Northwestern State received 116 points in the coaches' poll to claim the top spot and 109 points in the SID poll to finish second. Allred, a two-time all-conference selection, led the league in conference play in shutouts with seven and was second in strikeouts with 121, including 39 batters looking. The junior pitched 112.1 innings in conference play while holding opponents to a league-leading .170 batting average. Allred made 17 starts and picked up 15 wins while registering a 1.00 earned run average. Southland Softball Tournament Returns to Natchitoches

Southland teams open the season Friday, Feb. 6 with conference play beginning Friday, March 6. The 2015 Southland Conference Softball Tournament will be hosted by Northwestern State in Natchitoches, La., May 7-9 at Lady Demon Diamond. The top six teams, based on win-loss percentage, will qualify for the tournament, which will play in a double-elimination format in two brackets, similar to the Women's College World Series. The championship round will air live exclusively on ESPN3, available at watchespn.com and the WatchESPN app. In addition, all other games of the tournament will be streamed live for free on the Southland Conference Digital Network, available via southland.org/watch and the Southland Conference app.

2014 Season Recap...

McNeese State Claims Second Consecutive Regular-Season Championship

The Cowgirls swept Lamar in the final conference series of the season to claim their second-consecutive regular-season championship and fourth overall. McNeese became the first school to win back-to-back titles since former Southland member Texas State (2008-2010). McNeese State recorded a 38-15 overall record and a 20-6 record against conference foes, earning the top seed in the 2014 Southland Conference Softball Tournament. The Cowgirls posted their sixth consecutive 30-win season and made the conference tournament for a league-leading 25th time.

Northwestern State Repeats as Southland Softball Tournament Champions

No. 2 seed Northwestern State used a five-run third inning to defeat No. 1 seed McNeese State 11-0 to claim the 2014 Southland Conference Softball Championship at North Oak Park in Hammond, La. Northwestern State won its second-consecutive tournament title and fifth overall. The Lady Demons claimed the leagues' automatic bid to the NCAA tournament and were the first team to repeat as tournament champions since former Southland member Texas State (2011, 2012). Tara McKenney led the Lady Demons at the plate with a perfect 4-for-4 on the day including a RBI-single in the third inning to spark the Northwestern State scoring. McKenney also recorded four runs and a stolen base. Tournament MVP Kaylee Guidry picked up the win in the circle for Northwestern to improve to 12-3. Guidry allowed only two hits in five innings to get the shutout the victory.

Northwestern State Falls to No. 17 Baylor and Houston in NCAA Regionals

No. 17 Baylor 6, Northwestern State 1

Northwestern State didn't get the start it needed against No. 17 Baylor. Just the opposite, and by the time the Lady Demons created problems for All-America pitcher Whitney Canion, it was late in a 6-1 first-round NCAA Tournament win for the Bears. Leadoff hitter Tara McKenney had a lengthy at bat but went down swinging in a 20-pitch first frame for Canion, whose two-out walk in the first gave the Lady Demons its only base runner until the sixth. After Baylor's first two hitters singled and walked, Holly Holl bombed a three-run homer that proved to be more than enough in front of 1,117 fans at Getteman Stadium.

Houston 7, Northwestern State 6

Northwestern season ended with a 7-6 loss as the Cougars recovered from 5-1 and 6-4 deficits, scoring a decisive three runs in the bottom of the sixth. The Lady Demons (30-22) saw their second straight NCAA appearance halted despite smacking 11 hits and again playing error-free defense, highlighted by a spectacular diving snag of a looping line drive into short left field by senior shortstop Tara McKenney. All but one of Northwestern's starters had at least one hit, with Cali Burke, Cassandra Barefield and Kellye Kincannon collecting a pair. Kincannon and Barefield each drove in two. But Houston's cleanup hitter, Kayla Holland, plated four on a home run and double, leadoff hitter Selena Hernandez brought home two with a sixth-inning double that tied the game 6-all, and UH (33-22) then scored the game-winner on a two-out base hit by Haley Outen.
