THE OPENING DRIVE

Northwestern State Returns

With everything that has happened surrounding it the past week, the Northwestern State football team will be in its safe haven when it returns to action. The Demons host Southeastern at 7 p.m. Thursday in Northwestern State's first game since an Oct. 12 incident at an off-campus apartment complex resulted in the death of junior safety Ronnie Caldwell.

The Word Enters the Top 5

UIW (5-1) climbed two more spots to a season-high No. 5 in the national polls. It comes after a 28-11 win over Texas A&M-Commerce as the defense continued to shine. It is the defending Southland Conference co-champion's fifth win in a row since a season-opening FBS loss at UTEP. UIW continues to be one of the premier teams in FCS as they have been ranked in the Top 10 of the FCS polls for 16 straight weeks. Additionally, the Cardinals have won 15 straight games on their home field.

The Nation Takes Notice of Big Red

After a brutal non-conference schedule and winners of four straight, the Lamar Cardinals began to receive some national love, earning votes in the Stats Perform Poll. The Cardinals move to 4-3 overall and 3-0 in Southland play after defeating Southeastern on the road, 30-24, their best mark 2018 when they won six in a row to close the year and claim a spot in the FCS Playoffs. Lamar is off this week, but prepares for a huge match-up against UIW next Saturday in Beaumont.

Nicholls Gets Defensive

Though the Nicholls defense was expected to be stout this year, the Colonels have turned it up a notch after a brutal non-conference schedule which included a Top 5 FCS team and two FBS schools. In two SLC contests, the Colonels have allowed only 292.5 yards per game and have forced four turnovers in each contest. Thus far this season, even with the brutal non-conference schedule, the Colonels have forced 14 turnovers, good for fifth in the country despite a bye and a game cancellation.

RONNIE CALDWELL

2001-2023

"The Southland Conference is heartbroken to learn of the passing of Northwestern State football student-athlete Ronnie Caldwell Jr. Our heartfelt condolences and prayers go out to Ronnie's family, friends, teammates, classmates, and the entire Northwestern State campus.

Our community is devastated and in mourning in the wake of this news. There are not adequate words that can express the pain we are feeling for this tragic loss.

The Southland Conference family stands ready and available to support anything the Northwestern State community may need during this time of grief. Our focus remains with Ronnie's family and those close to him who are mourning his loss."

- Chris Grant, Southland Commissioner

"The Northwestern State family has suffered a tremendous loss. Ronnie Caldwell was a young man who had a bright future ahead of him on or off the football field. He was our voice in the locker room. When Ronnie spoke, others listened. The respect our football team had for Ronnie was evident. He did not play a snap this year because of an injury, but his voice resonated with every member of our team from the first player to the 115th on our roster.

"Our hearts are broken and ache for Ronnie's family and friends. His loss will be felt here at Northwestern State, in Natchitoches and in his home. We will treasure the time we spent with Ronnie and the memories we made, and we will hold him and his family in our hearts as we attempt to move forward in the days and weeks ahead."

- Brad Laird, Head Football Coach, Northwestern State

RONNIE CALDWELL, 2001-2023

The Southland Conference is a family, and we are all heartbroken by the tragic events that have taken the life of a football student-athlete, Ronnie Caldwell.

Caldwell, 21, came to Northwestern State after transferring from Tyler Junior College, following the 2021 football season. He passed away early Thursday morning.

He appeared in all 11 games in 2022, starting 10, and finished seventh on the team in tackles. He had yet to play in a game in 2023 because of an injury sustained in preseason camp.

Despite the injury, Caldwell traveled with the team throughout the 2023 season, serving as a de facto defensive assistant coach, communicating with coaches in the press box via headset during games.

Caldwell twice had six tackles in a game in 2022 and added a career-high two tackles for loss in the Demons' Nov. 5 win at Texas A&M-Commerce. Following the season, Caldwell was named to the Southland Conference Commissioner's Fall Honor Roll, which honors student-athletes who record at least a 3.0 grade point average during their semester of competition.

A business administration major from Austin, Texas, Caldwell spent the summer of 2023 helping coach a local youth baseball team.

Decisions regarding Northwestern State's remaining football games will be made as the season progresses.

The Southland Conference announced the Northwestern State at Nicholls football game scheduled for Saturday, October 14, has been canceled. The decision was made following communication between the Southland Conference, Northwestern State University, and Nicholls State University administrations.

Steven Parker named the Mid-Season FCS Defensive Player of the Year

PETE ROSSOMANDO HAS LAMAR FLYING HIGH

After winning one game a season ago, Lamar is 3-0 in Southland play and looking to make their first FCS Playoff appearance since 2018 under first year Head Coach Pete Rossomando.

CATCH OF THE YEAR? WE THINK SO

David Robinson Jr. made quite possibly the catch of the year as he snagged an incredible one-handed grab against HCU in Week 6. The play was good enough to snag No. 3 on SportsCenter Top 10 and be featured on ESPN's "Acho Mind."

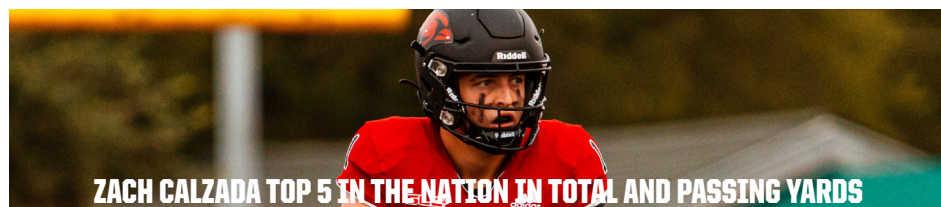

A SWARMING LION DEFENSE

The AGM-Commerce defense has been a problem all year long, leading the FCS in takeaway and interceptions, while ranking 10th in FCS in sacks.
