Preseason All-League Team Announced

Fordham dominated the Football Preseason All-Patriot League Team with 12 selections and both of the individual award winners when the squad was announced July 30 during Media Day at Green Pond Country Club in Bethlehem, Pa.

Quarterback Mike Nebrich was named the Patriot League Preseason Offensive Player of the Year while his teammate, linebacker Stephen Hodge, earned the Preseason Defensive Player of the Year award. Both players earned the individual honors following the 2013 season, with Nebrich also placing fifth in the voting for the Walter Payton Award as the Most Outstanding Player in the FCS.

Eleven of Fordham's Preseason All-Patriot League selections are seniors, and seven of those came on offense. Joining Nebrich on that side of the ball were the wide receiving trio of Sam Ajala, Tebucky Jones and Brian Wetzel, tight end Dan Light, offensive lineman Mason Halter and placekicker Michael Marando. The rest of the Preseason All-Patriot League offense included senior Ross Scheuerman (Lafayette) and sophomore C.J. Williams (Bucknell) at running back, senior Ed Pavalko (Colgate) at fullback/H-back, seniors Ned Daryoush (Lehigh), Luke Chiarolanzio (Lafayette) and Lonnie Rawles (Bucknell) and sophomore Julie'n Davenport (Bucknell) on the offensive line, and juniors Kalif Raymond (Holy Cross) and Matt Smalley (Lafayette) sharing the return specialist position.

Fordham senior DeAndre Slate and graduate student Brett Biestek were on the defensive line along with seniors Demetrius Baldwin-Youngblood (Bucknell) and Tim Newton (Lehigh). Hodge was at linebacker along with a senior-laden group of Evan Byers (Bucknell), Nick Alfieri (Georgetown) and Kris Kent (Colgate). The defensive backfield featured seniors Ian Williams (Fordham), Mike Armiento (Colgate) and Matthew Steinbeck (Bucknell) as well as Smalley, while Fordham sophomore Joe Pavlik made it at punter as the only non-senior for the Rams.

Bucknell followed Fordham with six selections on the squad, while Lafayette notched four, Colgate had three, Lehigh picked up two and Holy Cross and Georgetown had one apiece. Voting for the individual awards and preseason All-League Team was conducted by the Patriot League's head coaches and football sports information directors, who could not vote for their own players.

Nebrich enters the season with a pair of accolades from The Sports Network, as the organization named him a second-team preseason All-American as well as a candidate for the Walter Payton Award. Nebrich set Patriot League single-season records for passing yardage (4,380), passing touchdowns (35), total offense (4,893), touchdowns responsible for (44), completion percentage (73.5) and passing efficiency (171.3), and his 353 completions were just five off the League record last season. He led the Rams to a 12-2 record and the second round of the FCS playoffs, and Fordham finished the season ranked in the top ten nationally. Nebrich was named a second-team All-American as well as the Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year.

Hodge led the Fordham defense and earned Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year honors while finishing with 124 tackles, 16 tackles for loss, five sacks, five forced fumbles, three fumble recoveries and an interception. He tied for the national lead in forced fumbles and also paced all FCS players with 94 solo tackles. He was chosen as a Preseason First-Team All-American by The Sports Network.

Fordham's wide receiving trio all come off fantastic junior seasons. Ajala hauled in 93 catches for a Patriot League single-season record 1,646 yards and 14 touchdowns. He came in fourth in League history in receptions and tied for second in touchdown catches, and has been named a Preseason First-Team All-American and candidate for the Walter Payton Award Watch by The Sports Network. Jones caught 85 passes for 1,154 yards and five touchdowns while Wetzel had 89 receptions for 1,094 yards and 14 touchdowns and enters his senior season just 35 receptions away from second in Patriot League history and within 100 of the League record. Light hauled in 66 receptions for 588 yards and two touchdowns, with 22 receptions for 190 yards in Fordham's two playoff games. Halter was the top blocker up front for the offensive line that helped the Rams to the great success. Both were Sports Network Preseason All-Americans, with Halter on the second team and Light on the third team. Marando made 19-of-26 field goals last year, and his 120 points were a single-season record for a Patriot League placekicker.

Scheuerman made the All-Patriot League team for a third straight season as he earned a second-team honor in 2013. The multi-purpose threat finished the year with 1,113 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns on the ground, 31 receptions for 337 yards and four TDs and 1,920 all-purpose yards. He was named a Preseason Second-Team All-American by The Sports Network as an all-purpose player. Daryoush was a Sports Network Preseason Third-Team All-American after earning his second All-Patriot League honor last season. Williams (899 rushing yards, 8 TD), Pavalko (2 rushing TD), Rawles, Davenport, Chiarolanzio and Smalley (29.6 KR avg., 2 TD) each earned All-Patriot League status last season, while Raymond (21.1 KR avg) was an All-Patriot League player in 2012.

Byers joined Hodge on The Sports Network Preseason All-America squad, earning a third-team selection after leading the League with 129 tackles to go with 10.5 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks. Hodge and Byers were first-team All-Patriot League linebackers last season, while Alfieri (92 TT, 7.5 TFL) and Kent (91 TT, 11 TFL) made the second team. The defensive line features three first-team All-Patriot Leaguers in Slate (49 TT, 14.5 TFL, 7 sacks), Biestek (58 TT, 14.5 TFL, 5 sacks) and Newton (58 TT, 8.5 TFL, 5.5 sacks) while Baldwin-Youngblood (45 TT, 11.5 TFL, 8 sacks) was on the second team. Armiento (92 TT, 6 INT), Williams (86 TT, 4 INT) and Smalley (63 TT, 5 INT) were first-team picks in the defensive backfield while Steinbeck (64 TT, 5 INT) made the second team, with Pavlik (39.4 avg.) as the second-team punter.

The Preseason All-Patriot League squad features a bounty of overall talent as 17 players earned first-team All-Patriot League status last year and 10 were on the second team. Twenty-three of the 28 players named to the preseason squad are heading into their senior season, with Smalley and Raymond playing their junior year and C.J. Williams, Davenport and Pavlik as the sophomores on the list.

2014 Patriot League Football Preseason Notebook

BACK TO A SEVEN-TEAM RACE IN 2014

For the first time since 2009, all seven teams will be eligible for the Patriot League title in 2014. Fordham had been ineligible the past four seasons after awarding athletic scholarships starting in the fall of 2010, before they were permitted in the Patriot League starting with last year's freshman class. All games between League members will also once again count towards the final standings.

PATRIOT LEAGUE FOOTBALL RETURNS TO CBS SPORTS NETWORK

The Patriot League will have an impressive presence on CBS Sports Network in 2014 with at least three contests, including two League games. The Patriot League games will be on Friday nights as Lafayette visits Fordham on Oct. 3 at 6:30 p.m. and the Rams travel to Bucknell on Nov. 7 at 6:30 p.m. The final game will be a close the regular season on Nov. 22 with Fordham at Army at 12 p.m. CBS Sports Network is the 24-hour cable home of CBS Sports. It is available across the country through local cable, video and telco providers on Verizon FiOS Channel 94 and AT&T U-Verse Channel 643 (1643 in HD) and via satellite on DIRECTV Channel 221 and Dish Network Channel 158.

PATRIOT LEAGUE NETWORK TO BROADCAST MOST HOME GAMES

The majority of home games for Patriot League teams will be shown for free with live streaming on Patriot League Network. PLN, which is in its second season, will showcase home games for Bucknell, Colgate, Fordham, Holy Cross, Lafayette and Lehigh with the exception of contests carried on CBS Sports Network. Campus Insiders will exclusively produce a handful of games. All games on Patriot League Network can be seen by visiting www.patriotleague.tv.

MORE TELEVISION COVERAGE THROUGH ASN, REGIONAL OUTLETS

The Patriot League entered into an agreement with American Sports Network to broadcast games beginning in the 2014-15 season, and it begins with a handful of football contests. In addition, Holy Cross has already scheduled four home games for broadcast on Charter TV3 and additional schools are expected to announce schedules with regional outlets in the near future.

FORDHAM TRIO NAMED TO FCS AWARD WATCH LISTS

Three Fordham seniors are on the preseason watch lists for major FCS awards, as quarterback Mike Nebrich and wide receiver Sam Ajala are up for the Walter Payton Award (Most Outstanding Player) and linebacker Stephen Hodge is a candidate for the Buck Buchanan Award (Top Defensive Player). Fordham tied Eastern Washington for the most overall nominees on the lists, and the two schools were the only programs with multiple Payton candidates in the preseason.

SPORTS NETWORK NAMES EIGHT AS PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS

Eight Patriot League players received Preseason FCS All-America status from The Sports Network, with Fordham tying for the most selections nationally with five on the list. The Rams had a pair of first-team selections, with Ajala on offense and Hodge on defense. Nebrich and offensive lineman Mason Halter made the second-team offense, with tight end Dan Light on the third team. Lafayette running back/return specialist Ross Scheuerman earned a spot on the second team as an all-purpose player, with Lehigh offensive lineman Ned Daryoush and Bucknell linebacker Evan Byers each making the third team.

BEYOND SPORTS NETWORK PROVIDES ALL-AMERICA RECOGNITION

Nebrich, Ajala, Halter and Hodge earned first-team preseason All-America honors from Beyond Sports Network, which had Light, Colgate fullback Ed Pavalko and Fordham kicker Michael Marando on the second team and four Patriot Leaguers on the third team: offensive linemen Lonnie Rawles (Bucknell) and Daryoush (Lehigh) and defensive backs Matt Smalley (Lafayette) and Mike Armiento (Colgate).

PATRIOT LEAGUERS NAMED TO CFPA WATCH LISTS

Patriot League players at every position have been named to College Football Performance Awards Watch Lists heading into the season. To date there have been 21 Patriot Leaguers named to the positional lists, including four defensive backs, three players at quarterback, wide receiver, defensive line and linebacker, two at placekicker and kickoff returner and one each at running back and tight end. Fordham has 10 of the watch list nominees, followed by Lafayette with four and Bucknell with three.

TRIO NAMED AS CANDIDATES FOR AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM

Three Patriot League seniors have been honored for their work off the field as nominees for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. Bucknell's Josh Brake, Fordham's Ian Williams and Holy Cross' Tyler Zeoli were all on the list of 182 nominees from all levels of college football. In order to meet the criteria set forth by Allstate and the AFCA, each player must be actively involved and committed to working with a charitable organization or service group while maintaining a strong academic standing.

PATRIOT LEAGUERS COME FROM ALL OVER THE COUNTRY

This year's Patriot League football student-athletes come from 35 different states, as well as Washington, D.C., the Virgin Islands and four other countries. There are a League-high 126 student-athletes from Pennsylvania, with 117 from New Jersey. Florida (59), New York (54) and Illinois (29) round out the top five states for Patriot League players.

FOLLOW THE NATION THROUGH FCS INSIDER

The FCS Insider website debuted in the fall of 2013 and includes coverage on all of the teams and conferences throughout the country. A notebook will be produced each week to highlight the top storylines for each conference.

The 2014 FCS playoffs will once again be a 24-team event, with 11 automatic berths and 13 at-large participants. The top eight teams will be seeded, receive first-round byes and host second-round games. The 16 other teams will bid to host first-round games. Dates for the playoff rounds are as follows.

FCS PLAYOFF SCHEDULE

First round - Nov 29
Second round - Dec 6
Quarterfinals - Dec 12 & 13
Semifinals - Dec 19 & 20
Championship game - Jan 10, 2014 (Frisco, Texas)

Patriot League Football Preview

2014 Bucknell Bison

HEAD COACH: Joe Susan, 5th Season
26-28 overall/16-28 at Bucknell, 8-16 Patriot League

2013 RECORD: 6-5 overall, 3-2 Patriot League (T2nd place)

OFFENSE: For the first time since 2010, the Bison go into the season with a question mark at starting quarterback. Brandon Wesley took over the job early that year as a freshman, and held it through his final campaign last year. RJ Nitti and Trey Lauletta have both gained experience with spot starts and are expected to contend for the job. They have the makings of a solid group at their disposal, as running back C.J. Williams (899 rushing yards, 8 TD) is a preseason All-Patriot League pick and Josh Brake, Will Carter and Victor Walker form a solid wide receiving group along with tight end Patrick Kelly. Lonnie Rawles and Julie'n Davenport are preseason All-League picks on a veteran offensive line.

DEFENSE: Bucknell had a player make the preseason All-Patriot League defense at each position and has depth across the board, making the defense an expected strength once again. Linebacker Evan Byers led the Patriot League with 129 tackles last year and is a preseason All-American, while Demetrius Baldwin-Youngblood (45 TT, 8 sacks) and safety Matthew Steinbeck (5 INT) joined Byers as preseason All-League honorees. The Bison have their top five tacklers back in Byers, Steinbeck, linebacker Lee Marvel and safeties Clayton Ewell and Louis Taglianetti, though they do lose All-American Tracey Smith on the defensive line.

SPECIAL TEAMS: Derek Maurer returns as the placekicker after hitting on 9-of-13 field-goal attempts last season. The Bison need to find a punter and punt return man after Kyle Sullivan handled both duties last season. Nick O'Brien and Brian Regan each have experience returning kicks.

RECRUITING CLASS Bucknell recruited heavily on defense, as 16 of the 21 incoming players are listed on that side of the ball. Fourteen of the recruits are from Pennsylvania, New Jersey or New York. The seven other players hail from a combined six states.

SCHEDULE: The Bison return four of their five opponents from last year's non-League schedule, and will play all of their non-League contests before the Patriot League slate begins. Bucknell hosts VMI (Aug. 30) and Cornell (Sept. 27) and visits Marist (Sept. 6), Sacred Heart (Sept. 20) and Bryant (Oct. 4) in non-League action. The Bison went 2-2 against the first four teams in 2013, and beat Bryant at home in the 2012 season finale. Bucknell starts League play on the road, heading to Lehigh (Oct. 11) and Georgetown (Oct. 25) in October. The Bison play three of four November games at home as they welcome Lafayette (Nov. 1), Fordham (Nov. 7) and Colgate (Nov. 22) while visiting Holy Cross (Nov. 15).

2014 Colgate Raiders

HEAD COACH: Dan Hunt, 1st Season
0-0 Overall/Colgate, 0-0 Patriot League

2013 RECORD: 4-8 overall, 3-2 Patriot League (T2nd place))

OFFENSE: Colgate loses the leading rusher among all quarterbacks in Patriot League history with Gavin McCarney departing, and will likely look to sophomore Jake Melville to fill the void. Melville appeared in five games and started one last year as McCarney dealt with injuries. As usual for a Colgate offense, the running game looks to be a strength with both Demetrius Russell and John Wilkins at running back and preseason All-Patriot Leaguer Ed Pavalko at fullback. Jimmy DeCicco is a dual threat to run or catch the ball, while tight ends John Quazza and Kevin O'Connell are the top returning pass-catchers. Jordi Dalmau leads the offensive line after an All-Patriot League season as a freshman.

DEFENSE: The Raiders again gave up more than 30 points per game last season, but they do have their top two players back in defensive back Mike Armiento (92 TT, 6 INT) and linebacker Kris Kent (91 TT, 11 TFL), who both earned preseason All-Patriot League honors. Linebacker Vinny Russo (78 TT) was the third-leading tackler, while Victor Steffen (44 TT, 4 sacks) is the top returnee on the line.

SPECIAL TEAMS: Nikko Armiento is back for the Raiders after posting a solid 40.1 average on 54 punts last season. The Raiders only attempted three field goals last season, with Jonah Bowman making his only chance and returning this year. Jimmy DeCicco averaged 26.1 yards on kickoff returns and John Maddaluna is back as the primary punt return man.

RECRUITING CLASS The Raiders signed 20 student-athletes representing 11 states for Hunt's first season, led by four from both Pennsylvania and Illinois. The players are evenly divided between offense and defense, and the class includes a quarterback in Bret Mooney of West Dundee, Ill.

SCHEDULE: Colgate takes on a challenging non-League slate which opens up with road games at Ball State (Aug. 30) and Delaware (Sept. 13). Dan Hunt coaches his first game at Andy Kerr Stadium against Cornell (Sept. 20) to open a four-game homestand which includes Patriot League games against Georgetown (Sept. 27) and Holy Cross (Oct. 4) as well as a matchup with Princeton (Oct. 11). The Raiders play five of their final six games on the road, beginning with a daunting road trip to Yale (Oct. 18), Albany (Oct. 25) and Fordham (Nov. 1). Colgate then hosts Lafayette (Nov. 8) before finishing the season at Lehigh (Nov. 15) and Bucknell (Nov. 22).

2014 Fordham Rams

HEAD COACH: Joe Moorhead, 3rd Season
18-7 Overall/Fordham, 8-4 Patriot League

2013 RECORD: 12-2 Overall, N/A Patriot League

FCS PLAYOFFS: First Round: Beat Sacred Heart; Second Round: Lost at Towson

FINAL RANKING: No. 9 Sports Network/No. 10 FCS Coaches' Poll

OFFENSE: A record-setting offense that rated among the best in the FCS brings back nearly all of its key pieces in 2014. It starts with Mike Nebrich at quarterback, who is among the top players in the nation at his position after setting most Patriot League single-season records last year. He has All-American targets in wide receiver Sam Ajala and tight end Dan Light and more All-Patriot League honorees with Tebucky Jones Jr. and Brian Wetzel at wide receiver. Each of the three wideout had 85 or more catches and topped 1,000 yards last season. The offensive line is led by Preseason All-American Mason Halter. The only major change will be at running back, where all-purpose threat Carlton Koonce departs.

DEFENSE: While not as accomplished as the other side of the ball, Fordham's defense brings back almost its entire unit from a group that was among the national leaders in turnover margin. Stephen Hodge (124 TT) is the Patriot League Preseason Defensive Player of the Year, DeAndre Slate (49 TT, 7 sacks) and Brett Biestek (58 TT, 5 sacks) are preseason picks on the line and Ian Williams (86 TT, 4 INT) earned a spot in the defensive backfield. Linebacker Austin Hancock (80 TT) and defensive backs Jordan Chapman (64 TT, 5 INT) and Levon Williams (79 TT, 5 INT) joined the group as All-Patriot League picks last year, and all but one player who registered more than 20 tackles last year returns to the lineup in 2014.

SPECIAL TEAMS: The Rams bring back All-Patriot League players at both kicker and punter. Michael Marando made 19-of-26 field goals and set a single-season League record with 120 points, while Joe Pavlik averaged 39.4 yards per punt. Wetzel is an All-Patriot League punt return man in addition to his receiving prowess, and Jorge Solano averaged 21.1 yards and scored a touchdown returning kicks.

RECRUITING CLASS With a large senior class returning, Fordham adds only 11 players for the 2014 season. The group includes 10 incoming freshman and Josh Klecko, a transfer from Rutgers and the son of NFL great Joe Klecko.

SCHEDULE: The Rams open the season with four non-League games against opponents they defeated last season: home against St. Francis (Pa.) (Aug. 30) and Rhode Island (Sept. 13), and at Villanova (Sept. 6) and Columbia (Sept. 20). Fordham begins Patriot League play with matchups at Holy Cross (Sept. 27) and at home against Lafayette (Oct. 3). After a home date with Penn (Oct. 11) and a bye, the Rams finish League action by going to Lehigh (Oct. 25), hosting Colgate (Nov. 1), visiting Bucknell (Nov. 7) and welcoming Georgetown (Nov. 15). Fordham finishes the year with an FBS game at Army (Nov. 22).

2014 Georgetown Hoyas

HEAD COACH: Rob Sgarlata, 1st Season
0-0 Overall/Georgetown, 0-0 Patriot League

2012 RECORD: 2-9 overall, 1-4 Patriot League (T5th place)

OFFENSE: The Hoyas have longed for consistent play at quarterback over the years, but they might have found their man in Kyle Nolan, who threw for 1,081 yards and four touchdowns while completing over 60% of his passes last year. Nick Campanella is gone from the backfield after rushing for 565 yards and six touchdowns, but Jo'el Kimpela (222 rush yards, 3 TD) returns. The top player from last year is also gone at wide receiver (Zack Wilke) and tight end (Daniel Sprotte), but Jake DeCicco (38 rec., 445 yards) and Justin Hill (26 rec., 265 yards) both return at wideout. The offensive line should be a strength with seniors Michael Kasten, Mike Roland and Nick Quintans all returning with experience.

DEFENSE: Sgarlata has worked with the defense for more than a decade, and once again the unit appears to be the strength of the Hoyas. Georgetown should be formidable in the front seven with Alec May (68 TT, 7 sacks), Jordan Richardson (58 TT, 3 sacks) and Richard Shankle (50 TT, 3 sacks) on the line and Nick Alfieri (92 TT) and Patrick Boyle (98 TT) at linebacker, though All-Patriot Leaguer Dustin Wharton does depart at the position. The defensive backfield has Cameron Gamble (34 TT) and Garrett Powers (33 TT) back but loses Stephen Atwater (51 TT).

SPECIAL TEAMS: The Hoyas have a hole to fill in the kicking area with Matt MacZura gone after serving as the punter in all four of his years and the primary place-kicker for the last two. There are four kickers or punters on the roster, but none with experience. The Hoyas also lose their primary kickoff returner, Brandon Durham, but Kimpela has experience there and DeCicco worked as the punt returner.

RECRUITING CLASS: Rob Sgarlata's first recruiting class features 32 players, including 17 on offense, 13 on defense and two on special teams to boost a roster which graduated 24 student-athletes. The class featured players from 16 states.

SCHEDULE: The Hoyas begin the season with four non-League games, opening at home against Wagner (Aug. 30) before visiting Dayton (Sept. 6) and Marist (Sept. 13) and welcoming Brown (Sept. 20). They play two early League games at Colgate (Sept. 27) and Lafayette (Oct. 11), with the non-League finale at home against Harvard (Oct. 4) sandwiched in-between. After playing in the first seven weeks of the year, the Hoyas have byes in two of the last six on Oct. 18 and Nov. 8. They have three of the final four League games at home, welcoming Bucknell (Oct. 25), Lehigh (Nov. 1) and Holy Cross (Nov. 22) with the only road trip to Fordham (Nov. 15).

2014 Holy Cross Crusaders

HEAD COACH: Tom Gilmore, 11th Season
56-56 overall/Holy Cross, 33-27 Patriot League

2012 RECORD: 3-9 overall, 1-4 Patriot League (T5th place)

OFFENSE: The Crusaders did not have the final record they wanted in 2013, but they did find a quarterback with the potential to stay in the position for years to come. Peter Pujals was named Patriot League Rookie of the Year after putting up over 2,700 yards of total offense and 27 total touchdowns in 10 games with eight starts. He has a classmate in the backfield in running back Gabe Guild (496 yards, 5 TD), though wideout Mike Fess graduated as the school's all-time leader in receptions. Kalif Raymond (42 rec., 400 yards) is the top returning wideout with Jay Knighton leading the offensive line.

DEFENSE: The Crusader defense loses top tackler Roman SanDoval at linebacker, but the next four on last year's list are back in defensive backs Matt Bhaya (71 TT), Logan Silver (51 TT) and Ben Coffaro (49 TT) and linebacker Tyler Zeoli (67 TT). Mike Galantini (25 TT) is the top player back on the defensive line.

SPECIAL TEAMS: No Crusader returnee took a punt, field-goal attempt or kickoff last season as the departed John Macomber handled all three areas. There are four kickers or punters on the roster vying for action. The return game is more stable as Kalif Raymond is a Preseason All-Patriot Leaguer who handled punt and kickoffs returns last season.

RECRUITING CLASS After getting production from a handful of freshmen in their first scholarship recruiting class last year, the Crusaders bring in a big group with 24 players entering. The list includes 10 players on offense and 13 on defense, and features skill with four wideouts, two running backs and two quarterbacks.

SCHEDULE: The Crusaders play 12 games for the second straight year, opening with four non-League contests as they visit Albany (Aug. 30) and Harvard (Sept. 19) and host Morgan State (Sept. 6) and Central Connecticut (Sept. 13). The League opener is at home against Fordham (Sept. 27), with the Crusaders then going on the road for all four games in October as they head to Colgate (Oct. 4) and Lafayette (Oct. 25) in League play and Brown (Oct. 11) and Dartmouth (Oct. 18) in non-League action. Holy Cross finishes up with home games against Lehigh (Nov. 8) and Bucknell (Nov. 15) and a trip to Georgetown (Nov. 22).

2014 Lafayette Leopards

HEAD COACH: Frank Tavani, 15th Season
76-82 Overall/Lafayette, 45-42 Patriot League

2012 RECORD: 5-7 Overall, 4-1 Patriot League (1st place)

PCS PLAYOFFS: First Round: Lost at New Hampshire

OFFENSE: It almost seems hard to believe that Drew Reed only started six games last season, since the quarterback made such an impact when he took over midway through his freshman season. Reed completed 73% of his passes for 1,887 yards and threw 17 touchdowns while leading Lafayette to the League title. He has a big weapon returning in the backfield as running back Ross Scheuerman (1,920 all-purpose yards) enters the year as a Preseason All-American. Demetrius Dixon (35 rec., 405 yards), Justin Adams (27 rec., 402 yards) and Mike Duncan (29 rec., 346 yards) all have experience at wideout, though the loss of Lafayette's all-time leading receiver, Mark Ross, will be a blow. Seniors Luke Chiarolanio, Zack Masur and Maxim Ngolla lead a veteran offensive line.

DEFENSE: The secondary should be a strength for the Leopards as both Matt Smalley (63 TT, 5 INT) and Jared Roberts (59 TT, 3 INT) earned All-Patriot League status last season. The line also features some key returnees in James Cosica (49 TT, 6 FFL), Tyrus White (5 sacks) and All-Patriot League pick Steve Mercado (34 TT, 4.5 sacks). The biggest change will come at linebacker, where the team's top two tacklers from last season, Mike Boles and Tyler Robinson, have both departed along with Ben Aloj.

SPECIAL TEAMS: Lafayette has potential for big plays in the return game with both Smalley (29.6 avg) and Scheuerman (24.6 avg) proficient in returning kicks and Adams (10.4 avg) and Tim Vangelas (6.1 avg.) as solid punt return men. Ryan Gralish returns after a solid season where he made 9-of-11 field goals, while Ryan Forrester averaged 35.4 yards per punt.

RECRUITING CLASS The defending champion Leopards hope to get some contributions from freshmen on the roster after inking 26 on signing day in 2014. The group includes 14 players on offense and 11 on defense and comes from 10 states, including 10 players from Pennsylvania.

SCHEDULE: All eyes are on the season finale, as Lafayette takes on rival Lehigh at Yankee Stadium in the 150th Meeting of the Most-Played Rivalry in College Football on Nov. 22. The Leopards gave up their home game for the matchup at the historic venue, so they will only appear at Fisher Stadium four times in 2014 with non-League matchups against Robert Morris (Sept. 13) and Wagner (Sept. 27) and League games versus Georgetown (Oct. 11) and Holy Cross (Oct. 25). Lafayette will play at Sacred Heart (Sept. 6), William & Mary (Sept. 20) and Harvard (Oct. 18) in non-League games, and visit Fordham (Oct. 3), Bucknell (Nov. 1) and Colgate (Nov. 8) in Patriot League play.

2014 Lehigh Mountain Hawks

HEAD COACH: Andy Coen, 9th Season
59-33 overall/Lehigh, 35-13 Patriot League

2013 RECORD: 8-3 overall, 3-2 Patriot League (T2nd place)

OFFENSE: The Mountain Hawks featured a senior-laden offense in 2013, so there will be plenty of new faces this time around. An injury to Brandon Bialkowski allowed both Nick Shafnisky and Matt McHale to gain experience at quarterback down the stretch last year, and both players return to the fold in 2014. The Mountain Hawks also lose 1,000-yard players at running back (Keith Sherman) and wide receiver (All-American Lee Kurfis). No returnee rushed for more than 100 yards, so the competition for carries seems to be wide open. Josh Parris (41 rec., 443 yards) appears ready to step into the No. 1 receiving role, and Tyler Coyle (21 rec., 230 yards) put up solid numbers at tight end. Preseason All-American Ned Daryoush leads the way on the offensive line.

DEFENSE: Tim Newton will anchor the Lehigh defensive line as the Preseason All-Patriot League pick registered 58 tackles and 5.5 sacks last season. Colton Caslow (64 TT) is the team's leading returning tackler and heads the linebacking corps which also features Noah Robb (55 TT) and Isaiah Campbell (46 TT). The biggest question mark comes in the secondary where the team's leading tackler, Tyler Ward, departs along with starters Rickie Hill, Courtney Jarvis and Damien Brown.

SPECIAL TEAMS: Lehigh has to find a punter with the departure of Tim Divers, who excelled as a senior with a 41.2 average. Ryan Pandey is back after making 8-of-12 field goals last season, while primary return men Brandon Leaks (kickoffs) and Josh Parris (punts) also come back in 2014.

RECRUITING CLASS Lehigh brings in a 22-member class that includes running back Brandon Yosha, a transfer from the University of Miami (Fla.) who appeared in six games as a true freshman for the Hurricanes in 2012. The incoming freshman group includes five players from Florida and tilts slightly to offense, including a pair of quarterbacks in Matthew Timochenko and Brendan Craven.

SCHEDULE: The Mountain Hawks play four non-League games to open the year in September, and the first two are tough as Lehigh hosts James Madison (Sept. 6) and visits New Hampshire (Sept. 13). The non-League slate continues with a trip to Yale (Sept. 20) and home date with Monmouth (Sept. 27) before a bye leading into the Patriot League opener at home against Bucknell (Oct. 11). After wrapping up the non-League slate at Cornell (Oct. 18), Lehigh has Patriot League games at home against Fordham (Oct. 25) and Colgate (Nov. 15) and at Georgetown (Nov. 1) and Holy Cross (Nov. 8) before the anticipated 150th meeting against rival Lafayette at Yankee Stadium on Nov. 22.

2013 Patriot League Season in Review

FORDHAM FINISHES IN TOP 10, MAKES SECOND ROUND OF PLAYOFFS

Fordham had a memorable 2013 season on many levels, culminating with a victory in the FCS playoffs and a spot in the top 10 of the final national polls. The Rams defeated Sacred Heart 37-27 in the first round of the FCS postseason on Nov. 30 before falling at Towson the following week. Fordham was ranked No. 9 in the final Sports Network top 25, and No. 10 in the FCS Coaches Poll. The Rams finished the year at 12-2 with wins over a top-five foe (Villanova) and FBS opponent (Temple), and reached No. 5 in the country while opening with a 10-0 record. Fordham was the first 12-win Patriot League team since 2003, and fourth all-time.

LAFAYETTE WINS FIRST PATRIOT LEAGUE TITLE SINCE 2006

Lafayette surged late in the season to win the Patriot League title for the first time since 2006, and first outright since 1994. The Leopards won a matchup for the title with a 50-28 win at rival Lehigh in the season finale on Nov. 23, and also knocked Fordham from the unbeaten ranks the previous week. Lafayette tied for second in League history with seven titles, and won its fourth outright crown.

BIDDLE RETIRES AFTER 18 SEASONS AT COLGATE

Dick Biddle retired from Colgate following the 2013 season as the winningest head coach in Patriot League history. In 18 seasons, Biddle won seven Patriot League titles and went 137-73 overall with a stellar 81-27 record against League competition. Biddle was a five-time Patriot League Coach of the Year and won seven games or more in 14 of his seasons, highlighted by a trip to the national championship game and 15-1 final record in 2003.

POSTSEASON HONORS

A handful of Patriot Leaguers earned individual honors or All-America status following the 2013 season. Most of the awards went to Fordham, including quarterback Mike Nebrich finishing fifth in the Walter Payton Award voting and Head Coach Joe Moorhead placing in the same position for the Eddie Robinson Award while being named the FCS Coach of the Year by College Sports Journal. Six Patriot Leaguers were named All-Americans by The Sports Network, with Lehigh wideout Lee Kurfis on the first team, Fordham wideout Sam Ajala and offensive lineman Mason Halter on the second team and Nebrich, Fordham linebacker Stephen Hodge and Bucknell defensive end Tracey Smith on the third team. Kurfis and Ajala were also second-team selections by the Associated Press, and were joined by Nebrich as College Sporting News Fabulous Fifty selections. The trio also made the College Sports Journal squad along with Fordham tight end Dan Light. Lafayette quarterback Drew Reed was named the FCS Freshman Performer of the Year by College Football Performance Awards.

ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC SUCCESS

Fordham's Brett Biestek led the group of Patriot Leaguers honored for success on the field and in the classroom as he was named a first-team Capital One Academic All-American and later received a Postgraduate Scholarship from the FCS Athletic Directors Association. Biestek made the FCS ADA Academic All-Star Team along with Lafayette's Mark Ross and Holy Cross' Mike Fess, while Lafayette's Brad Bormann joined Biestek and Ross on the Capital One Academic All-America list.

PATRIOT LEAGUERS FINISH HIGH IN FCS STATS, SET LEAGUE RECORDS

Fordham quarterback Mike Nebrich made his mark in both FCS statistics and the Patriot League record book in 2013. Nebrich led the FCS in total offense per game and completion percentage and finished in the top three in passing efficiency, passing yards per game and points responsible for. He finished the year with Patriot League single-season records for passing yardage (4,380), passing touchdowns (35), total offense (4,893), touchdowns responsible for (44), completion percentage (73.5) and passing efficiency (171.3), and his 353 completions were just five off the League record. His top wideout, Sam Ajala, set a Patriot League single-season record with 1,646 receiving yards, while Lehigh's Lee Kurfis led the nation in receiving yards per game and placed in the top five in receptions. Bucknell's Evan Byers led the Patriot League and placed fourth in the nation with 129 tackles.
