THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Connecticut, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University and the University of Tulsa.

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has written an impressive list of accomplishments, both in the competitive arena and the classroom. In the course of its first three seasons, The American has taken its place at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics, with a collection of national team and individual championships and football and men's and women's basketball postseason victories that place The American among the elite Division I FBS conferences.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams – UConn men's basketball in 2014 and UConn women's basketball in 2014, 2015 and 2016 – two New Year's Six bowl champions, and two individuals who have won NCAA titles, most recently SMU's Bryson Dechambeau, who was the 2015 national champion in men's golf. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, reached the semifinal and final rounds of the NIT, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered a top-10 finish at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championship.

The American Athletic Conference was one of six finalists for the 2016 Sports Business Journal Sports League of the Year award, along with Major League Baseball, Major League Soccer, NASCAR, the National Basketball Association and the PGA Tour. The American was the only entity from college athletics to be so honored.

In football, three American Athletic Conference teams were in the final College Football Playoff rankings of 2015, while two teams from The American were ranked in the top 20 of the final national polls in both 2013 and 2015. Eight of The American's 12 football teams played in bowl games to cap the 2015 season as Houston defeated Florida State in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl and Navy beat Pittsburgh in the Military Bowl. Houston's finish at No. 8 nationally gave The American a top-10 team in the final national polls for the second time in the league's three seasons. UCF finished No. 10 in the 2013 rankings after the Knights' Fiesta Bowl win against Baylor.

In 2014, The American had the best men's basketball postseason record of any league, when conference teams were a combined 13-4, and the league sent four teams to the 2016 NCAA Championship. Teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, men's golf, and men's track and field.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed unprecedented success since the conference's formation. Houston went 13-1 in the 2015 football season, setting a school record for wins, while Navy won a program-record 11 games in its first season in the conference, also in 2015. The 2014 season saw Memphis finish with 10 wins in football for the first time since 1938, while Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in 2015.

That kind of success has led to an across-the-board increase in football attendance. The American Athletic Conference had four of the top six teams in average attendance gain from 2015 to 2016, while the conference as a whole realized a 9.1-percent increase at the turnstiles. Cincinnati, Houston and Temple all set single-game attendance records at their respective facilities

Under The American's banner, SMU advanced to the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship for the first time since 1993. UCF and Houston have both achieved top-10 rankings in baseball in the past two years. USF finished the 2014-15 season at No. 8 in the final men's golf national ranking. The UConn women's basketball team won its NCAA-record ninth, 10th and 11th national championships.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting. UConn basketball standout Breanna Stewart finished her career as the most decorated player in college basketball history as she was chosen as the consensus national player of the year for the third time and became the first player be named four times as the Most Outstanding Player at the Final Four.

Reynolds and Stewart were selected as the winners of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athletes, marking only the second time in the 86-year history of the award that multiple winners were chosen.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Acker was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, while Navy offensive guard E.K. Binns was one of 12 finalists nationally for the Campbell Trophy, which is presented by the National Football Foundation to the top scholar-athlete in college football. Tulsa soccer standout Katy Riojas was the winner of the 2016 NCAA Walter Byers Postgraduate Scholarship, while Golden Hurricane rower Emalia Seto won the 2016 NCAA Jim McKay Scholarship. Two student-athletes from The American earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships in the conference's first three years.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional sports as well. UCF quarterback Blake Bortles was selected by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. More recently, a number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer. The American has had two first-round picks in football in each of the last three seasons, while the conference produced four first-round picks, including the top three selections, in the 2016 WNBA Draft.

The American Athletic Conference holds media rights partnerships with ESPN and CBS Sports which provide the conference with outstanding national exposure on the two industry leaders in sports television. The football portion of the contract calls for nearly 90 percent of conference-controlled games on national broadcast or national cable platforms. The first American Athletic Conference Football Championship, which was played in 2015, was televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday.

In men's basketball, the television deal calls for all conference-controlled games to be televised, with more than 63 percent slotted for national broadcast or national cable – a minimum of 107 games. The entire postseason tournament is televised, including the championship game, which is on ABC or ESPN. Sixty percent of the American's women's basketball games are carried on national cable, regional sports networks or ESPN3, while the conference has a multi-year agreement with CBS Sports Network for coverage of select baseball games.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with 12 bowls for the current six-year cycle, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations to member institutions and their fans.

The American Athletic Conference serves its membership from a state-of-the-art office located in Providence, R.I. The location of the conference headquarters – just steps from the city's Amtrak station and 10 minutes from T.F. Green International Airport – gives the conference easy access to its member schools. The conference headquarters is equipped with a complete video production studio, which serves as the home of The American Digital Network, and meeting rooms to accommodate the many coaches' and administrators' meetings held on-site each year.

Mike Aresco
Commissioner

Mike Aresco has established himself as one of the leading figures in intercollegiate sports as commissioner of the American Athletic Conference.

Aresco, who was named to his current position Aug. 14, 2012, has overseen a strategic reinvention of the conference, which has quickly become one of the premier conferences in the nation. Conference teams have won four NCAA Championships and two New Year's Six bowl games since the 2012-13 academic year.

The American's inaugural year produced a remarkable string of accomplishments as UCF won the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and finished the season ranked No. 10 in the Associated Press poll. UConn won NCAA titles in both men's and women's basketball as American Athletic Conference teams had the best postseason winning percentage of any conference in men's basketball. The league sent four teams to the NCAA tournament and saw SMU advance to the championship game of the NIT.

The American was the only conference to have a Bowl Championship Series win and teams in the Men's Final Four, the Women's Final Four and the College World Series in 2013-14. Teams from the conference finished in the national top 10 in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, men's soccer, baseball and men's golf.

More recently, The American produced three teams in the final College Football Playoff poll of 2015, including Houston, which defeated Florida State in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl and finished No. 8 in the final national rankings with a 13-1 record. Navy, in its first year as a member of the conference, finished No. 18 nationally after a school-record 11 wins in 2015. UConn went on to win its fourth straight NCAA title in women's basketball, while The American sent four teams to the NCAA men's basketball tournament.

Among the milestones reached in Aresco's tenure have been the announcement of a conference football championship game for the first time in 2015 and the league's successful staging of its own postseason bowl game, the Miami Beach Bowl, in 2014.

In the wake of the changes created by college sports realignment, Aresco moved quickly to solidify the conference, leading negotiations that resulted in the most favorable financial terms for the conference's football schools, after the withdrawal of the non-football-playing schools, as well as the 2013-14 launch of the renamed and rebranded conference.

He simultaneously led the negotiations that resulted in television contracts with ESPN and CBS Sports, which have given the conference unprecedented national exposure and branding with the two industry leaders in sports television. Aresco then quickly and successfully organized the process whereby the conference was renamed the American Athletic Conference – a name that was immediately accepted nationally – and he also oversaw the process that resulted in the conference's popular graphic identity.

He has also successfully worked with the conference schools to arrive at an equitable distribution of existing revenue for the current and new conference institutions, bringing about a period of cohesiveness that is unprecedented in the league's history. He has restructured the conference office staff to maximize efficiency and better serve the needs of the membership.

Among his other significant accomplishments on behalf of the American Athletic Conference were the spearheading of expansion efforts, which resulted in the addition of East Carolina, Tulane and Tulsa as of July 1, 2014, and Navy as a football member in 2015; launching The American Digital Network; successful site negotiations for the conference's men's and women's basketball championships; and the launching of a brand marketing campaign.

Additionally, Aresco brokered a multi-year marketing rights agreement with IMG College, the industry leader in collegiate sports marketing, and oversaw the development of The American's new football bowl lineup, which features numerous annual matchups against the nation's other top conferences. Included in that lineup is the Miami Beach Bowl – a bowl game that is owned and operated by the American Athletic Conference in a first-of-its-kind venture.

Aresco's first months were marked by his successful efforts to ensure the conference's place within the College Football Playoff. Aresco was instrumental in securing the arrangement that puts the American Athletic Conference champion in a New Year's Day system bowl if it is the highest-ranked team among the champions of five conferences.

Aresco has played an active role in the formation of the College Football Playoff, serving on the College Football Playoff Management Committee and helping to select the 13 members of the CFP Selection Committee. Aresco also serves on the College Football Playoff Television and Site Selection committees.

In basketball, Aresco has secured the conference's participation in The Men's Basketball Officiating Consortium, L.L.C., partnering with the Big 12 Conference, Conference USA, the Ohio Valley Conference and the Southland Conference to ensure that the highest-quality game officials are assigned to American Athletic Conference contests.

Aresco is a member of the Conference Commissioners Association enforcement working group and women's basketball working group. He serves on the board of managers for both College Football Officiating, LLC, and Men's College Basketball, LLC. He is also a member of the FBS commissioners' media subcommittee. He is a charter member of the steering committee of the Columbia University/New York City Chapter of the National Football Foundation and serves on the board of the National Sports Marketing Network.

Aresco has been a leader in the NCAA governance redesign efforts and a strong and articulate spokesman in various forums for the integrity of the collegiate model.

Aresco came to the conference from CBS Sports where he was Executive Vice President, Programming. He was responsible for all college sports programming for CBS Sports and CBS Sports Network. Aresco oversaw the acquisition and management of CBS Sports college properties, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship, regular-season college basketball and football, conference basketball championship games, football bowl games and other programming. His responsibilities included game selection and scheduling, day-to-day operations, contract negotiations, identification of future acquisitions, development of programming strategies and coordination of new media and marketing initiatives.

Aresco played an integral role in the landmark deal that created the CBS Sports-Turner Broadcasting partnership, which resulted in the acquisition of the NCAA Men's Division I Basketball Championship rights through 2024. He managed the complex 14-year agreement that provides expanded national broadcast and cable coverage of the NCAA basketball championship. Aresco also was instrumental in the CBS Television Network's groundbreaking bundled rights agreement with the NCAA, which granted CBS exclusive rights to the NCAA tournament from 2003 through 2010. The 2010 NCAA Championship won a Sports Emmy in the Outstanding Playoff Coverage category. Aresco also played a key role in negotiating NCAA marketing agreements and in creating a partnership with IMG and the NCAA to assist in acquiring new NCAA corporate sponsors. He also was a significant contributor in the development of new media platforms for the NCAA Championship, including March Madness On Demand, a highly successful streaming platform.

In 2008, Aresco negotiated a historic 15-year agreement with the Southeastern Conference to televise the league's football and basketball games. The agreement also provided multiple new media rights for CBS, CBS Sports Network and CBS Interactive. He forged numerous basketball agreements with major conferences and negotiated 10-year extensions of the Army-Navy and Notre Dame-Navy football rivalries.

Aresco was the creator and executive producer of The Tony Barnhart Show and Courtside with Seth Davis, both of which aired on the CBS Sports Network. In 2004, he was appointed by the late NCAA President Myles Brand to the Basketball Partnership, a select panel whose mission was to explore ways to improve and promote college basketball.

Aresco joined CBS Sports from ESPN where he was responsible for overseeing the acquisition, scheduling and development of long-term strategies for all ESPN college sports properties. Earlier in his tenure at ESPN, he was responsible for programming a wide variety of sports properties, including College Football Association, Big Ten, and Pac-10 college football, NCAA events, including early rounds of the NCAA basketball tournament, the College World Series and various professional sports events, including thoroughbred racing, Top Rank Boxing, CFL football, Australian Rules Football, rodeo and yachting. He was the architect of ESPN's signature Thursday night college football series and helped develop ESPN's Bowl Week. He joined ESPN in 1984 as Counsel and was named Assistant General Counsel in 1988 before moving to the programming department.

Aresco is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Tufts University (B.A., magna cum laude, history), The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts (M.A., international relations), where he held a John Moors Cabot Scholarship, and the University of Connecticut School of Law (J.D.). He practiced law privately in Hartford, Connecticut, for several years.

Aresco is a regular speaker and expert panelist at national symposiums and seminars on the topics of college athletics and sports television. He was awarded the 2013 Distinguished Graduate Award by the UConn School of Law Alumni Association and was elected to the Middletown (Connecticut) Sports Hall of Fame in January of 2015.

Aresco and his wife, Sharon, have two adult sons: Matthew, an Emmy-nominated television producer who lives in Connecticut with his wife, Elizabeth; and Brett, an actor who lives in New York City.

Donna DeMarco
Senior Associate Commissioner (Administration)

Donna DeMarco has been part of the conference staff since 1988 and has been Senior Associate Commissioner for Administration since 2009.

DeMarco serves as The American's chief operating officer, overseeing the organizational aspects of the conference, including management of the conference staff. As the conference's primary administrator, she ensures that direct lines of communication exist between the conference office and the 12 member institutions.

Additionally, DeMarco assists with overall administration and management of conference matters pertaining to service, governance and facilitation.

DeMarco has further oversight of the fiscal, legal and business affairs of The American and is the conference's liaison with institutional personnel in those areas. She supervises the approval of the conference's annual operating budget, ensures appropriate legal contract review and manages the league's human resource operation.

Before taking on her current role, DeMarco had been Associate Commissioner for Women's Basketball from 2006-09, during which time she was the primary administrator for one of the conference's most successful and high-profile sports.

DeMarco was the conference's Associate Commissioner for Sport Administration from 1996-2006, overseeing all operational and governance matters for 23 conference sports. She began her career as an administrative assistant for Public Relations & Championships in 1988 before being promoted to Director of Championship Operations and subsequently Assistant Commissioner for Championships.

DeMarco completed a term on the NCAA Division I Administration Cabinet — which is responsible for addressing governance issues, the Division I membership process and all committee selections — in July of 2015. She was a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Soccer Committee from 1999-2003 and served as the committee chair from 2000-03.

DeMarco is a 1987 graduate of the University of Connecticut with a bachelor's degree in communications and journalism.

Tom Odjakjian
Senior Associate Commissioner (Broadcasting)

Tom Odjakjian, who serves as the Senior Associate Commissioner for Broadcasting and Digital Content, is a longtime veteran of the conference's senior staff, having joined the office from ESPN in 1995 as Associate Commissioner.

Odjakjian has oversight of all external conference content, including its digital content, and is The American's primary liaison with the league's television partners, managing those relationships on a daily basis.

Odjakjian has been the conference's primary point person for a number of significant television agreements, including The American's current partnerships with ESPN and CBS Sports that have given member institutions unprecedented exposure. Under the conference's current agreement, all conference-controlled football and men's basketball games will be televised, with nearly 90 percent of the football games and more than 90 percent of the men's basketball games available on either national broadcast or national cable platforms.

Odjakjian also has direct involvement in the assembly of The American's annual schedules in football and men's and women's basketball, in order to fulfill the network's contractual obligations and maximize exposure for the conference while balancing institutional schedules.

Odjakjian served in various executive roles at ESPN from 1981-94, including as the director of college sports. He was responsible for negotiation, acquisition, scheduling and budget supervision for the network's collegiate sports programming. Odjakjian was the architect behind the creation of ESPN's basketball Championship Week and football Bowl Week and had a hand in the network's NFL, NBA, NHL and Olympic sports programming.

Prior to joining ESPN, Odjakjian also served as Associate Commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference and Assistant Sports Information Director at Princeton University. While at ESPN, in 1994, he was named as The Most Influential Person in College Sports by College Sports Magazine and was tabbed as one of the four most influential people in college basketball by Sporting News in 1990.

Odjakjian is a 1976 graduate of Lafayette with a bachelor's degree in Economics and Business. He played football and baseball as an undergraduate and was the recipient of George Wharton Pepper Prize, Lafayette's most prestigious honor.

CONFERENCE STAFF

Scott Draper
Associate Commissioner (Football)

Scott Draper joined the American Athletic Conference staff in April 2014 as Associate Commissioner for Football.

Draper is the conference's primary football administrator and contact for all football initiatives and programs, including scheduling, officiating, operations and bowl relationships.

As the conference's liaison with administrators and coaches from each member institution, Draper works with the commissioner on football budgets and special projects and also provides oversight of the Miami Beach Bowl and The American Athletic Conference Football Championship.

Draper joined The American after most recently serving as Associate Director of Athletics and Director of Development for Athletics at Albion College, a position he held since 2011. Prior to that, he was the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations at the University of Michigan, where he was a key staff member of teams that won four Big Ten Football championships, four Rose Bowls, played in 12 bowl games and won the 1997 National Championship. In his role, he supervised football sport administration, strength and conditioning, equipment operations, and athletic training operations. He also served as sport administrator and liaison to admissions, academic services, compliance and eligibility, and dining and housing.

Previously, he was a Football Offensive Graduate Assistant (1995-97) and Assistant Video Coordinator (1992-95) at the University of Michigan.

Draper holds a bachelor's degree in general studies from Eastern Michigan University (1994). He earned a master's degree in business administration from Madonna University in 2012.

Terry McAulay
Coordinator of Football Officiating

Terry McAulay has been the conference's Coordinator of Football Officiating since 2008. He is responsible for the development, training, recruitment and evaluation of football officials within the conference.

McAulay has served as an NFL referee since 2001 and he has worked five conference championship games and two Super Bowls (XXXIX and XLIII). He was a side judge for four years before becoming a referee.

Before working at the NFL, McAulay was a referee with the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Old Dominion Athletic Conference. His college officiating career began in 1989.

While working for the ACC, McAulay was the referee for the 1998 BCS National Championship Game which was played at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

McAulay earned a bachelor's degree from LSU in 1981 and a master's degree from Johns Hopkins in 1989.

Michael Costa
Senior Director of Football Administration

Michael Costa joined the full-time conference staff in 2011 as Assistant Director of Football & Video Administration and was promoted to his current position in 2016.

Costa assists in all football administrative tasks and coordinates the conference's football video operations. He is the primary point person for all logistical operations associated with the American Athletic Conference Football Championship, which will be played for the first time in 2015 and has oversight duties with the Miami Beach Bowl.

Costa spent the 2010-11 season as the conference's football and video administration assistant.

Before coming to the conference, Costa served as a football game day operations intern with the Atlantic Coast Conference and assisted with the South Florida Host Committee for Super Bowl XLIV in Miami.

Originally from Lynchburg, Virginia, Costa is a graduate of Guilford College and holds a master's degree in sports management from Florida State University.

Stacy Martin
Chief Financial Officer

Stacy Martin joined the American Athletic Conference as Chief Financial Officer in May of 2015.

Before joining The American, Martin had been Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director for Finance and Administration at the University of Memphis since 2012

Before joining the staff at Memphis, Martin served as Assistant Athletic Director for Business at Kansas State. She served for eight years at her alma mater, San Jose State University, as Senior Associate Athletic Director and COO. She is a recent Past-President and five-year Executive Committee member of the Collegiate Athletic Business Management Association, has partnered with the NCAA on the development of a Global Business Travel Association workshop for athletic business officers, and was the tournament manager of the 2014 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball South Regional.

Martin holds an undergraduate degree, cum laude, in business administration, with a concentration in corporate financial management, and an MBA in finance, both from San Jose State University. Additionally, she serves as a member of the Global Business Travel Association Sports Committee and has participated in the Sports Management Institute's Executive Education Program

Ellen Ferris
Associate Commissioner (Governance and Compliance)

Ellen Ferris joined the American Athletic Conference staff in October of 2013 as Associate Commissioner for Governance and Compliance.

Ferris' responsibilities include coordination and administration of the conference's day-to-day compliance services with member institutions, including interpretative support and rules education.

Before joining the conference staff, Ferris served as Associate Vice President for Athletic Compliance at the University of Southern California. She also served four years at the NCAA and was the Assistant Commissioner for Compliance Services at the Big Sky Conference for three years.

Ferris sits on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Athletic Compliance and has been a member of the NAAC Reasonable Standards Committee, the NCAA Division I Legislative Review and Interpretations Committee, the Division I Management Council and the Division I Men's Tennis Committee

Ferris holds an undergraduate degree in education from Texas State University-San Marcos and a master's degree in sport management from the United States Sports Academy. She holds a juris doctor degree from Southern Methodist University.

Bernadette Cafarelli
Associate Commissioner (Communications)

Bernadette Cafarelli joined the American Athletic Conference as associate commissioner for communications in January of 2016.

Cafarelli came to The American after spending the last 22 years at the University of Notre Dame, most recently as assistant athletics director/media relations.

Cafarelli worked as the primary contact for Notre Dame's men's basketball program, while she coordinated game management operations for Irish football games, including press box management.

Before joining the staff at Notre Dame, Cafarelli served as assistant director of marketing, promotions and media relations at Providence College for eight years. She began her career as assistant sports information director at the College of William & Mary.

Cafarelli has been a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America's Academic All-America committee for 25 years, including the last three years as the committee co-chair.

Cafarelli earned a bachelor's degree in American Studies from Notre Dame and holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. She was the 2000 recipient of CoSIDA's Lester Jordan Award, for outstanding contribution to the Academic All-America program, accepted the CoSIDA Arch Ward Award for excellence in 2016, served on CoSIDA's University Division Management Advisory Council from 2010-12, and was inducted into the CoSIDA Hall of Fame in 2013.

Barbara Jacobs
Associate Commissioner (Women's Basketball)

Barbara Jacobs, who has worked with the conference since 1995, was promoted to her current position of Associate Commissioner for Women's Basketball in July of 2014.

Jacobs oversees all aspects of The American's women's basketball operations, including television, scheduling, branding and messaging, and management of the conference championship.

Jacobs was the Secretary/Rules Editor for the NCAA Women's Basketball Rules Committee from 1998-2006 and was the tournament manager for the 2004 NCAA East Regional. She was named Vice President of the CCA Coordinators of Officials from 1997-99 and was President from 1999-2001.

Jacobs was head coach at Syracuse from 1978-93, helping the Orange to the 1985 Big East title. She was named Big East Coach of the Year in 1988.

Jacobs was the head coach at Hartwick prior to leading the Syracuse program. During her eight-year tenure at Hartwick, she was also the head field hockey coach, head men's tennis coach, coordinator of women's athletics and a tenured professor of physical education.

Jacobs was inducted into the Syracuse Orange Plus Hall of Fame in 1990 and to the New England Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006.

Jacobs holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Wisconsin at La Crosse and a master's degree in education from SUNY Cortland.

CONFERENCE STAFF

James Siedliski
Associate Commissioner
(Sport Administration & Championships)

James Siedliski was promoted to his current position of Associate Commissioner for Sport Administration & Championships in 2006.

Siedliski oversees management and operations of the conference's 18 Olympic sport programs, including scheduling, officiating, policy-making and oversight of postseason championships. He additionally serves as tournament manager for The American's annual men's basketball championship and is the conference's liaison with member institutions with all matters pertaining to Olympic sport administration.

In addition to his duties with the conference, Siedliski was a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Committee for three years, and chaired the committee in 2013.

Siedliski came to the conference in 1998 as Director of Sport Administration and was promoted to Assistant Commissioner for Sport Administration in 2000 before assuming his current role on the conference's senior staff.

Before joining the conference, Siedliski had been Executive Director of the New Jersey Association of USA Track & Field.

Siedliski is a 1989 graduate of Rutgers University.

Chuck Sullivan
Assistant Commissioner
(Communications)

Chuck Sullivan joined the conference as Director of Communications in August 2007 and was promoted to Assistant Commissioner in 2014.

Sullivan manages the day-to-day communications operations for The American's 21 Division I sports and serves as the primary external relations contact for football.

Sullivan has served on the media coordination staff for the College Football Playoff, the BCS National Championship and the NCAA Final Four.

Before coming to the conference, Sullivan served as Director of Athletic Communications at Harvard from 2003-07, where he managed the communications efforts for the nation's largest intercollegiate athletics program. He also served as Assistant Director of Athletics for Communications at Bryant from 1999-2003. He was the Sports Information Director at UMass Boston from 1995-99.

Sullivan is a 1993 graduate of Boston University.

Robert Weygand Jr.
Assistant Commissioner
(Sport Administration & Championships)

Robert Weygand joined the conference staff in 2004 and serves as Assistant Commissioner of Sport Administration and Championships.

Weygand serves as one of the primary administrators and contacts for several American Athletic Conference sports and is the lead office liaison for communication with member schools' administrators, coaching staffs and game officials. He provides on-site management of select conference championships, oversees regular-season scheduling and is the conference's liaison with the members' sports medicine group.

Weygand served as Director of Sport Administration since 2007 after spending three years as Assistant Director of Sport Administration.

Weygand is a 2002 graduate of the University of Rhode Island with a degree in sports medicine. He earned a master's degree in education from Springfield College in 2004.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

The College Football Playoff (CFP) is a big success. Fans, including many who are new to the sport, enjoy it. The first College Football Playoff semifinals and national championship were the three most-viewed programs in cable television history.

Every Game Counts

The playoff preserves the excitement and significance of college football's unique regular season where every game counts.

Four Teams

The selection committee ranks the teams based on championships won, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, comparative outcomes of common opponents and other factors.

Two Days

New Year's Eve and New Year's Day belong to college football, with two semifinal games and four other top bowl games continuing a wonderful tradition. The two teams winning the playoff semifinals compete for the College Football Playoff National Championship. That game is in a different city each year, always on a Monday night.

Universal Access

Every FBS team has equal access to the College Football Playoff based on its performance. No team automatically qualifies.

Governance

University presidents and chancellors from all 10 FBS conferences and Notre Dame serve on the CFP Board of Managers and govern the administrative operations, with commissioners (the Management Committee) managing the event. A small staff in the playoff office in Irving, Texas, carries out the detailed responsibilities.

Selection Committee

A talented group of high-integrity individuals with experience as coaches, student-athletes, college administrators and journalists, along with sitting athletics directors, comprise the selection committee. Members of the committee are: Kirby Hocutt (chair), Barry Alvarez, Jeff Bower, Lloyd Carr, Herb Deromedi, Tom Jernstedt, Bobby Johnson, Jeff Long, Rob Mullens, Dan Radakovich, Condoleezza Rice, Steve Wieberg and Tyrone Willingham.

Selection Committee Responsibilities

- Rank the top 25 teams and assign the top four to semifinal sites.
- Assign teams to New Year's bowls
- Create competitive matchups
- Attempt to avoid rematches of regular-season games and repeat appearances
- Consider geography

Participants In New Year's Bowls

Both participants in the Orange, Rose and Sugar Bowls are contracted outside the playoff arrangement (Big Ten and Pac-12 to Rose Bowl; SEC and Big 12 to Sugar Bowl; ACC to Orange Bowl against the highest ranked available team from the SEC, Big Ten and Notre Dame). If a conference champion qualifies for the playoff, then the bowl will choose a replacement from that conference. When those bowls host the semifinals and their contracted conference champions do not qualify, then the displaced champion(s) will play in one of the other New Year's bowls.

When not hosting semifinals, the Cotton, Fiesta and Peach Bowls will welcome displaced conference champions and the top-ranked champion from a non-contract conference. The highest-ranked available teams will fill any other berths. The selection committee will make the pairings.

The American Bowl Lineup

In addition to the College Football Playoff and New Year's Bowls, The American will have either a primary or secondary affiliation with 12 bowl games during its current six-year bowl cycle. The American works annually with its member schools and bowl partners to create the most sensible and attractive postseason matchups.

The Miami Beach Bowl was played for the first time in 2014 at state-of-the-art Marlins Park in Miami, which sits on the site of the historic Orange Bowl stadium. An American Athletic Conference plays in the bowl each year, beginning with last year's matchup against Brigham Young. Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference and the Sun Belt Conference are scheduled for future years, though institutions from other conferences also will have the opportunity to participate.

The Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman takes place at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis, Maryland, while the events and activities surrounding the game are based in Washington, D.C. The American Athletic Conference will face an opponent from the Atlantic Coast Conference each year in the current cycle.

The Birmingham Bowl takes place at Legion Field in Birmingham, Alabama. The American/Big East has partnered with the bowl since its inception in the 2006 season. The American Athletic Conference will annually face an opponent from the Southeastern Conference.

The St. Petersburg Bowl is played at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Florida. The American Athletic Conference will supply a team to the bowl during each year of the six-year cycle. Conference USA will play in the game in 2015, 2017 and 2019, while the Atlantic Coast Conference provides the opposing team in 2014, 2016 and 2018.

The Marmot Boca Raton Bowl began in 2014 and will feature an American Athletic Conference team three times during the six-year cycle at FAU Stadium in Boca Raton, Florida. The American representative will play a team from either the Mid-American Conference or Conference USA in 2016.

The Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl is played at Amon G. Carter Stadium on the campus of Texas Christian University. The American Athletic Conference sends a team to the bowl in 2014, 2016 and 2018. The opponent will be a Big 12 team in 2016 and 2018, with Conference USA as a secondary affiliation.

The Popeyes Bahamas Bowl is played in at Thomas A. Robinson Stadium in Nassau, Bahamas. The American Athletic Conference will face the Mid-American Conference or Conference USA in 2016 and 2018.

The AutoNation Cure Bowl made its debut in 2015 at the newly renovated Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Florida. An American Athletic Conference team will be paired against an opponent from the Sun Belt Conference. Net proceeds from the game will benefit the Breast Cancer Research Foundation.

The R&L Carriers New Orleans Bowl is held at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans. The American Athletic Conference has agreed to play in the bowl in 2018 and 2019.

The Hawai'i Bowl is played on Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium on the campus of the University of Hawaii. The American Athletic Conference will participate in the bowl in 2015, 2017 and 2019, facing an opponent from the Mountain West.

In addition to the conference's primary bowl affiliations, The American holds secondary partnerships with the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tennessee, the Duck Commander Independence Bowl in Shreveport, Louisiana, and the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl in San Diego, as well as with other ESPN-owned bowls.

THE AMERICAN DIGITAL NETWORK

The most in-depth coverage of the 2016 American Athletic Conference football season can be found on The American Digital Network, the over-the-top streaming video platform of The American and its 12 member institutions.

The American has extended its partnership with L2 Productions to provide video production services for more than 65 events annually on The American Digital Network through the 2018-19 academic year.

The American and L2 Productions have collaborated on live video production of regular-season and championship events for the past two years. The American Digital Network more than 80 events in the 2015-16 season. All events are carried by professional-grade, multiple-camera productions which include accomplished play-by-play announcers and expert analysts.

As a result of the partnership, The American Digital Network will continue to provide complete live video coverage of The American's postseason championships in cross country, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, and rowing.

The ADN will also provide coverage of any games of the conference's women's soccer, men's soccer, softball and baseball championships that are not carried by one of the conference's television partners.

Additionally, The American Digital Network will provide coverage of regular-season women's basketball games as well as select regular-season contests in soccer, volleyball, softball and baseball. The ADN will have full wraparound coverage of The American's postseason championships in football and men's and women's basketball.

In addition to its coverage of regular-season and championship events, The American Digital Network is the home for on-demand previews and game highlights as well as "The Rise," a weekly look at the conference that includes scores, highlights and feature stories.

The American Digital Network is also the primary source for coverage of the conference's Summer Kickoff and Media Days in Newport, Rhode Island. Coverage in 2016 will once again include live segments from the podium, including roundtable discussions with The American's 12 head coaches and the opening remarks by commissioner Mike Aresco.

All of The American Digital Network productions are available on desktop, tablet, mobile and Roku devices at no charge. The ADN includes DVR functionality and immediate access to archived replays.

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE NOTEBOOK

Three's Company
The American Athletic Conference was one of five FBS leagues that had at least three 10-win teams in 2015 (Houston, Navy, Temple). The others were the ACC, Big Ten, Big 12 and SEC.

Poll Position
Houston finished the 2015 season ranked No. 8 in both the Associated Press and USA Today polls. It was Houston's highest finish in the AP poll since 1979, when the Cougars were No. 5. Navy was ranked No. 18 in both polls for the Midshipmen's best AP finish since 1963 (No. 2).

The Best Around
Temple LB Tyler Matakevich was chosen as the 2015 winner of the Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player.

The Company We Keep
The American Athletic Conference ranked fifth among FBS conferences in winning percentage against other FBS opponents in 2015.

returning players in italics

Nice Debut
Houston coach Tom Herman became the fourth coach in NCAA history to win 13 games in his first season. He joined Boise State's Chris Petersen (2006), Penn's George Woodruff (1892) and Yale's Walter Camp (1888).

To Be The Best ...
Houston was one of two schools nationally (along with Stanford) to go unbeaten in at least four games against top-25 opponents in 2015.

Rank And File
Ten of the 12 teams in the American Athletic Conference have been ranked in the top 25 of the Bowl Championship Series standings or the College Football Playoff committee rankings between 2008 and 2015.

Team	Years Ranked (2008-15)
UCF	2010, 2013

Tulsa	2008

Back Where We Belong
UConn and USF returned to postseason play for the first time since the 2010 season. Tulsa played in a bowl game for the first time since the 2012 campaign.

Moving The Turnstiles
Average attendance at American Athletic Conference home stadiums improved by 9.1 percent in 2015. The average home crowd in The American was 31,842 in 2015 after an average of 21,193 in 2014. Temple drew 69,176 at Lincoln Financial Field for its season-opening win against Penn State and broke that mark with 69,280 against Notre Dame.

Cincinnati had an on-campus record with 40,124 in attendance against UConn. Memphis had 60,241 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium for the Tigers' game against Mississippi, while Houston had a TDECU Stadium-record 42,159 on hand for the Cougars' game against Memphis.

Dane Evans, Tulsa

Ratings Scale
The American Athletic Conference had 18 games last season that drew at least one million television viewers. Nearly six million television viewers nationally watched Temple's Oct. 31 game against Notre Dame on ABC. The game averaged 5,977,000 viewers despite competition from Game 4 of the World Series.

In Philadelphia, the Temple-Notre Dame game drew a 17.6 local rating which, by far, was ABC's highest recorded rating for a regular-season college football game in the nation's No. 4 designated market area. The game also provided the backdrop for ESPN College GameDay, which was staged from Independence Mall.

Memphis' Oct. 17 win against Mississippi attracted a 22.6 rating and a 39 share in the Memphis DMA, while the Tigers also earned local ratings of 12.0 or better for their conference games against Cincinnati and Tulsa on ESPN.

As Easy As ABC
The American Athletic Conference had five conference-controlled games televised nationally on ABC in 2015 — two more than the annual contracted minimum. The American Athletic Conference Championship had a television audience of 2.4 million viewers, while the regular-season finale between Houston and Navy drew 3.1 million viewers.

Chart Toppers
The American Athletic Conference has had a team finish in the national top 10 of the Associated Press and USA Today polls in two of its first three seasons. Houston was No. 8 in the final polls of 2015, while UCF was No. 10 to close the 2013 season.

The American placed two teams in the top 20 of the final national polls in each of those years.

Greg Ward Jr., Houston

American Idols

Keep an eye on these American Athletic Conference players, who could challenge for All-America honors in 2016.

Jordan Akins, TE, UCF
The 6-3, 240-pound Akins was off to a terrific start to the 2015 season (14 rec., 152 yards, two TDs in two games) before an injury on the opening kickoff of the following game ended his year.

Mike Boone, RB, Cincinnati
Boone split carries in a talented backfield, but averaged 7.2 yards per attempt and led the Bearcats with nine touchdowns.

Jamar Summers, CB, UConn
Summers led The American with eight interceptions as part of a defense that held eight of 13 opponents to fewer than 20 points.

Zay Jones, WR, East Carolina
Jones led The American with 98 receptions last season and enters his senior year with 2,553 career receiving yards.

Greg Ward Jr., QB, Houston
Ward is finding himself on some early Heisman Trophy candidate lists after he rushed for 21 touchdowns and threw for 17 in Houston's 13-1 season.

Jake Elliott, K, Memphis
Elliott earned second team All-America status from the Associated Press and Walter Camp last year and is a two-time American Athletic Conference Special Teams Player of the Year.

Jamir Tillman, WR, Navy
Despite playing in an offense that had a six-to-one run-pass ratio last year, Tillman had five touchdown receptions and averaged 20.6 yards per catch.

Marlon Mack, RB, USF
Mack set USF's single-season rushing record with 1,381 yards and was The American's leader with 115.1 yards per game.

Matt Davis, QB, SMU
Davis rushed for 10 touchdowns and threw for 16 as the Mustangs nearly tripled their offensive production from 2014 to 2015.

Jahad Thomas, RB, Temple
Thomas was a workhorse in the Owls' backfield who rushed for 1,262 yards and was second among American running backs with 17 touchdowns last year.

Tanzel Smart, DT, Tulane
Smart registered 15.0 tackles for loss from the interior line on his way to first team all-conference honors in 2015.

Keevan Lucas, WR, Tulsa
Lucas was averaging 102.2 receiving yards per game for suffering a season-ending knee injury early last season. He had 101 catches for 1,219 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2014.

Jamir Tillman, Navy

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE NOTEBOOK

Breaking Ground
Since the formation of The American, several teams have enjoyed unprecedented success in FBS football. Houston (13), Navy (11) and Temple (10) all set or tied school records for wins in 2015. Memphis won 10 games in the 2014 season to match its school record, set in 1938.

Individualism
In its first three seasons, American Athletic Conference football players have earned some of college football's most prestigious individual awards. Former Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while former Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting and won the AAU Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete. Former Memphis punter Tom Hornsey was chosen as the 2013 Ray Guy Award winner as the nation's top punter.

Draft Status
The American Athletic Conference has had at least two players chosen in the first round of each of the last three NFL drafts. Former Houston cornerback William Jackson III was taken at No. 24 overall by the Cincinnati Bengals, while former Memphis quarterback Paxton Lynch went at No. 26 to the Denver Broncos in the 2016 draft. The American has had three quarterbacks taken in the first round in its first three seasons.

Welcome Aboard
The American Athletic Conference will introduce four new head coaches in 2016. Former Oregon offensive coordinator Scott Frost takes over at UCF,. Former Duke offensive coordinator Scottie Montgomery is the new head coach at East Carolina. Mike Norvell, most recently the offensive coordinator at Arizona State, is the head coach at Memphis, while former Georgia Southern coach Willie Fritz is the new man at Tulane.

Giant Killers
UConn was the only team to defeat Houston in the Cougars' 13-1 season last year. The Huskies also were the only American Athletic Conference team to defeat UCF, when the Knights went 7-1 in conference play in 2015.

Three Grand
Tulsa quarterback Dane Evans looks to become the first Golden Hurricane player to throw for 3,000 yards in three separate seasons. Evans ranked eighth nationally with 4,332 passing yards last season.

Dual Threats
Two returning American Athletic Conference quarterbacks — Houston's Greg Ward Jr. and USF's Quinton Flowers — ranked among the conference's top 10 players in both rushing and passing in 2015. SMU quarterback Matt Davis finished as the Mustangs' leading rusher and passer as well.

Championship Week
The second American Athletic Conference Football Championship will take place Dec. 3, 2016, at the home venue of the divisional champion with the best record in conference games. The game will take place at noon ET and will be televised on either ABC or ESPN. Houston defeated Temple 24-13 at TDECU Stadium to win last year's inaugural championship.

Rising Stars

Here are some American Athletic Conference players who could be poised for breakout seasons in 2016.

Tre'Quan Smith, So., WR, UCF
Smith was The American's Rookie of the Year in 2015 after he caught 52 passes for 724 yards and four TDs as a true freshman.

Cortez Broughton So., DT, Cincinnati
Broughton made 11 starts as a redshirt freshman last year and will be a key factor on an experienced Bearcat defensive line.

E.J. Levenberry, Jr., LB, UConn
Levenberry played all 13 games for Florida State's national championship team in 2014 and strengthens a solid group of linebackers.

Phillp Nelson, Jr., QB, East Carolina
Nelson, who was a two-year starter at Minnesota, could be next in line on East Carolina's list of talented quarterbacks.

Will Noble, So., C, Houston
Noble showed poise and ability as a true freshman as he stepped in to earn Freshman All-America honors on an offensive line unit that was beset with injuries in 2015.

Riley Ferguson, Jr., QB, Memphis
Ferguson threw for 2,942 yards and 35 touchdowns at Coffeyville CC and should step right into the starting lineup following the departure of Paxton Lynch to the NFL.

Tago Smith, Sr., QB, Navy
Smith saw limited action behind Heisman Trophy candidate Keenan Reynolds, but was effective in spot duty and has the keys to the Midshipmen's offense as a senior.

Rodney Adams, Sr., WR, USF
The Bulls' turnaround last year coincided with the strong second-half play of Adams, who had 822 yards and nine TDs as a junior.

Courtland Sutton, So., WR, SMU
Sutton tied for the conference lead with nine touchdown catches as a true freshman and emerged as a big-play threat from the outset.

Ventell Bryant, So., WR, Temple
Bryant set school records for receptions (39) and receiving yards (579) by a freshman and should be a focal point of the Owls' offense as a sophomore.

Dontrell Hilliard, Jr., RB, Tulane
Hilliard rushed for 646 yards last year and should thrive in the run-oriented offense of new coach Willie Fritz.

Jeremy Smith, Jr., DE, Tulsa
Smith had 6.5 tackles for loss last year and should be a big part of the Golden Hurricane's veteran defense in 2016.

Courtland Sutton, SMU

Scott Frost
Head Coach

A new era in UCF football begins in 2016 as the Knights announced Dec. 1, 2015, the hiring of Oregon offensive coordinator Scott Frost as the 10th head coach in program history.

A former national-champion quarterback at Nebraska, Frost was with Oregon from 2009-15, and took over as its offensive coordinator in 2013.

When Frost arrived to Eugene, Oregon remained one of the top offenses in the country. In 2009, the Ducks ranked 33rd in total offense and eighth in scoring. One year later, they climbed to first in the FBS in both categories, and never dropped below sixth with Frost on staff.

Oregon won at least 10 games each year from 2009-14, and had a 79-11 record during Frost's tenure before he accepted the role at UCF. The Ducks appeared in the national title game in 2010 and 2014 along with the Rose Bowl, Fiesta Bowl and Alamo Bowl.

Frost was the offensive coordinator as Marcus Mariota won the Heisman Trophy following a 2014 campaign where he threw for 4,454 yards and 42 touchdowns with just four interceptions. Mariota completed 66.8 percent of his passes with 105 passing touchdowns and 14 picks as a Duck, as well as rushing for 2,237 yards and 29 touchdowns from 2012-14.

Frost originally kicked off his career on the sidelines as a graduate assistant at Nebraska in 2002, then held the same role with Kansas State in 2006. His first full-time position came as the linebackers coach for Northern Iowa in 2007 and then as co-defensive coordinator in 2008. Both of those seasons the Panthers appeared in the FCS Playoffs.

A native of Wood River, Nebraska, Frost traveled to Stanford to begin his college career under legendary Pro Football Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh. Frost played at both quarterback and free safety for the Cardinal. He then returned home to suit up for Nebraska and head coach College Football Hall of Famer Tom Osborne. After sitting out the 1995 campaign where the program went 12-0 en route to the national title, he took over for Tommie Frazier in 1996 as the Cornhuskers' starting signal-caller. That season, he was selected as the Big 12 Offensive Newcomer of the Year thanks to throwing for 1,440 yards with 13 touchdowns and just three picks. He also rushed for 438 yards and nine touchdowns.

As a senior in 1997, Frost was a Johnny Unitas Award finalist, a Davey O'Brien Award semifinalist and a CoSIDA Academic All-America selection. He was voted on to the All-Big 12 Second Team, throwing for 1,237 yards and rushing for 1,096 along with 19 touchdowns on the ground.

During 1997, the Cornhuskers faced off with UCF in Lincoln, where the Knights, who were in just their second year in the FBS, surprised the home team with a 17-14 halftime lead. No. 6 Nebraska bounced back with 17 points in the third quarter for a 38-24 win, and the Cornhuskers eventually were a perfect 13-0 to claim yet another national championship.

Frost would later be tagged in the NFL Draft's third round by the New York Jets, and played in regular season games on defense for the Jets, Browns and Buccaneers.

Frost and his wife, Ashley, were married in March 2016.

Tommy Tuberville
Head Coach

Tommy Tuberville was named the 41st football head coach at the University of Cincinnati Dec. 8, 2012.

Tuberville, widely regarded as one of the top coaches and recruiters in college football, holds a career mark of 149-85. He has led the Bearcats to an 18-8 mark, a 2014 American Athletic Conference Football Championship and three bowl appearances.

The 2015 UC squad finished 7-6, played in the Hawai'i Bowl, had the most prolific offense in school history, set 18 school records and finished No. 6 in the NCAA FBS in total offense, averaging 537.8 yards per game.

UC finished its 2014 campaign with a 9-4 record, an American Athletic Conference Championship and a matchup against Virginia Tech in the 2014 Military Bowl.

Cincinnati rebounded from a 2-3 start and finished the regular season 9-3 on a seven-game winning streak with a share of the conference crown.

The 2013 Bearcats led the American Athletic Conference in total offense (472.1) and rushing offense (168.3) with the offense totaling a school-record 6,137 yards. The defense was one of the best in the country, ranking in the top 10 nationally in both rushing defense (6th, 104.5 ypg) and total defense (9th, 315.6 ypg).

He came to UC after three years at Texas Tech, where he led the Red Raiders to a 20-17 mark and a pair of bowl appearances.

Tuberville assembled the top two recruiting classes in Texas Tech history that placed the Red Raiders in the national top 25 in both 2011 and 2012.

Tuberville's strong bowl history proved beneficial for the Red Raiders as he led them to a 45-38 win over Northwestern, which gave Tech its third consecutive win over a Big Ten foe.

In 10 seasons at Auburn (1999-2008), Tuberville led the Tigers to 85 overall wins, which ranks fourth in school history. The Tigers also won 49 Southeastern Conference games, a number that is the fourth-best mark in the SEC. Tuberville led Auburn to seven-straight bowl appearances, including New Year's Day bowl games in four of those years.

In 2004, Tuberville led Auburn to its best season ever as the Tigers won a school-record 13 games and captured the SEC Championship and the Nokia Sugar Bowl title. Auburn won its first conference title since 1989, including its first outright championship since 1987. Auburn defeated five top-15 teams, becoming just the 10th NCAA Division I-A team to finish 13-0 or better. The Tigers earned their first berth in a Bowl Championship Series game and defeated Virginia Tech, 16-13 in the Sugar Bowl. For his efforts, Tuberville was named the AFCA, Associated Press, Paul "Bear" Bryant, FCA, SEC and Walter Camp Coach of the Year.

The season before Tuberville's arrival, Auburn finished with a 3-8 overall record and a last-place finish in the SEC Western Division. Tuberville led Auburn to an SEC Championship, five Western Division titles including outright championships in 2000 and 2004 and co-championships in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Tuberville directed Auburn to eight consecutive bowl appearances, including five New Year's Day bowl berths and three consecutive January 1 bowl games from 2005-07.

While at Ole Miss from 1995-98, Tuberville posted a 25-20 record. Inheriting a Rebel program plagued by NCAA sanctions and probation, he guided Ole Miss to a winning record in his first season in 1995, despite having just 61 players on scholarship. He did not have a full compliment of scholarship players to work with in any of his four years at Ole Miss.

Prior to becoming head coach at Ole Miss, Tuberville served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas A&M for one season. In 1994, he helped lead the Aggies to a 10-0-1 record and No. 8 final ranking by the Associated Press.

Tuberville served as a member of the University of Miami staff for eight seasons from 1986-93, taking over as defensive coordinator in 1993. While serving on the staffs of Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson at Miami, Tuberville was a defensive coach on teams which won three national championships, posted an 87-9 record and played in nine consecutive New Year's Day bowls.

Tuberville began his collegiate coaching career at Arkansas State in 1980, coaching various segments of the Indians' defense over the next five seasons. He began his coaching career at Hermitage (Ark.) High School where he spent two years as an assistant and two as a head coach.

Bob Diaco
Head Coach

Bob Diaco enters his third season as UConn's head coach in 2016.

Before coming to UConn, Diaco served on the Notre Dame coaching staff as the defensive coordinator from 2010-13 and the assistant head coach in 2012-13. He was named the 30th head football coach at UConn Dec. 12, 2013.

Diaco led UConn to a four-game improvement in the win column in 2015 as the Huskies returned to a bowl game for the first time since the 2010 season. UConn clinched bowl eligibility thanks to a late three-game winning streak. which included a 20-17 win against No. 13 Houston at Pratt & Whitney Stadium at Rentschler Field.

UConn was one of the top defensive teams nationally in 2016 as the Huskies led the American Athletic Conference and ranked 15th in NCAA FBS in scoring defense (19.5 points per game). UConn was second in The American, and 33rd nationally, in total defense (355.1 ypg).

Diaco was the 2012 winner of the Frank Broyles Award, given to the top assistant college football coach in the country and was the first Irish assistant to receive the prestigious award. He was a semifinalist for the award in 2011.

Diaco joined the Notre Dame staff in 2010 as defensive coordinator and inside linebacker coach, took responsibility for the entire linebacker position in 2011 and added responsibilities as associate head coach in 2012.

His 2012 Irish defense ranked among the top 10 in the Football Bowl Subdivision in 12 different categories as the school played in the BCS National Championship Game and posted an overall record of 12-1.

Diaco has an impressive coaching resume as he served at Virginia (2006-08) as the linebackers and special teams coordinator and Cincinnati (2009) as the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach before joining the Notre Dame staff.

A native of Cedar Grove, N.J., and a 1995 Iowa graduate, Diaco began his coaching career in 1996-97 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

He then served on the staffs of Western Illinois (1999-2000) as the special teams coordinator and running backs coach, Eastern Michigan (2001-2003) working with the same positions and Central Michigan (2005) as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

Diaco has coached in eight postseason games, including the BCS title game with Notre Dame in 2012 and the Sugar Bowl with Cincinnati in 2010. He played in three bowl games as a student-athlete at Iowa.

He was a two-time All-Big Ten selection at Iowa as a linebacker under Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry and was named the team's co-MVP in 1995, starting in all 23 games over his junior and senior seasons.

Diaco has developed a national reputation as one of the top defensive coaches in the game. Notre Dame allowed an average of 19.08 points/game over the last four seasons, which ranks as the ninth-best average over 2010-13 of any team in the FBS.

In his only season at Cincinnati (2009), he was charged with replacing 10 starters on the Bearcats' defense, including every player on the front seven for 2009. The Bearcats recorded 110 tackles for loss in 2009 (8.46 per game) to rank third in the nation. They totaled 37 sacks and tied for 10th in the country averaging 2.85 sacks per contest. Cincinnati's defense allowed 3.6 rushing yards per carry.

Prior to Cincinnati, Diaco spent three years as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator on Al Groh's coaching staff at the University of Virginia from 2006-08. At the conclusion of the 2008 season, was promoted to the Cavaliers' defensive coordinator position, but he left two months later to take the same position at Cincinnati. Virginia played in the Gator Bowl following '07.

In his only season at Central Michigan (2005), Diaco turned around CMU's rushing defense that just two years earlier had ranked last in the Mid-American Conference. Under Diaco's watch, Central Michigan led the MAC, allowing only 113.7 rushing yards per game.

He coached the special teams and linebackers at Western Michigan from 1999-2000. The punting, punt return and kickoff return units all finished in the top three of the MAC.

Diaco's first full-time position was at Western Illinois where he was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator in 1999 and 2000. The Leathernecks won the Gateway Conference crown in 2000 and made an appearance in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

RETURNING STARTERS (5)
J.T. Boyd, OG
Davon Grayson, WR
Zay Jones, WR
Brandon Smith, OT
Jimmy Williams, WR

WR Zay Jones, a fourth-year starter, enters 2016 in third place on East Carolina's career receptions (241) and receiving yards (2,553) charts. Jones ranked fourth nationally in receptions in 2015 (8.2 per game) and was named to The American's all-conference second team.

QB Phillip Nelson started 16 games at Minnesota from 2012-13 and could emerge as the Pirates' starter in 2016. Nelson threw nine touchdown passes and rushed for six TDs in 2013.

OG J.T. Boyd was an honorable mention all-conference selection in 2015 and is one of two returning starters on the offensive line

RB Anthony Scott, who rushed for 207 yards last season, is the top returner in the backfield.

DEFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (6)
Joe Allely, LB
DaShawn Benton, S
Demetri McGill, NT
Fred Presley, DE
Travon Simmons, S
Jordan Williams, LB

East Carolina returns two-thirds of its starting defensive line from last year, with senior DE Fred Presley and senior DT Demetri McGill providing a veteran presence. Presley had 4.0 tackles for loss and two forced fumbles last year, while McGill had 2.5 sacks, 5.5 tackles for loss and two fumble recoveries.

The Pirates will be without two all-conference performers at linebacker, but have LB Joe Allely and LB Jordan Williams back at that spot. Williams was East Carolina's second-leading tackler last season with 81 stops.

East Carolina has both starting safeties back. S Travon Simmons led the team with nine passes defended, while S DaShawn Benton had two interceptions.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (2)
Worth Gregory, P
Davis Plowman, K

K Davis Plowman was 10-of-12 on field goals in 2015, including a 7-of-7 showing from inside 40 yards.

P Worth Gregory averaged 43.0 yards per punt (fifth in The American) and had 11 punts of at least 50 yards.

WR Quay Johnson handled most of the kickoff (20.1 avg.) and punt (9.0 avg.) chores in 2015.

STORYLINES

East Carolina welcomes head coach Scottie Montgomery, who had been the offensive coordinator for the most successful era at Duke in program history.

East Carolina has made eight bowl appearances in the last 10 seasons. The Pirates dropped four of their last five games in 2015 to miss the postseason for the first time since 2011.

Scottie Montgomery
Head Coach

Scottie Montgomery, who has played an integral role leading Duke and the Pittsburgh Steelers to divisional championships and postseason play, is in his first season as head football coach at East Carolina University.

Montgomery, a North Carolina native with a documented history of balanced success on the offensive side of the ball, was formally introduced as the Pirates' 21st head coach Dec. 14, 2015.

His acceptance of the ECU position officially ended a two-year tenure as the Blue Devils' associate head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Overall, Montgomery served on the Duke staff for seven seasons under head coaches Ted Roof (2006-07) and David Cutcliffe (2008-09, 2013-15) - five as receivers coach. He helped guide Duke to three-straight bowl appearances, including an exciting 44-41 overtime victory against Indiana in the 2015 New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

Montgomery's coaching experience in the National Football League spanned three seasons under Mike Tomlin's leadership. His work with the Steelers' receivers in 2010, 2011 and 2012 resulted in two playoff appearances, the 2010 AFC North Division championship and a spot in Super Bowl XLV.

The 2015 campaign marked Montgomery's second as both primary offensive play-caller and quarterbacks coach at Duke, a program in which he starred as an All-Atlantic Coast Conference wide receiver from 1996 to 1999. Tasked with grooming a new starting quarterback following the graduation of the school's all-time winningest signal-caller and All-ACC selection Anthony Boone, Montgomery encouraged balance to a unit that continued to display a consistent level of production.

Montgomery was recognized for his efforts as a one of three finalists for the AFCA National Assistant Coach-of-the-Year Award in 2015. In addition, he was listed by Athlon as one of "College Football's 20 Best Coaches Under 40" - ranking among the top 13 coordinators in the country.

During his first year as offensive coordinator in 2014, Montgomery had oversight of an attack that tallied 421 points, the second-highest single-season total in program history. Only the 2013 squad, which Montgomery served as Duke's wide receivers coach, owns a better point total. In addition to a 32.4 scoring average, the Blue Devil offense also racked up 5,178 yards of total offense on the way to a 9-4 overall record and an appearance in the Hyundai Sun Bowl.

Montgomery helped the Steelers to a three-year regular season record of 32-16, mentoring receivers such Hines Ward, Mike Wallace and Antonio Brown.

During his earlier four-year coaching stay at Duke, Montgomery directed several of the finest pass-catchers in school and ACC history. As a wide receiver for the Blue Devils from 1996 to 1999, Montgomery paced Duke in receiving three-straight seasons and was a two-time winner of the program's Carmen Falcone Award as the Most Valuable Player. He became the third player in school history to lead the team in receptions in three straight years and was only the sixth Blue Devil to earn multiple team MVP honors.

Montgomery closed his collegiate career with 171 catches for 2,379 yards and 13 touchdowns. He caught 51 passes in both 1997 and 1999, and registered a career-high 60 receptions as a junior in 1998.

Montgomery's name is etched into the Duke record book for longest plays with an 88-yard pass from Bobby Campbell against Vanderbilt in 1998 and a 99-yard kickoff return versus Wake Forest in 1999. Montgomery finished his career ranking among Duke's all-time leaders in kickoff returns (63) and kickoff return yards (1,515) and all-purpose yardage (4,188).

During his senior campaign in 1999, Montgomery established the school standard for all-purpose yards in a season with 1,565 and he still holds two of Duke's top single-game totals for all-purpose yardage with 262 versus Vanderbilt in 1998 and 250 against Virginia in 1999. In the Vanderbilt contest, he registered 243 receiving yards, a total that at the time, marked the fourth-highest single-game performance in school history.

He played professionally with the NFL's Denver Broncos (2000-02) and Oakland Raiders (2003).

Montgomery was born in Shelby, North Carolina, and graduated from Burns High School before earning a bachelor's degree in cultural anthropology from Duke in 2000.

The Bulls return seven starters from a defense that ranked 13th nationally in tackles for loss (7..5 per game) and 14th in interceptions (17).

LB Auggie Sanchez had 117 tackles last season, the mos among returning players in the American Athletic Conference.

CB Deatrick Nichols was chosen to the American Athletic Conference First Team after he had four interceptions, two forced fumbles and 8.5 tackles for loss in 2015. S Devin Abraham had three interceptions.

USF ranked 13th nationally in turnover margin last season. The Bulls had 25 takeaways.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (1)

Emilio Nadelman, K

K Emilio Nadelman hit 15 field goals in 2015 and was 9-for-11 from inside 40 yards.

Rodney Adams was the American Athletic Conference leader in kickoff returns as he averaged 29.1 yards per attempt, including a 97-yard touchdown.

The Bulls averaged 10.9 yards on punt returns, good for second in The American.

STORYLINES

USF returned to postseason play for the first time in five years as the Bulls played in the Miami Beach Bowl.

USF beat each of the other five teams in The American's East Division in the regular season.

USF won seven of its last eight regular-season games in 2015.

Willie Taggart
Head Coach

Named head coach at USF on Dec. 9, 2012, Willie Taggart, a Bay Area native, received a three-year contract extension in December of 2015 that will keep him with the Bulls through 2020 after leading USF to its first bowl game in five years.

Taggart returned home to lead USF after spending three seasons as the head coach at his alma mater Western Kentucky, where he led a dramatic turnaround for the Hilltoppers. Prior to taking the lead at WKU, Taggart had a successful run at Stanford, helping build the Cardinal into a national power in a similar turnaround under Jim Harbaugh.

At USF, Taggart set to work changing the Bulls culture and rebuilding a winning program in Tampa. His magnetic, positive energy and stellar recruiting once again set a program on a winning path as the Bulls doubled their win totals in each of the last two seasons and reached the Miami Beach Bowl in 2015, the program's first since 2010.

Taggart's teams steadily improved, grew more resilient and markedly more talented, setting the foundation for Bulls' success to come. His first full recruiting period resulted in the consensus No. 1 ranked class in The American in 2014 and he followed that with another top class in the conference in 2015.

Taggart, the team's primary play caller, fit the new talent into his masterful "Gulf Coast Offense" that hit its stride midway through the 2015 season. The Bulls won seven of their last eight regular season games and broke school offense records by the bushel as they went 8-5 and set a program record for conference wins with a 6-2 mark in The American.

The "Gulf Cost Offense" under the direction of first-year starting, sophomore quarterback Quinton Flowers set USF marks for total yards (5,741), rushing yards (3,205), total touchdowns (54), touchdown passes (26), fewest turnovers (15), points in a half (51 vs. Cincinnati) and points in a conference game (65 vs. Cincinnati). Sophomore Marlon Mack set the school season rushing mark (1,381), Flowers set marks for passing TD (22) and rushing by a quarterback (991) and junior wide receiver Rodney Adams set season records for receiving yards (822) and touchdowns (9).

Prior to Taggart's arrival at WKU, the Hilltoppers had lost 20 consecutive games. But after just one year of transition, Taggart guided the school to two consecutive winning seasons, culminating in its first bowl appearance, the 2012 Little Caesars Pizza Bowl, since joining the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS).

Under Taggart's leadership, WKU posted 14 wins in 2011 and 2012 after the program won just four games the previous three seasons combined. The Hilltoppers went from 2-6 in 2010 Sun Belt games to 7-1 in 2011, marking the largest one-year turnaround in conference history. WKU won 12-of-14 games between the end of 2011 and the start of 2012, with the only losses coming to LSU and Alabama, both of which were ranked No. 1 in the nation at the time, and most importantly, WKU secured the top recruiting classes in the Sun Belt Conference in both 2010 and 2011.

After guiding the Hilltoppers to two wins in his first season, Taggart saw his squad start 0-4 in 2011. That's when the turnaround began. WKU went on to win seven of its last eight games. The only loss in that stretch came to No. 1 LSU in Baton Rouge. The Hilltoppers went 7-1 in the Sun Belt Conference to finish second in the league. The only league-loss was a four-point setback to eventual champion Arkansas State.

Before joining the Hilltoppers, Taggart served as running backs coach at Stanford from 2007-09. He joined the Stanford coaching staff following a 1-11 season in 2006 and was instrumental in the development of the Cardinal offense and running game that has become a staple of that program's three-year BCS run. Stanford, ranked as high as 14th in the nation by the Associated Press in 2009, posted an 8-4 regular-season record with wins over nationally-ranked USC and Oregon.

Prior to his arrival at Stanford, Taggart spent the previous eight seasons on the WKU coaching staff (1999-2006) and helped guide the Hilltoppers to eight-consecutive winning campaigns during the stretch. He worked with current Michigan head coach Jim Harbaugh in his first three seasons of coaching from 1999-2001. Taggart started his coaching career as WKU's wide receivers coach in 1999 before working with the quarterbacks from 2000-06. He was also the co-offensive coordinator in 2001 and 2002, helping lead the Hilltoppers to the Division I-AA national championship in 2002, and was promoted to assistant head coach in 2003.

Taggart graduated from WKU with a bachelor's degree in social sciences in 1998.

RETURNING STARTERS (6)
Brian Carter, OG
Dion Dawkins, OT
Leon Johnson, OT
Jahad Thomas, RB
Colin Thompson, TE
Phillip Walker, QB

QB Phillip Walker enters his fourth year as the Owls' starter. Walker ranked fifth in The American in passing last season at 212.3 yards per game.

RB Jahad Thomas was fourth in The American with 17 rushing touchdowns in 2015. Thomas finished the year with 1,262 rushing yards on 276 carries.

OT Dion Dawkins earned all-conference second team honors in 2015 and anchors a veteran defensive line. Dawkins is one of two projected senior starters on the line, which will also feature two juniors.

WR Ventell Bryant had 39 catches for 579 yards and three touchdowns as a freshman

DEFENSE
RETURNING STARTERS (6)
Jarred Alway, LB
Sean Chandler, S
Stephaun Marshall, LB
Haason Reddick, DE
Averee Robinson, DT
Nate L. Smith, CB

The Owls return six starters from a defense that held four opponents without an offensive touchdown in 2015. Among the players lost, however, is Tyler Matakevich, who won the Bednarik Award and Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player.

DE Haason Reddick was second on the Owls with 12.5 tackles for loss last season and joins DE Praise Martin-Oguike as a pair of senior starters on the defensive line.

S Sean Chandler registered 65 tackles with four interceptions (two four touchdowns) on his way to all-conference second team honors in 2015.

LB Jarred Alwan is the top returning tackler from last year. He had 74 tackles and 7.5 TFL in 2015

SPECIAL TEAMS
RETURNING STARTERS (2)
Austin Jones, K
Alex Starzyk, P

K Austin Jones was second on the team in scoring with 113 points, one shy of the team lead. Jones hit 23 of 28 field goals and was 4-for-6 from 40 yards or longer.

P Alex Starzyk averaged 42.4 yards per punt and had 13 kicks of 50 yards or longer.

Temple's special teams units blocked seven kicks in 2015.

STORYLINES
Temple tied a school record with 10 wins last season and captured the American Athletic Conference East Division title.

The Owls outscored their opponents by a 257-108 margin in the second half last season.

Matt Rhule
Head Coach

On Dec. 17, 2012, Matt Rhule returned to North Broad Street to take the helm as head coach of the Temple Owls. Following six seasons as one of Al Golden's top assistants, he joined the New York Giants as the assistant offensive line coach in 2012. He is now in his fourth year as the 26th Owls head coach and 10th on the Temple campus.

Prior to the start of his first season in charge, he offered that his squad would produce an exciting brand of football and they would improve as the season progressed. Rhule delivered on those promises as the 2013 Owls produced nearly 400 yards per game of offense (the second best total in school history). Despite an 0-6 start to the season, the troops never surrendered and the team never trailed at the start of the fourth quarter in the second half of the season. The mission in the 2014 offseason was to learn how to finish out games.

They did just that, allowing only 23 fourth-quarter points in all of 2014. That adjustment, and the overall improved play of the defense, helped the Owls to a 6-6 record.

On June 25, 2015, Rhule was rewarded with a four-year contract extension that will keep him on the Temple sidelines through the 2021 season.

In 2015, Rhule led his team to a 10-win regular season and an American Athletic East division trophy. For the first time in 73 years, the Owls beat Penn State, started the season a program-best 7-0, and were ranked in the top 25 for the first time in 36 seasons. Ten of his players earned all-conference honors and senior linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik and Nagurski Awards.

The State College, Pennsylvania, native and a former player at Penn State, has 18 years of collegiate coaching experience, including nine seasons at Temple, and seven bowl games -- three with the Owls -- on his resume.

Rhule joined the Giants in the spring of 2012. He worked closely with Pat Flaherty, who has been the offensive line coach since 2004. They finished the 2012 campaign at 9-7, second in the NFC East, and averaged 355 yards of offense per game. Four New York players, including guard Chris Snee, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

During his previous tenure at Temple, Rhule's role changed several times. In spring 2012, he was promoted to co-offensive coordinator after serving as the assistant offensive coordinator and tight ends coach as well as the recruiting coordinator under Steve Addazio in 2011.

Under Al Golden, Rhule was promoted to offensive coordinator in the spring of 2008. He also coached the TU quarterbacks. He coached the defensive line in 2006 and served as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2006 and 2007 seasons. For three consecutive years, Temple's recruiting class was ranked No. 1 in the MAC [2006, 2007, 2008].

In 2011, the Owls went 9-4 and played in the fourth bowl game in school history, the Gildan New Mexico Bowl, where they crushed Wyoming, 37-15 – Temple's first postseason victory since the 1979 Garden State Bowl.

In 2010, Rhule helped guide the team to an 8-4 regular-season record, and the Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79.

In 2009, Rhule's offense helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East.

In 2008, Rhule took the reins as offensive coordinator, helping the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls outscored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990.

Rhule arrived in Owl Country after spending four seasons as an assistant coach at Western Carolina, including three as assistant head coach.

From 2002 to 2005, Rhule was an assistant at Western Carolina under head coach Kent Briggs, serving as assistant head coach during his last three seasons. In 2005, he was offensive line coach and run game coordinator after directing the linebackers his first three years.

In 2004, WCU ranked 12th nationally in total defense and 15th in pass defense, largely due to the production of Rhule's linebacker corps. In 2003, the Catamounts led the SoCon in rush defense for the first time in school history.

Rhule arrived at Western Carolina after serving as assistant defensive line coach at UCLA in 2001. He assisted in coaching five Bruins who earned All Pac-10 honors as the team posted a 7-4 record under head coach Bob Toledo.

From 1999 to 2000, Rhule served as an assistant coach at Buffalo, directing the Bulls' defensive line in 2000 and working as assistant defensive line coach in 1999. In 2000.

Rhule began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Penn State in the spring of 1998.

RB Duke Catalon, a transfer from Texas, is the leading candidate to take over as the primary man in the backfield.

CWill Noble earned FWAA Freshman All-America honors after he made eight starts in his rookie season.

The Cougars return five of their top six receivers from last year. WR Chance Allen had 56 catches for 752 yards and a team-high six touchdowns.

DEFENSE
RETURNING STARTERS (5)
Cameron Malveaux, DE
Tyus Bowser, LB
B.J. Singleton, DT
Steven Taylor, LB
Brandon Wilson, DB

The Cougars return five starters from a defense that led the nation in turnovers gained (35) last season.

LB Steven Taylor led The American with 10 sacks and was second to former teammate Elandon Roberts with 18.5 tackles for loss.

DB Brandon Wilson emerged as a two-way threat as a defensive back and running back last season. Wilson had 58 tackles and nine passes defended in 2015.

The Cougars return to of their three starters from an outstanding defensive line. DE Cameron Malveaux registered 2.5 sacks and 8.5 tackles for loss last season.

SPECIAL TEAMS
RETURNING STARTERS (1)
Ty Cummings, K

K Ty Cummings went 8-for-8 on field goal attempts after taking over as the everyday kicker last season.

QB/P Kyle Postma served as the backup quarterback, but is the preseason leader to handle the punting duties in 2016.

STORYLINES
Houston capped a 13-1 season with a win against Florida State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. The Cougars finished No. 8 in both major national polls.

Houston has registered two 13-win seasons since 2011.

Head coach Tom Herman is the fourth coach in FBS history to win at lest 13 games in his first season.

Tom Herman
Head Coach

Tom Herman was named head coach at the University of Houston on Dec. 16, 2014, just one week after being named the Broyles Award winner, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

In his first season, Herman became just the fourth head coach in NCAA history with at least 13 wins in a rookie season, joining Chris Petersen (Boise State - 2006), George Woodruff (Penn - 1892) and Walter Camp (Yale - 1888), and just the fifth head coach in NCAA history to win the first 10 games of his career, joining Petersen, Larry Coker (Miami - 2001), Woodruff and Camp in accomplishing the feat.

Herman led Houston to its first New Year's Bowl in 30 years, its second 13-win season in program history and its 11th conference championship in program history by claiming the inaugural American Athletic Conference Championship. He led all FBS coaches in their first year with a program with 13 wins as Houston finished third nationally with a 92.9 winning percentage at 13-1.

A finalist for the Eddie Robinson and Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Awards, Herman was named the FWAA First-Year Coach of the Year and The American's Co-Coach of the Year as a league-best 12 players received postseason honors from The American.

With a 38-24 win over No. 9 Florida State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, Herman joined College Football Hall of Famer Bill Yeoman as just the second coach in Houston history with a win in a New Year's 6 Bowl and the second with a bowl victory over a top-10 opponent.

Houston ended the 2015 season at No. 8 in the final Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls, the highest final finish since finishing No. 5 in 1979 and just the sixth time in program history to finish in the top 10.

Houston was one of just two schools nationally to play at least four ranked opponents in 2015 and remain undefeated in the matchups with three of Houston's wins over ranked opponents coming by double-digits, the fourth-best total in the nation. Houston was one of eight teams nationally with at least four wins against ranked opponents

Under Herman's leadership, Houston was third nationally with seven wins of 21 points or more with 10 wins by double-digit. Houston's lone loss, a 20-17 decision at UConn, came without starting quarterback Greg Ward Jr., who was injured in the previous week, and without 54 minutes of defensive leader Elandon Roberts, who lead the nation with 88 solo tackles.

Herman vowed Houston would be physical in the trenches and the numbers reflected it. The Cougars ranked eighth nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 108.9 yards per game, while ranking 13th in rushing offense with an average of 235.8 yards per game. Houston was the only team in the nation to rank in the top 13 in both categories.

Ranking 10th in scoring offense (40.4 points per game) and 21st in scoring defense (20.7 points per game), Houston was the only program in the nation to rank in the top 10 in scoring offense and the top 25 in scoring defense. Houston ranked fifth nationally with an average margin of victory of 19.7 points per game.

Prior to his arrival at Houston, Herman helped develop record-setting and explosive offenses in each of his 10 seasons as an offensive coordinator, including three as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Ohio State where he helped the Buckeyes win the 2015 College Football Playoff Championship with third-string quarterback Cardale Jones under center for the Big Ten Championship win over Wisconsin and CFP wins over Alabama and Oregon.

Herman, who was named the 2013 Rivals.com Big Ten Recruiter of the Year and national Top 25 recruiter, arrived in Columbus after spending three years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Iowa State.

Herman spent 2007 and 2008 as offensive coordinator at Rice before heading to Iowa State. During his two seasons with the Owls, his offenses broke over 40 school records and, in his second season, the Owls won 10 games and went to a bowl for the first time since 1954.

Prior to Rice, Herman directed offensive attacks for two years (2005-06) at Texas State, where Bobcat squads led the Southland Conference in total offense. The 2005 Texas State club was eighth nationally in scoring and made a run to the FCS semifinals in the school's first appearance in the Division 1-AA playoffs. Herman also worked four years as an assistant coach at Sam Houston State, helping them to a pair of conference titles and trips to the FCS semifinals and quarterfinals.

Herman received Big 12 experience at Texas (1999-2000) serving as a graduate assistant with the offensive line on the Longhorns' Cotton and Holiday Bowl teams, after receiving his coaching start in 1998 as a wide receivers coach at Texas Lutheran.

K Jake Elliott has been The American's Special Teams Player of the Year twice (2014, 2015) and was a finalist for the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker. He was an Associated Press and Walter Camp All-America second team selection in 2015..

STORYLINES
Head coach Mike Norvell, most recently the deputy head coach and offensive coordinator at Arizona State, begins his first year at Memphis.

The Tigers have won a combined 19 games in the last two seasons — the most in program history in a two-year span. Memphis was ranked as high as No. 13 nationally last season.

Memphis won its first eight games of 2015, but dropped four of its last five to close the season.

Mike Norvell
Head Coach

Mike Norvell, who has been instrumental in developing dynamic, high-scoring offenses throughout his career, begins his first year as the head coach at the University of Memphis. Norvell was named the Tigers' 24th head coach during a press conference held Dec. 4, on the university campus.

Norvell joins the Memphis family and Tiger Nation after coaching the previous four years at Arizona State University where he was the program's deputy head coach and offensive coordinator.

After breaking into coaching at his alma mater, the University of Central Arkansas, as a graduate assistant in 2006, Norvell joined Todd Graham's coaching staff at Tulsa as wide receivers coach in 2007. He was a member of Graham's staff at Tulsa four years (2007-2010), before coaching one season at Pittsburgh (2011). Norvell was hired as Arizona State's offensive coordinator after Graham was named the head coach ahead of the 2012 season.

Arizona State ranked 23rd nationally in total offense in 2015, averaging 473.8 yards per game. The Sun Devils averaged 289 passing yards per game which ranked 22nd in FBS Football.

In 2014, the Sun Devils' offense ranked 16th in the nation in scoring (37 points per game) and 13th in touchdown passes (34). The offense finished with 5,750 total yards, including 2,194 on the ground and 3,556 through the air.

Norvell was promoted to deputy head coach at Arizona State in December 2013.

The 2013 Sun Devil offense was ranked 10th nationally in scoring, averaging 39.7 points per game.

Norvell led a balanced and explosive offense in his first year with ASU, helping the Sun Devils set school marks at the quarterback, running back and tight end positions.

The 2012 Sun Devils became the 14th team in NCAA FBS bowl history to score 60+ points in a bowl game (62 against Navy in Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl).

Of the 464.5 total yards per game ASU averaged in 2012, 205.5 came on the ground, representing the second-best mark in the previous 25 seasons (since 1988).

Norvell's quick-strike offense also produced 58 scoring drives of three minutes or less in 2012.

In his first full-time coaching opportunity at the University of Tulsa where he originally started as an offensive graduate assistant, Norvell soon transitioned to passing game coordinator and receivers coach before adding director of recruiting to his title in 2010. At Pitt in 2011, Norvell was the co-offensive coordinator, wide receivers coach and director of recruiting.

While with Tulsa, the Golden Hurricane had five 1,000-yard receivers emerge under Norvell's tutelage. His most accomplished pupil was All-America receiver Damaris Johnson, who led the country in all-purpose yards for two consecutive years and set the all-time NCAA FBS record for that category with 7,796 career yards. Johnson averaged 202.2 all-purpose yards per game in 2010. In Tulsa's 62-35 win over Hawai'i in the Sheraton Hawai'i Bowl, he averaged an incredible 21.73 yards per touch en route to 326 all-purpose yards.

In 2008, Norvell's receivers were a vital part of college football's most prolific offense. Tulsa averaged an astounding 569.9 yards per game that season to lead the country. The Golden Hurricane ranked second nationally in scoring (47.1points/game) and ninth in passing yards (301.8 yards/game). Tulsa also topped the country in total offense in 2007 (543.9 yards/game) and set 29 school records, 15 Conference USA marks and four NCAA records. The '07 Golden Hurricane became the first team in NCAA history to have a 5,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and three 1,000-yard receivers in a single season.

Prior to Tulsa, Norvell was an offensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Central Arkansas. In addition to coaching receivers and H-Backs, he was a significant contributor to UCA's special teams.

Norvell was accomplished on the field and in the classroom at Central Arkansas. A four-year starter at receiver, he finished his career as the school's all-time leader in receptions (213) and ranked third in receiving yards (2,611). Norvell earned All-Gulf South honors and was the conference's 2001 Freshman of the Year. He also was a two-time first-team Gulf South All-Academic honoree. Norvell earned his bachelor's degree of education in social studies in 2005 and a master's degree in training systems in 2007, both from UCA.

Norvell is married to the former Maria Chiolino of Fort Smith, Arkansas. They have a daughter, Mila, who was born on June 23, 2014. At the age of 34 (born Oct. 11, 1981), Norvell is the youngest head coach in FBS Football

OFFENSE
RETURNING STARTERS (1)
Jamir Tillman, WR

QB Tago Smith will step in to replace Keenan Reynolds, who finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting. Smith saw action in eight games in 2015 and averaged 4.7 yards per carry.

WR Jamir Tillman is the only returning starter on offense for Navy. Tillman accounted for five of Navy's nine touchdown receptions and 45 percent of the team's total receptions last year.

Navy ranked second nationally in rushing last season at 326.7 yards per game. The Midshipmen have averaged at least 300 rushing yards ineach of the last three seasons.

Navy scored on 55 of its 58 red zone chances last season (94.8 percent) to lead The American. The Midshipmen scored 44 red zone touchdowns.

DEFENSE
RETURNING STARTERS (7)
Brendon Clements, CB
Daniel Gonzales, LB
Amos Mason, DE
DJ Palmore, LB
Josiah Powell, LB
Micah Thomas, LB
Daiquan Thomasson, S

The Navy defense has seven starters returning, including all of its regular linebackers.

LB Micah Thomas was second on the team with 73 tackles last season, one shy of the team lead.

CB Brandon Clements led the Midshipmen with four interceptions and 10 passes defended in 2015.

Navy held 10 of its 13 opponents to 21 points or fewer in 2015. The Midshipmen ranked fourth in The American in scoring defense (21.8 ppg).

SPECIAL TEAMS
RETURNING STARTERS (1)
Alex Barta, P

P Alex Barta averaged 41.6 yards per punt and had six kicks of at least 50 yards in 2015.

RB Dishan Romine, who is Navy's top returning rusher, was second in The American in kickoff returns last year, averaging 27.3 yards per attempt. Romine had 655 yards on kickoff returns.

STORYLINES
Navy set a school record with 11 wins in 2015 as the Midshipmen tied Houston for the American Athletic Conference West Division title.

The Midshipmen committed the fewest turnovers of any NCAA FBS team in 2015 (eight).

Ken Niumatalolo
Head Coach

In his eight seasons at the helm of the Navy football program, and in his 18 years overall at the Naval Academy, head coach Ken Niumatalolo continues to engineer a program that has hit on all cylinders since he took over the reigns at the end of the 2007 campaign. He has repeatedly guided the Midshipmen to success both on and off the gridiron. Included in his accomplishments are a number of milestones never before achieved by a coach or team in the program's 134-year history.

Niumatalolo (68-37, .648) is the all-time winningest coach in school history and is the only coach in the history of the Army-Navy game to start his coaching career 8-0 against the other Academy.

Those two achievements go at the top of a long list of achievements by Niumatalolo. He led Navy to a school-record 11 wins in 2015, which included sharing the West Division title with Houston in Navy's first year in the American Athletic Conference and winning the Lambert Trophy, which is given to the best team in the East, for the first time since 1963. He is the first coach in school history to win three consecutive bowl games and his four bowl wins total are the most in school history. He has led Navy to five Commander-In-Chief's Trophies, which is tied with George Welsh and Paul Johnson for the most in school history. In 2013, Niumatalolo was selected to the inaugural class of the Polynesian Football Hall of Fame and was inducted on January 23 in Honolulu.

He is just the second coach since World War II to lead Navy to a winning record in each of his first three seasons at the helm.

Navy finished the 2015 campaign with a school-record 11 wins against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game for the 12th time in the last 13 years, won a bowl game for the 10th time in school history (beat Pittsburgh, 44-28, in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the last four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years. Navy finished the 2014 campaign with an 8-5 record, qualified for a bowl game for the 11th time in the last 12 years, won a bowl game for just the ninth time in school history (beat San Diego State, 17-16, in the Poinsettia Bowl), won a bowl game in back-to-back years for the second time in school history and defeated Army for a series-record 13th consecutive year.

Navy finished the 2013 season with a 9-4 record, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the ninth time in the last 11 years, qualified for a bowl game for the 10th time in the last 11 years, won a bowl game for just the eighth time in school history (beat Middle Tennessee, 24-6, in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl) and defeated Army for a series-record 12th consecutive year. The 2013 squad is just the fifth in Navy history to win at least nine games in a season, beat Army and win a bowl game. The 1957, 1978, 2004 and 2009 teams are the only other teams to have achieved that feat.

The 2009 season was one to remember for the Midshipmen, as Navy tied a school record for wins with 10, won a school-record seventh consecutive Commander-In-Chief's Trophy, appeared in a seventh consecutive bowl game, beat Notre Dame in South Bend for the second straight time and ran their winning streak against the other two service academies to an amazing 15 straight games. The Mids capped the season off with a 35-13 rout of Missouri in the Texas Bowl.

Niumatalolo, 49, was promoted to head football coach at the Naval Academy on Dec. 8, 2007, by Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk.

He is the second Polynesian head coach in Football Bowl Subdivision history and the first Samoan collegiate head coach on any level.

Niumatalolo was also an assistant at Navy from 1995-98, serving as the offensive coordinator in 1997 and 1998.

Niumatalolo coached at UNLV for three seasons (1999-01) and called the plays his final year (2001) in Vegas. He also worked with the kickoff return unit and, under his guidance, UNLV ranked sixth in the nation in kickoff returns in 2001 and finished second in 1999.

A 1989 graduate of Hawaii, Niumatalolo lettered three years as a quarterback and was a part of Hawaii's first bowl team in 1989. He was hired as a full-time assistant by his alma mater in 1992 and spent three seasons coaching on the offensive side of the ball.

The Mustangs return eight offensive starters from a unit that averaged 382.8 yards per game in Chad Morris' first year as head coach.

SMU, which averaged 11.1 points per game in 2014, nearly tripled its offensive production in 2015, as the Mustangs averaged 27.8 ppg.

QB Matt Davis ranked sixth in The American in total offense (251.7 ypg) and finished as SMU's leading rusher and passer in 2015.

WR Courtland Sutton tied for the American Athletic Conference lead with nine touchdown receptions in his freshman season.

DEFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (5)

Mason Gentry, DT
Justin Lawler, DE
Darrion Millines, S
Horace Richardson, CB
Jordan Wyatt, CB

The Mustangs look to improve a defense that ranked 126th in points allowed last season. SMU allowed an average of 45.7 points per game.

SMU returns three of its top four tackle leaders from 2015. DE Justin Lawler led the squad with 64 stops, including 5.0 sacks and 9.0 tackles for loss.

S Darrion Millines and CB Horace Richardson provide senior leadership in the secondary. Richardson had two interceptions last season, while Millines was third on the team with 53 tackles.

SMU forced 13 turnovers in its first seven games, but had two takeaways in the final five contests.

The Mustangs will have to replace all three starting linebackers from last year.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (1)

Josh Williams, P

P Josh Williams shared the punting duties last season and averaged 38.7 yards per punt, with six kicks of 50 or more yards.

WR Deion Sanders is the Mustangs' career leader in kickoff returns (1,501 yards). Sanders averaged a team-high 24.8 yards on kickoff returns in 2015.

STORYLINES

SMU looks to return to postseason play for the first time since the 2012 season, when the Mustangs made four straight bowl appearances.

SMU scored 133 points inthe entire 2014 season, but scored 134 points in the first four games of 2015. The Mustangs finished the season with 333 points.

The Mustangs faced four top-25 opponents last year and have four teams from the final top-25 rankings on their 2016 schedule.

Chad Morris
Head Coach

Chad Morris was named the head football coach at SMU on Dec. 1, 2014. Morris arrived on the Hilltop after five seasons as an offensive coordinator on the collegiate level and 16 seasons as a Texas high school coach.

In his first season on the Hilltop, Morris engineered an offensive turnaround, as SMU increased its scoring output by 16.7 points per game – the second-largest increase in the nation in 2015. He also developed two of the nation's top freshmen - wide receiver Courtland Sutton and running back Xavier Jones. Sutton was named a Freshman All-American in 2015 after ranking No. 1 among freshmen with nine receiving TDs. He set an SMU freshman record for receiving yards with 862 and tied former SMU standout Emmanuel Sanders for most touchdowns by a freshman, while Jones set an SMU freshman record with 10 rushing TDs, surpassing SMU greats Eric Dickerson and Zach Line.

For the previous four seasons, Morris had served as offensive coordinator at Clemson, helping the Tigers to a 41-11 record, the 2011 ACC championship and four bowl berths, including two Orange Bowl appearances.

Clemson also posted three final top-25 rankings, including a top-10 finish in the final USA Today polls in 2012 and 2013. At the time of his departure, the Tigers were ranked 19th in the 2014 AP and USA Today polls. Clemson established 127 offensive records during his four years (89 individual/38 team) and posted the top three scoring seasons in school history, as well as four of the top five passing seasons in Clemson history.

For his work, Morris was named AFCA National Assistant Coach of the Year and one of five finalists for National Offensive Coordinator of the Year by 247Sports.com in 2013, and the National Offensive Coordinator of the Year by Rivals.com in 2011.

Among the players Morris tutored at Clemson were 2012 first-team All-American quarterback and ACC Player of the Year Tajh Boyd, 2012 first-team All-American center Dalton Freeman, 2012 third-team All-American wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins and 2013 first-team All-American wide receiver and Biletnikoff Award finalist Sammy Watkins as well as NFLers Dwayne Allen of the Indianapolis Colts, Jaron Brown and Andre Ellington of the Arizona Cardinals, Martavis Bryant of the Pittsburgh Steelers, Tyler Shatley of the Jacksonville Jaguars and Brandon Thomas of the San Francisco 49ers.

Clemson's 2012 team set school records for total offense per game (512.7) and points per game (41.0), ranking sixth in the nation in scoring and ninth in the nation in total offense, and the 2013 offense averaged 507.7 yards and 40.2 points per game. Clemson and Baylor were the only FBS schools with a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver every year from 2011-13.

Morris went to Clemson after one season as associate head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Tulsa. After his arrival, Tulsa improved from 5-7 in 2009 to 10-3 in 2010, averaging 41.4 points per game, eighth-most in the nation, and scoring at least 28 points in 12 of its 13 games. Tulsa was fifth nationally in first downs (25.6) and tied for fifth in touchdowns scored from the red zone (46). His offense scored 64 touchdowns on scrimmage plays (32 rushing, 32 passing) and totaled 1,006 plays (537 rushes, 469 passes).

Prior to his stint at Tulsa, Morris served as a head coach on the Texas prep level for 16 years, coaching at Eustace Independent School District (1994-97), Elysian Field ISD (1998-99), Bay City ISD (2000-02), Stephenville ISD (2004-07) and Lake Travis ISD (2008-09).

Morris is a legend in the state after posting a 169-38 record overall and winning back-to-back undefeated state championships in his final two seasons as a prep coach. In all, Morris took six of his teams to Texas State Championship Games, with three of those teams capturing state titles, and earned Coach of the Year honors 11 times.

Morris' offenses enjoyed tremendous success in his two seasons at Lake Travis. In 2008, the Cavaliers averaged 49.0 points per game and had a 41-point margin of victory, while scoring 784 points, the fourth-most in Texas football history, and throwing for 305 yards per game.

In that same 2008 campaign, Morris coached former Mustang great Garrett Gilbert, who was named the Gatorade and Parade Magazine National Player of the Year, while setting the state of Texas' single-season passing yardage mark with 4,884 yards and 55 touchdowns. Gilbert also rushed for 790 yards and 28 TDs that season.

Morris earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics with a minor in statistics from Texas A&M University in 1992.

OFFENSE
RETURNING STARTERS (5)
Kendall Ardoin, TE
Devon Breaux, WR
Dontrell Hilliard, RB
Todd Jacquet, OT
Chris Taylor, OG

Tulane returns seven starters from a defense that ranked 12th nationally in tackles for loss in 2015. LB Nico Marley and DT Tanzel Smart were both all-conference first team choices.

RB Dontrell Hilliard is the only returning skill position starter from last season. Hilliard led the Green Wave in both rushing yards (644) and rushing touchdowns (six) in 2015.

The only quarterback on the roster with game experience is senior QB Devin Powell. who saw action in five games last year.

OG Chris Taylor was named to the Outland Trophy watch list. Taylor started all 12 games for the Green Wave in 2015

DEFENSE
RETURNING STARTERS (7)
Ade Aruna, DE
Jarrod Franklin, S
Donnie Lewis Jr., CB
Nico Marley, LB
Parry Nickerson, CB
Tanzel Smart, DT
Eric Thomas, LB

Tulane returns seven starters from a defense that ranked 12th nationally in tackles for loss in 2015.

LB Nico Marley and DT Tanzel Smart were both all-conference first team choices. Marley led the Green Wave with 82 tackles, while Smart was the team leader with 15.0 tackles for loss.

CB Parry Nickerson had six interceptions as a freshman in 2014, but did not have a pick last year.

Nickerson leads a secondary that returns four starters or key reserves from last year, while Smart and DE Ade Aruna lead a veteran defensive line.

SPECIAL TEAMS
RETURNING STARTERS (1)
Andrew DiRocco, K

K Andrew DiRocco made 9 of 10 field goal attempts in 2015 and was perfect (9-for-9) from inside 40 yards.

The Green Wave struggled on kick and punt protenction and coverage last season. Tulane allowed two punt returns and one kickoff return for touchdowns in 2015. Tulane had five kicks blocked as well.

STORYLINES
Willie Fritz, who most recently led Georgia Southern to back-to-back nine-win seasons, enters his first year as Tulane's head coach.

Fritz was a two-time FCS national coach of the year honoree as head coach at Sam Houston State. Fritz is 58-22 in six years as a Division I head coach.

Willie Fritz
Head Coach

Tulane University Director of Athletics Troy Dannen formally introduced Willie Fritz as the Green Wave's head football coach Dec. 15, 2015. Fritz became the 40th head football coach in the 121-year history of the Tulane football program.

Fritz brings 33 years of collegiate experience as a football student-athlete or coach to the Green Wave. He has led his teams to six combined conference championships (one at every level he has coached) and two bowl appearances. He was also twice named the national coach of the year, including the American Football Coaches Association Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Coach of the Year in 2011 and the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year in 2012.

Fritz, came to Tulane from Georgia Southern, where he spent two seasons and led the Eagles to a combined record of 17-7, a 2014 Sun Belt Conference title and the school's first NCAA postseason bowl game with their berth in the 2015 GoDaddy.com Bowl. Georgia Southern concluded the 2015 regular season with an 8-4 overall record, including a mark of 6-2 in conference play.

Fritz led the Eagles to a 9-3 overall record and a perfect mark of 8-0 in conference play during his first season at Georgia Southern in 2014, and was named the Sun Belt Coach of the Year. However, the school's waiver claim to allow Georgia Southern to play in a bowl despite being in the second year of the NCAA's transition period was denied.

Prior to Georgia Southern, Fritz served as head coach at Sam Houston State from 2010-13, where he led the team to back-to-back Southland Conference titles, NCAA FCS championship appearances in 2011 and 2012, and a third-straight playoff berth in 2013.

The Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year at the FCS level in 2012, Fritz was recognized nationally in 2011 as the American Football Coaches Association Coach of the Year. Honored as the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year in 2011 and 2012, Fritz was the Southland Conference Coach of the Year in 2011 after his team went 7-0 in conference play.

In 2011 and 2012, Sam Houston State posted the two highest single-season win totals in program history with marks of 14-1 (2011) and 11-4 (2012) and Bearkat players were showered with accolades. All-America status from national coaching and media outlets were bestowed on 11 Sam Houston State players during his tenure.

After a highly successful tenure at Blinn College, averaging nearly 10 wins a season during his four years there, Fritz left to revitalize a Central Missouri program and guided it to 11 winning seasons. The NCAA Division II program's ledger included two 10-win seasons with the 2001 Mule squad earning its first postseason trip in more than 30 years.

In 2002, Central Missouri made its first appearance in the NCAA Division II Championship and was the Mid-America Athletic Association co-champion a year later. He was the only coach to win seven or more games in eight consecutive seasons and his victory total ranked him 15th among active Division II coaches at the time. In addition to his impressive 67.4 winning percentage with the Mules, Fritz coached his student-athletes to achieve their potential both on the field and in the classroom. More than 150 Mules were recognized with All-MIAA honors with 41 first-team selections and 24 All-Americans.

Under Fritz, Central Missouri recorded a graduation rate of 84 percent with 144 MIAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll recipients, 14 Academic All-Region and three Academic All-Americans.

Fritz was also the head coach at Blinn College, where he turned around a program that had only five wins in its previous three seasons.

From 1993-96, Fritz and the Buccaneers would rack up 39 victories against only five losses with a tie and claim two national junior college championships. He was inducted into the NJCAA Football Hall of Fame for the environment of success he created at Blinn.

One of seven children, Fritz is the son of the late Harry Fritz, who coached the Central Missouri football team in 1952 before continuing his career as the Executive Director at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics in Kansas City.

Fritz played on two conference title teams and was a four-starter at defensive back at Pittsburg State and remained at his alma mater as a student assistant coach for his alma mater in 1982. Early coaching stops included a year at Shawnee Mission Northwest High School (Kansas) in 1983 and Willis High School (Texas) in 1986, with his return to Sam Houston State for graduate school in between those years.

OFFENSE
RETURNING STARTERS (6)
Josh Atkinson, WR
D'Angelo Brewer, RB
Dane Evans, QB
Chandler Miller, C
Evan Plagg, OT
Willie Wright, OT

QB Dane Evans led The American in passing (333.2 ypg) and total offense (332.5 ypg) and was seventh nationally in passing yards.

WR Keevan Lucas will return for the 2016 season after he missed the last eight games of 2015 with a knee injury. Lucas had five touchdown receptions and averaged 102.2 receiving yards in the first four games of last season.

RB D'Angelo Brewer averaged 5.2 yards per carry and ranked eighth in The American in rushing at 76.1 yards per game.

Tulsa ranked 13th nationally in total offense (502.8 ypg) and was 21st in scoring offense (37.2 ppg) in 2015.

DEFENSE
RETURNING STARTERS (7)
Jeremy Brady, S
Jesse Brubaker, DT
Matt Linscott, LB
Trent Martin, LB
Jeremy Smith, DE
Craig Suits, LB
Kerwin Thomas, CB

Tulsa returns four of its top five tacklers from last season. LB Matt Linscott had 107 stops, averaged 8.2 tackles per game and ranked fourth in The American in tackles for loss (16.0).

LB Trent Martin was ninth in the conference in tackles and was one of three Tulsa players to finish with at least 100 stops (104).

LB Craig Suits earned freshman All-America honors in 2014, but was limited to 11 games and 47 tackles in 2015.

The Golden Hurricane looks to shore up a defensive unit that ranked 125th nationally in total defense (536.6 ypg).

SPECIAL TEAMS
RETURNING STARTERS (1)
Redford Jones, K
Dalton Parks, P

K Redford Jones was sixth in The American (third among kickers) in scoring in 2015, averaging 8.4 points per game.

P Dalton Parks averaged 41.3 yards per punt in 2015, good for eighth in the American Athletic Conference.

STORYLINES
Tulsa improved by four wins from 2014 to 2015 in Philip Montgomery's first year on the Golden Hurricane sideline.

Three of Tulsa's seven losses were to nationally ranked opponents.

The Golden Hurricane played in a bowl game for the first time since 2012 with last year's trip to the Independence Bowl.

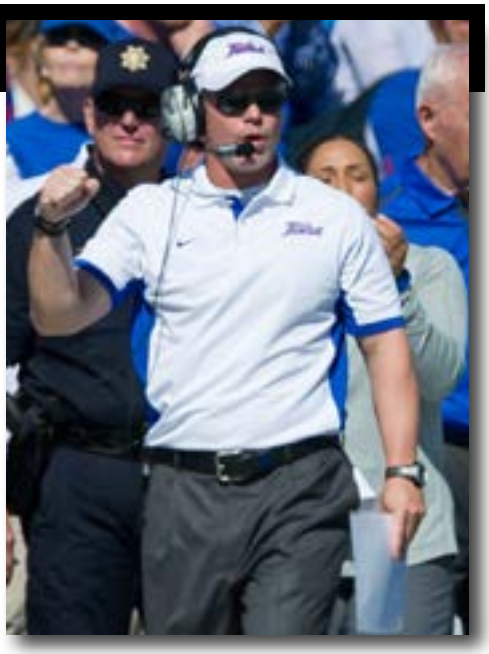

Quarterback Dane Evans

Philip Montgomery
Head Coach

In his first season as a head coach, Tulsa's Philip Montgomery transformed a previous two-win team into a squad that won six games and made the school's 20th bowl game appearance.

Considered one of the brightest offensive minds in college football, Montgomery became The University of Tulsa's 29th head football coach Dec. 11, 2014.

Montgomery brought excitement back to H.A. Chapman Stadium in 2015 with his potent offensive style. Tulsa ranked among the nation's leaders the entire season for passing, scoring and total offense, while leading the Golden Hurricane to the 2015 Camping World Independence Bowl. Tula completed the 2015 campaign ranked 11th nationally in passing, 13th in total offense and 21st in scoring. Tulsa scored over 37 points per game, while racking up an average of 507 total yards and 333 yards passing.

Tulsa's appearance in the Independence Bowl was the 10th time Montgomery has helped take a team to a bowl game, but was the first of his head-coaching career. He becomes only the fifth Tulsa head coach to take a team to a bowl game in their first year at the helm of the program.

Montgomery's Hurricane team posted a final 6-7 record, bettering the previous two-year win total (5) by one game, and became bowl eligible with a 45-34 win over Tulane in the regular season finale.

Before coming to Tulsa, Montgomery logged nearly two decades of coaching experience, including seven seasons (2008-14) at Baylor University, where he most recently served as the offensive coordinator for the Big 12 powerhouse. The Bears posted 10 or more wins in three of his last four years, including 11 victories in each of the last two seasons. In 2014, Baylor produced an 11-1 record and ranked as high as No. 4 in the Associated Press poll.

In his career, Montgomery has tutored several award-winning quarterbacks, including Big 12 Player of the Year Bryce Petty, Heisman Trophy winner Robert Griffin III, Baylor All-American Nick Florence, Conference USA MVP Kevin Kolb and Houston standout Case Keenum.

Following Baylor's record-breaking 2013 Big 12 championship season, Montgomery was honored as the Offensive Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop.com and was named a finalist for the Broyles Award given to the nation's top assistant. In 2011, Montgomery was named the National Offensive Coordinator of the Year by Rivals.com and was the Quarterback Coach of the Year by SpeedTracs/FootballScoop.com.

Montgomery has called plays for an offense ranked among the nation's top two in each of the past four seasons. In 12 games this year, Baylor's 581.3 yards per game and 48.8 points lead the nation. The Bears led the nation in total offense in 2013 (618.8 ypg) and ranked second in both 2012 (572.2) and 2011 (587.1). Baylor's passing attack has ranked among the top five in that same span - fifth in both 2014 (346.2 ypg) and 2013 (359.1) and fourth in both 2012 (340.5) and 2011 (351.5).

For three straight seasons, each with a different quarterback, Montgomery's pupils have earned All-America honors. In 2013, Petty joined the list after throwing for 4,200 yards and 32 TDs. Petty finished seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting and was named the unanimous Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year.

The Bears finished the 2011 season with a 10-3 record, including a memorable 67-56 Alamo Bowl win over Washington, and ranked 12th (coaches) and 13th (AP) in the final national polls. The 2011 Baylor offense set or tied 101 offensive school records.

In 2010 Montgomery coached honorable mention All-American and NFL Draftee Jay Finley, who broke the Baylor single-season rushing record by gaining 1,218 yards. Griffin III set or tied 11 school records, including the then-single-season passing mark with 3,501 yards. In all, Montgomery assisted a Baylor offense that established 55 school records and ranked 13th nationally (475.3 ypg) that season.

Montgomery arrived at Baylor following five seasons coaching the offensive backfield at Houston, and serving as co-offensive coordinator in 2006 and 2007. During his Houston tenure, the Cougar offense ranked as one of the nation's most prolific. In the 2007 regular season, Houston ranked fourth nationally in total offense (513.1 ypg), 10th in rushing offense (239.9 ypg), 17th in scoring offense (36.3 ppg) and 27th in passing offense (273.2 ypg).

Prior to joining the Cougars' coaching staff, Montgomery served one year as the offensive coordinator at Denton (Texas) High School and helped that team compile a 10-2 record and the 2002 Bi-district crown. Before that, Montgomery spent six seasons as the quarterback and backfield coach at Stephenville High School, where he was part of a program that won back-to-back Class 4A Division II state championships.

A four-year letterman at Tarleton State, Montgomery began his coaching career as a student assistant coach at his alma mater.

CONFERENCE HONORS

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Keenan Reynolds • Sr. • QB • Navy • Antioch, Tenn.
Reynolds rushed for 1,373 yards and a league-leading 24 touchdowns in the 2015 season on his way to a fifth-place finish in the Heisman Trophy voting. Reynolds also threw eight touchdown passes with one interception in 115 attempts. He finished his career as the NCAA all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (88) and total touchdowns (88) and became the first player in NCAA history to have three seasons with at least 23 rushing touchdowns. Reynolds was chosen as a third-team All-America selection by the Associated Press after he helped Navy to a school-record 11 wins.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Tyler Matakevich • Sr. • LB • Temple • Stratford, Conn.
Matakevich was named American Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year after he registered his fourth consecutive season with at least 100 tackles – a feat accomplished by only six other players in NCAA FBS history. Matakevich finished the season with 138 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 15.0 tackles for loss and five interceptions. He was the only player in FBS football to lead his team in tackles in every game in 2015, and he was the winner of the Bednarik Award and Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player and was chosen as an NCAA consensus All-America pick.

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Jake Elliott • Jr. • K • Memphis • Western Spring, Ill.
Elliott becomes the first player in American Athletic Conference history to repeat as a major individual award winner as he was named Special Teams Player of the Year for the second consecutive season. Elliott was The American's top-scoring kicker in 2015, with 132 points on a league-high 23 field goals and 63 PATs. An Associated Press and Walter Camp second-team All-America selection and a finalist for the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top kicker, Elliott made 10 of 11 field goal attempts from 40 yards or longer.

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR
Tre'Quan Smith • Fr. • WR • UCF • Delray Beach, Fla.
Smith was a bright spot for UCF on his way to Rookie of the Year honors in The American as he finished with 52 receptions for 724 yards and four touchdowns – all team highs. Smith had more than twice as many receptions and receiving yards as any other UCF player, while he finished among the league's top 10 in both categories.

COACHES OF THE YEAR
Tom Herman • Houston
Ken Niumatalolo • Navy
Herman led Houston to a 13-1 season, a win in the first American Athletic Conference Football Championship and a Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl victory against Florida State. The Cougars finished the season ranked No. 8 nationally.

Niumatalolo led Navy to an 11-2 overall record and a 7-1 mark in the Midshipmen's first year as a conference member. Navy, which set a school record with 11 wins, finished the 2015 season ranked No. 18 in both major national polls.

Houston Holds Off Temple In First American Championship

Championship Most Outstanding Player Greg Ward Jr. ran for 148 yards and two touchdowns to secure Houston's spot in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl with a 24-13 win against Temple in the first American Athletic Conference Football Championship Dec. 5, 2015, at TDECU Stadium.

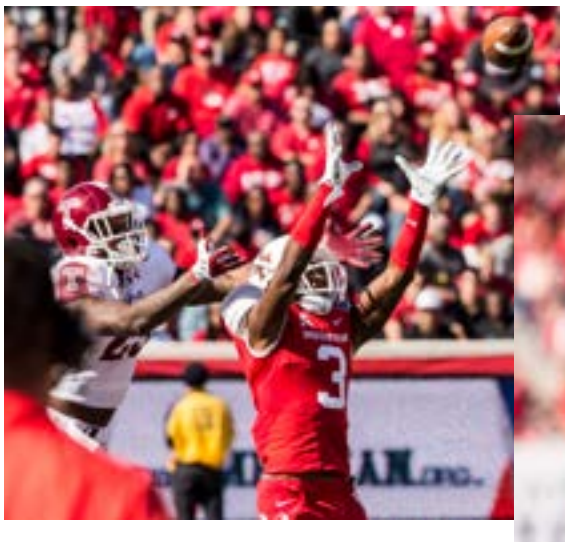

Houston jumped to a 17-0 lead with the help of two turnovers by Temple, one capped by a 47-yard touchdown run by quarterback Greg Ward Jr.

Temple had a chance to get within a touchdown early in the fourth quarter, but Jeremy Winchester knocked down a pass in the end zone and the Owls settled for a field goal that made it 24-13.

They had two more chances to cut the deficit after that, but were stopped on fourth down both times.

In addition to his 148 rushing yards, Ward completed 11 of 21 passes for 88 yards for the Cougars. Cornerback William Jackson III finished with five tackles and a conference-record seven pass breakups to lead the Houston defense.

Phillip Walker threw for 287 yards with a touchdown and interception and Robby Anderson had a season-high 150 yards receiving for the Owls.

Fans and media members are invited to follow the latest American Athletic Conference football news through social media. The American Twitter feed may be accessed @American_FB and the conference's official Facebook page is available @AmericanConf. The American's Instagram handle is @ Amercan_Conf.

Additionally, the following American Athletic Conference staff members will provide regular updates on the 2016 season on social media:

Chuck Sullivan, Assistant Commissioner (Communications)	@ChuckSullivan15
Michael Costa, Senior Director of Football Administration	@MCosta5
Scott Draper, Associate Commissioner (Football)	@sdraper72

The American Digital Network is the home of all live and on-demand video coverage of all 21 American Athletic Conference sports. The ADN will provide in-depth coverage of the 2016 American football season, beginning with reports from the league's annual Summer Kickoff & Media Days in Newport, Rhode Island.

Weekly Release & Statistics

Media members may access PDF versions of the complete weekly release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, on TheAmerican.org or via CollegePressBox.com. Regular updates of the weekly release will be distributed via e-mail from the conference office. To be included on the distribution list, send an e-mail request to Chuck Sullivan at csullivan@theamerican.org.

Weekly Football Highlights

The American Athletic Conference offers video highlights and clips of selected press conferences on a weekly basis through the XOS Digital XChange FTP tool. Content is available in full broadcast-quality resolution. Contact Chuck Sullivan (csullivan@theamerican.org) for information on how to access the highlights.

Weekly Awards

The American names offensive, defensive and special teams Players of the Week each Monday morning during the season. Winners are chosen from nominations provided by conference communications directors. The information will be available from the conference office via release as well as on the league web site.

Annual Awards

The American Athletic Conference will name first and second all-conference teams, players of the year on offense, defense and special teams, rookie of the year and coach of the year. The awards are chosen by a vote of the league's 12 head coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. The awards will be announced Nov. 30, 2016. The American Athletic Conference All-Academic Team is comprised of players who have an overall grade-point average of 3.00 or better over the previous academic year and completed at least two semesters of academic work. The team is announced in August. The American Athletic Conference Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year was established to recognize student-athletes who have achieved success in the classroom and on the field. The winner receives a scholarship which may be applied to graduate or professional studies.
