Do you have a PASSION for collegiate sports & want to get INVOLVED?
Apply to become the SFU Athletics mascot performer today!

Job Responsibilities
- Suiting up and performing as McFogg the Dog at both Simon Fraser University athletic events and select community events in front of large crowds
- Engaging and interacting positively and enthusiastically to motivate and entertain fans of all ages
- Participating in activities during time outs and intermissions
- Effective communication with the events coordinator and promotions staff
- Establishing a fun, inclusive and professional environment as an ambassador for SFU

Job Qualifications
- Must be available from September 2017 to March 2018
- Must be able to work part time, including evenings and weekends. Hours will vary according to the athletic competition schedule - athletics.sfu.ca/calendar.aspx
- Ability to be animated and have a general knowledge of sports
- Ability to interact with fans of all ages enthusiastically
- Willingness to participate in fun and unconventional promotional activities
- Athletic fitness and the ability to adapt to changing environments is recommended
- Performance experience is an asset

Submit Your Cover Letter & Resume to
JESSICA SMITH - EVENTS COORDINATOR > jls9@sfu.ca

APPLY TODAY

SFU is the only university in Canada to offer student-athletes access to a quality Canadian education & the NCAA athletic experience.