What You Need to Know

@ Prairie View A&M (9/6)

•UTRGV won earned its first road win and first win over an NCAA Division I FCS opponent by beating Prairie View A&M 27-21.

•Senior Eddie Lee Marburger completed a career-high 19 passes on a career-high 31 attempts while making a career-high six rushing attempts, the last of which was a career-long run of 27 yards to get a first down that put the game on ice.

•Freshman Alijah Prosser forced a fumble recovered by senior Elijah Graham with 1:49 remaining to end Prairie View A&M's final comeback attempt.

•Graduate student Nathan Denney became the first 100-yard rusher in program history, rushing for a career-high 104 yards while also making a career-high five receptions for a career-high 37 receiving yards. Denney scored on a 7-yard rush with 2:21 remaining in the fourth quarter to give the Vaqueros the lead for good. For his efforts, Denney earned Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Week honors.

•UTRGV scored on its first three drives to take a 17-0 lead in the first quarter. UTRGV didn't allow a score until the 6:03 mark of the second quarter, ending a streak 83:57 scoreless streak by the defense, during which time the Vaqueros outscored their opponents 83-0.

•Freshman Jaiden Haygood was near the top in tackles for the second-straight game, this time with 11 (three solo) after recording a team-high six in the opener. Graduate student Spencer Rich had a career-high tying 12 tackles (three solo).

Sul Ross State (8/30)

•UTRGV won the first game in program history, beating Sul Ross State 66-0 in front of a raucous sellout crowd of 12,726 fans.

•Senior Eddie Lee Marburger started at quarterback, and after throwing an incomplete pass on his first attempt, successfully completed his final 18 passes (94.7%) while finishing with a career-high five touchdowns and a career-high 365 passing yards. Marburger narrowly missed the FCS record for highest percentage of completions (min. 20 completions) of 96.2%, held by Ricky Santos of New Hampshire who went 25-fo-26 vs. Northeastern on Oct. 22, 2005.

•Freshman Aidan Jakobsohn completed all seven of his pass attempts while freshman Atzel Chavez Jr. completed his lone pass attempt as three Vaqueros quarterbacks finished 26 for 27 (96.3%). The FCS record for completion percentage, which requires a minimum of 30 attempts, is 91.3% (42-for-46) by UT Martin vs. Murray State on Oct. 13, 2012.

•Marburger found sophomore Xayvion Noland for the first touchdown in program history on a 50-yard pass 3:24 into the game. Noland finished with two receptions for 126 yards and two touchdowns plus a 52-yard run for 178 total yards.

•Marburger, who earned Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Week Honorable Mention, threw the first three touchdowns and five of the first seven in program history to help UTRGV build leads of 28-0 after the first quarter and 49-0 at the half. His other touchdown passes went to sophomore Ismael Smith Flores, freshman Tony Diaz, and junior Tavian Cord.

•Junior Djouvensky Schlenbaker scored the first rushing touchdown in program history to cap the first quarter. Freshman TJ Dement rushed for two touchdowns and freshman Fabian Garcia added a rushing touchdown as well.

•UTRGV scored on its first 10 drives, with the first nine ending in touchdown. UTRGV forced three and outs on its first four defensive possessions and on 10 of the Lobos' 13 drives.

Program Starters

•After hiring head coach Travis Bush in Dec. 2022, using 2023 to recruit and 2024 to both recruit and practice, UTRGV is set for its first season of competition.

•UTRGV is the only new college football program at the NCAA Division I level this season and one of four overall along with Marine Maritime Academy (NCAA DII), Roanoke College (NCAA DIII), and University of Rio Grande (NAIA).

•The last time a team joined DI was 2022, when Stonehill transitioned from DII to FCS. The last time a brand new program debuted at the DI level was 2015, when Kennesaw State launched from scratch and East Tennessee State returned from a 12-year hiatus. The last new program in the Southland Conference was Houston Christian University, which launched at the DI level from scratch in 2014.

•UTRGV started a program because of a successful student referendum held in November 2011, with 60.46% voting in favor of increasing the athletics fee to support the expansion of the spirit programs and the creation of a marching band, football team, and women's swimming & diving team.

•UTRGV head coach Travis Bush was the Offensive Coordinator/QB Coach on the inaugural UTSA team, which launched in 2011. Offensive Coordinator/Offensive Line Coach Jeff Bowen was a graduate assistant coach on that team. Director of Football Operations & Administration John Simmons was a quarterback on that team. Bush and Simmons were present for the practice season in 2010.

•UTRGV Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers Coach Brian Gamble helped Incarnate Word start a new program as the Defensive Line Coach, joining the program in 2008 ahead of its inaugural season in 2009.

History of College Football in the Rio Grande Valley

Palm Bowl

•McAllen Memorial Stadium previously played host to the Palm Bowl seven times from 1978 through 1985. The first two games, in 1978 and 1979, were the NAIA National Championship Game. The last five games, held from 1981 through 1985, were the NCAA Division II Championship Game.

12/8/84	Troy	18	North Dakota State 17 4,500
12/14/85	North Dakota State	35	North Alabama 7 6,000

Junior Colleges

•The Rio Grande Valley once had two junior college football teams, with the first known meetings between the two occurring in 1928, when Edinburg College defeated The Junior College of the Lower Rio Grande Valley, in Edinburg and the Junior College of the Lower Rio Grande Valley beating Edinburg College in Brownsville. The Junior College of the Lower Rio Grande Valley was formed and began sponsoring football in 1926.

•Edinburg College was formed as a junior college in Edinburg in 1927 and competed in football under head coach J.D. Foster from 1927-30, with known records of 4-2-3 in 1927 and 5-2 in 1928.

•Among the players on the inaugural Edinburg College squad was Lou Hassell, a tackle who served as team captain as a sophomore before earning a scholarship to Rice and earning All-Southwest Conference honors. He later returned to the Valley to serve on the Pan American Board of Regents. A 2014 inductee into the UTRGV Athletics Hall of Honor, Hassell established an endowed scholarship that goes to the male student-athlete with the highest GPA each year. Although Hassell has passed on, the scholarship is still given in his name today.

•Another player on the inaugural Edinburg College squad was John McCauley, a triple-threat fullback who played for the team from 1927-28 and went on to earn All-American honors while leading Rice to the 1934 Southwest Conference Championship.

•In 1930, Edinburg College and The Junior College of the Lower Rio Grande Valley met in the Texas Junior College Championship Game at Brownsville High School's Tucker Field. The Junior College of the Lower Rio Grande Valley won 63-0 to complete an undefeated season, with their lone non-win coming in a 6-6 tie again Texas A&M's freshmen team.

•After a hiatus due to the Great Depression and World War II, football returned in 1947 at Edinburg Junior College, which had changed its name from Edinburg College in 1933. Bobby Cannon became head coach as Edinburg Junior College competed in the South Texas Junior College Conference against teams that included Brownsville Junior College, which changed its name from The Junior College of the Lower Rio Grande Valley in 1931. The 1947 Edinburg Junior College squad featured 35 players while the 1948 team had a 28-player roster.

•After another name change, the football team continued to compete from 1948-50 as Edinburg Regional College before the board of trustees voted to drop the program on May 9, 1951.

•Jim Brooks was initially hired as the head football coach at Edinburg Regional College, the predecessor to UTRGV legacy institution Pan American College, in 1950, coaching the team's final season before becoming the department chair of health and physical education during the transition to becoming a baccalaureate college. Brooks was then hired as the first athletic director in university history, spending 31 years in that role and as athletic director emeritus (1973-83) at Pan American College and Pan American University.

•Brownsville Junior College put its football team on hiatus in 1933 due to the Great Depression but brought it back for the 1938 and 1939 seasons before again halting the program until 1947 due to World War II. Brownsville Junior College changed its name to Texas Southmost College in 1950 and is known to have fielded a football team in the 1950s. It is unclear when Texas Southmost College dropped football.

2025 Preseason Notes

•UTRGV has one of the highest concentrations of Texas high school football alumni in the nation, with 85 student-athletes (75.89%) who played Texas high school football, including 12 from the Rio Grande Valley.
