ROCKY MOUNTAIN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

ABOUT THE RMAC

Founded in 1909, the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference is an NCAA Division II conference consisting of 14 members in Colorado (10), Nebraska (2) and New Mexico (2). Beginning in 2012-2013, Black Hills State will join the league as a full member, while Nebraska-Kearney will depart the RMAC and join the Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA).

The RMAC is the oldest NCAA Division II conference, and the fifth oldest conference in the nation. The RMAC and its members have won more than 75 national championships, including 48 NCAA Division II championships. Forty-six NCAA championships have been won since 1992, and 28 NCAA championships have been won since 2000.

CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

Headquartered in Colorado Springs, Colo., the RMAC sponsors 21 conference sports: baseball, basketball (men's and women's), cross country (men's and women's), football, golf (men's and women's), indoor track & field (men's and women's), outdoor track & field (men's and women's), soccer (men's and women's), softball, swimming & diving (men's and women's), tennis (men's and women's), volleyball and wrestling.

FOLLOW THE RMAC

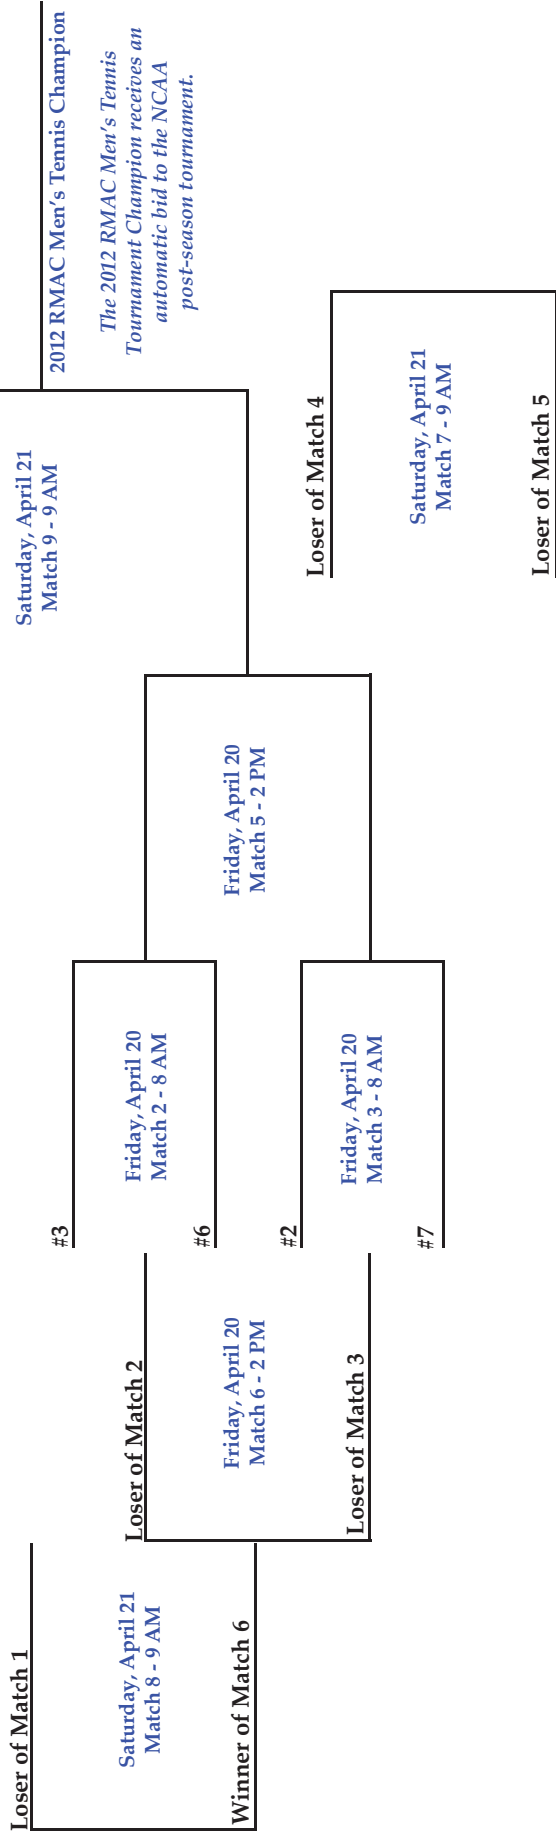

There are several media outlets fans can use to follow their favorite teams, sports and student-athletes in the RMAC. The conference website contains information on all 21 sponsored sports, including standings, statistics, schedules, releases and national polls. Visitors can access information and institutional athletic websites for all 14 members, NCAA websites, hometown newspapers, the RMAC Hall of Fame, and other countless pieces of information. Fans can also download the weekly RMAC radio show, watch highlights on YouTube from the monthly television show, the "RMAC Showcase," as well as highlights from the conference championships. Fans can also follow the RMAC via the social media outlets of Facebook and Twitter. For more information, go to www.rmactsports.org.
