WHAT TO WATCH FOR

TROY'S TALE

Troy owns a 23-10 overall record this season and was one of four teams to be named Sun Belt regular season co-champions with a 13-5 mark in conference play. Troy is the only Sun Belt team with at least 20 total wins in four-consecutive seasons. As the No. 3 seed in the 2025 Sun Belt Conference Championship, the Trojans by defeated Old Dominion (75-59), James Madison (79-60) and Arkansas State (94-81) in consecutive days – and all by double digits – to secure the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. Troy will compete in its third NCAA Tournament in program history and first since 2017. The Trojans' first appearance occurred in 2003. The No. 14 seed in the Midwest Region, Troy was a No. 14 seed in 2003 against Xavier (L, 71-59) and a No. 15 seed in 2017 against Duke (L, 87-65).

SUN BELT IN MARCH MADNESS

Troy seeks the Sun Belt Conference's second-straight season with a win in the NCAA Tournament after No. 12 seed James Madison upset No. 5 seed Wisconsin, 72-61, in the first round of the 2024 tournament at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y.. James Madison then fell to No. 4 seed Duke, 93-55, in the second round. Troy's contest against No. 3 seed Kentucky will mark the first time a Sun Belt team plays an NCAA Tournament game in Milwaukee. Troy is the seventh Sun Belt team to be seeded 14th in an NCAA Tournament, and the only team in the history of the league to win an NCAA Tournament game as a No. 14 seed was Georgia State over No. 3 seed Baylor, 57-56, in 2015.

SBC VS. SEC NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

The Sun Belt Conference will face a Southeastern Conference (SEC) opponent in the NCAA Tournament for the 12th time overall. It will also be the seventh first-round meeting between the conferences and the second in the last three years after No. 4 Tennessee defeated No. 13 Louisiana, 58-55, in 2023. The last time a Sun Belt team defeated an SEC opponent in the first round was No. 11 seed South Alabama over No. 6 seed Alabama, 86-84, in 1989. Troy will be the fourth Sun Belt team to face Kentucky in an NCAA Tournament game and the first since former league member and No. 16 seed Western Kentucky fell, 81-66, to the top-seeded and eventual national champion Wildcats in 2012. The last Sun Belt representative to defeat Kentucky in the NCAA Tournament was former member UAB, 69-62, in the second round in 1981.

TROJAN TRIUMPH

The No. 3 seed Troy defeated No. 4 seed Arkansas State, 94-81, in the 2025 Sun Belt Conference Championship title game, as the Trojans earned their third NCAA Tournament appearance in program history and first since 2017. Troy's 94 points were tied for the fourth-most all-time by any team in a Sun Belt title game and the most since South Alabama scored 95 in 2006. Troy senior guard Tayton Conerway scored a game-high 21 points with six rebounds and was named the tournament's Most Outstanding Player. Sophomore forward Myles Rigsby added 20 points, while sophomore forward Thomas Dowd added 14 points, nine rebounds and three steals to earn Sun Belt All-Tournament Team recognition.

RED WOLVES RAMPAGE

Arkansas State collected its 25th win of the season with a 103-78 wire-to-wire home victory over Saint Louis in the first round of the 2025 NIT on March 18. The No. 3 seed in the Dallas Region, the Red Wolves made their fifth NIT appearance in school history and first since 1991 and their win is the first by a Sun Belt team in the tournament since former league member UT-Arlington reached the third round in 2017. Arkansas State's 103 points scored matched a season high and rank as the second most by a Sun Belt team in the NIT since UT-Arlington scored 105 in their first-round win in 2017.

CO-CHAMPION QUARTET

Four teams earned a share of the 2024-25 Sun Belt Conference regular season championship after South Alabama, James Madison, Troy and Arkansas State posted 13-5 records in league play. South Alabama claimed its 10th crown in program history and first since 2007-08, while James Madison claimed its first as a member of the Sun Belt. Troy's title is its second overall and first since 2009-10, while Arkansas State claimed its fifth overall and first since 2012-13.

20-WIN CLUB

Arkansas State (25), Troy (23), South Alabama (21), James Madison (20) and Marshall (20) have each recorded at least 20 victories in 2024-25, while Troy is the only Sun Belt team with at least 20 total wins in four-consecutive campaigns. Additionally, the Sun Belt has now had at least four teams reach the 20-win benchmark in four-consecutive years. James Madison has three-straight 20-win campaigns, and Arkansas State has now reached the milestone in back-to-back seasons, while South Alabama accomplished the feat for the first time since 2021-22.

COMEBACK HISTORY

Arkansas State earned an improbable, comeback victory, 98-89, in overtime at UAB on Dec. 15 which tied for the sixth-largest comeback win in NCAA Division-I history. Trailing by as many as 27 points in the second half, Arkansas State became just the sixth team ever to overcome a deficit of 25 or more at halftime while tying for the third largest halftime comeback in D-I history.

ALMA MATER COACHING

Four Sun Belt men's basketball head coaches – ULM's Keith Richard, Marshall's Cornelius Jackson, Old Dominion's Mike Jones and Southern Miss' Jay Ladner – are each leading their alma maters. Richard is in his 15th season at the helm of the Warhawks program and Ladner is in his sixth leading the Golden Eagles, while Jackson and Jones are in their first seasons as head coaches at the NCAA Division I level.

MAC-SBC CHALLENGE

The MAC-SBC Challenge – a scheduling alliance between the Mid-American Conference and Sun Belt Conference in men's and women's basketball – is in its second season in 2024-25.

The second season of the MAC-SBC Challenge tipped off opening night, Monday, Nov. 4, with 12 Sun Belt men's basketball teams hosting Mid-American Conference opponents. The Sun Belt collected eight home wins over the MAC, as teams have now won 23 of 36 (.639) total games in the MAC-SBC Challenge dating back to last season.

After recording victories in the Nov. 4 matchups, Georgia State, James Madison and Texas State all improved to 3-0 all-time in the MAC-SBC Challenge. The Sun Belt captured the inaugural MAC-SBC Challenge with 15 wins across the 24 total matchups during the 2023-24 campaign, including 10 during the February 2024 home contests.

The Sun Belt captured the inaugural MAC-SBC Challenge on the men's and women's sides in 2023-24. The men's teams compiled 15 wins across the 24 total matchups, including 10 in the February 2024 home contests, while the women's teams posted 14 wins in the 24 contests, including nine during the November 2023 tilts.

Originally a two-year agreement through the 2024-25 campaign, the conferences agreed to an extension of the series for two additional seasons through the 2026-27 season on Monday, November 4, 2024. With UMass set to join the MAC ahead of the 2025-26 season, the 13 MAC men's and women's basketball teams will face off against 13 Sun Belt teams in a pair of contests in 2025-26 and 2026-27 with each game being carried on an ESPN platform.

Scheduling assistance is provided by Ordinal Sports Group. In addition to relevant NET data, geography and frequency of past contests is considered in determining the matchups.

The MAC-SBC Challenge comes at the recommendation of the Sun Belt's strategic planning committees for men's and women's basketball, as the conference looks to return to its roots and bolster its success on the hardwood.

The MAC men's teams will host the Sun Belt, in the second round on Saturday, February 8.
