CELEBRATING A CENTURY OF EXCELLENCE

RMAC NAMES ALL-TIME MEN'S SOCCER TEAM

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. -- October 29, 2008 -- The Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference is celebrating its 100th anniversary in 2009. The RMAC is the fourth oldest conference in the country, and the most historic in the western U.S..

As part of the Centennial Celebration, all-time teams are being selected in 19 RMAC sports.

The RMAC All-Time Men's Soccer Team was selected by a committee of eight, with a representative from each of the conferences school's that participate in the sport of men's soccer. The RMAC has officially sponsored the sport of men's soccer since 1996.

Fort Lewis landed four players on the all-time team, including John Cunliffe, a 3-time RMAC Player of the Year, now with the San Jose Earthquakes of the M.L.S. who was voted the all-time top player in the RMAC.

The RMAC All-Time Top Coach is Jeremy Gunn, who led Fort Lewis to the 2005 NCAA Division II National Championship. Gunn is now the Head Coach at UNC-Charlotte.

"It's a wonderful honor, one that I'm very proud of," said Gunn. "When you look at Fort Lewis soccer, it was such a group effort with everybody helping at the University to back us and help us grow. We had incredible support. We also had incredible determination from all the boys. It was a special time," added Gunn.

The RMAC's Centennial Celebration will take place on July 11, 2009 at the Cheyenne Mountain Resort in Colorado Springs. More information to come in the next few months. A new all-time team will be recognized each month leading up to the celebration.
