

2015-16 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

2015 Patriot League Women's Basketball

PATRIOT LEAGUE ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC SUCCESS

Now in its third decade as an all-sport conference combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 24 men and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army West Point, Boston University, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh, Loyola Maryland, and Navy as full members, and Fordham, Georgetown, MIT and Richmond as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and its alumni have and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country. The Patriot League will celebrate its 25th Anniversary as an all-sport conference during the 2015-16 season.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Rate Report. The League also had 92 percent of its teams score above the national APR average in the most recent data, and 101 Patriot League teams earned NCAA Academic Performance Program Public Recognition Awards after posting academic progress rate scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports.

The Patriot League's mission is simple: to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.

During the 2014-15 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams accomplished the following:

*101 Patriot League teams earned NCAA Public Recognition Awards for ranking in the top 10 percent of their sport in Academic Progress Rate (APR), with 88 of those squads earning perfect scores.

*The Patriot League ranked second among all conferences in Public Recognition Awards, while Bucknell, Lafayette and Colgate all placed in the top six nationally.

*92 percent of Patriot League teams scored above the national average in APR, while more than 70 percent had at least a 990 score in the multi-year rate.

*Eleven student-athletes earned Capital One Academic All-America recognition, including first-team accolades for Navy's Tom Buffone (Track and Field) and Ellen Bradford (Swimming and Diving), American's Jen Dumiak (Women's Basketball) and Fordham's Brett Biestek (Football).

*Navy's Tom Buffone (Track and Field) and Loren Generi (Women's Lacrosse) and Lafayette's Cory Spera (Baseball) earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships.

*Buffone and Dumiak were named the Corvias Patriot League Male and Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year honorees, respectively.

*Thirty-four student-athletes received Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-District recognition.

*There were 2,745 student-athletes on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2014-15, including 217 with a semester GPA of at least 4.0.

*Bucknell's Ryan Frazier (Men's Basketball) and Andrea Siefert (Women's Rowing) each received the Patriot League Award of Outstanding Leadership and Character, while Lehigh's Ashley Blanks (Women's Soccer) was named the League's Sportsmanship Award winner.

*Four Patriot Leaguers were named Senior CLASS Award finalists, with Colgate's Caroline Brawner (Women's Soccer) and Army West Point's Sam Somers (Men's Lacrosse) earning first-team recognition.

*Brawner was also one of the League's nominations for the NCAA Woman of the Year award along with Boston University's Valentina Cerda Eimbcke (Field Hockey).

*Navy won the Corvias Patriot League Presidents' Cup for the third time in the last four years.

*The Mids also won the men's title while Boston University repeated as women's champion.

*Loyola Maryland won a pair of NCAA Tournament games to become the first Patriot League women's lacrosse team to advance to the quarterfinal round and also finish in the top 10 of the IWFLCA Coaches Poll.

*Fordham (Football) and Lehigh (Softball) also won NCAA Tournament contests in 2014-15.

*Fordham running back Chase Edmonds won the Jerry Rice Award as the FCS Freshman of the Year.

*Edmonds was also named the ECAC Offensive Rookie of the Year, while Bucknell's Evan Byers was selected as the ECAC Defensive Player of the Year.

*Twenty-four Patriot Leaguers were named All-Americans in team sports, with first-team status for Byers and Fordham's Mason Halter in football and Navy's Joseph Greenspan in men's soccer.

*Four Patriot Leaguers competed at the NCAA Cross Country Championships, and Lehigh's Elizabeth Weiler became the League's first female All-American since 2005.

*Lehigh's Ryan Mahalsky became the first Patriot Leaguer since 2007-08 and sixth all-time to compete at the NCAA Championships for both cross country and outdoor track and field in the same season.

*Bucknell's Emma Levendoski competed in both the 100-meter and 200-meter backstroke at the NCAA Women's Swimming and Diving Championship.

*A League record nine student-athletes were selected in the Major League Lacrosse (MLL) Draft entering the 2015 season, with Army West Point's John Glesener, Loyola Maryland's Nikko Pontrello and Colgate's Ryan Walsh among the top 11 picks.

*Navy's Joseph Greenspan and Boston University's Dominique Badji were both selected in the first four rounds of the Major League Soccer (MLS) Draft.

*Five Patriot Leaguers were taken in the Major League Baseball (MLB) First-Year Player Draft, with Lehigh's Justin Pacchioli and Navy's Stephen Moore each selected in the 10th round.

2015 Patriot League Women's Basketball

ARMY WEST POINT VOTED AS PRESEASON FAVORITE

After an early exit from the 2015 Patriot League Women's Basketball Tournament, Army West Point will look to make run for the title as the Black Knights are once again favored in the preseason poll

-- voted by the coaches and sports information directors who were not allowed to rank their own teams. Army West Point received 13 first-place votes and totaled 155 points to come in ahead of second-place Holy Cross. The Crusaders tallied 130 points and two first-place votes, edging out Lehigh who earned 127 points and three first-place votes. Bucknell and American each received a first-place vote and totaled 119 and 111 points, respectively, followed by Navy (83), Colgate (55), Loyola Maryland (47), Lafayette (43), and Boston University (30).

Army West Point senior guard Kelsey Minato, whose long list of accolades includes All-America Honorable Mention and three-time first-team All-Patriot League honors, will look to add a third Player of the Year award to her list after being tabbed as the Preseason Player of the Year by the coaches and SIDs. Minato was also unanimously selected to the Preseason All-Patriot League team as was Holy Cross senior forward Raquel Scott. The two veterans are joined by Lehigh junior forward Lexi Martins, Bucknell junior forward Claire DeBoer, and Loyola Maryland senior guard Colleen Marshall.

Army West Point (23-8, 14-4 PL), seeded as the number two team in last year's Patriot League tournament, was knocked out of the tournament in the semifinals when No. 6 seed Lehigh defeated the Black Knights, 76-57, at Christl Arena. Army West Point will look to return to the championship game with the help of Minato, who led the League last year in scoring (22.3 ppg - ranked eighth in the nation) and three-point field goals made (84). A second year captain, Minato will be joined by classmates guard/forward Brianna Johnson, forward Aimee Oertner, and guard/forward Jean Parker to lead the Black Knights as this year's team captains.

Holy Cross (15-17, 11-7 PL) Scott, a unanimous first-team All-League selection last year, is back for her senior season after averaging 16.7 points and 9.8 rebounds as a junior. The Crusaders will be captained by Scott and Kate Gillespie and return four starters and 10 letterwinners, including senior center Molly Hourigan (2015 League leader with 2.3 bpg), senior guard Lisa Mifsud (2015 third team All-League selection), and sophomore guard Katie Doherty (started all 31 games as a freshman and was named to All-League Rookie team).

Lehigh (19-12, 9-9 PL) made a run to the 2015 Patriot League championship game as a No. 6 seed with wins over No. 3 Holy Cross and No. 2 Army West Point but came up short to No. 1 seed American, 66-50. Three time All-Patriot League forward Kerry Kinek became just the sixth member of Lehigh's 1,000 point/500-rebound club and enters the season with 1,215 career points and 715 rebounds. Also returning is Martins, last year's leading scorer (14.0 ppg) and rebounder (11.1) for Lehigh along with All-Rookie team member Quinci Mann.

Bucknell (18-12, 10-8 PL) received a first-place vote and edged out last year's Patriot League champion American to finish fourth in the preseason poll. Head coach Aaron Roussell will have to lead a team without forward Audrey Dotson (1,285 career points) but will return DeBoer (11.3 ppg), who was also second-team All-League as a sophomore, and last year's Patriot League Rookie of the Year guard Jacquie Klotz (8.5 ppg). Bucknell will have four starters back from a team that recorded a program best record since the 2006-07 season when they went 20-11.

American (24-9, 16-2 PL) made history when the Eagles defeated Lehigh, 66-50, to earn their first Patriot League title and first NCAA tournament berth in program history. American also set a program record for most wins in a single season (24), due in large part to 2015 Patriot League Player of the Year Jen Dumiak. Losing Dumiak to graduation, the Eagles will have a big pair of shoes to fill and landed fifth in the preseason poll. However, third team All-League selection senior forward Michelle Holmes (6.7 rpg) returns as does classmate Ari Booth, who led the team with 3-point field goal percentage of .435.

Navy (17-14, 10-8 PL) exited the Patriot League tournament in the semifinals with a 60-53 loss to eventual champion American and looks to pick up right where it left off with the upcoming season. The Mids lose guard Chloe Stapleton but will see guard Sarita Condie (8.0 ppg) and All-Rookie team member guard Taylor Dunham (8.8 ppg) return for what head coach Stefanie Pemper hopes to be her eighth-straight winning season.

Colgate (9-22, 7-11 PL) is excited to get back out onto the court as the Raiders prepare for the season, which includes a non-League schedule highlighted by a home contest with three-time defending national champion Connecticut. Last year, the Raiders closed out the regular season with three-straight victories and added a fourth win in the first round over Boston University before falling in an overtime heartbreaker to Army West Point. Colgate will miss second team All-League honoree Carole Harris but return Josie Stockill (10.3 ppg) and Randyll Butler (.436 field goal percentage).

Loyola Maryland (7-23, 5-13 PL) is a program that looks to continue moving forward in the League as it begins its third season in the Patriot League. Marshall, a second team All-League selection last year, returns after a junior campaign that saw her average 13.4 points per game and a League leading 2.6 steals per contest. Along with Marshall, All-Rookie team performer Bri Betz-White (8.6 points per game) is back as is senior forward Jeneh Perry, who led the League with 3.4 offensive rebounds per game.

Lafayette (14-17, 6-12 PL) begins the season with a new coach at the helm, as Theresa Grentz was named the sixth women's basketball head coach in program history. Grentz, who accumulated 671 wins during her 33-year head coaching career with stops at Rutgers and Illinois, will look to build upon a program that loses first-team All-League selection forward Emily Homan but returns senior guard Jamie O'Hare who averaged two 3-point field goals a game.

Boston University (5-25, 2-16 PL) second-year head coach Katy Steding begins preparations for the season as the Terriers return all but one player from last year and will rely on leadership from seniors Troi Melton and Clodagh Scannell. In addition, junior guard Sarah Hope looks to return in full health after leading the team with 41 three pointers despite an early season-ending injury.

The women's basketball season begins on Nov. 13, when nine of the 10 Patriot League teams will be in action. After five weeks of non-League contests, Colgate and Lafayette will open the Patriot League slate on Dec. 22. The Patriot League Tournament will be held on the campus of the higher seeded team in each game with the first round on March 5 followed by the quarterfinal matchups on March 7. The highest remaining seed will then host the semifinal and championship games of the tournament on March 11 and 12.

PATRIOT LEAGUE PRESEASON NOTES

PATRIOT LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP, ARMY-NAVY ON CBS SPORTS NETWORK

Both matchups between Army West Point and Navy this season are scheduled to air on CBS Sports Network, with the first of the two being played at Madison Square Garden on Saturday, January 23 at 11:30 a.m. as part of a double-header feature with the men's teams. A second double-header featuring the Army West Point and Navy squads is on tap for Saturday, February 20, this time from Annapolis with the women tipping off at 11 a.m. CBS Sports Network will also televise the 2016 Patriot League Women's Basketball Championships, for the seventh year in a row, on Saturday, March 12 at 6 p.m.

CBS Sports Network, the 24-hour home of CBS Sports, is available across the country through local cable, video and telco providers and via satellite on DirecTV Channel 221 and Dish Network Channel 158. For more information, and to access the CBS Sports Network channel finder, go to www.cbssportsnetwork.com.

AMERICAN SPORTS NETWORK TO CARRY PAIR OF REGULAR SEASON GAMES

American Sports Network will broadcast two women's basketball contests, beginning with action between Holy Cross and Lehigh in Bethlehem, Pa. on Sunday, January 17 at 3 p.m. The ASN schedule concludes with the regular season as Bucknell visits Lafayette on Wednesday, March 2 at 6 p.m.

American Sports Network is a sports programming initiative of Sinclair Networks Group, a division of Sinclair Broadcast Group, Inc., one of the largest and most diversified television broadcasting companies in the country today. Sinclair's television group reaches approximately 37.5% of US television households and includes FOX, ABC, MyTV, CW, CBS, NBC, Univision and Azteca affiliates.

HOME GAMES TO AIR ON PATRIOT LEAGUE NETWORK

With partner Campus Insiders, the Patriot League Network (PLN) will air every home contest for all 10 teams throughout the 2015-16 season. All home games, in non-League, Patriot League and postseason play, will be streamed live for free on PLN with the exception of the games scheduled for broadcast on CBS Sports Network and American Sports Network.

2016 PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT

The 2016 Patriot League Tournament, featuring all 10 schools, begins with the first round on Wednesday, March 5 followed by the quarterfinals two days later. PATRIOT LEAGUERS COME FROM NEAR AND FAR

The 2015-16 rosters for the Patriot League women's basketball teams feature players from 32 different states and the District of Columbia. In addition, nine players hail from other countries including Canada (3), Finland (2), Ireland, Australia, New Zealand, and England.

NINE ALL-PATRIOT LEAGUE PLAYERS BACK IN 2015-16

Nine players who earned All-Patriot League status last season return to the floor in 2015-16. Army West Point senior guard Kelsey Minato, a unanimous first-team All-League selection during her junior campaign, was named the Preseason Patriot League Player of the Year, and Holy Cross unanimous first-team All-League senior forward Raquel Scott will be back on the court for the Crusaders. Junior forwards Claire DeBoer (Bucknell) and Lexi Martins (Lehigh) were chosen for the second team in 2014-15 along with Loyola Maryland senior guard Colleen Marshall. Senior forwards Kerry Kinek (Lehigh) and Michelle Holmes (American) were selected to the third team a year ago as was Holy Cross senior guard Lisa Misfud and Lafayette senior guard Jamie O'Hare. Minato, Scott, Martins, DeBoer, and Marshall were also all recognized on the preseason All-Patriot League team.

LAFAYETTE HIRES THERESA GRENTZ TO LEAD 2015-16 SQUAD

In April, Lafayette announced the hiring of Theresa Grentz as the sixth head coach of the women's basketball program. Grentz, who served as an assistant coach for the Leopards in the 2014-15 season, accumulated 671 wins during her 33-year head coaching career, which includes stops at Rutgers and Illinois, and fills the role of head coach for the first time in eight years. Grentz led her teams to postseason appearances in 25 of her 33 years on the sidelines and will begin the process of reaching that success at Lafayette.

2015-16 PATRIOT LEAGUE SCHEDULE

Nine of the 10 Patriot League teams will be in action when the 2015-16 women's basketball season tips off on Nov. 13, beginning a five-week non-League schedule before Colgate and Lafayette open League play on Dec. 22.

2015 Patriot League Women's Basketball

The non-League slate features 14 teams that made a 2015 NCAA DI Women's Basketball Championship appearance, including the National Champion - UConn - and runner-up - Notre Dame; 15 teams that made an appearance in last year's WNIT; and two teams that competed in the WBI.

Colgate will start its season at Kent State on Sunday, Nov. 15 after the other nine teams open the season on Friday, Nov. 13. Three of the nine -- Army West Point, Boston University, and Lehigh -- will play at home while the remaining six will open on the road.

After Colgate and Lafayette play the first Patriot League game of the season on Tuesday, Dec. 22 in Easton, the other eight teams open the Patriot League slate on Wednesday, Dec. 30. The schedule once again features 18 games as each of the 10 schools will play a home-and-home against the other teams in the League. The season then concludes on March 2.

AMERICAN

PRESEASON POLL: 5th

2014-15 OVERALL RECORD: 24-9

2014-15 LEAGUE RECORD: 16-2 (1st)

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT: Defeated No. 8 Lafayette in the quarterfinals (79-56); Defeated No. 5 Navy in semifinals (60-53); Defeated No. 6 Lehigh (66-50) in the championship game to win first Patriot League Tournament title in program history.

POSTSEASON: Lost to Iowa, 75-67, in NCAA Tournament.

STARTERS RETURNING/LOST: 2/3

HEAD COACH: Megan Gebbia, 3rd Season at American/Overall

American made history when the Eagles defeated Lehigh, 66-50, to earn their first Patriot League title and first NCAA tournament berth in program history.

Under head coach Megan Gebbia, American also set a program record for most wins in a single season (24), due in large part to 2015 Patriot League Player of the Year Jen Dumiak. Losing Dumiak to graduation, the Eagles will have a big pair of shoes to fill and landed fifth in the preseason poll.

However, third team All-League selection senior forward Michelle Holmes (6.7 rpg) returns as does classmate Ari Booth, who led the team with 3-point field goal percentage of .435.

PATRIOT LEAGUE

TOURNAMENT: Beat No. 7 Colgate (48-45) in quarterfinals; Fell to No. 6 Lehigh (76-57) in semifinals.

POSTSEASON: Lost to St. John's, 64-56, in WNIT.

HEAD COACH: Dave Magarity, 10th Season at Army/33rd Overall

Seeded as the number two team in last year's Patriot League tournament, Army West Point was knocked out of the tournament in the semifinals when No. 6 seed Lehigh defeated the Black Knights, 76-57, at Christl Arena.

Army West Point will look to return to the championship game with the help of Minato, who led the League last year in scoring (22.3 ppg - ranked eighth in the nation) and three-point field goals made (84). A second year captain, Minato will be joined by classmates guard/forward Brianna Johnson, forward Aimee Oertner, and guard/forward Jean Parker to lead the Black Knights as this year's team captains.

STARTERS RETURNING/LOST:

HEAD COACH: Katy Steding, 2nd Season at BU/Overall

Second-year head coach Katy Steding begins preparations for the 2015-16 season as Boston University returns all but one player from last year and will rely on leadership from seniors Troi Melton (7.2 ppg) and Clodagh Scannell (5.5 ppg, 4.0 rpg).

The Terriers return its top-scorer last season, junior forward Meghan Green, who contributed 11.5 points per game and a team-leading 6.5 rebounds per game.

In addition, junior guard Sarah Hope looks to return in full health after leading the team with 41 three pointers despite an early season-ending injury.

STARTERS RETURNING/LOST: 4/1

HEAD COACH: Aaron Roussell, 4th Season at Bucknell/12th Overall

Bucknell received one first-place vote and edged out last year's Patriot League champion American to finish fourth in the pre-season poll.

Head coach Aaron Roussell will have to lead a team without forward Audrey Dotson (1,285 career points) but will return DeBoer (11.3 ppg), who was also second-team All-League as a sophomore, and last year's Patriot League Rookie of the Year guard Jacquie Klotz (8.5 ppg).

The Bison has four starters back from a team that recorded a program best record since the 2006-07 season when they went 20-11.

in the first round; Fell to

No. 2 Army West Point in the quarterfinals (48-45)

STARTERS

RETURNING/LOST: 2/3

HEAD COACH: Nicci Hays Fort, 5th Season at Colgate/9th Overall

Colgate is ready to get back out onto the court as the Raiders prepare for the season, which includes a non-League schedule highlighted by a home contest with three-time defending national champion Connecticut.

Last year, the Raiders closed out the regular season with three-straight victories and added a fourth win in the first round over Boston University before falling in an overtime heartbreaker to Army West Point.

Colgate will miss second team All-League honoree Carole Harris but return Josie Stockill (10.3 ppg) and Randyll Butler (.436 field goal percentage).

HEAD COACH: Theresa Grentz, 1st Season at Lafayette/34th Overall

Lafayette begins the 2015-16 season with a new coach at the helm, as Theresa Grentz was named the sixth women's basketball head coach in program history.

Grentz, who accumulated 671 wins during her 33-year head coaching career, with stops at Rutgers and Illinois, will look to build upon a program that loses first-team All-League selection forward Emily Homan but returns senior guard Jamie O'Hare, who averaged 12.1 points, 3.6 rebounds, and 3.6 assists per game. Her 61 shots from beyond the arc ranked as second-most among the League.

The Leopards also return junior forward Ashley Lutz (5.6 ppg, 7.5 rpg).
