Southland Baseball Tournament Starts Wednesday

Sam Houston State earned the top seed for the 2014 Southland Conference Baseball Tournament that gets underway Wednesday at Bear Stadium on the campus of Central Arkansas in Conway, Ark. The Bearkats claimed their third consecutive regular-season championship and enter the tournament with a 40-15 overall record to go with a 22-8 mark in league play. It was their first 40-win regular season since 1987.

Top-seeded Sam Houston State will open the tournament against No. 8 seed Lamar, which finished 31-23 overall and 16-14 in the Southland. The two will face off Wednesday at noon. The winner of that game will face off against the winner of the tournament's first game, which pits No. 4 seed Northwestern State vs. No. 5 seed Southeastern Louisiana. The Demons, who were 31-24 in overall and 19-11 in conference, finished in a third-place tie with Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, but lost the regular-season series against the Islanders. Southeastern enters the tournament with a 33-23 overall record and was 18-12 in league play. The winners of the first two games advance to play Thursday at 4 p.m., while the losers will move into the losers' bracket and meet Thursday at 9 a.m.

The third game of the day features No. 2 Nicholls against No. 7 McNeese State Wednesday at 4 p.m.. The Colonels are 32-24 overall and were 21-9 in league action. The Cowboys were 28-26 overall and 17-13 in league play. Wednesday's final game, matching No. 3 seed A&M-Corpus Christi with host-institution No. 6 seed Central Arkansas, is scheduled for 7 p.m. The Islanders are 31-24 overall and were 19-11 in Southland contests, while the Bears posted an overall record of 29-21 and 17-13 in league games. UCA is the defending tournament champion, after winning last year's title as the No. 7 seed. The winners of Wednesday's two late games advance to play Thursday at 7 p.m. while the losers play Thursday at noon.

All eight teams in this year's field finished the regular season with a winning overall and conference records. It is the first time since 2007 that all eight teams are above .500.

Tournament Format

The tournament is set up in similar fashion to the NCAA College World Series in that there are two brackets with the winners meeting for the championship. Unlike in Omaha, the bracket winners of the Southland tournament meet in a single game to decide the championship. The winner of the Southland tournament is the league's automatic qualifier for the NCAA tournament, which begins with regional play, May 30-June 2.

Tournament History

This marks the 28th year of the Southland Conference baseball tournament. It began in 1964 though no tournament was played between 1969 and 1992. Since it resumed in 1993, Sam Houston State and Texas State lead all conference teams with four tournament championships. The Bearkats won their first tournament title in 1996 and won three in a row from 2007 through 2009. The regular-season champion has won the tournament eight times though just three times since the tournament resumed in 1993. The last team to do that was Texas State, which won both the regular-season and tournament titles in 2011.

Ticket Information

An all-tournament pass, which allows entry into all 15 possible games of the tournament, is $35 for adults and $25 for children ages 3-12. An adult single-day pass, which will include four games on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday with a possibility of three games on Saturday, is $14 each day, while a single-day pass for children is $10. If Saturday features only one game, then tickets for the championship will be $9 for adults and $7 for children. Students at Southland Conference institutions will also gain free admission with a valid student ID. Tickets are available for purchase in person at the Central Arkansas ticket office, by phone at 501-852-2234, and online at the university's athletics website at www.ucasports.com/tickets.

Tournament Coverage

The schedule of the double-elimination event has four games on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Two "if-necessary" games are scheduled for Saturday before the championship game, which will be played at 1 p.m. or 5 p.m. and be available exclusively on ESPN3. The championship broadcast will be called by Chris Mycoskie, the Southland's assistant commissioner of television, and Tommy Krysan, a former Southeastern Louisiana pitcher. Every game of the tournament, which the exception of the title game, will be streamed live on the Southland Conference Digital Network, which includes Southland.org and the league's free mobile and tablet apps.

Winner Advances to NCAA Tournament

The winner of the Southland Conference tournament earns the league's automatic berth into the NCAA tournament. The field of 64 will be announced Monday at 11 a.m., CDT, on ESPNU. The tournament begins with regional play May 30-June 2 at campus sites. Super Regionals will be held June 6-9 and the College World Series will be June 14-25.

Azar Named Southland Player of the Year

Azar ranked among the Southland's top-five players in seven different categories, including leading the league in slugging percentage (.558). The senior from The Woodlands, Texas (The Woodlands H.S.), also ranked second in RBI (44) and total bases (111), third in batting average (.369) and home runs (nine) and fourth in hits (76) and on-base percentage (.450). Azar was one of the toughest hitters to strike out in the nation, going down only 11 times in 206 at bats and drawing 22 walks. Azar, who has helped the Bearkats to their first 40-win regular season since 1987, has thrown out 19 attempted base-stealers on the year, which is tied for the conference lead. Azar managed the second best pitching staff in the conference with a 2.81 team ERA, which ranks in the top 25 nationally. He also is Sam Houston's first semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award, which goes to the nation's top catcher. Sam Houston earned the top seed in this week's tournament after winning its third consecutive regular-season title.

Lamar's Bumpers Tabbed League's Top Hitter

Bumpers ranked in the top 10 in almost every offensive category, including ranking first in the league in total bases (116). The senior from Bourbonnais, Ill. (Bradley-Bourbonnais H.S.), was second behind Azar in slugging percentage (.527), tied for third in triples (three) and tied for fourth in hits (76). Last season's newcomer of the year also tied for sixth in doubles (14), tied for eighth in home runs (six) and tied for seventh in runs scored (43). Bumpers' .345 batting average was eighth-best in the league and led the Cardinals' offense along with his .413 on-base percentage, which was 10th-best in the Southland. Bumpers batted a league-best .427 in conference games, and earned national player of the week recognition earlier in the season after going 7-for-7 with three home runs against McNeese State. Bumpers and the Cardinals' closed the regular season with two wins against Oral Roberts to clinch the eighth and final spot in the league's tournament.

Colonels' Byrd Selected as Pitcher of the Year

Byrd was named the Southland's top pitcher after ranking second the league with a 1.92 earned-run average. His 80 strikeouts this season also ranks second in the league and his eight wins are third best. Twenty-four of his 80 strikeouts caught batters looking, which is the sixth highest in the conference. The senior from Petal, Miss. (Petal H.S.), tossed 89.0 innings while allowing 19 earned runs. In 14 starts, Byrd walked only 27 batters while limiting opponents to a .246 batting average against him. He led Nicholls to its best conference season in history, finishing second with a 21-9 mark. Byrd struck out a season-high 11 hitters against Nicholls' 3-0 shutout win against Louisiana-Monroe, Feb. 21.

2014 Southland All-Conference Teams

ORU's Romano is Top Relief Pitcher

Romano is the sixth recipient of the conference's relief pitcher of the year award and the first ORU player to receive the honor. The senior from Markham, Ontario (Father Michael McGivney Catholic Academy), led the league with 12 saves this year. His 12 saves were four more than the next highest conference reliever and are tied for 13th most in the nation. He tied for third in the conference with 29 appearances and struck out 49 batters. Opponents got just six extra-base hits against him and managed to hit just .221. The Golden Eagle did not give up a home run on the season.

Adam Oller Earns Top Freshman Honors

Oller becomes the first Demon to be named the league's freshman of the year. The freshman from Conroe, Texas (Concordia Lutheran H.S.), was the league's top freshman with a 2.18 ERA, which ranked third overall. He tied for 11th in the Southland with six wins and tossed the 15th-most innings (86.2). He led the team with three complete games. Oller was an integral part in Northwestern State's historic season. After finishing a season ago with a 5-22 conference record, the Demons tied for third this year with a 19-11 conference mark. The 14-game improvement is the best in conference history.

Godbold is Newcomer of the Year

Godbold is the second Southeastern Louisiana player to earn newcomer of the year award, joining Anthony Garibaldi (2003). The junior from Oak Park, Ill. (Oak Park and River Forest H.S.), led the Lions with eight home runs and was second with a .353 batting average, which were fourth-and fifth-best in the Southland, respectively. The third-team all-conference selection led the league with 50 RBI, ranked third with 108 total bases and a .454 on-base percentage, fourth with a .522 slugging percentage and seventh with his 73 hits. Godbold and the Lions finished fifth in the league with an 18-12 mark and take 33-23 overall record into the conference tournament.

Curtis Jones Earns Utility Player of the Year

Houston Baptist's Jones is the first recipient of the league's utility player of the year award. The junior from Cypress, Texas (Cypress Ranch H.S.), led the Huskies with a .361 batting average and was also first on the team in runs scored (33) and hits (82). He recorded five doubles on the year and was the toughest Husky to strike out, having only fanned 16 times in 227 at bats. On the mound as HBU's No. 2 starter, pitched a team-high 89.0 innings and posted a 3.64 ERA, which was second among the Huskies' starting pitchers. Jones went 4-5 in 13 starts and recorded 42 strikeouts while issuing only 21 walks. Jones led the Huskies with two complete games on the year.

Nicholls' Thibodeaux is Coach of the Year

After guiding the Colonels to a second-place regular-season finish, Thibodeaux was tabbed the Southland coach of the year. Nicholls finished 21-9 in conference play and will take a 32-24 overall record as the No. 2 seed into conference tournament later this week. Thibodeaux is the first Colonel coach to earn this distinction after having a 12-win turnaround in conference play from a season ago. The Colonels finished ninth in the standings last year with a 9-18 league mark and a 26-29 overall record. Nicholls is the first team in conference history to win more than 20 league games the season after posting single-digit conference wins.

Sam Houston, A&M-Corpus Christi and ORU Lead All-Conference Teams

Three teams placed five student-athletes on the three all-conference teams, including Sam Houston, Texas A&M-Corpus Christi and Oral Roberts. Leading the way for the Bearkats are first-team selection Azar, second-team members junior first baseman Ryan O'Hearn, junior outfielder Colt Atwood and junior pitcher Tyler Eppler and third-team pick junior outfielder Hayden Simerly. For the Islanders, senior third baseman Brandon Tierney received first-team accolades, junior pitcher Matt Danton earned a second-team nod while senior second baseman Cody Stephens, junior outfielder Tyler Ware and senior catcher Russell Vaughn were tabbed third-team all-conference. Oral Roberts placed two on the first team with senior outfielder Tyler Boss and senior pitcher Pepe Gomez, two on the second team with junior second baseman Matt Brandy and junior shortstop Jose Trevino and one on the third team with Romano. Lamar and McNeese each placed four players on the three all-conference teams, followed by Northwestern State and Nicholls with three selections each. Central Arkansas and Southeastern Louisiana placed two on the squads, while Stephen F. Austin, Abilene Christian and New Orleans each had one selection.

Five Repeat on All-Conference Teams

Five of the 36 all-conference players were repeat selections, including Azar, who is making his third appearance. McNeese's Marion and Gooch are making their second appearance along with shortstops Bumpers and Trevino from Oral Roberts.

Azar Named Johnny Bench Award Semifinalist

Sam Houston State senior catcher Anthony Azar has been named a semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award, given annually to the nation's top catcher. The Greater Wichita Area Sports Commission announced the list of 15 semifinalists. The finalists will be announced June 3, 2014. A final vote among the national committee will occur during the College World Series. All finalists will be brought to Wichita and the winner will be announced at the 17th Annual Greater Wichita Sports Banquet on June 26, 2014.

Baseball Players of the Week

Corey Toups, Sam Houston State Hitter of the Week

Toups was an integral part in helping the Bearkats sweep Texas A&M-Corpus Christi en route to claim their third consecutive regular-season league title. The sophomore from The Woodlands, Texas (The Woodlands H.S.), went 3-for-3 in the series opening with a home run, double and three RBI. In the second game of the series, Toups added two more hits and drove in two more runs to help Sam Houston to the 13-3 win. In the series finales, Toups had his 12-game hitting streak snapped, but drew two walks, scored a run and knocked in a run on a sacrifice fly. Toups and the Bearkats head into this week's conference tournament as the top seed.

Honorable Mention: Anthony Azar, Sam Houston State; Edwin Gomez, Northwestern State; Sam Bumpers, Lamar.

Taylor Byrd, Nicholls Pitcher of the Week

Byrd finished his home-career with a solid start against McNeese State, leading the Colonels to a 6-0 win over the Cowboys in the series opener. The senior from Petal, Miss. (Petal H.S.), tossed eight shutout innings, allowing just three hits while striking out four in the win. Byrd, who improved to 8-3 on the year, retired the Cowboys in order in three different frames. Byrd, who finished the season second in the Southland in ERA (1.92) and strikeouts (80), helped the Colonels claim the No. 2 seed in the conference tournament, which begins Wednesday at Bear Stadium in Conway, Ark.

Honorable Mention: Dillon Mangham, Stephen F. Austin; Ryan Lower, Houston Baptist; Matt Danton, Texas A&M-Corpus Christi.
