RON LENZ PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Luis Perez (QB), Texas A&M-Commerce Offensive Player of the Year

Perez leads Texas A&M-Commerce into its first NCAA Division II national championship game.

The Lone Star Conference Offensive Player of the Year leads the nation with 4,676 passing yards and 44 touchdowns.

Perez also tops NCAA Division II in passing yards per game (334.0) and is second in passing efficiency (161.8).

The Harlon Hill Finalist pilots the No. 2 passing attack in the country.

Marcus Martin (DL), Slippery Rock Defensive Player of the Year

Martin closed out a remarkable career winning the Gene Upshaw Award as the best lineman in NCAA Division II. He became the first Division II player to ever be named one of the five finalists for the Ted Hendricks Award as the best defensive end in college football.

Martin eclipsed the all-division record with 56 career sacks and is D2's all-time leader with 92.5 tackles for loss.

He is a three-time PSAC Defensive Player of the Year.
