FIRST-AND-10 –

• The ULM Warhawks (2-6 overall, 0-5 Sun Belt Conference) begin a stretch of three-out-of-four games on the road to close the regular season with a trip to Southern Miss (1-7, 0-5) at 3 p.m. Saturday at M.M. Roberts Stadium in Hattiesburg. It marks ULM's first trip to Hattiesburg since a 21-20 non-conference win on Sept. 8, 2018.

• Saturday's game marks the eighth meeting between ULM and Southern Miss. The Golden Eagles lead the all-time series, 5-2, including a 3-2 record in M.M. Roberts Stadium.

Last season, Southern Miss became bowl eligible with a 20-10 win over ULM at Malone Stadium in the first-ever meeting between the teams as conference opponents on Nov. 26. USM running back Frank Gore Jr. rushed for 199 yards and one touchdown on 24 carries, while quarterback Trey Lowe III completed 10 of 16 passes for 170 yards and a TD. ULM quarterback Chandler Rogers was 17-for-27 passing for 122 yards and a TD while rushing for 48 yards.

Saturday's game also marks the first meeting in Hattiesburg since Sept. 8, 2018, when ULM escaped M.M. Roberts Stadium with a 21-20 victory. Quarterback Caleb Evans hit 15-of-28 throws for 195 yards, including a pair of touchdown strikes to Marcus Green (49 and 4 yards), in ULM's road win while linebacker Cortez Sisco Jr. iced the game with an interception at the Warhawk 35-yard line in the waning seconds.

• ULM's 2023 roster features 10 players from the state of Mississippi: safety Andre Mack (Madison/Madison Central), wide receiver Max McGee (Hattiesburg/Presbyterian Christian School), center Zarian McGill (Taylorsville), offensive guard Jay Mickle (Picayune), outside linebacker Travor Randle (Greenwood), offensive guard Markell Smith (Biloxi), wide receiver Bud Tolbert (Water Valley), nose guard Jaylan Ware (Starkville), offensive lineman Matt Williams (Nesbit/Horn Lake) and running back Isaiah Woullard (Hattiesburg/Presbyterian Christian School).

• In his second collegiate appearance and first career start, ULM freshman quarterback Blake Murphy had his second-straight 300-yard passing game, throwing for exactly 300 yards on 25-for-44 passing with two touchdowns last Saturday against Arkansas State. It is the first back-to-back 300 yard passing. Murphy had a hand in five of ULM's eight explosive plays, completing a 32-yard TD pass to tight end Nolan Quinlan in the third quarter and also completed passes of 48 yards to wide receiver Bugs Mortimer and 33 yards to wide receiver NyNy Davis. Nine different ULM receivers caught a pass in the game.

• With 300 passing yards last Saturday against Arkansas State, freshman quarterback Blake Murphy became the first ULM quarterback to throw for 300 or more yards in consecutive games since Caleb Evans threw for 346 yards vs. Coastal Carolina on Nov. 23, 2019, and 330 yards at the Ragin' Cajuns on Nov. 30, 2019. Murphy's 320 passing yards on Oct. 21 at Georgia Southern were the most by a ULM freshman quarterback since Evans threw for 279 against South Alabama on Nov. 5, 2016. Murphy's back-to-back 300 passing yard performances is the first by a ULM true freshman since at least 1977.

• Running backs Isaiah Woullard and Hunter Smith continue to pick up a large number of their rushing yards after contact per PFF. • Biletnikoff Award candidate Tyrone Howell leads the Warhawks in receptions (37), receiving yards (398) and touchdowns (six). The 6-foot-3, 204-pound Howell is tied for the Sun Belt Conference lead with six receiving TDs (24th in NCAA FBS) and is on the conference leaderboard for receptions per game (10th at 4.6 per game). His 20 first-down receptions also lead the Warhawks. He has led the team in receptions in five of the first eight games.

scoring plays of 14, 3 and 8 yards from Jiya Wright. He had nine receptions for 67 yards against Army in the season opener, including his one-handed, game-winning 9-yard grab from Hunter Herring with 2:48 left in the fourth quarter.

- Since the insertion of freshman quarterback Blake Murphy into the Warhawk offense, ULM's slot receivers have come to life.

Over the past two games, sophomore wide receiver Bugs Mortimer has 11 catches for 211 yards (19.2 yards per catch) and has 133 yards after the catch. He has 151 yards after the catch on the season. The 5-foot-9, 170-pound Mortimer had five catches for 76 yards with 54 yards after the catch last Saturday vs. Arkansas State, with a long gain of 48 yards. He had six grabs for a team-best and career-high 135 receiving yards and had a career-best 150 all-purpose yards against Georgia Southern on Oct. 21, marking the first time in his career he has topped 100 yards in receiving or all-purpose yards. He had receptions of 54 and 38 yards, both in the second half. He totaled a career-high 79 receiving yards after the catch. Mortimer has 15 catches for 291 yards (19.4 yards per catch) while playing in all eight games in 2023. Ten of his 15 receptions have resulted in first downs.

Alred Luke added two catches for 23 yards, including 22 yards after the catch, last Saturday against A-State. The 5-foot-8, 180-pound Luke led ULM with a career-high seven receptions while adding career bests with 76 receiving yards and 109 all-purpose yards on Oct. 21 at Georgia Southern. It was the second time in his career to top 100 all-purpose yards, joining his 135 yard effort against Texas State last season. He had a hand in four explosive plays (20-plus yards) against the Eagles, catching passes for 24, 24 and 20 yards while adding a 20-yard kickoff return. Luke now has 12 receptions for 149 yards (12.4 yards per reception) in six games in 2023.

NyNy Davis has a touchdown catch in back-to-back games, the first two TD grabs of his career. The 5-foot-8, 160-pound Davis had three receptions for 43 yards and a 12-yard TD catch last Saturday against A-State. He had four catches for a career-high 78 receiving yards and caught his first career TD pass on a 51-yard bomb from Murphy in the second quarter. The Utah State transfer has caught 14 passes, second-most on the team, for 130 yards (9.3 yards per catch) and one TD.

- The Warhawks lead the Sun Belt Conference and rank among the NCAA FBS leaders in both takeaways (eighth with 17, including 10 interceptions and seven fumble recoveries) and turnover margin (13th at +0.88 per game). With 17 takeaways in eight games, the ULM defense has surpassed its 2022 130-game total of eight (six interceptions and two fumble recoveries). By contrast in 2022, ULM finished 130th in takeaways and 114th in turnover margin (-0.58 pg.) in the NCAA FBS.

The Warhawks recorded multiple takeaways for the fourth time this season with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries in the Oct. 21 38-28 loss at Georgia Southern. The other three such performances came at home (five vs. Army, two vs. Lamar and four vs. App State).

- Outside linebacker Ja'Terious Evans, safety AJ Watts and cornerback David Godsey Jr. have been the biggest ball hawks for ULM in the first half of the 2023 season.

Evans is tied for the Sun Belt Conference lead in interceptions with six other players with three each. The group is part of a tie for 17th in NCAA FBS in total interceptions. Evans' third interception of the season resulted in a 76-yard return for a touchdown on Oct. 14 against Texas State, putting ULM on top 20-9 with 8:57 to play. It was the first pick six for ULM since Quae Drake's interception return for TD at Georgia State on Nov. 12, 2022. It capped a 14-play drive for Texas State. Evans also has recorded interceptions against App State and Army. He also ranks second on the team in tackles with 36 (15 solos, 21 assists) and has three tackles for loss for six yards.

Watts has eight passes defended this season, including six pass break ups and two interceptions. He is tied for sixth in the Sun Belt Conference in passes defended per game at 1.00 per game. Watts' two interceptions, coming against App State and Army, is tied for eighth-most in the SBC.

Godsey Jr. enters Saturday's game at Southern Miss with interceptions in back-to-back games, the first picks of his career. Godsey set up ULM with a chance to complete an improbable rally at Georgia Southern with his first career interception on Oct. 21, and then ended Arkansas State's final drive of the first half with a pick last Saturday. Both interceptions came inside the red zone.

THE LAST MEETING –

Southern Miss 20, ULM 10 (Nov. 26, 2022, in Monroe, Louisiana): ULM hung around into the final quarter, but Southern Miss had the finishing touch Saturday at Malone Stadium. On a wet and dreary day, the Golden Eagles achieved bowl eligibility with a 20-10 win over the Warhawks in ULM's season finale.

Statistically, the Golden Eagles (6-6, 4-4 Sun Belt) were dominant, yet there was ULM (4-8, 3-5 Sun Belt) tied at 10-10 heading into the fourth quarter. But with a field goal, a blocked punt and a touchdown run by running back Frank Gore Jr., USM finally found some breathing room. Gore ran for a career-high 199 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries, part of an offense that gained 448 yards overall with 265 on the ground.

Defensively, USM limited ULM to 231 yards and 13 first downs, registered four sacks and 13 tackles for losses. The Warhawks ran 33 times for 109 yards, averaging 3.3 yards per attempt.

Quarterback Chandler Rogers completed 17-of-27 passes for 122 yards and one touchdown while running for 47 yards on 14 attempts. Tyrone Howell made four catches for 43 yards. Linebacker Michael Batton led ULM's defense with 10 tackles. In his final game at ULM, linebacker Zack Woodard made nine stops.

Southern Miss took the game's opening kickoff and scored on a five-play, 75-yard drive to go ahead 7-0. Quarterback Trey Lowe III found Jakarius Caston for a 29-yard touchdown pass with 12:41 left in the first. The Golden Eagles led 10-0 with 4:41 to play in the first after Briggs Bourgeois kicked a 20-yard field goal. USM drove 69 yards in 11 plays for the score.

The Warhawks cut the lead to 10-7 on a 23-yard touchdown pass from Rogers to Andrew Henry, who caught the middle screen and weaved his way through the defense. Henry's second career touchdown reception capped a 12-play, 73-yard drive that ULM started in the first quarter and finished with 13:26 left in the second. Southern Miss missed out on a scoring opportunity near the end of the half as time expired with the Golden Eagles at the ULM 1. Tight end Cole Cavallo slipped and fell at the 1 after catching a pass from Lowe and USM was unable to stop the clock in time to run another play.

Unable to get much going on the slick turf, the Warhawks were limited to 82 yards and five first downs during the first half. Rogers completed 7-of-10 passes for 61 yards and one touchdown. ULM rushed for just 21 yards on 12 attempts. Gore rushed for 113 yards on 14 carries in the first half, providing a chunk of his USM's 273 offensive yards.

After ULM went three-and-out with the second-half kickoff, the Golden Eagles were stuffed on fourth down at the Warhawks' 32. Calum Sutherland's 37-yard field goal tied the game at 10-10 with 5:24 remaining in the third quarter. A 34-yard run by Rogers to the USM 33 was the pivotal play on ULM's nine-play, 49-yard drive.

As the third quarter was ending, the Golden Eagles flipped the field with a 59-yard pass from Lowe to Latreal Jones, who raced to the ULM 30. However, the Warhawks held tight in the red zone and limited USM to a 24-yard field goal by Bourgeois.

The Golden Eagles led 13-10 with 12:30 remaining after an eight-play, 82-yard drive. USM's Brenan Toles blocked Devyn McCormick's punt with 7:41 left in the game and the Eagles recovered at the ULM 33. One play later, Gore rumbled 33 yards for a touchdown to increase the margin to 20-10 with 7:32 to go.

THE LAST MEETING AT M.M. ROBERTS STADIUM –

ULM 21, Southern Miss 20 (Sept. 8, 2018 in Hattiesburg, Mississippi): ULM was clinging to a one-point lead Saturday night at "The Rock" and had a defense that had come through time and time again. But the Warhawks needed one last stand to claim a win at Southern Miss.

Continuing a game-long trend of defensive playmaking, linebacker Cortez Sisco Jr. made a leaping interception in the waning seconds and sealed a 21-20 victory for ULM at M.M. Roberts Stadium. The Warhawks (2-0) registered five sacks and made four takeaways in one of their best defensive efforts in recent memory.

Defensive end Donald Louis Jr. made six tackles, with three for losses including two sacks, and forced a fumble. Southern Miss (1-1) had the ball second-and-8 at the ULM 45 before Sisco Jr. went high for his game-saving pick at the ULM 35, then raced 46 yards back to the USM 19 with seven seconds left. The Warhawks ran off the final seconds in the victory formation.

ULM's defense delivered on a night where the offense wasn't as effective as usual. Southern Miss ran 80 plays to the Warhawks' 58 and outgained ULM, 436-354. Still, ULM did just enough as Mississippi native Marcus Green caught four passes for 96 yards and two touchdowns, and Austin "Bus" Vaughn gained 85 yards on nine attempts. Quarterback Caleb Evans hit 15-of-28 attempts for 195 yards and two scores with one interception.

ULM's defense rebounded nicely from a jolting start. Southern Miss scored on its first play as Jaylond Adams took a short pass from Jack Abraham and scampered 75 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead 13 seconds into the game. ULM tied the score 7-7 with its first monster defensive play as Sam Miller recovered an Abraham fumble in the end zone. On the third-and-9 attempt, Louis sacked Abraham and knocked the ball loose with 12:05 left in the first quarter.

ULM parlayed another turnover into points later in the first quarter after Marcus Hubbard's interception. Immediately after the takeaway, Evans went over the top to Green for a 49-yard score to put ULM ahead 14-7 with 4:37 showing in the opening period.

Parker Shaunfield's 42-yard field goal with 2:01 to go in the first brought Southern Miss within 14-10. The Golden Eagles regained their edge, 17-14, with a 5-yard touchdown pass from Abraham to Quez Watkins to wrap a seven-play, 64-yard drive with 6:36 left in the half. Abraham completed 31-of-46 attempts for 378 yards and two scores despite the heavy pressure.

Louis registered his second sack for a 9-yard loss late in the second quarter to push Southern Miss back and Shaunfield missed a 53-yard field-goal attempt with 38 seconds remaining.

Vaughn provided a spark for ULM as he opened the second half with a 56-yard burst up the middle down to the Southern Miss 9-yard line. Two plays later, Evans hit Green for a 4-yard touchdown pass and ULM was up again 21-17.

Southern Miss went 45 yards in 14 plays but settled for another Shaunfield field goal from 47 yards out with 6:51 to go in the third. ULM's Kenderick Marbles, who had three pass break-ups, busted up a pass at the goal line to help the Warhawks defend the red zone. The defense provided another opportunity when Miller sacked Abraham and forced a fumble, recovered by Mason Husmann. But two plays later, Evans was picked off on an underthrown ball at the USM 8.

Southern Miss started the fourth quarter with a fresh set of downs at the ULM 46, but the defense rallied again. Sisco stopped T-Rod Daniels on fourth-and-1 at the 39 for another pivotal play.

Vaughn rushed for 19 yards on three carries as the Warhawks moved to the USM 35 in nine plays, but Craig Ford's 42-yard field-goal try was wide left with 9:15 remaining. The Golden Eagles took over and advanced to the ULM 34 but missed their chance to regain the edge when Shaunfield missed a 49-yard field with 5:42 left in the game.

ULM/SOUTHERN MISS CONNECTIONS –

- Southern Miss head coach Will Hall began attending the Florida State Quarterback Camp as a 12-year-old where Terry Bowden served as one of the coaches. Following his graduation from North Alabama, Hall became an instructor at the quarterback camp.

Hall and Bowden met twice as head coaches during the 2011 season. Hall won during the regularseason match-up, leading West Alabama over North Alabama, 31-26, but dropped a 43-27 decision to Bowden's team in the NCAA Division II playoffs.

- Two current ULM assistant coaches previously worked at Southern Miss, including offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Matt Kubik, who held the same post for Southern Miss in 2020, and wide receivers coach John Carr, who was the school's director of football operations from 2013-14. ULM's Director of Football Relations Pat McGee worked as a recruiting coordinator under former USM head coach Larry Fedora.

THE LAST TIME OUT –

Arkansas State 34, ULM 24 (Oct. 28, 2023, in Monroe, Louisiana): A fourth-quarter surge helped Arkansas State outlast ULM 34-24 on a warm afternoon at Malone Stadium.

The Red Wolves (4-4, 2-2 Sun Belt) claimed their 14th straight win over the Warhawks (2-6, 0-5 Sun Belt), a streak that dates back to 2010. ULM dropped its sixth-straight game this season after a 2-0 start.

Freshman quarterback Blake Murphy, who saw his first collegiate action a week ago, made his first start in ULM's Homecoming game.

Murphy completed 25-of-44 passes for 300 yards and two touchdowns. He passed for 320 yards in his debut at Georgia Southern, positioning him to start over Jiya Wright.

ULM led 16-10 after scoring on the opening drive of the third quarter before Arkansas State regained the lead 17-16 in the period. The Red Wolves outscored ULM 17-8 in the fourth quarter to pull away.

The Warhawks committed nine penalties for 75 yards and had three touchdowns negated by flags. ULM lost a 73-yard punt return, a 33-yard touchdown pass and a blocked punt return for a score to penalties.

Arkansas State responded quickly, using a 58-yard pass play to flip the field before Jaylen Raynor scored on a 2-yard touchdown run with 1:36 left in the opening period. Raynor, also a true freshman starting quarterback, completed 15-of-30 passes for 298 yards with one touchdown pass and one interception.

The Warhawks needed 13 plays to cover 62 yards and add a 30-yard field goal by McCormick to cut the deficit to 7-6 with 10:45 left in the quarter. Murphy hit a 33-yard pass to NyNy Davis and ULM converted on fourth-and-1 to the ASU 15 to keep the drive flowing.

ULM regained the lead at 9-7 on a 20-yard field goal from McCormick with 5:27 left in the half. Murphy's 24-yard pass to tight end Nolan Quinlan to the ASU 22 was the big play in ULM's 10-play, 61-yard scoring drive.

Arkansas State's Dominic Zvada gave his team a leg up with a 49-yard field goal with 2:02 remaining in the second quarter. The Red Wolves drove 33 yards in eight plays to go ahead 10-9, which stood as the halftime score.

ULM outgained Arkansas State 207-184 in the first half, as Murphy completed 12-of-20 passes for 158 yards. His most productive target was Mortimer, who caught three balls for 60 yards.

The third quarter started with a pair of marathon marches by both offenses.

The Warhawks took the opening drive 75 yards in 12 plays, scoring on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Murphy to Nolan Quinlan, the first in the tight end's ULM career. ULM led 16-10 with 9:27 remaining in the third quarter.

Arkansas State countered with a long scoring drive of its own, moving 75 yards in 13 plays. Raynor's 5-yard touchdown pass to Courtney Jackson with 4:10 left in the third put the Red Wolves up 17-16.

Zak Wallace ripped off a 34-yard touchdown run to cap a swift, three-play, 81-yard drive and Arkansas State's lead increased to 24-16 with 12:41 left in regulation. Corey Rucker's 36-yard reception on the previous play set up the scoring dash.

After a ULM punt, Wallace scored again on a 1-yard touchdown run with 9:28 to go. The Red Wolves covered 72 yards in five plays, including a 38-yard pass from Raynor to Jackson to set up the TD plunge. Wallace finished with 118 rushing yards and two scores on 18 attempts.

The Red Wolves added a 42-yard field goal by Zvada with 2:08 left in the game for a 34-16 score.

Murphy orchestrated a nine-play, 75-yard drive and hit Davis on a 12-yard touchdown pass for ULM's final points with 22 seconds remaining. Murphy ran in the 2-point conversion to set the 34-24 final margin.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS –

- The Warhawks lead the Sun Belt Conference and rank among the NCAA FBS leaders in both takeaways (eighth with 17, including 10 interceptions and seven fumble recoveries) and turnover margin (13th at +0.88 per game). With 17 takeaways in eight games, the ULM defense has surpassed its 2022 12-game total of eight (six interceptions and two fumble recoveries). By contrast in 2022, ULM finished 130th in takeaways and 114th in turnover margin (-0.58 pg.) in the NCAA FBS.

The Warhawks recorded multiple takeaways for the fourth time this season with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries in the Oct. 21 38-28 loss at Georgia Southern. The other three such performances came at home (five vs. Army, two vs. Lamar and four vs. App State).

Outside linebacker Ja'Terious Evans, safety AJ Watts and cornerback David Godsey Jr. have been the biggest ball hawks for ULM in the first half of the 2023 season.

Evans is tied for the Sun Belt Conference lead in interceptions with six other players with three each. The group is part of a tie for 17th in NCAA FBS in total interceptions. Evans' third interception of the season resulted in a 76-yard return for a touchdown on Oct. 14 against Texas State, putting ULM on top 20-9 with 8:57 to play. It was the first pick six for ULM since Quae Drake's interception return for TD at Georgia State on Nov. 12, 2022. It capped a 14-play drive for Texas State. Evans also has recorded interceptions against App State and Army. He also ranks second on the team in tackles with 36 (15 solos, 21 assists) and has three tackles for loss for six yards.

Watts has eight passes defended this season, including six pass break ups and two interceptions. He is tied for sixth in the Sun Belt Conference in passes defended per game at 1.00 per game. Watts' two interceptions, coming against App State and Army, is tied for eighth-most in the SBC.

Godsey Jr. enters Saturday's game at Southern Miss with interceptions in back-to-back games, the first picks of his career. Godsey set up ULM with a chance to complete an improbable rally at Georgia Southern with his first career interception on Oct. 21, and then ended Arkansas State's final drive of the first half with a pick last Saturday. Both interceptions came inside the red zone.

- In addition to valuing the football, ULM continues to play disciplined football. The Warhawks are second in the Sun Belt Conference and listed among the NCAA FBS leaders in fewest penalties (30th, 42), fewest penalties per game (31st, 5.25), fewest penalty yards (44th, 379) and fewest penalty yards per game (47th, 47.38).

MURPHY TAKES COMMAND –

Freshman quarterback Blake Murphy made his first collegiate start last Saturday against Arkansas State, becoming the first true freshman to start at quarterback for ULM since Caleb Evans in 2016. He threw for 300 yards, marking his second-straight 300 yard passing game, on 25 of 44 attempts with two touchdowns against the Red Wolves. He threw scoring strikes of 32 yards to Nolan Quinlan and 12 yards to NyNy Davis.

Murphy is the first ULM quarterback to throw for 300 yards in consecutive games since Evans did so in his final two starts of the 2019, passing for 346 yards vs. Coastal Carolina on Nov. 23, 2019, and 330 yards at the Ragin' Cajuns on Nov. 30, 2019. Murphy's back-to-back 300 yard performances are the first by a ULM true freshman since at least 1977.

He made his collegiate debut on Oct. 21 at Georgia Southern, completing 18-of-33 passes for 320 yards, one TD and one interception. His 320 passing yards were the most by a ULM freshman quarterback since Evans threw for 279 in his starting debut against South Alabama on Nov. 5, 2016. He threw a 51-yard TD pass to Davis in the second quarter for his first career score.

Murphy ranked among the nation's top dual-threat quarterbacks (No. 29) by ESPN after playing four years of varsity football at American Heritage High School in Plantation, Florida. He accounted for 4,752 yards of total offense and 53 touchdowns in his prep career.

SMITH, WOULLARD PROVIDE BIG PLAYS WITH RUSHING ATTACK –

Running backs Isaiah Woullard and Hunter Smith continue to pick up a large number of their rushing yards after contact. The duo have posted 766 of ULM's 1,269 rushing yards (60 percent) and four of the six rushing touchdowns through the first eight games of the season. Woullard has 79 carries for 384 yards and one TD while Smith has 62 carries for 382 yards and three TDs.

The 5-9, 215-pound Woullard has picked up an impressive 74 percent of his rushing yards after contact (285 of 384), including 30 of his 43 yards last Saturday against Arkansas State, while forcing 13 missed tackles and has 15 first down runs. He scored his first rushing TD as a Warhawk on a 7-yard burst up the middle in the first quarter against App State. Woullard posted his second career 100-yard rushing game against Lamar, finishing with a team-leading 113 yards on 14 attempts. It marked his first since 100-yard performance since 2018 as a true freshman at Ole Miss (107 at Vanderbilt). Last Saturday, Woullard rushed for 43 yards on 11 carries against Arkansas State.

The 5-foot-11, 181-pound Smith leads the team in rushing yards per carry (6.2) after rushing for 382 yards on 62 carries. He leads the team in rushing TDs (3), gains of 15 or more yards (8) and first down runs (15). He has gained 165 of his 382 yards after contact (43 percent) and has produced 16 first downs. Smith opened with season with consecutive 100-yard games in wins over Army (seven rushes for 103 yards, including a 62-yard TD run in the fourth quarter) and Lamar (13 for 101, including a 27-yard TD run to open the scoring). His rushing TD on Oct. 21 against Georgia Southern brought ULM within three points, 31-28, after trailing 31-7 in the second quarter. Smith hurdled a defender early in his run and knocked an Eagle defender into the end zone to finish the score. He rushed for a team-high 60 yards on 13 carries with a long of 24 yards last Saturday against Arkansas State.

ULM lost 87 percent of its ground production (1,258 of 1,448 rushing yards). Gone are the top three rushers from a year ago, who combined for 1,183 yards and 15 rushing touchdowns.

HOWELL BUILDING OFF BREAKOUT 2022 CAMPAIGN –

Biletnikoff Award candidate Tyrone Howell leads the Warhawks in receptions (37), receiving yards (398) and touchdown catches (six). The 6-foot-3, 204-pound Howell is tied for the Sun Belt Conference lead with six receiving TDs (24th in NCAA FBS) and is on the conference leaderboard for receptions per game (10th at 4.6 per game). His 20 first-down receptions also lead the Warhawks. He has led the team in receptions in five of the first eight games.

Howell caught five passes for 37 yards last Saturday vs. Arkansas State. He pulled in three passes for 48 yards and had a 9-yard TD catch on Oct. 21 at Georgia Southern. All three of his receptions resulted in first downs. He caught four passes for 41 yards and a touchdown on Oct. 7 against South Alabama. He hauled in eight passes for 62 yards against App State and matched his career high with three TD receptions, including scoring plays of 14, 3 and 8 yards from Jiya Wright. He had nine receptions for 67 yards against Army in the season opener, including his one-handed, game-winning 9-yard grab from Hunter Herring with 2:48 left in the fourth quarter.

The Warhawks added depth by going to the Mississippi junior college ranks in recruiting, bringing in left guard Jay Mickle, center Matt Williams and right guard Markell Smith. Mickle and Williams were teammates at Northwest Mississippi Community College, where Mickle was a Second-Team NJCAA Division I All-American in 2022 and Williams was honorable mention All-Conference as NWMCC ranked fourth in NJCAA with 2,096 rush yards. Williams made his first career start, filling in for Wilkins at left tackle, against South Alabama. Smith is a transfer from Jones College, where he was an NJCAA All-Region 23 selection in 2022.

WARHAWK DEFENSE RANKS AMONG NCAA FBS LEADERS IN TAKEAWAYS –

ULM's newfound athleticism and speed on the defensive side of the ball has been on display in the first eight-games of the season.

The Warhawks lead the Sun Belt Conference and rank among the NCAA FBS leaders in both takeaways (eighth with 17, including 10 interceptions and seven fumble recoveries) and turnover margin (13th at +0.88 per game). With 17 takeaways in eight games, the ULM defense has surpassed its 2022 12-game total of eight (six interceptions and two fumble recoveries). By contrast in 2022, ULM finished 130th in takeaways and 114th in turnover margin (-0.58 pg.) in the NCAA FBS. David Godsey Jr. recorded an interception late in the first half last Saturday against Arkansas State for the 17th takeaway on the season by the Warhawk defense.

The Warhawks recorded multiple takeaways for the fourth time this season with two interceptions and two fumble recoveries in the Oct. 21 38-28 loss at Georgia Southern. The other three such performances came at home (five vs. Army, two vs. Lamar and four vs. App State).

ULM limited an opponent without an offensive touchdown for the first time since a 47-0 win over Nicholls in 2015. The Warhawks recorded five takeaways (three fumbles, two interceptions) in the contest after forcing just eight turnovers for the entire 2022 season. It was the highest single-game turnover total since picking up five takeaways against Nicholls in 2015. Evans and safety AJ Watts came up with interceptions for ULM, linebacker Carl Glass, linebacker Norman Massey and cornerback Car'lin Vigers forced fumbles and cornerback Lu Tillery, Vigers and defensive lineman Jaylan Ware each recovered fumbles.

His interception early in the second quarter set up Derek McCormick's 24-yard field goal for the game's first score.

In the second half, the Warhawk defense limited Army to 2-of-8 on third down, including 0-of-3 in the decisive fourth quarter. The Black Knights went three-and-out on their last four possessions. ULM held Army without a first down in the fourth quarter, permitted 15 total yards on 14 plays and had three takeaways (two fumbles and an interception).

A graduate transfer from Stephen F. Austin, Evans recorded 110 tackles, four interceptions and seven pass break-ups in 41 career games for the Lumberjacks. He posted his first interception at ULM in the 24-14 win over Lamar. Harris ranged back and took the ball out of the hands of Lamar tight end Ja'Corey Hyder at the ULM 39-yard line. His interception set up a touchdown drive to put the Warhawks up 21-0 in the second quarter. He added four tackles (1 solo, 3 assists) against the Cardinals.

Harris opened the season with six tackles (3 solo, 3 assists) against Army West Point.

A transfer from Incarnate Word where he played for Kinne, Harris appeared in nine games for UIW in 2022, picking up 26 tackles (16 solos, 10 assists) including 2.5 for losses (14 yards).

Glass, a Monroe native who played at Ouachita Parish High School, played his freshman season at Harding before transferring to ULM as a walk-on in 2022. Ten of the 23 student-athletes mentioned on the President's and Dean's Lists graduated from Ouachita Parish high schools. The ULM football team finished the spring semester with a combined 2.79 GPA, an improvement of +0.04 from the fall semester.

"Our student-athletes compete in a sport where success is defined by wins and losses," ULM head football coach Terry Bowden said. "These academic successes are wins too — wins in the playbook of life — and should be celebrated just like the triumphs on fall Saturdays. I congratulate our student-athletes, who have embraced the Warhawk Way and committed themselves to pursuing excellence in the classroom and the community just like they do on the practice field and in the stadium."

Bowden also acknowledged the work of Director of Student-Athlete Success Carmen Wright and her staff, especially senior athletic academic counselor Oliver Jackson and athletic academic counselor Karlin Walmsley.

"Carmen, OJ and Karlin deserve a great deal of credit for the performance of our student-athletes in the classroom," Bowden said. "Not all student-athletes learn in the same way and at the same pace, and our academic support staff does an incredible job of developing plans tailored to meet their individual needs. Our student-athletes are more than just student ID numbers to Carmen, OJ and Karlin. Our academic support staff is truly invested in each of our student-athletes, and I salute them for their commitment to encouraging our student-athletes to pursue excellence in the classroom."

"A degree from ULM sets up our student-athletes for success long after their competitive careers are over. Our Warhawk Way motto is to develop 'first-class men and world-class leaders,' and as ULM President Dr. Ron Berry professes, we're all here to 'change lives on the bayou.'"

In April, graduate linebacker Zack Woodard was named to the 2023 National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society. Woodard, who earned All-Sun Belt honorable mention after leading the team in tackles with 77 last season, received his Master in Business Administration from ULM in December 2022 while posting a 3.8 GPA as a graduate student. NFF Hampshire Honor Society members must be in their final year of eligibility, have attained a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.2 (4.0 scale) and be a starter or significant contributor throughout the 2022 season.

The late Bobby Bowden (377 career victories) and his sons, Terry (185) and Tommy (90), have combined for 652 wins – the most by any family in NCAA Division I football history. With ULM's 31-28 win at Georgia State on Nov. 12, 2022, the Bowden coaching family reached another milestone with 650 combined career victories. Bobby and Terry became the first father-son combo to serve as head coaches at the NCAA Division I level at the same time while Bobby and Tommy became the first father-son combo ever to coach against each other as head coaches. In a feat likely never to be duplicated, all three Bowden coaches went undefeated and were named National Coach of the Year in the same decade (1990s: Terry, Auburn, 1993; Tommy, Tulane, 1998; and Bobby, Florida State, 1999).

THIRD SEASON AT ULM (10-22)
28TH SEASON OVERALL (185-136-2)

The resurgence of the ULM football program began on Dec. 23, 2020, when Terry Bowden became the University's 16th head coach.

Despite facing the Sun Belt Conference's fourth-toughest schedule, with its 12 opponents posting a combined record of 75-64 (.540) in 2022, ULM manufactured a 4-8 record for the second season in a row. The Warhawks delivered three signature wins last season:

- In the Sun Belt opener, ULM scored 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter to rally from a 17-7 deficit for a 21-17 victory over the Ragin' Cajuns, which ended a four-game losing streak in the series and snapped UL Lafayette's 13-game winning streak in conference play.
- ULM won back-to-back games to open its November schedule for the first time since 2018, posting consecutive victories by a combined four points: 31-30 against Texas State and 31-28 at Georgia State. The Warhawks had lost seven-straight games played in the month of November.

Texas State raced out to a 21-0 lead after one quarter. The Bobcats held a 27-17 lead early in the third quarter, but ULM scored 14 of the next 17 points to secure a 31-30 victory. The Warhawks put together a 10-play, 80-drive in the fourth quarter and took their only lead with 10:20 left in the game.

- ULM scored two non-offensive touchdowns (blocked punt return and interception return) at Georgia State to halt a 19-game road losing streak. It marked the Warhawks' first road win under Bowden, snapping an 11-game skid.

Upon his arrival, Bowden brought with him a reputation as a program builder from his previous head-coaching tenures at Salem, Samford, Auburn, North Alabama and Akron. He only enhanced that track record after his first season in Monroe, leading the biggest turnaround in the Sun Belt Conference as the Warhawks went from 0-10 in 2020 to 4-8 in 2021, including wins over Jackson State, Troy, Liberty and South Alabama. A 32-point underdog against Liberty, ULM's 31-28 victory over the Flames ranks among the top five upsets in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision since 2000. The Warhawks, who never led in a game during the 10-game 2020 season, managed to hold a lead in eight of 12 games last fall.

Bowden orchestrated that turnaround against the nation's 21st-most difficult schedule as ULM's opponents posted a combined record of 85-57 (.599) in 2021. With those totals, the Warhawks also led the Sun Belt in strength of schedule.

ULM won four of six games during one stretch and stood 4-3, heading into the last week of October, but the Warhawks faltered down the stretch against the demanding schedule, dropping five games in a row with three of those losses coming by eight points or less.

In his first two seasons, Bowden has helped develop four All-Sun Belt Conference selections (2021 Third Team: wide receiver Boogie Knight and placekicker Calum Sutherland; 2022 Second Team: wide receiver Tyrone Howell and punter Devyn McCormick).

Since taking over the ULM program, Bowden has emphasized the importance of playing disciplined football and his teams have taken the message to heart, ranking as the least-penalized team in the Sun Belt and one of the least-penalized teams in the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision each of the last two seasons (2021: 44 total penalties, 3.67 per game, 32.0 yards per game; 2022: 59 total penalties, 4.92 per game).

From his first day on the job, Bowden has pledged his commitment to support ULM student-athletes as they pursue excellence in the classroom, on the playing field and in the community. The ULM football team completed the 2023 spring semester with a cumulative grade-point average of 2.881 – its highest total since at least 2015. In addition, 54 members of the Warhawk football team posted at least a 3.0 GPA during the spring semester, with 11 student-athletes featured on the President's List (3.9-4.0 semester GPA) and another 12 named to the Dean's List (3.5-3.89).

Bowden also initiated "The Warhawk Way," a program geared toward developing first-class men and world-class leaders. The five foundational pillars are professional, spiritual, athletic, service and academic. A series of workshops have been conducted, focused on mental health, job interview skills, professionalism, resume writing and financial literacy.

Bowden has compiled a career record of 185-136-2 (.576) in 28 seasons as a collegiate head coach. His 185 career wins rank eighth among the winningest active NCAA FBS head coaches, trailing only Alabama's Nick Saban (287), North Carolina's Mack Brown (280), LSU's Brian Kelly (279), Sam Houston's K.C. Keeler (259), Iowa's Kirk Ferentz (204), Tulane's Willie Fritz (204) and Eastern Michigan's Chris Creighton (189).

He came to ULM following two seasons as a graduate assistant/offensive analyst on Dabo Swinney's staff at Clemson. The Tigers reached the College Football Playoff in each season, including a 10-2 record and ACC Championship in 2020. The Tigers ranked third in FBS in scoring offense (43.5 points per game) and 10th in total offense (502.3 yards per game). Clemson claimed the ACC crown and reached the College Football Playoff Championship in 2019 while ranking fourth in FBS in scoring offense (43.9 ppg.) and fifth in total offense (528.7 ypg.).

Bowden helped revitalize an Akron program that was 2-22 over the two seasons prior to his arrival. In 2015, Bowden led the Zips to an 8-5 record and a second-place finish in the MAC East as the program recorded its first winning season and bowl appearance since 2005. The Zips knocked off Utah State 23-21 in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl to claim the program's first bowl victory as an FBS member, dating back to 1987. The eight wins were the most for Akron since joining the FBS.

In 2017, Bowden led Akron to its first MAC Championship game appearance since 2005 and just the second appearance in program history as the Zips appeared in their second bowl game in three seasons and just the third in program history.

Thirty players earned All-MAC honors over his seven seasons at Akron.

Prior to Akron, Bowden spent three seasons at North Alabama, where he led the Lions to a 29-9 record and three consecutive appearances in the NCAA Division II Playoffs. He was named 2009 Gulf South Conference Co-Coach of the Year after his squad posted an 11-2 record, won the GSC championship and advanced to the quarterfinals of the playoffs.

During his time away from coaching, Bowden spent 10 years as a studio analyst and color commentator with ABC Sports' college football coverage, working in studio in Times Square. He was an analyst for the College Football National Game of the Week on Westwood One radio, co-hosted "The Coaches Show" on Sirius Satellite Radio with Jack Arute and was the exclusive college football columnist for Yahoo! Sports.

Bowden was named head coach at Auburn on Dec. 17, 1992, and found immediate success with the Tigers. In 1993, Auburn tallied a perfect 11-0 record and Bowden swept nearly every National Coach of the Year award, including Walter Camp, Scripps Howard, Football News, Toyota and the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award, presented by the Football Writers Association. He was the first coach in Division I-A (now FBS) history to go 11-0 in his inaugural season. He won the first 20 consecutive games of his tenure.

Bowden was once again a coach of the year finalist after his second season on The Plains after the Tigers had rattled off 20-straight wins, which still stands as an Auburn record, and finished 9-1-1.

Bowden finished his stint at Auburn is a 47-17-1 record, which is the best opening five-year run in school history. While at Auburn, he became the first collegiate coach in 50 years to win his 100th career game before his 40th birthday.

Before heading to Auburn, Bowden spent six years at Samford, helping the Bulldogs transition from NCAA Division III to Division I-AA (now FCS). He inherited a program that had won just six games over the previous three seasons. In his first season in 1987, Bowden led Samford to a 9-1 record, tying the best record in school history. The 1987 team led the nation in total offense (523 yards per game), scoring offense (51.7 points per game) and passing touchdowns (40), which set national Division III records.

His 1989 Bulldog squad faced a full I-AA schedule with just one freshman class on scholarship, but by 1991, the team was in contention for the national championship, with a school-record 12-2 season and reached the I-AA national semifinals.

Bowden was the nation's youngest head coach at age 26 when he accepted his first head coaching job, at Salem (W. Va.) College in 1983. He took over a team that finished 0-9-1 the season prior to his arrival, and promptly guided the program to two conference championships in three seasons.

Bowden is a member of one of the most well-known and successful college football coaching families. His late father, Bobby Bowden, transformed Florida State into a national championship program and earned 377 collegiate victories, ranking second in Division I history. His brother Tommy was 18-4 in two seasons as head coach at Tulane before going 72-45 over 10 seasons as head coach at Clemson, leading the Tigers to eight bowl appearances.

His brother Jeff has 30 years of collegiate coaching experience at Salem, Samford, Southern Miss, Florida State, North Alabama and Akron.

Collectively, the Bowdens rank as the winningest family in NCAA Division I football history as Bobby (377), Terry (183) and Tommy (90) have combined for 650 wins. The Bowden coaching family reached the 650 milestone with ULM's 31-28 win at Georgia State on Nov. 12, 2022. Bobby and Terry became the first father-son combo to serve as head coaches at the NCAA Division I level at the same time while Bobby and Tommy became the first father-son combo ever to coach against each other as head coaches. In a feat likely never to be duplicated, all three Bowden coaches went undefeated and were named National Coach of the Year in the same decade (1990s: Terry, Auburn, 1993; Tommy, Tulane, 1998; and Bobby, Florida State, 1999).

Bowden played collegiately at West Virginia, lettering two years as a running back (1977-78) and led the team with a 3.65 grade-point average in accounting and graduated Magna Cum Laude. He did post-graduate work at Oxford University in England and earned a Juris Doctorate from the Florida State School of Law in 1982. Bowden added a master's degree in athletic leadership from Clemson in May 2021.
