The Patriot League celebrated its 25th Football Anniversary during the 2011 campaign with a 25th Anniversary Team as well as variety of retrospective initiatives highlighting the achievements and personalities of former and current student-athletes and coaches.

The Patriot League began as a successful Division I-AA (now called Football Championship Subdivision) football conference in 1986, with charter members Bucknell University, Colgate University, College of the Holy Cross, Lafayette College and Lehigh University. Fordham University has maintained its football-member status since 1990, as the Rams were full members from 1990-94 before becoming associate members for football in 1995. Georgetown has competed in Patriot League football as an associate member since 2001. Davidson (1987-88) and Towson (1997-03) have also competed in Patriot League Football.
