Last Meeting vs. Norfolk State

Sept. 19, 2015 - Marshall 45, Norfolk State 7

Marshall quarterback Chase Litton (Tampa, Fla.) set a new school record by becoming the first freshman quarterback to throw four touchdowns in his first collegiate start. Litton finished the day with 270 passing yards, while completing 24 of 31 passes with no interceptions.

The game started with Norfolk State getting on the board first. The Spartans connected on a 14-yard Greg Hankerson pass to Gerald Johnson for the early touchdown at the 11:58 mark of the first quarter. After allowing the opening drive touchdown, Marshall went on to shut out the Spartans 45-0 the rest of the way.

The Herd scored its first points of the game from the foot of Nick Smith with a 38-yard field goal with 6:36 remaining in the first quarter. Just before the end of the quarter, Litton hooked up with Deandre Reaves (Sterling, Va.) for a 13-yard pass to give Marshall a 10-7 lead heading into the second stanza. The touchdown pass was important for both, as it was Litton's first career passing touchdown and Reaves' first career receiving touchdown.

Marshall continued to control the tempo in the second quarter. At the 11:14 mark, Litton threw a 36-yard pass to Reaves to extend the Marshall lead to 17-7. The Herd wouldn't be done before the half, as Devon Johnson (Richlands, Va.) walked in from the one-yard line for his lone touchdown on the day. MU headed into the half with a 24-7 lead.

With 8:28 in the third quarter, the Herd improved its lead to 31-7 with a Litton touchdown pass to Davonte Allen (Belle Glade, Fla.). The reception was Allen's first touchdown of the season for the redshirt senior. Similar to the first quarter, Marshall scored in the final minute of the quarter with a Keion Davis (Fairburn, Ga.) one-yard touchdown run.

Taj Letman kept his interception streak alive in the fourth quarter as he picked off the Norfolk State quarterback, his third consecutive game with a pick.

It took MU just one play to score after receiving the ball at the Spartans' 25 yard line. Litton hit Justin Hunt (Memphis, Tenn.) on a post pattern to give the Herd's final score of the game at the 9:22 mark of the fourth quarter.

Johnson, the senior running back, finished the day with 122 yards on the ground on 22 carries. It was Johnson's 12th game of his career with 100 yards or more.

In his first career start, Reaves had four catches for 82 yards and two touchdowns.

Raheim Huskey (Gaffney, S.C.) led the Herd with 10 tackles and the Marshall defense the Spartans to just 191 total yards and a 2-for-14 clip on third down.

Norfolk State linebacker Deon King was credited with 21 tackles (4 solo, 17 assists) in the game, the most tackles by a Marshall opponent since 1982 when East Tennessee State's Shannon Depew also made 21 stops.

Coach Charles Huff

Charles Huff is in his second season as Marshall's head football coach. He was named to the position on January 17, 2021. Huff led his first Marshall squad to a 7-6 record and berth in the New Orleans Bowl. His reputation as a developer of nationally prominent players grew with the Freshman All-American honors earned by record-breaking Thundering Herd running back Rasheen Ali and All-Conference USA recognition earned by Ali, offensive linemen Will Ulmer and Alex Mollette, defensive backs Steven Gilmore and Micah Abraham, linebacker Abraham Beauplan, kick returner Jayden Harrison and a dozen more players who received honorable mention recognition. Defensive back Nazeeh Johnson became a seventh round draft pick of the Kansas City Chiefs.

An elite recruiter and developer of talent, Huff's proven track record bolstered head coach Nick Saban's Alabama staff for the 2019 and 2020 seasons.

In his inaugural season in Tuscaloosa, Huff helped Najee Harris rush for a career-best 1,224 yards on 209 carries with 13 rushing touchdowns while catching 27 passes for 304 yards and seven more scores. Brian Robinson Jr. added 441 rushing yards and five scores while then-freshman Keilan Robinson added 254 yards and two touchdowns. In 2020, Harris was a consensus All-American who led the nation in total touchdowns (30), rushing touchdowns (26) and points (180). He also ranked third nationally in rushing yards (1,466) and holds the school record for total touchdowns (57), rushing touchdowns (46) and rushing yards (3,843).

Huff arrived in Tuscaloosa after one season (2018) as the assistant head coach, run-game coordinator and running backs coach at Mississippi State. He boasts 16 years of coaching experience on both the NFL and college levels with stops at Penn State (2014-17), Western Michigan (2013), the Buffalo Bills (2012), Vanderbilt (2011), Hampton (2010), Maryland (2009) and Tennessee State (2006-08).

His one season in Starkville produced an effective rushing attack that averaged 223.6 yards per game to rank second in the SEC and 20th nationally. Kylin Hill and Aeris Williams carried the load at running back, averaging 6.3 and 6.2 yards per carry, respectively, while quarterback Nick Fitzgerald led the team in rushing with 1,121 yards and 13 touchdowns.

A native of Denton, Maryland, Huff spent four seasons (2014-17) as Penn State's running backs coach and special teams coordinator. He recruited and developed one of the game's most electrifying players in running back Saquon Barkley, who in 2018 became the highest drafted NFL running back since Reggie Bush went No. 2 overall in 2006.

Barkley, who was called with the second overall pick by the New York Giants in the 2018 draft, produced a dynamic rookie season, rushing for 1,307 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 91 receptions for 721 yards and four more scores to amass 2,028 yards from scrimmage on his way to Offensive Rookie of the Year honors at season's end.

Numerous records fell at the running back position and on special teams under Huff's guidance at Penn State. Barkley, a 2017 consensus All-American, became the first Big Ten running back in history to win Offensive Player of the Year honors twice. A Walter Camp National Player of the Year finalist, Barkley ranked second nationally in all-purpose yards in 2017 (2,329).

The 2016 campaign saw the Nittany Lions claim the Big Ten Championship and it was Huff who mentored two record-breakers. Barkley broke the Penn State sophomore record for rushing yards (1,496), all-purpose yards (1,972) and points scored (132), while junior kicker Tyler Davis collected All-Big Ten first-team honors after tying the league's single-season record for kicking points (128) and breaking the school record for field goals by a junior (22) and consecutive field goals made (18).

Huff recruited Barkley to Penn State, and his freshman season of 2015 was spectacular. The Freshman All-American broke the school's single-season freshman rushing record with 1,076 yards. He was named the Big Ten Network's Big Ten Freshman of the Year in the process.

He spent the 2013 season at Western Michigan as the running backs coach and helped the unit nearly double its rushing yards from 2012.

Huff spent the 2012 season in the NFL as the assistant running backs coach for the Buffalo Bills. He helped C.J. Spiller to his first career 1,000-yard rushing campaign and a Pro Bowl invitation.

In 2011, Huff was on James Franklin's 2011 staff at Vanderbilt as the offensive quality control coach. Huff and Franklin also worked together at Maryland in 2009, when Huff was the assistant offensive line coach. Huff also mentored NFL first-round pick Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie as the tight ends and special teams coach at Tennessee State from 2007-08.

Huff graduated in 2005 from Hampton University where he served as a team captain, starting 12 games at center as a senior in 2005. He also played guard, fullback and tight end in his career.

Huff lives in Huntington with his wife Jessica and their sons, BJ and Beau.

Protecting the home turf

Marshall is nationally known for being one of the toughest places to play in college football. The program has won 81.2 percent (173-40) of its home games in Joan C. Edwards Stadium, the fifth-highest mark in the country.

Top FBS home stadium winning percentages:

- 1) Alabama (Bryant-Denny, 1929) 284-54-3 .837
- 2) Boise State (Albertsons, 1970) 277-60 .822
- 3) Oklahoma (Gaylord Family, 1923) 414-87-15 .8169
- 4) Georgia Southern (Paulson, 1984) 205-46 .8167
- 5) Marshall (Joan C. Edwards, 1991) 173-40 .812

That turf is brand new

Marshall's game with Norfolk State is the Thundering Herd's first on its newly installed playing surface.

Three honored as preseason All-Sun Belt

Running back Rasheen Ali (R-sophomore; Cleveland, Ohio), linebacker Abraham Beauplan (R-senior; Boynton Beach, Fla.), and defensive back Steven Gilmore (senior; Rock Hill, S.C.) received recognition on the official Sun Belt preseason all-conference teams, voted on by the league's coaches.

Ali was named to the first-team offense following a 2021 campaign in which he rushed for 1,401 yards and led the nation with 25 touchdowns.

Beauplan and Gilmore were both recognized on the second-team defense. Beauplan led Marshall with 110 tackles in 2021, including a team-high 11 tackles for loss and 2.5 quarterback sacks. Gilmore led the Thundering Herd with three interceptions last season while breaking up eight passes and recording 52 tackles. Beauplan received first-team All-Conference USA recognition in 2021 and Gilmore was a second-team selection.

Ali garners national acclaim, but sidelined early

On August 23, Marshall Coach Charles Huff announced that running back Rasheen Ali (R-sophomore, Cleveland, Ohio) would be away from the team at the start of the 2022 season.

Upon his return, following a freshman campaign in which he recorded one of the top seasons of all time by a Thundering Herd running back, Ali will sneak up on no one in 2022.

Ali has been named to the 2022 preseason watch lists for the Maxwell Award (national player of the year), the Walter Camp Award (national player of the year), the Doak Walker Award (top running back), the Paul Hornung Award (most versatile), and the Wuerffel Trophy (community service). Ali has also been named a second-team preseason All-American by the Pro Football Network (PFN).

In 2021, Ali rushed the football 250 times for 1,401 yards and 23 touchdowns, caught 46 passes for 342 yards and one touchdown, and took his only kickoff return of the season for a touchdown (97 yards against Appalachian State).

Ali finished No. 1 in the nation with 25 touchdowns scored and tied for No. 1 in the nation with 11.5 point scored per game (Breece Hall, Iowa State). He tied for No. 1 in the nation with 23 rushing touchdowns (Tyler Allgeier, BYU) and was No. 10 in the nation with a rushing average of 107.8 yards per game. He finished No. 10 in the nation in all-purpose yardage with an average of 140.9 yards per game.

Ali's 2021 accolades included first-team Freshman All-American honors from the Football Writers Association (all purpose), second-team All-American honors from the Pro Football Network (running back), and first-team All-Conference USA honors (running back).

Among all-time Marshall freshmen, Ali is No. 2 with 25 total touchdowns (Randy Moss, 29 in 1996), No. 2 with his 1,840 all-purpose yards (Randy Moss, 2,350 in 1996) and No. 1 with his 23 rushing touchdowns and 1,401 rushing yards.

Herd Notables

Next men up

With Rasheen Ali out of action to begin the season, Khalan Laborn (6-senior; Virginia Beach, Va.) and Ethan Payne (sophomore; Poca, W.Va.) are listed as the top two running backs on the Marshall depth chart.

Laborn is a 2022 transfer from Florida State. He last played for the Seminoles in 2019, when he carried the football 63 times for 297 yards and 4 touchdowns. As a senior at Bishop Sullivan High School in 2016 he was ranked as the No. 1 prospect in the state of Virginia and as one of the top running back prospects in the nation.

Payne appeared in 11 games as a true freshman in the 2021 season. As a junior tailback at Poca High School, Payne won the 2019 Kennedy Award, which goes to the top high school player in West Virginia from the West Virginia Sports Writers Association. That season Payne rushed for 2,845 yards and 49 touchdowns, averaging more than 13 yards per carry and 237 yards per game.

Colombi gets the nod at quarterback

After a training camp battle to determine who would become Marshall's starting quarterback, Coach Charles Huff announced on August 25th that the job will go to Henry Colombi (R-senior; Fort Lauderdale, Fla.). Colombi is a first-year member of the Thundering Herd - he transferred to Marshall from Texas Tech, where he played in 2020 and 2021 after spending the first two years of his college career at Utah State.

In 2021 Colombi played in seven games, starting five, for the Red Raiders. He completed 96-of-149 passes (.644) for 1,291 yards and 5 touchdowns, and also rushed 36 times for 66 yards and a pair of touchdowns.

In his college career prior to Marshall (2018-19 at Utah State and 2020-21 at Texas Tech), Colombi had completed 258-of-384 passes (.672) for 2,816 yards, 15 touchdowns, and 10 interceptions. He rushed the football 114 times for 308 yards and another 5 touchdowns. He made nine starts, all at Texas Tech.

Number two on the Marshall QB depth chart is Cam Fancher (R-freshman; Huber Heights, Ohio). Fancher saw limited action in 2021 with appearances against North Carolina Central and Florida International, and was able to preserve his redshirt status. On the year he completed 3-of-6 passes for 50 yards and carried the football five times for 18 yards.

Gammage Damage

Wide receiver Corey Gammage (R-junior; Delray Beach, Fla.) has led Marshall in receptions and receiving yards in each of the last two seasons. In 2020 he led the team with 35 catches for 409 yards and four touchdowns, and then did so again in 2021 with 78 receptions for 878 yards and two touchdowns. The 78 receptions last season land in a tie for No. 13 on the all-time Marshall single-season list.

If Gammage were to lead the team in receptions and receiving yards in 2022, he would become Marshall's first team receiving leader for three consecutive seasons since Tommy Shuler from 2012-14.

Heading into the 2022 season, Gammage has caught 126 passes at Marshall (No. 19 on the Herd's all-time list) for 1,474 yards and 7 touchdowns.

Marshall career receptions leaders

1.	322	Tommy Shuler	2011-14
2.	314	Josh Davis	2001-04

17.	139	Troy Brown	1991-92
18.	133	Tyre Brady	2017-18
19.	126	Corey Gammage	2019-present

Herd Notables

Some new faces up front

It's not often that a team has to replace more than 100 career starts due to the graduation of only two players, but the Herd must do just that along its offensive line this season. Will Ulmer, the team's left tackle in 2021, made his 57th career start in Marshall's bowl game last December, establishing a new school record for most career starts. Ulmer's classmate, center Alex Mollette, started 46 games during his career. Fellow offensive line seniors Alex Salguero (sal GARE oh, 22 starts) and James Magee (7 starts) also graduated. Marshall graduated a total of 132 starts from its 2021 offensive line.

Mollette was a first-team all-conference selection in 2021 while Ulmer earned second-team recognition.

Right tackle Kendrick Sartor (6-senior; Cincinnati, Ohio) is now the veteran on the Marshall offensive line with 12 career starts prior to 2022.

Always in a (pass) rush

Marshall's defense harassed opposing quarterbacks to the tune of 40 sacks in 2021, totaling 242 yards in losses. The 40 quarterback sacks tied Marshall for No. 15 in the nation, while the yardage lost ranked No. 28.

Players who return to this year's Thundering Herd logged 28 of the 40 sacks from last year. Linebacker Eli Neal (junior; Memphis, Tenn.) led the team with 5.5 sacks a year ago. Defensive lineman Koby Cumberlander (R-senior; Roswell, Ga.) got to the quarterback for 4.5 sacks in 2021 and is the Herd's active leader with 12.5 sacks in his career.

Marshall defenders were also credited with 98 quarterback hurries in 2021, with defensive lineman Elijah Alston (R-sophomore; Chesapeake, Va.) leading the team with 14.

Heading into the 2022 season, Marshall's defensive line includes seven different players who have started at least one game and totals 38 starts among those seven.

Backers Back

Thundering Herd linebackers Abraham Beauplan (R-senior; Boynton Beach, Fla.) and Eli Neal (junior; Memphis, Tenn.) have teamed to harass the opposition repeatedly for more than two years now. Beauplan led Marshall with 110 tackles and 11 tackles for loss on his way to first-team All-Conference USA honors in 2021, while Neal was second on the team with 97 tackles and topped the squad with 5.5 quarterback sacks on his way to honorable mention recognition.

Good genes in the secondary

Marshall defensive backs Steven Gilmore (senior; Rock Hill, S.C.) and Micah Abraham (R-junior; Tampa, Fla.) have combined for 49 Marshall starts heading into the 2022 season - and it's as if they were born to do just that.

Gilmore's older brother Stephon is a five-time NFL Pro Bowler and was the 2019 NFL Defensive Player of the Year for the New England Patriots. Abraham's father Donnie also made the Pro Bowl (2000) and tied for the NFL interceptions lead with seven for the 1999 Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Both Gilmore and Abraham received second-team All-Conference USA honors in 2021.

The Thundering Herd defensive backfield does have to replace three notable performers from last season after the graduations of Nazeeh Johnson (seventh round draft pick of the Kansas City Chiefs, 44 career starts, 302 career tackles) and the team's No. 3 and No. 4 tacklers in 2021, Brandon Drayton and Cory McCoy.

Herd Notables

Time for some new boots

The Thundering Herd will have newcomers taking over the place kicking and punting duties this season. Gone are four-year starting punter Robert LeFevre (luh FEE ver) and Shane Ciucci (CHOO chee), who handled most of the placekicking the last two seasons.

LeFevre finished his career at No. 4 on the all-time Marshall lists both with 221 career punts and with 9,094 career punt yards. His career average of 41.1 yards per punt is No. 6 all time at Marshall.

Ciucci made good on 13-of-19 field goals during his Marshall career and was perfect on his 77 PAT attempts.

As a team, heading into the 2022 season Marshall has made its last 116 PAT attempts, which is the third-longest streak in school history (160 straight from 2013-16 and 156 straight from 2010-13). The current streak of 116 straight began on Sept. 28, 2019 against Cincinnati and includes 23 PATs by Justin Rohrwasser (ROW wasser), 16 by Andrew Sanders and 77 by Ciucci. Marshall's last failed PAT came against Ohio University on Sept. 14, 2019.

While newcomers will handle the kicking and punting duties in 2022, long snapper Zack Appio (nickname Snappio) (6-senior; Normal, Ill.) enters his third consecutive season as the placement and punt snapper.

Proven kick returners

Despite losing its leading punt returner from 2021 with the graduation of Willie Johnson, wide receiver Talik Keaton (R-junior; Sarasota, Fla.) gives Marshall an experienced option for those chores. Prior to being slowed by an injury last season, Keaton had won first-team All-Conference USA honors as a punt returner in both 2019 and 2020. On August 31, 2019, in the first quarter of his Marshall debut, Keaton returned a punt 67 yards for a touchdown against VMI (it was already his third return of the game). Heading into the 2022 season, Keaton is already in Marshall's all-time Top 15 in career punt returns (36), career punt return yards (318), and career punt return average (8.8 yards per attempt).

Two returning members of the Herd returned kickoffs for touchdowns last season - Rasheen Ali returned one 97 yards for a touchdown at Appalachian State and Jayden Harrison (R-sophomore; Antioch, Tenn.) returned one 99 yards for a touchdown at Florida Atlantic. Harrison was named second-team All-Conference USA as a kick returner.

Everett named to National Football Operations Committee

Marshall Football Chief of Staff Sharrod Everett has been named to the National Football Operations Committee.

The committee is a national group of football administrators made up of 15 members and 13 trustees around the country. Everett will represent the Sun Belt Conference's football administrators and operations personnel.

"I'm extremely excited to serve in this capacity on the National Football Operations Committee," said Everett. "I look forward to representing Marshall University and my colleagues of the Sun Belt Conference. I'm grateful for the opportunity to help grow and move our profession forward."

Everett enters his second season with the Thundering Herd after administrative stops at Florida State, Oregon, South Florida, WKU, Northwestern, Tennessee State, the Big Ten Conference and Xavier.

"I'm really excited for Sharrod and his family to be selected to such an elite group of the country's top administrators," Marshall head coach Charles Huff said. "For Sharrod to represent the Sun Belt Conference and, more importantly, Marshall University on this committee speaks not only to his level of expertise and experience but also to the respect he has gained of his peers in the industry. Sharrod is one of the country's brightest administrators and this just adds to his list of accomplishments."

2022 staff updates

Marshall head coach Charles Huff announced updates to his coaching and support staff rosters for the 2022 season.

Among the returning members of the coaching staff, Clint Trickett has been promoted to the program's Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks Coach. His 2021 post of Passing Game Coordinator/Wide Receivers Coach has been filled by Jovon Bouknight.

Bill Legg's title is now Associate Head Coach/Tight Ends Coach, while Linebackers Coach Shannon Morrison has added Assistant Head Coach to his title.

Johnathan Galante joins Marshall as its Special Teams Coordinator and Chevis Jackson will coach the Thundering Herd's cornerbacks.

Joining Ben Ashford's strength and conditioning staff this season are Wil Rankin and Scottie Ethington.

Marc Votteler has taken over as MU's new General Manager and Katelyn Lambert is the Herd's Director of On-Campus Recruiting.

Scott Fahey and Edmund Kugbila have joined the program as Offensive Graduate Assistants, while Quentin Hall and Dalton Williams have done the same for the Herd's Offensive Quality Control unit. Former player Mark Shaver has joined the Thundering Herd in the Defensive Quality Control area.

"I'm extremely excited about these new additions to our organization," said Huff. "One of the most critical parts of any successful program is hiring the right personnel. The pieces that we have added will help our organization continue to close the gap. These individuals fully understand the Marshall Family and this community's landscape and we all are excited to start this upcoming season!"

The Thundering Herd's staff rosters are:

Coaching Staff

Charles Huff, Head Coach
Clint Trickett, Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
Lance Guidry, Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
Johnathan Galante, Special Teams Coordinator
Bill Legg, Associate Head Coach/Tight Ends
Shannon Morrison, Assistant Head Coach/Linebackers

Hang on!

Since the beginning of the 2010 season, the Thundering Herd has posted a combined 92-60 (.605) record. When Marshall has an edge in turnover margin, it is 49-12 (.803). When the turnover number is equal, Marshall is 23-8 (.742). When the opponent is more sure-handed, the Herd is 20-40 (.333).

Of Marshall's 152 games in that span, the Herd has played 78 while committing zero or one turnover, amassing a record of 58-20 (.744) in those games.

Marshall is 27-5 (.844) when it has a turnover margin of +2 or better over that span.

Marshall has won nine in a row when winning the turnover battle by three or more.

Marshall is 29-7 (.806) when it has zero turnovers, and the Herd has won 16 of its last 19 when it does not make a miscue. Marshall has won 20 of its last 24 when winning the turnover battle and the 2021 win over Charlotte was the 11th straight win when MU quarterbacks have two-plus touchdown passes without an interception.

The Thundering Herd had five takeaways in 2018 wins over Eastern Kentucky and Florida Atlantic, giving the program nine consecutive wins when it forces four or more turnovers.

First Blood

The Thundering Herd has now won 38 of its last 42 games when scoring first and has won 24 of its last 28 when leading at the end of the first quarter. Related: since the beginning of the 2013 season, the Herd is 58-5 (.921) when scoring first.

Defensive numbers to know

The Herd has won 53 of its last 61 when holding offenses to 5.0 yards per play or fewer. The Herd has won 33 of its last 36 when allowing fewer than 300 yards. Twenty-two (22) times in the last 12-plus seasons has the Herd allowed 125 yards passing or fewer. Marshall is 19-3 (.864) in those games. Marshall is 37-5 (.881) when the defense does not allow a rushing touchdown during that timeframe as well.

Feel the rush

The Herd is now 54-10 (.844) in the last nine-plus seasons when rushing for 150+ yards and 40-6 (.870) the last eight-plus years with 200+ on the ground. Marshall is 12-0 since 2010 when rushing for 300+ yards, as it did with 321 in the 49-28 win over Charlotte in 2021.

3+

Marshall's 49 points in the win over Charlotte in 2021 makes the Herd 55-5 (.917) in its last 60 games when scoring 30+ points.

Herd Finishes

Since 2010, the Herd has an excellent record of finishing off its opponents once it takes the lead. Marshall is 73-11 (.869) when it scores first, 63-11 (.851) when leading at the end of the first quarter, 77-7 (.917) when leading at halftime and 78-8 (.907) when leading at the end of the third period. In fact, Marshall has won 63 of its last 68 contests when it has the halftime lead.
