COACH MOORE HIGHLIGHTS
- 12 NCAA Tournaments and 26 SLC Titles
- 12 NCAA’s at same school rank Moore first all-time in Southland history - all sports and all coaches
- 12 Coach of the Year awards - All-time Southland record in any sport
- 2013 ITA Texas Coach of the Year (D-I Texas)
- Coached at 3 top 25 schools -Texas A&M, Texas Tech and SMU
- 4 Top-40 national rankings
- 528 career victories as NCAA D-I Head Coach
- 3.0 team GPA in 33 straight semesters
- Selected to NCAA National Tennis Committee and ITA Chairman for D-I Texas

Coach Steve Moore has brought historic excellence to the Islanders including 12 NCAA Tournament appearances and 26 Southland titles. Moore has been named Southland Conference Coach of the Year 12 times, an all-time Southland Conference record for any coach in any sport. Moore was named the 2013 ITA Texas Coach of the Year for NCAA D-I.

Moore brings a wealth of experience including coaching at three schools that reached the Top 25 nationally - Texas A&M, Texas Tech and SMU. Moore led two of those teams to top-10 national rankings. Moore has taken a total 20 teams to the NCAA Championships as a head coach or assistant.

Moore’s Islanders are one of the elite Southland dynasties of all-time. Islanders Tennis is one of four sports in conference history (57 years) to ever win 12 titles.

In the 59 year history of the conference, Moore’s 12 NCAA tournaments at the same school rank him first all-time in Southland Conference history for all coaches and all sports. He surpassed Lamar baseball coach Jim Gilligan (11) in 2021 after both the Islanders men’s & women’s tennis programs reached the NCAA Tournament.

Moore was selected to prominent national leadership positions as well, including a 4-year term on the 12-member NCAA National Tennis Committee, and as ITA Regional Chairman for Texas for NCAA D-I.

Coaching men’s and women’s tennis, Moore led both teams to the ITA national published rankings the same week. TAMUCC was one of only 34 universities in the nation with both teams ranked in the national poll, and the only with one head coach leading both programs.

The women have soared under Moore, going to the NCAA Championships in three of the last four years and reaching the top-75 national rankings in 2014 and 2016. The 2017 women’s team made it back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances and in 2018 the team won it’s third straight Southland Conference title. A&M-Corpus Christi followed it up with another appearance in 2021.
The Islanders finished 24-0 in the 2016 regular season, the only team in NCAA Division I to go undefeated, before falling to eventual National Champion Stanford in the NCAA Championships. In 2014, the women climbed as high as #60 in the ITA national rankings.

2015 was a historic year for the men as they reached #40 in the ITA rankings, went to the NCAA Championships as a #3 seed and won the Southland Conference for the 8th year in a row. The men’s tennis team has reached the top 40 in the ITA national rankings three times since 2007 and is 53-5 under Moore in SLC matches since 2007.

Both Islanders teams were ranked in the Top 10 in NCAA Division I in attendance during 2013, 2014 and 2015, as both teams have enjoyed tremendous support in the Corpus Christi community.

Since becoming Director of Tennis, Moore has been heavily involved in raising significant funds in the Corpus Christi Tennis community to benefit both teams. In 2007, the Islanders earned the rights to run the prestigious H-E-B Tournament of Champions, the longest running tournament in the nation at 54 years. Moore also saw the program upgraded with the addition of two full-time assistants and the state-of-the-art, 12-court Islanders Thomas J. Henry Tennis Center. In addition, the Islanders now have a full-time athletic trainer and strength coach.

In 1998, Moore left Texas Tech to become the head coach at A&M-Corpus Christi and did what few coaches have done - start an NCAA Division I program from scratch. Moore immediately put the Islanders on the map with a 45-17 record and 15-3 SLC mark in the first three years. He was one of the youngest NCAA Division I head coaches in the country at age 26.

Moore left the Island when SMU offered him the head women’s coaching job in 2001. Moore changed the culture immediately, leading the Mustangs to their best conference finish and win total in 14 years - 16 wins and 2nd place in the WAC. Moore’s team reached #42 in the national rankings and had the Most Improved team GPA in the department. Moore’s Mustangs went undefeated in the WAC the following year. Known for his strong work ethic, Moore worked double-duty also serving as the SMU men’s assistant. He helped SMU reach the NCAA Final Four in 2001 and #5 in the nation. Moore worked equally hard raising funds in the community for SMU. He raised the money to create a paid assistant coach position and started the Volvo Car Coach program for the entire SMU athletic department.

In 2004, Moore left SMU to become assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Texas A&M under Hall-of-Fame Coach Tim Cass. Moore saw Texas A&M reach the NCAA Sweet 16 and #9 nationally in his first year. A&M also signed the #1 player in the United States, hosted the NCAA Championships and led the nation in attendance.

In 2006, after back-to-back Top 20 seasons and NCAA Tournament appearances, Moore left Texas A&M to return to his beloved hometown and the Islanders team he started in 1998.

Moore has trained under some of the top coaches in the nation including Tim Cass at Texas A&M, Tim Siegel at Texas Tech and Carl Nuefeld at SMU. He has also trained with many of the top coaches on the ATP and WTA Pro Tour.

Moore’s highlight was traveling with legendary professional coach Bobby Banck as he coached WTA #3 Monica Seles, winner of 9 grand slam events.

He coaches the Islanders based on four pillars: family, character, grit and discipline. Players must be committed to excellence on and off the court while also being great teammates who care for each other deeply.

Moore played on tennis scholarships at North Texas and Abilene Christian. While at ACU, Moore was team captain and was nationally ranked in singles. He also competed on the professional satellite circuit after college.
Aurelien Tave

Associate Head Coach, Aurelien Tave, enters his 10th season on the coaching staff in 2021.

Most recently, he coached the Islanders to three championships and two NCAA Tournament appearances in 2021. The men completed a dominant season by winning both the SLC regular season and SLC Tournament titles, while the women swept through the SLC Tournament in a trio of 4-0 victories.

A former No. 1 singles and doubles player for the Islanders and former team captain, Tave began his coaching career as a student assistant coach with the Islanders. Since then, Tave has been promoted to an assistant coach and then the associate head coach in fall 2016.

As a player, Tave had the winningest record on the team in 2011 for an Islanders team that reached No. 54 in Division I National Rankings. He played No. 1 singles, doubles and was team captain of an Islanders team that won back-to-back Southland Conference Championships and had back-to-back years in the national rankings.

“Aurelien was one of the toughest and smartest players I’ve ever coached,” Director of Tennis Steve Moore said. “He truly got every bit out of his talent and was respected nationally for how tough and smart he played. Aurelien does a great job of conveying that toughness and intelligent tennis to our players, he is tremendously well liked and respected by the teams. He was that guy on the team who did everything right, the kind of guy you really appreciate as a coach.

“I believe the Aure is emerging as one of the top young coaches in the country. He has all the qualities it takes to be a great coach – strong character, leadership and work ethic. He’s very good on the court and great mind for the game. He is not afraid to tackle the tough parts of this job like the relentless dog fight of modern recruiting, gameplans and scouting, travel and helping run the big events we put on here. He is extremely loyal to the Islanders and cares deeply about the players. I consider Aure a great asset for our program. He is an elite Associate Head Coach for both men’s and women’s teams, and has been a huge factor in our team’s success.”

He assists Coach Moore in all aspects of the program; from recruiting, planning, setup and running practice, team travel, itineraries, fundraising and running the numerous tournaments held at the Thomas J. Henry Tennis Center.

Tave has joined Islanders’ legends, who developed into high lineup players such as Dmitry Novikov, James Langford and Matt Westmoreland.

“What impresses me the most about Aurelien is he developed from a No. 4 to a No. 1 player in just a year,” Moore added. “To improve that quickly requires tremendous discipline, commitment and work ethic. Those are great attributes that he can teach our young players.”

== COACH TAVE HIGHLIGHTS ==
- Led Islanders to NCAA Championships as #1 player, Assistant Coach and Associate Head Coach
- Coached Islanders men and women to 9 NCAA Tournament appearances (5 men/4 women)
- Coached men and women to 18 Southland Conference titles (10 men/8 women)
- Led both Islanders Men and women to Southland Championship and NCAA Tournament in 2014 and 2021.
- 1 of only 39 Universities in NCAA D-1 w both teams at 2021 NCAAs
- Team captain and #1 player on Islanders’ teams reaching the NCAA D-I Top 60 national rankings in back-to-back seasons
- Helped Islanders reach historic success in Southland -- 1-of-4 sports ever to win 10 titles
- 3.0 team GPA in 29 straight semesters
- Led men’s team to NCAA national ranking in each year he has coached

As a player, Tave had the winningest record on the team in 2011 for an Islanders team that reached No. 54 in Division I National Rankings. He played No. 1 singles, doubles and was team captain of an Islanders team that won back-to-back Southland Conference Championships and had back-to-back years in the national rankings.

Bazhanova joined the Islanders in 2017-18 after spending the previous three seasons as the head coach at Northwestern State, overseeing one of the most successful programs in the Southland Conference. In her first season on the Island, Texas A&M-Corpus Christi captured the women's regular season title and in 2019, the men's team won the program's 25th Southland title and earned the program's 11th trip to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2021, Bazhanova coached the Islanders to three championships and two NCAA Tournament appearances. The men completed a dominant season by winning both the SLC regular season and SLC Tournament titles, while the women swept through the SLC Tournament in a trio of 4-0 victories. As a head coach, she took the Demons to a Southland Conference Championship and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2015. In 2016, she led her team back to the SLC finals for a second straight season.

Bazhanova has experienced success everywhere she's been. Between Northwestern State and A&M-Corpus Christi, she's made five NCAA Tournament appearances which included a pair with the Lady Demons and a trio with the Islanders.

Bazhanova's teams also excelled in the classroom posting a 3.70 team GPA this past year, the highest in the Southland Conference. Northwestern State was named an ITA All-Academic Team three-straight years. Bazhanova also served as the team's strength and conditioning coach at Northwestern State during all five of her years at the helm.

During her time with the Demons, which dates to 2013 as an assistant coach, Bazhanova helped lead Northwestern State to a pair of Southland Conference Tournament Championships and another two runner-up finishes. Bazhanova was also heavily involved in fundraising for the Northwestern State tennis program. She was also the Assistant Director of the Wellness and Recreation Center at Northwestern State.

A former player at Northwestern State, Bazhanova has been a part of five Southland titles for the Demons. During her playing days, Bazhanova played No. 1 singles and doubles for three-straight seasons at Northwestern State and led one of the best teams in Southland history climbing to No. 62 in the national rankings. Bazhanova also served as team captain for the Demons.

A two-time All-Southland honoree, she led the 2010 NSU squad to a Southland title and a nation-best 21-2 record. Bazhanova was also a two-time All-Southland Academic and two-time All-Southland doubles selection.

In 2010, Bazhanova won the clinching match at No. 1 singles against UT Arlington to send Northwestern State to the NCAA Championships as the Southland Conference Tournament winner. That same year, Bazhanova clinched one of the biggest victories for any Southland team in conference history, winning at No. 1 singles as Northwestern State toppled nationally-ranked, SEC-foe Mississippi State.

A native of Nikolaev, Ukraine, Bazhanova holds bachelor's and master's degrees with honors from Northwestern State.

Bazhanova has been to the NCAA Championships as a head coach, assistant coach and player. She played and coached under Coach Patrick Dubois, one of the winningest coaches in Southland Conference history.

A former player at Northwestern State, Bazhanova has been a part of five Southland titles for the Demons. During her playing days, Bazhanova played No. 1 singles and doubles for three-straight seasons at Northwestern State and led one of the best teams in Southland history climbing to No. 62 in the national rankings. Bazhanova also served as team captain for the Demons.

A two-time All-Southland honoree, she led the 2010 NSU squad to a Southland title and a nation-best 21-2 record. Bazhanova was also a two-time All-Southland Academic and two-time All-Southland doubles selection.

Sho Arai

Sho Arai joined the Texas A&M-Corpus Christi athletic training staff in the fall of 2014, overseeing sports medicine needs for the cross country and track and field programs. In the fall of 2015 he moved over to work with the Islanders Tennis programs.

Arai came to the Island University after spending two years with Texas State University in San Marcos, where he earned his master’s degree while also working with the baseball and track and field teams for the Bobcats. He worked with assessments, treatments and rehabilitation with those two programs while also serving as a preceptor for the athletic training students. He also taught athletic training courses at Texas State.

He also gained valuable experience in the summer of 2014 with the Global Basketball Summer League in Las Vegas. There, he served as the head athletic trainer for the professional level week-long event, making critical in-game decisions for elite basketball athletes.

Before returning to the United States in 2012, Arai worked in his home country of Japan as the assistant athletic trainer at Tokyo International University, working with the men’s soccer program. There, he was responsible for the health and wellness of over 200 athletes.

He also gained experience in athletic training while completing his undergraduate education in upstate New York. He worked as an athletic training student at SUNY-Cortland, helping with the football, women’s basketball, baseball and swimming and diving programs while completing his undergraduate degree at SUNY Cortland. He also worked in summer baseball with the Elmira Pioneers of the New York Collegiate Baseball League.

He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers’ Association, Texas Athletic Training Board and is an approved CAATE Clinical Preceptor. Arai has also obtained further credentials by becoming a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, IASTM (Instrument Assisted Soft Tissue Mobilization) techniques, and Corrective Exercise Specialist.

Arai is a native of Saitama, Japan. He resides in Corpus Christi with his wife, Jaycee.

CARLOS PEDROSA was diagnosed with Type 1 diabetes his senior year, ending his amazing career with the Islanders - but he chose to play in the conference tournament. In front of a huge home crowd, Pedrosa was last match on. He rose up and clinched the deciding match 6-4 in the third set to beat Abilene Christian 4-3 and send the Islanders to the NCAA Championships. He’ll always be remembered for his courage and heart in the biggest of moments.

CORPUS CHRISTI

A BEAUTIFUL BEACH CITY

One of the premier destinations on the Gulf Coast, Corpus Christi boasts more than 100 miles of gorgeous beaches. From simply relaxing on the shores of Padre Island to kayaking to surfing or even world class fishing, Corpus Christi has it all.

Corpus Christi is also home to the Padre Island National Seashore, consisting of the largest protected barrier island in the world. A favorite of the incredibly rare Kemp's Ridley Sea Turtle, the seashore is renowned for its amazing wildlife and turtle hatching releases. No matter what your beach style is, there’s truly no place like Corpus Christi and the Gulf of Mexico.

CHAMPIONS FOR LIFE

Real World Training

“We believe the values of Family, Discipline, Team and Extreme Work Ethic give Islanders an edge for life” ~ Head Coach Steve Moore

“My time with the Islander Tennis team prepared me so well for success in the job world. The Islander core values of family first, out working other people and discipline are parallel to what companies are seeking in employees. These values create an advantage that set me apart. I am so grateful to all the coaches and staff for their consistent commitment to instilling these values in the student-athletes. I would not be where I am today if it weren’t for them. Go Islanders!”

Nathan Robinson
2011 Southland Conference Student-Athlete of the Year

“Playing for the Islanders was one of the best experiences of my life. The team values of family, toughness and hard work prepared me so well for the job world. It also helped me so much personally. Our team was a family and the players and coaches were super close. We encouraged each other to work hard every practice, every match, every day! We learned the life values of being selfless, never giving up, having grit, and being a unified family together on a journey”
