THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE | 2018 FOOTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

The American's place on the national stage was set in the conference's first year as Breshad Perriman and UCF topped Big 12 champion Baylor in the 2014 Fiesta Bowl.

UConn gave The American its first NCAA title as the Huskies beat Kentucky to win the 2014 men's basketball crown ...

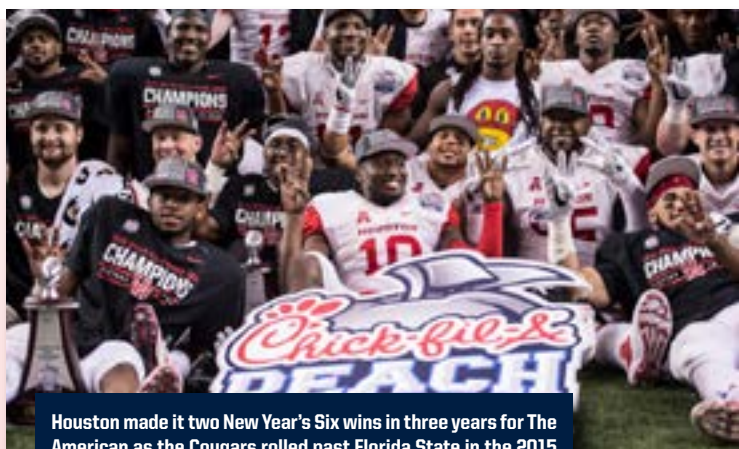

... while the UConn women followed with a win against Notre Dame the next night to take the second of four straight NCAA titles.

Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds finished fifth in the voting for the 2015 Heisman Trophy and shared the AAU Sullivan Award - given to the nation's top amateur athlete - with UConn's All-America basketball player Breanna Stewart.

Temple's Haason Reddick was the first of 15 players from The American taken in the 2017 NFL Draft. The American followed with a league-record 18 players in the 2018 Draft.

Houston made it two New Year's Six wins in three years for The American as the Cougars rolled past Florida State in the 2015 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

UCF and All-America linebacker Shaquem Griffin celebrated a national championship in 2017 as the Knights capped a 13-0 season with a 34-27 victory against Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. UCF became the first FBS team to finish unbeaten since the 2014 season.

THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference consists of 13 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Connecticut, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has an impressive list of accomplishments, both in the competitive arena and the classroom. The American has taken its place at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics, with a collection of national team and individual championships and football and men's and women's basketball postseason victories that place The American among the elite Division I FBS conferences.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams – UConn men's basketball in 2014 and UConn women's basketball in 2014, 2015 and 2016 – in addition to three New Year's Six bowl champions (UCF in 2013 and 2017; Houston in 2015), 11 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, reached the semifinal and final rounds of the NIT, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

The American Athletic Conference was one of six finalists for the 2016 Sports Business Journal Sports League of the Year award, along with Major League Baseball, Major League Soccer, NASCAR, the National Basketball Association and the PGA Tour.

The 2017 football season saw The American enjoy unprecedented success as UCF finished as the only undefeated team in the nation, and the first in the last four college football seasons, capping a 13-0 campaign with a win against Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. UCF ended the year as the No. 1-ranked team in the Colley Matrix and was ranked No. 6 in the final Associated Press poll, marking the best final ranking for a team from The American in the league's brief history. UCF's finish in the AP poll gave teams from The American three top-10 finishes in the last five end-of-the-year polls.

Additionally, seven teams from The American played in bowl games last season as the league went 3-1 against other Power 6 conferences in the postseason. UCF and Memphis finished No. 12 and No. 20, respectively, in the final College Football Playoff rankings, giving The American three straight seasons with multiple teams in the final ranking. UCF, Memphis and USF were all ranked in the final AP top-25 poll of the season. The American is one of only three conferences (along with the Big Ten and the Big 12) that has had at least three 10-win teams in each of the last two seasons.

The American has had a combined 22 teams play in bowl games in the last three seasons, highlighted by UCF's win against Auburn last year and Houston's win against Florida State in the 2015 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Additionally, Navy and Temple have both finished in the top 25 of either the CFP, Associated Press or USA Today polls as members of The American.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best seasons in program history as members of the conference. UCF has finished in the national top 10 twice in five seasons as a conference member – in 2013 and 2017. Houston went 13-1 in the 2015 football season, setting a school record for wins, while Navy won a program-record 11 games in its first season in the conference, also in 2015. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered two 10-win seasons in the last four years (2015, 2017), while Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. USF has gone 21-4 in the last two seasons and has finished the year in the top 25 for the first two times in program history.

Beyond the gridiron, The American has sent a combined seven teams to the last two NCAA Men's Basketball Championships. Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, men's golf, and men's track and field. Student-athletes from The American won five NCAA individual titles in track and field in 2017-18 as Houston's Elijah Hall won the indoor 60- and 200-meter races, while the Cougars' Cameron Burrell won the outdoor title in the 100-meter dash. Houston also repeated as the national champion in the 4x100-meter relay, while Memphis' Luke Vaughn won NCAA gold in the discus.

Shaquem Griffin and UCF stood triumphant as the Knights won the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl to finish as the nation's only unbeaten team in 2017

THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Under The American's banner, the UConn women's basketball team won its NCAA-record ninth, 10th and 11th national championships and broke its own NCAA record with a 111-game winning streak that spanned three seasons. The American sent four baseball teams to the NCAA Championship in 2018. Houston's men's track and field team took third place at the 2018 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Tulsa placed sixth at the 2016 NCAA Men's Cross Country Championship, while USF finished the 2014-15 season at No. 8 in the final men's golf national ranking.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting. More recently, Houston's Ed Oliver won the 2017 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman, while UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton was eighth in the 2017 Heisman balloting. UConn basketball standout Breanna Stewart finished her career in 2016 as the most decorated player in college basketball history as she was chosen as the consensus national player of the year for the third time and became the first player to be named four times as the Most Outstanding Player at the Final Four. Reynolds and Stewart were selected as the winners of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athletes, marking only the second time in the 86-year history of the award that multiple winners were chosen.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Ackers was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016. The conference has had a record 31 student-athletes earn Google Cloud CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades in the last two seasons.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional sports as well, beginning with the selection of UCF quarterback Blake Bortles by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. The American has produced six student-athletes who have won Super Bowl titles, including three members of the 2017 champion Philadelphia Eagles. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer. The American had a record 18 total selections in the 2018 NFL Draft.

The American Athletic Conference holds media rights partnerships with ESPN and CBS Sports, which provide the conference with outstanding national exposure on the two industry leaders in sports television. The football portion of the contract calls for nearly 90 percent of conference-controlled games on national broadcast or national cable platforms. The first three American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday. The American has had a combined 41 regular-season football games with more than one million viewers in the last three seasons. The 2017 game between UCF and USF, cited by numerous outlets as the best game of the regular season, attracted 4.7 million viewers – a record for a game between two American Athletic Conference teams.

In men's basketball, the television contract calls for all conference-controlled games to be televised, with more than 63 percent slotted for national broadcast or national cable – a minimum of 107 games. The entire postseason tournament is televised, including the championship game, which is on ABC or ESPN (except for the 2018 season, when the semifinals and final were on CBS). Sixty percent of the American's women's basketball games are carried on national cable, regional sports networks or ESPN3.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with 12 bowls for the current six-year cycle, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations to member institutions.

The American Athletic Conference serves its membership from a state-of-the-art office located in Providence, Rhode Island. The location of the conference headquarters – just steps from the city's Amtrak station and 10 minutes from T.F. Green International Airport – gives the conference easy access to its member schools. The conference headquarters also serves as the home of the American Digital Network, which provides live coverage of all 21 conference championships.

Cameron Burrell of Houston won the NCAA title in the 100-meter dash in 2018 as the Cougars placed third in the team standings

Regular-season championships include ties and divisional titles.

A dash in the column indicates that the school has not sponsored the particular sport as a member of The American. Temple competed in baseball in the 2013-14 academic year, but no longer sponsors the sport.

Louisville and Rutgers competed in The American in the 2013-14 academic year; Villanova competed as an affiliate member in rowing in 2013-14, and Sacramento State and San Diego State have competed as affiliate members in rowing since 2013-14. All championships won by those institutions are listed in the 'Others' column.

THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Mike Aresco Commissioner

Mike Aresco has established himself as one of the leading figures in intercollegiate sports as commissioner of the American Athletic Conference.

Aresco was named to his current position Aug. 14, 2012, and had his contract extended to Aug. 1, 2022, by The American's Board of Directors in 2017. He has overseen a strategic reinvention of the conference, which, in the course of only five years, has become one of the premier conferences in the nation.

American Athletic Conference teams have won four NCAA Championships and three New Year's Six bowl games since the 2012-13 academic year. The American was named in 2016 as a finalist for the Sports Business Journal Sports League of the Year award, the only entity from college athletics to be so honored. The formation of the conference was named by Sports Illustrated as one of the 10 best decisions of college football's last 10 years.

Among the milestones reached during Aresco's tenure have been the introduction of the American Athletic Conference Football Championship in 2015 and the launching of a dynamic Power 6 branding campaign, which aligns The American with its peer conferences and celebrates the competitive success that the conference has enjoyed at the highest level of collegiate competition.

Aresco has been a leader in the NCAA governance redesign efforts and a strong and articulate spokesman in various forums for the integrity of the collegiate experience.

The American's inaugural year produced a remarkable string of accomplishments as UCF won the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and finished the season ranked No. 10 in the Associated Press poll. UConn won NCAA titles in both men's and women's basketball as American Athletic Conference teams had the best postseason winning percentage of any conference in men's basketball. The league sent four teams to the NCAA tournament and saw SMU advance to the championship game of the NIT.

The American was the only conference to have a Bowl Championship Series win and teams in the Men's Final Four, the Women's Final Four and the College World Series in 2013-14. Teams from the conference finished in the national top 10 in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, men's soccer, baseball and men's golf.

The American, after having as many as five teams ranked in the Associated Press poll during the season, produced three teams in the final College Football Playoff poll of 2015, including Houston, which defeated Florida State in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl and finished No. 8 in the final national rankings with a 13-1 record. Navy, in its first year as a member of the conference, finished No. 18 nationally after a school-record 11 wins in 2015. UConn went on to win its fourth straight NCAA title in women's basketball, while The American sent four teams to the NCAA men's basketball tournament.

In the 2017 football season, UCF stood alone as the nation's only unbeaten team and was rated No. 1 nationally in the Colley Index after the Knights went 13-0, capped by a win against No. 7 Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. UCF joined Memphis and USF as The American's three teams in the final Associated Press poll, while the Knights' final ranking of No. 6 stood as the best in league history in the final poll. UCF's Peach Bowl win punctuated a 3-1 bowl record for American teams against other Power 6 conference opponents.

In the wake of the changes created by college sports realignment, Aresco's efforts have led to stability for the conference. He led negotiations that resulted in television contracts with ESPN and CBS Sports, which have given the conference unprecedented national exposure and branding with the two industry leaders in sports television. Aresco organized the process whereby the conference was renamed the American Athletic Conference – a name that has been accepted nationally – and he also oversaw the process that resulted in the conference's popular graphic identity.

He has also successfully worked with the conference schools to arrive at an equitable distribution of existing revenue for the current and new conference institutions, bringing about a cohesiveness that has allowed the conference to grow and thrive. He has restructured the conference office staff to maximize efficiency and better serve the needs of the membership.

THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Among his other significant accomplishments on behalf of the American Athletic Conference were the spearheading of expansion efforts, which resulted in the addition of East Carolina, Tulane and Tulsa as of July 1, 2014, Navy as a football member in 2015, and Wichita State as a non-football-playing member in 2017; launching the American Digital Network; successful site negotiations for the conference's men's and women's basketball championships; development of The American's broad-based strategic plan, and the launching of a multifaceted Power 6 brand marketing campaign. More recently, Aresco has partnered with the Atlantic Coast Conference on a football officiating alliance that allows both leagues to work collaboratively on a wide range of officiating matters.

Additionally, Aresco brokered successful multi-year marketing rights agreements, first with IMG College and then with Learfield, and oversaw the development of The American's new football bowl lineup, which features numerous annual matchups against the nation's other top conferences.

Aresco has played an active role in the formation of the College Football Playoff, serving on the College Football Playoff Management Committee and helping to select the 13 members of the CFP Selection Committee. Aresco also serves on the College Football Playoff Strategic Planning, Site Selection and Public Relations committees and is the current FBS conference chair. He was instrumental in securing the arrangement that puts the American Athletic Conference champion in a New Year's Day system bowl if it is the highest-ranked team among the champions of five conferences.

In basketball, Aresco has secured the conference's participation in an officiating consortium partnering with the Southeastern Conference and the Atlantic Sun Conference to ensure that the highest-quality game officials are assigned to American Athletic Conference contests.

Aresco is a member of the Conference Commissioners Association National Letter of Intent Policy and Review Committee as well as the CCA's enforcement and women's basketball working groups. He serves on the board of managers for both College Football Officiating, LLC, and Men's College Basketball, LLC. He is also a member of the FBS commissioners' media subcommittee. He is a charter member of the steering committee of the Columbia University/New York City Chapter of the National Football Foundation, serves on the NFF's screening committee and serves on the board of the National Sports Marketing Network.

Aresco came to the conference from CBS Sports where he was Executive Vice President, Programming. He was responsible for all college sports programming for CBS Sports and CBS Sports Network. Aresco oversaw the acquisition and management of CBS Sports college properties, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship, regular-season college basketball and football, conference basketball championship games, football bowl games and other programming. His responsibilities included game selection and scheduling, day-to-day operations, contract negotiations, identification of future acquisitions, development of programming strategies and coordination of new media and marketing initiatives.

Aresco played an integral role in the landmark deal that created the CBS Sports-Turner Broadcasting partnership, which resulted in the acquisition of the NCAA Men's Division I Basketball Championship rights through 2024. He managed the complex 14-year agreement that provides expanded national broadcast and cable coverage of the NCAA basketball championship. Aresco also was instrumental in the CBS Television Network's groundbreaking bundled rights agreement with the NCAA, which granted CBS exclusive rights to the NCAA tournament from 2003 through 2010. The 2010 NCAA Championship won a Sports Emmy in the Outstanding Playoff Coverage category. He also was a significant contributor in the development of new media platforms for the NCAA Championship, including March Madness On Demand, a highly successful streaming platform.

In 2008, Aresco negotiated a historic 15-year agreement with the Southeastern Conference to televise the league's football and basketball games. The agreement also provided multiple new media rights for CBS, CBS Sports Network and CBS Interactive. He forged numerous basketball agreements with major conferences and negotiated 10-year extensions of the Army-Navy and Notre Dame-Navy football rivalries.

Aresco was the creator and executive producer of The Tony Barnhart Show and Courtside with Seth Davis, both of which aired on the CBS Sports Network. In 2004, he was appointed by the late NCAA President Myles Brand to the Basketball Partnership, a select panel whose mission was to explore ways to improve and promote college basketball.

Aresco joined CBS Sports from ESPN where he was responsible for overseeing the acquisition, scheduling and development of long-term strategies for all ESPN college sports properties. Earlier in his tenure at ESPN, he was responsible for programming a wide variety of sports properties, including College Football Association, Big Ten, and Pac-10 college football, NCAA events, including early rounds of the NCAA basketball tournament, the College World Series and various professional sports events, including thoroughbred racing, Top Rank Boxing, CFL football, Australian Rules Football, rodeo and yachting. He was the architect of ESPN's signature Thursday night college football series and helped develop ESPN's Bowl Week. He joined ESPN in 1984 as Counsel and was named Assistant General Counsel in 1988 before moving to the programming department.

Aresco is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Tufts University (B.A., magna cum laude, history), The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts (M.A., international relations), where he held a John Moors Cabot Scholarship, and the University of Connecticut School of Law (J.D.). He practiced law privately in Hartford, Connecticut, for several years.

Aresco has been a regular speaker and expert panelist at national symposiums and seminars on the topics of college athletics and sports television. He was awarded the 2013 Distinguished Graduate Award by the UConn School of Law Alumni Association and was elected to the Middletown (Connecticut) Sports Hall of Fame in January of 2015.

Aresco and his wife, Sharon, have two adult sons: Matthew, an Emmy-nominated television producer who lives in Connecticut with his wife, Elizabeth; and Brett, an actor who lives in New York City.

CONFERENCE STAFF

Donna DeMarco Senior Associate Commissioner/ Chief Operating Officer

Donna DeMarco has been part of the conference staff since 1988 and has been Senior Associate Commissioner for Administration since 2009.

DeMarco serves as The American's chief operating officer, overseeing the organizational aspects of the conference, including management of the conference staff. As the conference's primary administrator, she ensures that direct lines of communication exist between the conference office and the 12 member institutions.

Additionally, DeMarco assists with overall administration and management of conference matters pertaining to service, governance and facilitation.

DeMarco has further oversight of the fiscal, legal and business affairs of The American and is the conference's liaison with institutional personnel in those areas. She supervises the approval of the conference's annual operating budget, ensures appropriate legal contract review and manages the league's human resource operation.

Before taking on her current role, DeMarco had been Associate Commissioner for Women's Basketball from 2006-09, during which time she was the primary administrator for one of the conference's most successful and high-profile sports.

DeMarco was the conference's Associate Commissioner for Sport Administration from 1996-2006, overseeing all operational and governance matters for 23 conference sports. She began her career as an administrative assistant for Public Relations & Championships in 1988 before being promoted to Director of Championship Operations and subsequently Assistant Commissioner for Championships.

DeMarco completed a term on the NCAA Division I Administration Cabinet – which is responsible for addressing governance issues, the Division I membership process and all committee selections – in July of 2015. She was a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Soccer Committee from 1999-2003 and served as the committee chair from 2000-03.

DeMarco is a 1987 graduate of the University of Connecticut with a bachelor's degree in communications and journalism.

Tom Odjakjian Senior Associate Commissioner (Broadcasting)

Tom Odjakjian, who serves as the Senior Associate Commissioner for Broadcasting and Digital Content, is a longtime veteran of the conference's senior staff, having joined the office from ESPN in 1995 as Associate Commissioner.

Odjakjian has oversight of all external conference content, including its digital content, and is The American's primary liaison with the league's television partners, managing those relationships on a daily basis.

Odjakjian has been the conference's primary point person for a number of significant television agreements, including The American's current partnerships with ESPN and CBS Sports that have given member institutions unprecedented exposure. Under the conference's current agreement, all conference-controlled football and men's basketball games will be televised, with nearly 90 percent of the football games and more than 90 percent of the men's basketball games available on either national broadcast or national cable platforms.

Odjakjian also has direct involvement in the assembly of The American's annual schedules in football and men's and women's basketball, in order to fulfill the network's contractual obligations and maximize exposure for the conference while balancing institutional schedules.

Odjakjian served in various executive roles at ESPN from 1981-94, including as the director of college sports. He was responsible for negotiation, acquisition, scheduling and budget supervision for the network's collegiate sports programming. Odjakjian was the architect behind the creation of ESPN's basketball Championship Week and football Bowl Week and had a hand in the network's NFL, NBA, NHL and Olympic sports programming.

Prior to joining ESPN, Odjakjian also served as Associate Commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference and Assistant Sports Information Director at Princeton University. While at ESPN, in 1994, he was named as The Most Influential Person in College Sports by College Sports Magazine and was tabbed as one of the four most influential people in college basketball by Sporting News in 1990.

Odjakjian is a 1976 graduate of Lafayette with a bachelor's degree in Economics and Business. He played football and baseball as an undergraduate and was the recipient of George Wharton Pepper Prize, Lafayette's most prestigious honor.

Eric Ziady Senior Associate Commissioner/ Chief Financial Officer

Eric Ziady joined the American Athletic Conference staff in November of 2016. He serves as the conference Chief Financial Officer.

Ziady had most recently served as the Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and recreation services at the University of Delaware from 2012-15, overseeing 21 athletic programs.

Ziady also spent 14 years on the staff at Boston College. During his tenure with the Eagles, he served as Senior Associate Athletic Director (2010-12), Associate Athletic Director for Business Operations (2004-10) and Assistant Athletic Director (1998-2004) and oversaw long-range fiscal and strategic planning for the department as well as administering the day-to-day business and financial operations.

Ziady began his career in athletic administration at Northeastern University, serving as Assistant Athletic Director for Finance and Administration (1994-98) and Athletics Business Manager (1991-94).

Ziady received a bachelor of arts degree in political science with an emphasis in business studies from Providence College in 1988. He earned a master of business administration (1994) and a master of science in sports management (1989) from Northeastern University.

Scott Draper Associate Commissioner (Football)

Scott Draper joined the American Athletic Conference staff in April 2014 as Associate Commissioner for Football.

Draper is the conference's primary football administrator and contact for all football initiatives and programs, including scheduling, officiating, operations and bowl relationships.

As the conference's liaison with administrators and coaches from each member institution, Draper works with the commissioner on football budgets and special projects and also provides oversight of the Miami Beach Bowl and The American Athletic Conference Football Championship.

Draper joined The American after most recently serving as Associate Director of Athletics and Director of Development for Athletics at Albion College, a position he held since 2011. Prior to that, he was the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations at the University of Michigan, where he was a key staff member of teams that won four Big Ten Football championships, four Rose Bowls, played in 12 bowl games and won the 1997 National Championship. In his role, he supervised football sport administration, strength and conditioning, equipment operations, and athletic training operations. He also served as sport administrator and liaison to admissions, academic services, compliance and eligibility, and dining and housing.

Previously, he was a Football Offensive Graduate Assistant (1995-97) and Assistant Video Coordinator (1992-95) at the University of Michigan.

Draper holds a bachelor's degree in general studies from Eastern Michigan University (1994). He earned a master's degree in business administration from Madonna University in 2012.

CONFERENCE STAFF

Bernadette Cafarelli Associate Commissioner (Communications and External Relations)

Bernadette Cafarelli joined the American Athletic Conference as associate commissioner for communications and external relations in January of 2016.

Cafarelli came to The American after spending the last 22 years at the University of Notre Dame, most recently as assistant athletics director/media relations.

Cafarelli worked as the primary contact for Notre Dame's men's basketball program, while she coordinated game management operations for Irish football games, including press box management.

Before joining the staff at Notre Dame, Cafarelli served as assistant director of marketing, promotions and media relations at Providence College for eight years. She began her career as assistant sports information director at the College of William & Mary.

Cafarelli has been a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America's Academic All-America committee for more than 25 years, including the last four years as the committee co-chair.

Cafarelli earned a bachelor's degree in American Studies from Notre Dame and holds a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University. She was the 2000 recipient of CoSIDA's Lester Jordan Award, for outstanding contribution to the Academic All-America program, accepted the CoSIDA Arch Ward Award for excellence in 2016, served on CoSIDA's University Division Management Advisory Council from 2010-12, and was inducted into the CoSIDA Hall of Fame in 2013.

Ellen Ferris Associate Commissioner (Governance and Compliance)

Ellen Ferris joined the American Athletic Conference staff in October of 2013 as Associate Commissioner for Governance and Compliance.

Ferris' responsibilities include coordination and administration of the conference's day-to-day compliance services with member institutions, including interpretative support and rules education.

Before joining the conference staff, Ferris served as Associate Vice President for Athletic Compliance at the University of Southern California. She also served for more than three years at the NCAA and was the Assistant Commissioner for Compliance Services at the Big Sky Conference for three years.

Ferris served on the Board of Directors of the National Association of Athletic Compliance and has been a member of the NAAC Reasonable Standards Committee, the NCAA Division I Legislative Review and Interpretations Committee, the Division I Management Council and the Division I Men's Tennis Committee. She currently serves on the NCAA Division I Infractions Appeal Committee.

Ferris holds an undergraduate degree in education from Texas State University-San Marcos and a master's degree in sport management from the United States Sports Academy. She holds a juris doctor degree from Southern Methodist University.

Barbara Jacobs Associate Commissioner (Women's Basketball)

Barbara Jacobs, who has worked with the conference since 1995, was promoted to her current position of Associate Commissioner for Women's Basketball in July of 2014.

Jacobs oversees all aspects of The American's women's basketball operations, including television, scheduling, branding and messaging, and management of the conference championship.

Jacobs was the Secretary/Rules Editor for the NCAA Women's Basketball Rules Committee from 1998-2006 and was the tournament manager for the 2004 NCAA East Regional. She was named Vice President of the CCA Coordinators of Officials from 1997-99 and was President from 1999-2001.

Jacobs was head coach at Syracuse from 1978-93, helping the Orange to the 1985 Big East title. She was named Big East Coach of the Year in 1988.

Jacobs was the head coach at Hartwick prior to leading the Syracuse program. During her eight-year tenure at Hartwick, she was also the head field hockey coach, head men's tennis coach, coordinator of women's athletics and a tenured professor of physical education.

Jacobs was inducted into the Syracuse Orange Plus Hall of Fame in 1990 and to the New England Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006.

Jacobs holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Wisconsin at La Crosse and a master's degree in education from SUNY Cortland.

Nate Pomeday Associate Commissioner (Men's Basketball)

Nate Pomeday joined the American Athletic Conference staff as Associate Commissioner for Men's Basketball in August of 2016.

Pomeday is The American's primary men's basketball administrator and contact for all basketball initiatives and programs, including scheduling, officiating, operations and NCAA basketball relationships.

Pomeday came to The American from the University of Minnesota, where he served as an assistant coach during the 2015-16 campaign and as director of basketball operations in 2014-15. Prior to his arrival at Minnesota, he served a six-year stint as an assistant coach at Oregon State (2008-14) where he helped lead the Beavers to three postseason tournament berths and coordinated the program's recruiting efforts.

Pomeday also served as assistant dean of admission (2006-08) and assistant boys basketball coach (2005-08) at Lake Forest (Illinois) Academy while earning a master of science in sport administration from Northwestern University and graduating in June 2009.

His first stint in the collegiate coaching ranks came in August 2000 when he was named head coach and admission counselor at Calumet College of St. Joseph (Indiana), a position he held until July 2004. At the time, he was the youngest head basketball coach in the nation.

Pomeday was a standout guard at Northwestern from 1995-99 and graduated with a bachelor's degree in communication studies with a concentration in history.

James Siedliski Associate Commissioner (Sport Administration & Sponsorships)

James Siedliski was promoted to his current position of Associate Commissioner in 2006. He serves as The American's primary Olympic sport administrator, overseeing management and operations of the conference's 19 Olympic sport programs.

Siedliski is the conference's primary liaison with Learfield, the league's multimedia rights holder. He additionally has been the tournament manager for The American's annual men's basketball championship since 2015.

Siedliski serves on the NCAA Olympic Sports Liaison Committee through 2020. He was a member of the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Committee from 2011-14, and chaired the committee in 2013 and 2014.

Siedliski came to the conference in 1998 as Director of Sport Administration and was promoted to Assistant Commissioner for Sport Administration in 2000.

Before joining the conference, Siedliski had been Executive Director of the New Jersey Association of USA Track & Field.

Siedliski, a former Division I track and field athlete who ran as a post-graduate with the New York Athletic Club, is a 1989 graduate of Rutgers University.

Chuck Sullivan Assistant Commissioner (Communications)

Chuck Sullivan joined the conference as Director of Communications in August 2007 and was promoted to Assistant Commissioner in 2014.

Sullivan manages the day-to-day communications operations for The American's 21 Division I sports and serves as the primary external relations contact for football. He oversees media operations at The American's annual football and baseball championships.

Sullivan has served on the media coordination staff for the College Football Playoff, the BCS National Championship and the NCAA Final Four.

Before coming to the conference, Sullivan served as Director of Athletic Communications at Harvard from 2003-07, where he managed the communications efforts for the nation's largest intercollegiate athletics program. He also served as Assistant Director of Athletics for Communications at Bryant from 1999-2003. He was the Sports Information Director at UMass Boston from 1995-99 and spent two years as a Communications Assistant at Princeton.

Sullivan is a 1993 graduate of Boston University.

Bryan Platt Supervisor of Football Officials

Bryan Platt joined the American Athletic Conference in 2018 and serves as the league's Supervisor of Football Officials.

Platt is the primary point of contact on officiating matters between the conference and its 12 head football coaches. He works under the direction of Dennis Hennigan, the Supervisor of Football Officials for the Atlantic Coast Conference and the administrator of the officiating alliance between the two conferences.

Platt had served as an on-field official since 1994 and has worked 14 postseason games in his career. He five seasons as a back judge for the ACC and was part of the crews that worked the 2015 ACC Championship, the 2016 Cotton Bowl and the 2017 College Football Playoff semifinal at the Rose Bowl.

Platt spent 10 seasons as a side judge and back judge with the Big East Conference and was part of the American Athletic Conference's roster during the league's inaugural season in 2014. He was chosen to officiate the 2009 BCS National Championship at the Rose Bowl as well as the 2012 Rose Bowl and the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Platt spent two seasons with the Atlantic-10 Conference as a side judge and was a back judge for the Eastern College Athletic Conference for seven years.

Platt is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts Boston. He is the director and a board member of the Boston chapter of the Eastern Association of Intercollegiate Football Officials and was previously a treasurer and director of the Big East and American Athletic Conference Football Officials Association.

Robert Weygand Jr. Assistant Commissioner (Sport Administration & Championships)

Robert Weygand joined the conference staff in 2004 and serves as Assistant Commissioner of Sport Administration and Championships.

Weygand serves as one of the primary administrators and contacts for several American Athletic Conference sports and is the lead office liaison for communication with member schools' administrators, coaching staffs and game officials. He provides on-site management of select conference championships, oversees regular-season scheduling and is the conference's liaison with the members' sports medicine group.

Weygand served as Director of Sport Administration since 2007 after spending three years as Assistant Director of Sport Administration.

Weygand is a 2002 graduate of the University of Rhode Island with a degree in sports medicine. He earned a master's degree in education from Springfield College in 2004.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

The College Football Playoff (CFP) is a big success. Fans, including many who are new to the sport, enjoy it. The first College Football Playoff semifinals and national championship were the three most-viewed programs in cable television history.

Every Game Counts

The playoff preserves the excitement and significance of college football's unique regular season where every game counts.

Four Teams

The selection committee ranks the teams based on the members' evaluation of the teams' performance on the field, using conference championships won, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, and comparison of results against common opponents to decide among teams that are comparable.

Two Games, One Goal

The kickoff of the new year belongs to college football, with two semifinal games rotating annually among the Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Peach Bowl, Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl. The two teams winning the playoff semifinals compete for the College Football Playoff National Championship. That game is in a different city each year, always on a Monday night.

Universal Access

Every FBS team has equal access to the College Football Playoff based on its performance. No team automatically qualifies.

Governance

University presidents and chancellors from all 10 FBS conferences and Notre Dame serve on the CFP Board of Managers and govern the administrative operations, with commissioners (the Management Committee) managing the event. A small staff in the playoff office in Irving, Texas, carries out the detailed responsibilities.

Selection Committee

A talented group of high-integrity individuals with experience as coaches, student-athletes, college administrators and journalists, along with sitting athletics directors, comprise the selection committee. Members of the committee are: Rob Mullens (chair), Frank Beamer, Paola Boivin, Jeff Bower, Joe Castiglione, Herb Deromedi, Ken Hatfield, Chris Howard, Bobby Johnson, Ronnie Lott, Gene Smith, Todd Stansbury, and Scott Stricklin.

Selection Committee Responsibilities

- Rank the top 25 teams and assign the top four to semifinal sites.
- Assign teams to New Year's bowls
- Create competitive matchups
- Attempt to avoid rematches of regular-season games and repeat appearances
- Consider geography

Participants In New Year's Bowls

Both participants in the Orange, Rose and Sugar Bowls are contracted outside the playoff arrangement (Big Ten and Pac-12 to Rose Bowl; SEC and Big 12 to Sugar Bowl; ACC to Orange Bowl against the highest ranked available team from the SEC, Big Ten and Notre Dame). If a conference champion qualifies for the playoff, then the bowl will choose a replacement from that conference. When those bowls host the semifinals and their contracted conference champions do not qualify, then the displaced champion(s) will play in one of the other New Year's bowls.

When not hosting semifinals, the Cotton, Fiesta and Peach Bowls will welcome displaced conference champions and the top-ranked champion from a non-contract conference. The highest-ranked available teams will fill any other berths. The selection committee will make the pairings.

BOWL PARTNERSHIPS

The American Bowl Lineup

In addition to the College Football Playoff and New Year's Bowls, The American has either a primary or secondary affiliation with 12 bowl games during its current six-year bowl cycle, which ends following the 2019 season. The American works annually with its member schools and bowl partners to create the most sensible and attractive postseason matchups.

The Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman takes place at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis, Maryland, while the events and activities surrounding the game are based in Washington, D.C. The American Athletic Conference will face an opponent from the Atlantic Coast Conference each year in the current cycle.

The Birmingham Bowl takes place at Legion Field in Birmingham, Alabama. The American/Big East has partnered with the bowl since its inception in the 2006 season. The American Athletic Conference will annually face an opponent from the Southeastern Conference.

The Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl is played at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, Florida. The American Athletic Conference will supply a team to the bowl during each year of the six-year cycle. Conference USA will play in the game in 2015, 2017 and 2019, while the Atlantic Coast Conference provides the opposing team in 2014, 2016 and 2018.

The Cheribundi Tart Cherry Boca Raton Bowl began in 2014 and will feature an American Athletic Conference team three times during the six-year cycle at FAU Stadium in Boca Raton, Florida. The American representative will play a team from Conference USA in 2018.

The Frisco Bowl will be played for the second time in 2018 as the former Miami Beach Bowl was relocated to Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Texas. An American Athletic Conference plays in the bowl each year.

The AutoNation Cure Bowl made its debut in 2015 at the newly renovated Camping World Stadium in Orlando, Florida. An American Athletic Conference team will be paired against an opponent from the Sun Belt Conference. Net proceeds from the game will benefit the Breast Cancer Research Foundation.

The Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl is played at Amon G. Carter Stadium on the campus of Texas Christian University. The American Athletic Conference sends a team to the bowl in 2014, 2016 and 2018. The opponent will be a Big 12 team in 2016 and 2018, with Conference USA as a secondary affiliation.

In addition to the conference's primary bowl affiliations, The American holds secondary partnerships with the AutoZone Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tennessee, and the Duck Commander Independence Bowl in Shreveport, Louisiana, as well as with other ESPN-owned bowls.

SUMMER KICKOFF & MEDIA DAYS

July 23-24, 2018
Gurney's Newport Resort & Spa
Newport, Rhode Island

One of the signature events on the college football calendar, the American Athletic Conference Summer Kickoff and Media Days will take place July 23-24, 2018, at Gurney's Newport Resort & Marina in Newport, Rhode Island.

The American's Summer Kickoff has become a favorite of local and national college football media, thanks to the unparalleled access to coaches, administrators and student-athletes in one of American's great resort destinations. A media member may play golf with an athletics director in the afternoon, have dinner with one of the nation's top coaches or players in the evening and will have full access to all 12 head coaches the following day.

The unquestioned highlight of The American's Summer Kickoff is the annual Monday-night New England-style clambake. Set against the backdrop of picturesque Newport Harbor and Narragansett Bay, the sunset clambake allows coaches, student-athletes, administrators, media members, bowl partners and television executives to enjoy an amazing meal and interact in a relaxed setting. For the media, it's a way to get to know The American's coaches and student-athletes as people, beyond a 30-second soundbite.

THE AMERICAN ON TELEVISION

NATIONALLY TELEVISED GAMES

The American Athletic Conference will have an extensive schedule of games on national television. The following telecasts were known at press time. Other games will be added via the 12-day and 6-day advance selection process.

THE AMERICAN DIGITAL NETWORK

The most in-depth coverage of the 2018 American Athletic Conference football season can once again be found on the American Digital Network, the over-the-top streaming video platform of The American and its 13 member institutions.

The American's partnership with L2 Productions provides video production services for more than 65 events annually on the American Digital Network through the 2018-19 academic year.

The American and L2 Productions have collaborated on live video production of regular-season and championship events for the past four years. The American Digital Network produced more than 80 events in the 2017-18 season. All events are carried by professional-grade, multiple-camera productions which include accomplished play-by-play announcers and expert analysts.

As a result of the partnership, the American Digital Network will continue to provide complete live video coverage of The American's postseason championships in cross country, swimming and diving, indoor track and field, outdoor track and field, tennis, golf and rowing.

The ADN will also provide coverage of any games of the conference's women's soccer, men's soccer, softball and baseball championships that are not carried by one of the conference's television partners.

Additionally, the American Digital Network will provide coverage of regular-season women's basketball games as well as select regular-season contests in soccer, volleyball, softball and baseball. The ADN will have full wraparound coverage of The American's postseason championships in football and men's and women's basketball.

In addition to its coverage of regular-season and championship events, the American Digital Network is the home for on-demand previews and game highlights as well as "The Rise," a weekly look at the conference that includes scores, highlights and feature stories.

The American Digital Network is also the primary source for coverage of the conference's Summer Kickoff and Media Days in Newport, Rhode Island. Coverage in 2018 will again include live segments from the event's famous New England-style clambake as well as look-ins from the podium, including roundtable discussions with The American's 12 head coaches and the opening remarks by commissioner Mike Aresco.

All of The American Digital Network productions are available on Facebook through the conference's two distribution channels.

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE NOTEBOOK

Perfection

UCF finished the 2017 season as the nation's only unbeaten team. The Knights, who went 13-0, became the first FBS team to finish a season without a loss since Florida State went 14-0 in 2013.

The Big Stage

UCF's 34-27 win against Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl improved American Athletic Conference teams to 3-0 all-time in New Year's Six Bowls.

Perfect 10

The American Athletic Conference has had three 10-win teams in each of the last two seasons. USF, Temple, Tulsa hit double figures in 2016, while UCF, Memphis and USF won at least 10 games each in 2017.

Three For Three

The American Athletic Conference, the Big Ten and the Big 12 are the only conferences that have had at least three 10-win teams in each of the last two seasons.

We're Streaking

UCF's 13-game winning streak is the longest active winning streak nationally and ranks as the second-longest in American Athletic Conference history. Memphis won 15 straight from Oct. 25, 2014, to Nov. 7, 2015.

Scoreboard Watching

The American Athletic Conference featured the nation's top two scoring offenses. UCF led the nation with 48.2 points per game, while Memphis was second at 45.5 ppg.

Point Production

UCF and Memphis combined to score 117 points and gain 1,479 yards in the American Athletic Conference Championship, a 62-56 win in double-overtime for UCF. It was the highest-scoring championship game in NCAA FBS history.

The Best Matchup

UCF and Memphis took a combined record of 21-1 into the American Athletic Conference Championship. The teams' combined .954 winning percentage was the best of any of the 10 FBS conference championship matchups.

Separation Of Powers

In the last three regular seasons (2015-17), the American Athletic Conference is a combined 30-6 against teams from Conference USA, the MAC, the Mountain West and the Sun Belt.

Oliver's Tale

Houston DT Ed Oliver was chosen as the winner of the Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman. Oliver joined Memphis WR Anthony Miller as NCAA consensus All-America selections in 2017.

Repeat Performances

For the second consecutive season, The American will be the only FBS conference to return its players of the year on offense (UCF QB McKenzie Milton), defense (Houston DT Ed Oliver) and special teams (Memphis WR Tony Pollard).

Heisman Hopeful

UCF QB McKenzie Milton finished eighth in the 2017 Heisman Trophy voting. Of the seven players who finished higher in the voting, only Stanford RB Bryce Love (second) and Wisconsin RB Jonathan Taylor (sixth) return in 2018.

Ratings Points

The American Athletic Conference has had a combined 41 regular-season games with more than one million viewers (television/streaming) in the past three seasons.

America's Game

The 2017 Army-Navy game had a national rating of 5.2, the best rating for the game since 192 and the seventh-highest regular-season rating for any game of the 2017 season.

Black Friday

The Nov. 24 game between USF and UCF, which was cited by numerous outlets as the best game of the regular season, attracted 4.7 million television and streaming viewers on ABC. It was the most-viewed game between two American Athletic Conference teams in league history.

Championship Saturday

The 2017 American Athletic Conference Football Championship between Memphis and UCF drew 3.5 million television and streaming viewers on ABC, making it the most-viewed American Championship in league history. The American has averaged 2.6 million viewers in the first three seasons of the conference championship.

Including Postseason

Including bowl games, The American has had a combined 61 games with more than one million television and streaming viewers since the start of the 2015 season. UCF's win against Auburn in the 2018 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl drew 8.4 million viewers.

Welcome Aboard

The American Athletic Conference will welcome two new head coaches for the 2018 season. Josh Heupel, the former offensive coordinator at Missouri and Oklahoma, takes over as head coach at UCF. Sonny Dykes, the former head coach at California and Louisiana Tech, will man the sidelines at SMU.

The A List

Keep an eye on these American Athletic Conference players, who could challenge for All-America honors in 2018.

McKenzie Milton, QB

American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year finished eighth in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2017.

Hayden Moore, QB

Veteran signal-caller threw for career highs with 20 touchdowns and 2,562 yards in 2017 and enters his fourth year as a starter.

Hergy Mayala, WR

Was the Huskies' leader in receptions (43), receiving yards (615) and touchdown receptions (7) as a junior.

Trevon Brown, WR

Big-play receiver who averaged 17.8 yards per catch and had career highs with 1,069 receiving yards and seven TD catches in 2017.

Tyre McCants, WR

Should take over as the No. 1 receiving threat after averaging 19.1 yards per catch with seven touchdowns in 2017.

Isaiah Wright, WR

Veteran wideout scored touchdowns on offense, defense and special teams last season as was the team's leading receiver in 2017.

Ed Oliver, DE

Consensus All-America selection and Outland Trophy winner in 2017 is considered among the top players in the nation.

Darrell Henderson, RB

Rushed for 1,154 yards and nine touchdowns and averaged 8.9 yards per carry in the Tigers' explosive offense.

Malcolm Perry, QB

Big-play threat who moves behind center to take advantage of his skill set; rushed for 1,182 yards and 11 touchdowns in 2017.

Ben Hicks, QB

Threw for career highs of 3,569 yards and 33 touchdowns in 2017; enters his third year as the Mustangs' starter.

Jonathan Banks, QB

Dual-threat quarterback who threw for 12 touchdowns and ran for seven in his first year with the Green Wave.

Chandler Miller, C

The two-time all-conference performer is the linchpin of the Golden Hurricane's veteran offensive line.

OFFENSERETURNING STARTERS (6)

Gabriel Davis, WR
 Jordan Johnson, C
 Adrian Killins, RB
 Wyatt Miller, OT
 McKenzie Milton, QB
 Dredrick Snelson, WR

UCF returns six starters from an offense that led the nation in scoring (48.2 ppg) and was fifth nationally in total offense (530.5 ypg).

QB McKenzie Milton was the 2017 American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year and the Most Outstanding Player of the 2017 American Championship and the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Milton finished eighth in the Heisman Trophy balloting last season.

RB Adrian Killins led the Knights with 10 rushing touchdowns on his way to all-conference first team honors last season.

C Jordan Johnson (first team) and OT Wyatt Miller (second team) earned all-conference honors on the offensive line in 2017.

DEFENSERETURNING STARTERS (5)

Titus Davis, DE
 Kyle Gibson, S
 Trysten Hill, DE
 Pat Jasinski, LB
 Brandon Moore, CB

The Knights will have to replace four defensive players who were all-conference choices in 2017, including All-America linebacker Shaquem Griffin and cornerback Mike Hughes, who was a first-round pick in the NFL Draft.

S Kyle Gibson was named to The American's first team, while DE Trysten Hill was a second-team selection of the head coaches. Gibson led the Knights with four interceptions.

LB Pat Jasinski registered a team-high 104 tackles from the middle linebacker spot in 2017.

SPECIAL TEAMSRETURNING STARTERS (2)

Mac Loudermilk, P
 Matthew Wright, K

K Matthew Wright enters his fourth year as the Knights' regular placekicker. Wright was second among American Athletic Conference kickers in scoring last season (9.2 ppg).

P Mac Loudermilk earned second-team all-conference honors last year after he put 22 of his 46 punts inside the 20-yard line.

STORYLINES

UCF finished the 2017 season as the nation's only unbeaten team. The Knights, who went 13-0, became the first FBS team to finish a season without a loss since Florida State went 14-0 in 2013.

The Knights finished the 2017 season as the nation's No. 1-ranked team in the Colley Matrix.

UCF has won three American Athletic Conference (2013, 2014, 2017) titles in the league's first five seasons.

Josh Heupel

Head Coach

Josh Heupel is the 11th head coach in the history of UCF Football. UCF Vice President and Director of Athletics Dr. Daniel J. White announced the hire on Dec. 5, 2017.

Heupel comes to UCF after serving as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Missouri for the past two seasons.

In 2015, prior to Heupel's arrival, Missouri ranked 124th in the nation in total offense (280.9). In 2016, the Tigers led the Southeastern Conference and were ranked No. 13 in the nation, averaging 500.5 yards per game. In 2017, Missouri is currently ranked No. 7 in the nation in total offense, averaging 511.5 yards per game. The Tigers are currently No. 10 in the nation in scoring at 39.3 points per game.

Missouri quarterback Drew Lock blossomed under Heupel's tutelage. Lock led the SEC in passing as a sophomore, throwing for 3,399 yards and 23 touchdowns. He followed that up with an even stronger junior campaign in 2017, passing for 3,695 yards and an SEC-record 43 touchdown tosses, with a bowl game left to play.

Heupel served as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Utah State in 2015. Despite the loss of their starting quarterback to injury, Heupel's unit improved from 81st nationally to 60th in scoring offense.

Heupel started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater. He was on a coaching staff that took part in back-to-back national championship games following the 2003 and 2004 seasons. Heupel helped mentor Jason White to the Heisman Trophy in 2003.

He spent the 2005 season at Arizona before heading back to OU as a full-time assistant.

He returned to his alma mater for the 2006 season and coached the quarterbacks for five seasons. Heupel coached Sam Bradford to the Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien and Sammy Baugh Awards in 2008. Bradford led the nation in passing efficiency that season and the Sooners tallied an NCAA record five straight 60-point games.

Heupel was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2011 and served in that role for four seasons. His 2011 offense ranked fourth in the nation in total offense and passing offense. The 2012 unit ranked fifth in the nation in passing and 12th in total offense. In 2013, OU led the Big 12 in rushing and total offense. In his final season with OU, the Sooners led the nation in fewest sacks and led the Big 12 and ranked 10th in the nation in rushing, as well as finishing 20th in the nation in scoring and 23rd in total offense.

Heupel was a national-championship winning quarterback at Oklahoma. He was runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 2000 while leading the Sooners to a victory over Florida State in the 2001 Orange Bowl, sealing the national title for

OU. In 2001, Heupel was the Associated Press Player of the Year, Walter Camp Award winner, Archie Griffin Award winner and a consensus All-America performer.

During his two seasons as the starting quarterback at Oklahoma, Heupel posted a 20-5 record. He passed for 7,456 yards and 53 touchdowns. Overall, he still ranks among OU's top three quarterbacks in passing yards, completions and touchdown passes, despite playing just two seasons. He was a junior college All-America performer at Snow College in Utah in 1999, throwing for 2,308 yards and 28 TDs. He was drafted in the sixth round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

Heupel earned his bachelor's degree in business marketing from Oklahoma in 2001. He and his wife Dawn have two children - daughter Hannah and son Jace. Heupel is an Aberdeen, S.D. native.

OFFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (5)

Garrett Campbell, OG
Thomas Geddis, WR
Khalil Lewis, WR
Hayden Moore, QB
Kyle Trout, OT

Cincinnati is the only team in The American to return its leading rusher, passer and receiver from last season.

WR Khalil Lewis led Cincinnati with 676 receiving yards and seven touchdown receptions.

QB Hayden Moore has been the Bearcats' primary starter in each of the past two seasons, but could be pressed for the nod in 2018 with the early development of a pair of freshmen.

Gerrid Doaks finished 2017 as the Bearcats' leading rusher, despite missing three games due to injury. Doaks averaged 5.9 yards per attempt.

OG Garrett Campbell started all 12 games last year and is joined by OT Kyle Trout, who made seven starts after transferring from Ohio State.

DEFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (6)

Cortez Broughton, DT
Marquise Copeland, DT
Tyrell Gilbert, S
Kevin Mouhon, DE
Perry Young, LB
Bryan Wright, LB

DT Cortez Broughton, who earned all-conference second team honors in 2016, joins 2017 honorable mention all-conference DT Marquise Copeland and veteran DE Kevin Mouhon to provide one of the more formidable defensive lines in The American.

LB Perry Young registered 101 tackles last season and is the Bearcats' top returning tackler. Young had double figures in tackles in five games.

Senior CB Tyrell Gilbert is the only returning starter in the secondary and will be called upon to lead a comparatively young unit

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (1)

James Smith, P

P James Smith was chosen as The American's first team all-conference punter as a true freshman in 2017. Smith averaged 42.0 yards per punt and did not have a touchback as the Bearcats led The American in net punting (41.0).

STORYLINES

Cincinnati started the 2017 season at 2-6, but the Bearcats won two of their last four games, including a come-from-behind victory against UConn in the season finale.

The Bearcats look to end a two-year absence from bowl participation.

Cincinnati begins the 2018 season at UCLA in the first meeting between those teams. The following week has the Bearcats against Miami (Ohio) for the 123rd battle for the Victory Bell. This year's Victory Bell game will be played at Paul Brown Stadium in Cincinnati.

Luke Fickell

Head Coach

Veteran defensive coordinator and Ohio native Luke Fickell was named the University of Cincinnati's 42nd football head coach in December 2016.

Fickell is an experienced coaching veteran at the Football Bowl Subdivision level. His impressive resume includes being on the staff of two national championship winning teams, seeing 12 of his players selected in the NFL Draft, and coordinating outstanding defenses over the last 12 seasons as a co-coordinator or defensive coordinator.

He is also an excellent recruiter with strong Midwest and Florida relationships, a national presence when needed and a discerning eye for talent. He was named the American Football Coaches Association assistant coach of the year in 2010 and he was named a "top recruiter" in 2012 by both Rivals and ESPN.

While recognized as a respected mentor to his student-athletes while sharing life experiences as a former standout football player, college graduate, NFL player and as a husband and father, Fickell is most-noticed as a developer of talent and of really good defenses.

In 2005, he helped guide a defensive unit to fifth in the NCAA in total defense and first in rushing defense. In 2007 the team was first in total defense, first in scoring defense and first in pass defense. In 2009 and 2010, the Buckeyes were fifth and fourth, respectively, in total defense.

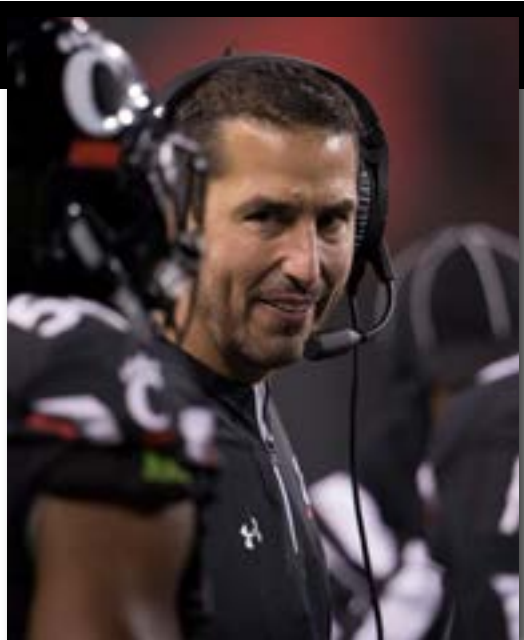

During Ohio State's undefeated, 12-0 season of 2012, Fickell's defense capped a season-long path of improvement by ranking second-nationally in total defense during the month of November. In 2013, Ohio State was 10th against the rush after ranking 14th against the run in 2012.

In the 2014 College Football Playoff semifinal win over No. 1 Alabama, the defense forced seven Alabama punts, had three interceptions in the last 18 minutes of the game and effectively nullified the talents of Heisman Trophy finalist receiver Amari Cooper.

And finally, in the national championship game against Oregon and Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Marcus Mariota, the defense held the Ducks 100 yards below their offensive average and surrendered just 10 points off four Ohio State turnovers.

Ohio State's 2015 unit ranked ninth nationally in total defense, second in scoring defense, sixth in pass efficiency defense and was a major reason the team went 12-1 on the season.

The 2016 Buckeyes earned a spot in the College Football Playoff semifinal against Clemson after finishing the regular season 11-1 and ranked No. 3 in CFP poll. OSU won five consecutive games to close the season and boast the nation's No. 4 total defense (282.3 yards per game allowed), including the No. 1 pass efficiency defense and the No. 3 scoring defense (14.2). DE Tyquan Lewis was the Big Ten's Smith-Brown Defensive Lineman of the Year and a first-team all-conference selection, along with S Malik Hooker, LB Raekwon McMillian and CB Marshon Lattimore. CB Gareon Conley was a second-team coaches pick. Hooker was later named a Sporting News First-Team All-American. DE Sam Hubbard, a Cincinnati native, was tabbed as an Academic All-American.

His NFL Draft selections include first-round picks A.J. Hawk, Bobby Carpenter, Ryan Shazier and Darron Lee, NFL standout James Laurinaitis and Joshua Perry, Anthony Schlegel, Larry Grant, Marcus Freeman, Austin Spitler, Ross Homan and Brian Rolle.

In May of 2011 he was asked to take over an Ohio State program staggered by the loss of a beloved head coach, the unexpected departure of a star quarterback and on the cusp of NCAA penalties, and he steadied the situation with an impressive willingness to take on a challenge.

Fickell was much more than a just a steady-influence in 2011, though. He was a leader through one of the most difficult times in Ohio State athletics history. He kept the team focused and, despite 53 games missed by starters, the constant molding of two first-year quarterbacks and inexperience and youth up and down the lineup, he had the Buckeyes in control of their Big Ten championship destiny well into November.

A native of Columbus, Ohio, Fickell is a 1997 graduate of Ohio State with a degree in exercise sciences. He played for the Buckeyes from 1992-96, redshirting the first year and then starting the next four seasons at nose guard. He started a school-record 50 consecutive games between 1993 and 1996.

Fickell concluded his Ohio State career with 212 total tackles. During his four years in the starting lineup, the Buckeyes posted a record of 41-8-1 with a pair of Big Ten co-championships.

OFFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (6)

Tyraiq Beals, WR
Ryan Crozier, C
Cameron DeGeorge, OG
Hergy Mayala, WR
Matt Peart, OT
Ryan Van Demark, OT

UConn's offense averaged 415.3 yards per game in 2017, the Huskies' best offensive showing since the 2003 season (477.5 ypg).

The Huskies return four starters on the offensive line. C Ryan Crozier returns to the lineup after missing the final nine games last year with a knee injury.

QB David Pindell started the season-opener and the final three games of the 2017 season. Pindell had a career-high 273 passing yards in the season finale against Cincinnati.

WR Hergy Mayala led UConn in receptions (43), receiving yards (615) and touchdown receptions (seven) in 2017. The Huskies return their top four wide receivers from last year.

DEFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (2)

Tyler Coyle, S
Marshe Terry, DB

UConn will feature a relatively inexperienced defensive unit in 2018 as only two starters return.

S Tyler Coyle finished third on the team in tackles as a freshman last season (67) and led the squad with two interceptions.

DB Marshe Terry saw 11 starts as the Huskies went with a 3-3-5 base defense last year. Terry registered 60 tackles with an interception.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (2)

Brett Graham, P
Michael Tarbutt, K

P Brett Graham handled the punting chores as a freshman in 2017 and averaged 38.8 yards per punt, with 20 of his 63 attempts inside the opponents' 20-yard line.

K Michael Tarbutt made 12 of 18 field goal attempts last season and is one of the more experienced kickers in The American.

STORYLINES

UConn opens the season with a Thursday-night matchup against UCF, which will bring a 13-game winning streak into the contest. The Huskies ended Houston's 11-game winning streak during the 2015 season.

UConn last played in a bowl game in 2015 as the Huskies look to end a two-year absence from postseason play.

Randy Edsall Head Coach

Randy Edsall enters the second season of his second stint as the UConn head football coach after being with the program for 12 seasons from 1999-2010. He led the program from Division I-AA status in 1999 to an appearance in the Bowl Championship Series and the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl following the 2010 season.

Edsall returned to UConn from the NFL's Detroit Lions where he was Director of Research – Special Projects. Prior to that he served as head football coach of the University of Maryland from 2011-15.

During his time in Storrs, the program blossomed from a major college football newcomer to a team that made five bowl appearances in seven years and four consecutive. He has recorded the most wins in program history (74) and coached in the most games (144). In addition to being the winningest coach in school history, Edsall's coaching record in the school's first nine FBS seasons (2002-2010) was 65-46.

Despite starting the 2010 season with an 0-2 conference mark and 3-4 overall, the Huskies rebounded and finished the year with five consecutive Big East wins to earn the league championship and a spot in a BCS bowl game. UConn's trip from the FCS (former Division I-AA) to the BCS in 11 seasons was the most rapid in the history of the series. For his efforts and those of the team, he was named the 2010 Big East Coach of the Year.

UConn's trip to the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl marked the fourth consecutive bowl trip for the Huskies and the fifth since 2004. The Huskies defeated South Carolina in the 2010 Papajohns.com Bowl by a 20-7 score. Edsall guided the Huskies to a 38-20 win over Buffalo in the 2009 International Bowl and led the team to a victory in the 2004 Motor City Bowl (39-10 over Toledo) and an appearance in the 2007 Meineke Car Care Bowl.

Edsall's Huskies won their final three regular season games in 2009 - including a historic double-overtime win over Notre Dame on Nov. 21. UConn posted a 7-5 regular season record facing the 25th-toughest regular season schedule in the country. In 2007, the Bryant and Munger Coach of the Year Award finalist helped guide UConn to a share of its first-ever Big East Championship in a season where the Huskies were picked to finish seventh in the league.

Edsall was named the 2007 Bowl Championship Division Head Coach of the Year in New England by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston.

UConn joined the Big East Conference in 2004, finishing just one-win shy of tying for the conference championship. The Huskies led the conference in total defense each of their first two years in the league and again in 2008. During their debut season in 2004, UConn led the Big East in both total offense and total defense. During this span, UConn has finished in the national top 20 for total offense (2003, 2004) and total defense (2002, 2005, 2008). The Huskies finished an impressive sixth in the country in total defense in 2008.

Edsall was named the 27th head football coach at the University of Connecticut on December 21, 1998.

Edsall brought 19 years of previous coaching experience to the Husky program, including 15 seasons on the collegiate level and three in the NFL. Edsall joined the Huskies after completing the 1998 season as the defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, where he helped the 14th-ranked Yellow Jackets complete a 9-2 campaign.

Prior to joining the staff at Georgia Tech, Edsall spent three seasons as the secondary coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars of the National Football League. In his three seasons on Tom Coughlin's staff, Edsall was a part of one of the most successful expansion franchises in the history of the NFL. The Jaguars reached the playoffs in 1996 and 1997, including a berth in the AFC Championship Game in 1996.

Edsall began his coaching career in 1980 at his alma mater, Syracuse University. Edsall started as a graduate assistant from 1980-82. He coached the running backs for three seasons at Syracuse (1983-84 and 1986) and coached the tight ends in 1985 before making the switch to the defensive side of the ball. He coached the Syracuse defensive backs from 1987-90.

Edsall was a three-year letterwinner in football, basketball and baseball at Susquehannock High School in Glen Rock, Pa. He was an all-state selection in all three sports in his senior season and has been inducted into the York Area Sports Hall of Fame. He then went on to Syracuse, where he was a member of the football team and earned one varsity letter as a quarterback for the Orange.

Edsall earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from Syracuse in 1980 and added a master's degree in health and physical education in 1982 from Syracuse.

OFFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (5)

Trevon Brown, WR
Garrett McGhin, OG
Darius Pinnix, RB
D'Ante Smith, OT
John Spellacy, C

WR Trevon Brown set the American Athletic Conference single-game record with 270 receiving yards against Cincinnati last season and is the latest in a long line of productive ECU receivers.

ECU loses both of its starting quarterbacks from last year. The Pirates look to go with either sophomore QB Reid Herring or freshman QB Holton Ahlers behind center in 2018.

RB Hussein Howe and RB Darius Pinnix were ECU's top two rushers last season. Howe rushed for 419 yards and three touchdowns, while Pinnix had 229 yards and two TDs as a true freshman.

The Pirates return three starters on the offensive line. OG Garrett McGhin is a veteran with 22 career starts.

DEFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (7)

Keyshawn Canady, CB
Kendall Futrell, DE
Cannon Gibbs, LB
Colby Gore, CB
Jalen Price, DT
Devon Sutton, NB
Alex Turner, DT

The Pirate defense will be led by new defensive coordinator David Blackwell, a 1997 ECU graduate who most recently helped Jacksonville State to four straight Ohio Valley Conference titles.

S Devon Sutton registered 68 tackles with three pass breakups, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery last season and is the Pirates' top returning tackler.

LB Aaron Ramseur led the Pirates with two interceptions to go with 57 tackles in 2017.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (1)

Jake Verity

K/P Jake Verity is expected to see most of the action as the Pirates' placekicker in 2018.

Verity hit 16 of his 25 field goal attempts as a sophomore and was 14-for-20 from inside 50 yards.

STORYLINES

The Pirates have made eight bowl appearances in 12 years, but look to end a three-year post-season drought.

ECU's nonconference schedule includes home dates against North Carolina, Old Dominion and North Carolina A&T. The Pirates have won seven of their last nine nonconference home games.

Scottie Montgomery

Head Coach

Scottie Montgomery is in his third season as head football coach at ECU University.

Montgomery, a North Carolina native who played an integral role leading Duke and the Pittsburgh Steelers to divisional championships and postseason play, was introduced as the Pirates' 21st head coach on Dec. 14, 2015.

He followed his formal appointment by directing the Pirates to their second-highest single-season passing attack in school history during the 2016 campaign, averaging 334.7 air yards per game. Additionally, ECU generated 5,605 yards of offense (467.1 ypg), which stood as the fourth-highest seasonal total in the program's record books.

The Pirates ranked among the nation's Top 25 (of 128 FBS programs) in 11 different statistical categories in 2016, rating 6th in passing offense, 11th in completion percentage, 16th in fewest penalties, 18th in fewest penalty yards, 19th in defensive fourth down conversion percentage, 22nd in offensive fourth down conversion percentage, 23rd in total offense, 23rd in blocked kicks, 23rd in blocked punts, 23rd in fewest penalty yards per game average and 24th in fewest penalties per game average.

During his second season in 2017, the Pirates' passing game again turned in impressive numbers by ranking fifth in program history with a 3,815-yard total (317.9 ypg). At the national level, ECU's air numbers stood 12th among all FBS programs, while from a ball security standpoint, Montgomery's unit led the American Athletic Conference and rated 12th in the country with only five fumbles lost all season.

Three players - receivers Trevon Brown and Davon Grayson, along with defensive end Kiante Anderson - earned All-AAC honors during the 2017 campaign under his leadership.

From an individual standpoint, Montgomery helped Biletnikoff Award finalist Zay Jones capture FBS stat titles in receptions (158), receptions per game (13.2), receiving yards per game (145.5), while ranking second in receiving yards (1,746) on the way to establishing NCAA career (399) and single-season standards in receptions. First-year ECU quarterback Philip Nelson also finished seventh in completion percentage (67.9) and 10th in completions per game (23.7).

His acceptance of the top ECU football position officially ended a two-year tenure as the Blue Devils' associate head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Overall, Montgomery served on the Duke staff for seven seasons under head coaches Ted Roof (2006-07) and David Cutcliffe (2008-09, 2013-15) - five as receivers coach. He helped guide Duke to three-straight bowl appearances, including a 44-41 overtime victory against Indiana in the 2015 New Era Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium.

Montgomery's coaching experience in the National Football League spanned three seasons under Mike Tomlin's leadership. His work with the Steelers' receivers in 2010, 2011 and 2012 resulted in two playoff appearances, the 2010 AFC North Division championship and a spot in Super Bowl XLV.

Over Montgomery's two-year stint as Duke's offensive coordinator, the Blue Devils featured two All-America selections along the offensive line, the ACC's all-time leader in pass receptions and record-setting running back Shaun Wilson, who finished the 2014 season with the highest yards per rushing attempt average (7.67) in school history. In the 2015 NFL Draft, Tomlinson was selected in the first round by the Detroit Lions while Crowder was a fourth-round choice of the Washington Redskins.

Montgomery helped the Steelers to a three-year regular season record of 32-16, mentoring receivers such as Hines Ward, Mike Wallace and Antonio Brown.

During his earlier four-year coaching stay at Duke, Montgomery directed several of the finest pass-catchers in school and ACC history in Eron Riley, Donovan Varner and Conner Vernon.

As a wide receiver for the Blue Devils from 1996 to 1999, Montgomery paced Duke in receiving in three straight seasons and was a two-time team MVP selection.

Montgomery closed his collegiate career with 171 catches for 2,379 yards and 13 touchdowns, which includes a career-high 60 receptions as a junior in 1998. He finished his career ranking among Duke's all-time leaders in kickoff returns (63), kickoff return yards (1,515) and all-purpose yardage (4,188).

During his senior campaign in 1999, Montgomery established the school standard for all-purpose yards in a season with 1,565.

He played professionally with the NFL's Denver Broncos (2000-02) and Oakland Raiders (2003).

RETURNING STARTERS (6)

William Atterbury, OG
Eric Mayes, OT
Tyre McCants, WR
Darnell Salomon, WR
Marcus Norman, OT
Mitchell Wilcox, TE

The Bulls will look to replace the production of their top three rushers, their all-time leading passer and their top receiver from last season.

USF has three returning starters on the offensive line, including OT Marcus Norman, who earned second team all-conference honors in 2017. Norman has started 22 games in the last two seasons.

WR Tyre McCants had a team-high seven touchdown receptions and led the Bulls with 19.8 yards per catch in 2017. McCants leads a unit that has three of its top four receptions leaders back for 2018.

The quarterback spot appears wide open as the 2018 season approaches.

DEFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (5)

Ronnie Hoggins, CB
Greg Reaves, DE
Nico Sawtelle, LB
Jaymon Thomas, S
Mazzi Wilkins, CB

The Bulls lose a number of impact players on defense, including DT Deadrin Senat, who was a third-round pick in the NFL Draft, LB Auggie Sanchez, who is the school's career tackles leader, and CB Deatrick Nichols, a two-time all-conference selection.

LB Nico Sawtelle had 54 tackles last season, the most among returning players. LB Greg Reaves had a team-high 14.0 tackles for loss in 2017.

CB Mazzi Wilkins was second on the Bulls with 12 passes defended and three interceptions last season. Wilkins joins DB Ronnie Hoggins and S Jaymon Thomas to lead a talented and experienced secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (1)

USF will have to replace both of its kicking specialists as well as its leading punt returner and kickoff returner from last year.

STORYLINES

Charlie Strong, who is in his second season with the Bulls, has gone 22-3 in two years as an American Athletic Conference head coach. Strong was 12-1 with Louisville in 2013 and went 10-2 with USF last year.

USF went 11-2 in 2016 and 10-2 last year for its only two seasons with double-digit wins in program history.

The Bulls have gone 16-3 at home in the last three seasons.

USF finished the 2017 season ranked No. 21 in the final national polls.

Charlie Strong

Head Coach

A two-time conference coach of the year, strong recruiter and one of the best defensive minds in college football, Charlie Strong was named the fourth head coach in USF football program history Dec. 11, 2016.

A two-time Big East Coach of the Year while at Louisville, Strong was also a vital part of two national championships as defensive coordinator at the University of Florida. At USF, he is leading his third program after previous head coaching stints at the University of Texas (2014-16) and the University of Louisville (2010-13). Strong's appointment at USF returned him to the state of Florida, where he has spent 16 of his 35 seasons as a collegiate coach. He enters his second season at USF (10-2), ninth as a head coach and 36th overall in 2018.

In his first season leading the Bulls, Strong's team posted a 10-2 record and defeated Texas Tech in the Birmingham Bowl for the program's second straight bowl victory. The Bulls spent the entire season ranked in the top 25, reaching as high as No. 13, before finishing No. 21 in the AP and coaches' polls.

USF's defense saw immediate improvement, finishing in the top 25 of the national rankings in six categories and going from 120th in total defense (482.0 ypg) the prior year to 37th (359.8 ypg). The Bulls ranked second nationally in interceptions (20), fifth in tackles for loss (8.4 tpg) and 11th in sacks (3.0 spg).

Meanwhile, USF's offense ranked in the top 25 in eight NCAA categories, including sixth in total offense (513.0 ypg), eighth in rushing (264.1 ypg) and 10th in scoring (38.3 ppg). The Bulls had 10 players earn all-conference selection and a record four earn first team honors.

At Texas, Strong rebuilt the roster, put his stamp on the culture and elevated the program's infrastructure while posting a 16-21 record. His tenure at Texas included wins over No. 10 Oklahoma (2015), No. 12 Baylor (2015) and No. 10 Notre Dame (2016).

Strong led Louisville to back-to-back Big East Championships in 2011 and 2012 and posted a 37-15 record in four seasons leading a Cardinals program that was coming off back-to-back losing seasons. He reached a bowl game in all four seasons, including a 33-23 victory over No. 4 Florida in the 2013 Allstate Sugar Bowl, completing an 11-2 season. Strong's 2012 Louisville team finished 13th in the final top 25 rankings and his 2013 team, which competed in the American Athletic Conference, finished ranked 15th with a 12-1 mark, and posted back-to-back bowl victories for the first time in program history.

Strong is the only coach in Louisville history to have won three bowl games – prior to his arrival the Cards had won just six bowl games in the program's 100-year history. He was named Big East Coach of the Year in both 2010 and 2012.

During Strong's final two years, Louisville was the nation's fourth-winningest program, posting a combined 23-3 record and registering bowl victories in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history. The Cardinals' 11-plus win seasons in 2012 and 2013 were the fourth and fifth in school history and the first back-to-back. Louisville finished among the nation's top 15 for a school-record second straight year. The Cardinals ended 2013 among the top 25 in both polls for just the ninth time in school history.

Strong has also held positions on the coaching staffs at Florida, Texas A&M (1985, graduate assistant), Southern Illinois (1986-87, wide receivers), Mississippi (1990, wide receivers), Notre Dame (1995-98, defensive line) and South Carolina (1999-2002, defensive coordinator). He was a finalist for the Broyles Award (nation's top assistant coach) three times.

Strong spent 15 seasons as an assistant at Florida over four stints, including seven years as the defensive coordinator, the last five of which were under current Ohio State head coach Urban Meyer. Strong also served on two of coach Lou Holtz's staffs, spending the first two years of his Notre Dame tenure under Holtz, as well as four more as defensive coordinator at South Carolina.

A native of Batesville, Arkansas, Strong was a three-year letterwinner and three-time all-conference safety at Central Arkansas, which reached the NAIA Playoffs each of his final two seasons. He was also a two-time all-conference performer in track and field, and graduated in 1982 with a bachelor's degree in education. Strong was inducted into the Central Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2009.

Temple entered last season with a four-man battle for the starting quarterback spot, but came into this season with QB Frank Nutile entrenched as the signal-caller. Nutile started the last five games last season, going 4-1 and throwing 12 touchdown passes.

RB David Hood and RB Ryquell Armstead combined to rush for 1,242 yards and 10 touchdowns last season.

WR Isaiah Wright had a team-high 46 receptions for 668 yards and four touchdowns and leads a skilled group of veteran receivers.

C Matt Hennessy and OG Vincent Picozzi were regular starters on the offensive line as freshmen in 2017.

RETURNING STARTERS (6)

Dan Archibong, DT
Shaun Bradley, LB
Michael Dogbe, DT
Sam Franklin, DB
Delvon Randall, S
Chappelle Russell, LB

S Delvon Randall was Temple's lone first team all-conference player last season. Randall finished second on the team with 80 tackles to go with four interceptions in 2017.

LB Shaun Bradley and LB Chappelle Russell stepped into the starting lineup last year and responded with big seasons. Bradley led Temple with 85 tackles to go with 10.0 tackles for loss, while Russell had 67 stops and 4.0 TFL.

The Owls' interior line is stout once again with the return of DT Michael Dogbe, a veteran of 41 games, and Dan Archibong, who was the 2017 ECAC Defensive Rookie of the Year.

Temple led The American in passing defense (206.8 ypg) and sacks (39) in 2017

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (1)

Aaron Boucherhi, K

K Aaron Boucherhi, who stepped into the lineup midway through the 2016 season, has established himself as one of the nation's top kickers. Boucherhi made 15 of 23 field goal attempts last season.

Isaiah Wright scored touchdowns on a kickoff return and a punt return last year, in addition to scoring rushing, receiving and passing TDs).

STORYLINES

Temple overcame a 3-5 start to the season to win four of its last five games and play in a bowl for the third consecutive year. The Owls' 28-3 victory in the 2017 Gasparilla Bowl was Temple's first bowl win since 2011.

Temple has won The American's East Division title twice in the first three years of divisional play in the conference.

Geoff Collins

Head Coach

Geoff Collins accepted the head coaching position at Temple University on Dec. 14, 2016, becoming the 27th head football coach in Owls' history.

Collins' creative spirit has paid dividends on and off the field. Whether devising original game-plans, creating new methods to teach, or splashy ways to pursue recruits, Collins' ideas are mimicked throughout college football.

While Collins has gained notoriety for being innovative and energetic, his accomplishments in his first year as head coach can not be overlooked. Despite a roster that needed to start 42 different players due to injuries and youth, he led the Owls to bowl eligibility for the fourth consecutive season and seventh time in nine years.

The defense took on Collins' identity and ranked among the conference leaders in yards per game (391.8 - 2nd), passing yards per game (210.0 - 1st), third down percentage (39.3 - 2nd), sacks (32 - 2nd), and tackles for loss (92 - 2nd).

Collins was named the 2017 ECAC Coach of the Year.

He has been recognized as one of the leading assistant coaches in the nation numerous times and is the only coach to be a Broyles Award nominee, given to the nation's best assistant coach, at three schools [FIU (2010), Mississippi State (2014) and Florida (2015)].

Collins is an alumnus of Western Carolina University, where he played defensive back and linebacker. Collins has coached all over, beginning at his alma mater, and most recently working in the SEC at both Florida, where he helped the Gators to back-to-back SEC East Division Titles, and Mississippi State in the role of defensive coordinator. Over the course of his career, Collins has helped guide 17 of his student-athletes to careers in the National Football League.

Collins first began at Florida in 2015, hired by Jim McElwain to be on his initial staff at the school. Collins' opportunity to serve as defensive coordinator at Florida was his second defensive coordinator job in the SEC, as he held the same title at Mississippi State for two seasons.

Prior to his time at Florida, Collins was a member of the coaching staff at Mississippi State. Originally hired to serve as the linebackers coach and co-defensive coordinator for the 2011 season, Collins was promoted to the position of defensive coordinator in 2013.

Collins' ability to mold a defense was evident well prior to his time in Mississippi State and Florida. Before coaching in the SEC, he sharpened his teeth as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Florida International University in 2010. During that season, his defense was ranked first in the Sun Belt Conference in total defense, scoring defense, pass defense efficiency, and turnover margin. This, off of the prior year when the team was ranked 119th in total defense nationally. This dramatic turnaround led Collins to be named a finalist for the Broyles Award in 2010, an award for the top assistant in college football.

Before joining the staff at FIU, Collins was a linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach George O'Leary at UCF for two seasons.

In 2007, he worked at Alabama as the director of player personnel under head coach Nick Saban and had the No. 1 recruiting class in the country. That class included Mark Ingram Jr., the 2008 Heisman Trophy winner and the first Heisman win by an Alabama player. He spent the 2006 season at Georgia Tech as director of player personnel. Georgia Tech secured their best recruiting class in team history that year as well.

Between the years of 2002 and 2005, Collins was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater Western Carolina, serving on the same staff as former Owls' head coach Matt Rhule.

From 1999-2000, Collins served as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech under O'Leary. In Collins' last season at Georgia Tech he was promoted to tight ends coach under current Houston Texans' head coach Bill O'Brien.

Collins got his chance at being a defensive coordinator at Albright College from 1997-98. Before that, he was a linebackers coach for the Fordham Rams for the 1996 season. In 1995, he was an assistant coach for Franklin High School in North Carolina. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Western Carolina, contributing as a student assistant during the 1993 and 1994 seasons.

Collins played football at WCU as an outside linebacker and defensive back from 1989-92. He totaled 194 career tackles during his four year career with the Catamounts. As a junior, he was the team's fifth-leading tackler (68), while registering 6.0 tackles-for-loss. As a senior, he helped Western Carolina to a 7-4 record, totaling 62 total tackles and 5.0 tackles-for-loss.

OFFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (4)

Braylon Jones, OG
Josh Jones, OT
D'Eriq King, QB
Will Noble, C

The Cougars lose nearly all of their starting skill position players from last year, but return QB D'Eriq King, who emerged as the starter and figured in 15 touchdowns (seven passing, eight rushing) in 2017.

QB Quinten Dormady, a graduate transfer from Tennessee, could be in the mix behind center as well. Dormady the first five games of the 2017 season for the Volunteers before suffering a season-ending injury.

C Will Noble is a four-year starter who anchors a veteran offensive line. Noble, who has made 32 career starts, joins OG Braylon Jones (17 career starts) and OT Josh Jones (23 career starts) as proven players up front.

DEFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (5)

Jerard Carter, DE
Garrett Davis, S
Emeke Egbule, LB
Alexander Myres, CB
Ed Oliver, DT

DT Ed Oliver was chosen as the nation's top college football player for the 2018 season by Sports Illustrated.

Oliver won the 2017 Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman, was a consensus All-America selection and was named The American's Defensive Player of the Year.

DE Jerard Carter returns to the lineup after seeing his 2017 season limited to five games and two starts due to injury. Carter played in 11 games, with eight starts, and had 20 tackles in the 2016 season.

S Garrett Davis, who earned all-conference second-team plaudits in 2016, is the top returner in the secondary.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (2)

Caden Novikoff, K
Dane Roy, P

P Dane Roy averaged 41.8 yards per punt in his sophomore season. He enters his third year as the Cougars' regular punter.

K Caden Novikoff earned second-team all-conference honors after he made 12 of 15 field goal attempts in 2017. Novikoff was perfect from inside 38 yards (9-for-9).

STORYLINES

The Cougars have registered two 13-win seasons since 2011.

Houston has gone 18-2 at TDECU Stadium in the last three seasons.

Houston has gone 7-5 against nationally ranked opponents as an American Athletic Conference member. The seven wins against ranked opponents are the most of any team in The American.

Major Applewhite Head Coach

Major Applewhite was named head coach at Houston on Dec. 9, 2016 after serving two seasons as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Applewhite, who has 14 years of coaching experience including seven as an offensive coordinator, has coached in 12 bowl games, four of which have been the New Year's Six variety including the 2010 BCS National Championship.

Applewhite's first season as a head coach started off with adversity as Houston was hit with one of the nation's most devastating natural disasters in Hurricane Harvey. Following a team evacuation to Austin concluded and a cancellation of the season-opener at UTSA, Applewhite rallied his team to a seven-win season and a program-record fifth straight bowl game appearance, finishing second in The American West.

Despite facing five of the nation's top-20 scoring offenses, Houston finished the year second in The American in scoring defense while sophomore defensive tackle Ed Oliver won the Outland Trophy and was a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy. Offensively the Houston offense ranked third nationally in completion percentage as three different quarterbacks threw for at least 300 yards in a game during the season.

Over the 2015-16 seasons, Applewhite's explosive offenses helped the Houston program to the best two-year win total in program history with the 22 wins over 2015-16 ranking fourth nationally behind only Alabama, Clemson and Ohio State. Houston started out 5-0 in back-to-back seasons for the first time in program history with Applewhite's offense averaging 45.3 points per game in those 10 games.

His offense eclipsed the 500-yard mark in 11 games and the 600-yard mark in four games over the past two years. Scoring wise, Applewhite's offense has eclipsed the 40-point mark 12 times and the 50-point mark on five occasions.

Applewhite led a 2016 Houston offense that was among the nation's leaders, ranking 15th in passing offense (301.9 yards per game) and 21st in scoring offense (38.0 points per game) as Houston scored at least 30 in 11 of 12 games.

In his first season at Houston, Applewhite led an offense that was one of three nationally to average over 235 yards per game in both rushing (235.8 yards per game) and passing (248.4 yards per game) as the Houston offense ranked 20th nationally in total offense with an average of 484.1 yards per game.

Applewhite arrived in Houston after seven years at Texas, his final four years as co-offensive coordinator after serving as assistant head coach his first three seasons. Position wise, Applewhite oversaw the program's running backs his first five seasons and the quarterbacks his final year.

Applewhite returned to his alma mater after spending the 2007 season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Alabama, where he was the youngest coordinator on the FBS level.

In Applewhite's one year at Alabama, the Crimson Tide bounced back from a losing season in 2006 to post a 7-6 record under first-year coach Nick Saban. Under his guidance, Alabama improved its offensive output by nearly 40 yards per game (335.9 to 373.8) and increased its scoring from 22.9 points per game to 27.1. His offense generated 256 yards passing and 388 total yards to cap the year with a 30-24 win over Colorado in the Independence Bowl.

Prior to Alabama, Applewhite spent a season as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Rice where, as the youngest coordinator on the FBS level, he directed an offense that scored the then-most points (350) and gained the then second-most yards (4,486) in Owls' history.

Before his stint at Rice, Applewhite joined Greg Robinson at Syracuse where he served as quarterbacks coach in 2005. Applewhite's coaching career began where he starred, at Texas, where he served as a graduate assistant coach and worked with the offensive line for two seasons (2003-04).

The Longhorns' team captain in 2001, Applewhite helped Texas to four straight bowl games and posted a 22-8 record as a starter. He capped his career by throwing for a UT record 473 yards and a Longhorn-bowl-game best four TDs en route to Offensive MVP honors in a 47-43 victory over No. 20 Washington in the 2001 Holiday Bowl. The 1999 co-Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year set then-UT records for career (8,353) and season (3,357/1999) passing yards, as well as career TD passes (60). He threw for 2,453 yards and 18 TDs, UT freshman records at the time, in claiming Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors in 1998.

Mike Norvell

Head Coach

Mike Norvell came to Memphis with an ability to develop dynamic offenses, and his first two seasons with the Tigers did not disappoint.

Year 1 of the Norvell-era offense was the second most-prolific in program history, behind only 2015, rolling up the second-most total yards (6,028) and scoring the second-most points (505) for a season in school history.

Year 2 shattered those marks with 6,917 total yards, and 592 points scored. The Memphis offense also scored the most touchdowns (74) for a campaign in program history in 2017, including a school season-record 39 touchdown passes. The Tigers' 4,355 passing yards were the first 4,000-plus passing season in school history and the 307 completions was the third-most for a season in school history.

Wide receiver Anthony Miller became just the third Tiger and the first skill position player in school history to earn NCAA consensus All-American honors after finishing his career with 3,590 receiving yards and 238 catches. The 238 catches set a Memphis career mark and his 3,590 yards in three seasons made Miller the first Tiger in school history to have over 3,000 career receiving yards.

While the offense flourished in Norvell's first two seasons, the Tigers defense and special teams were not to be overshadowed. After turning opponents over 29 times in 2016, the Tigers forced 31 turnovers in 2017, ranking third in the nation. Memphis' 15 fumble recoveries ranked tied for fourth in the country.

Senior linebacker Genard Avery repeated back-to-back first team all-conference honors and finished his career among the top three in program history in career sacks (2nd, 21.5) and tackles for loss (3rd, 41.5). Freshman defensive back T.J. Carter also made a name for himself in the Tiger secondary, earning USA Today Freshman All-America honors after finishing fifth on the team with 69 tackles and leading the squad with five interceptions.

After ranking 11th in turnover margin in Norvell's first year at Memphis, the Tigers' ranked third (1.15) in 2017, thanks in part to an offense that turned the ball over just six times in 13 games.

The focus Norvell and his staff placed on the game's third phase, special teams, has provided major dividends in his time at Memphis. It also brought to an end what was believed to be the longest kick return for a touchdown drought in FBS history. The span of time was nearly 21 seasons, but the 2016 Tigers special teams laid that record to rest and then some. In the Oct. 6 win over Temple, freshman Tony Pollard took an Owls' kickoff and raced 95 yards for a touchdown, the first by a Memphis player since November of 1996. Not to stop there, Norvell's special teams ran back two more kickoffs for scores and set the program's season record for kick returns for touchdowns with three. Pollard had a second kick-return score (100 yards vs. Navy), and Darrell Henderson added another (99 yards vs. SMU). The three kick returns for touchdowns were tied for the FBS lead in 2016.

Pollard continued his special teams prowess in 2017, returning four kickoffs for touchdowns and earning first team Walter Camp All-American honors after leading the country in kickoff return yards per game (42.4) and kickoff return touchdowns (four). Pollard also grabbed his second consecutive American Athletic Conference Special Teams Player of the Year honor in 2017.

In 2016, Memphis had the second-best kick return defense in the country, allowing opponents a mere 16.04 yards per return and none returned for touchdowns. A major reason for the Tigers' success on kick return defense was Lou Groza semifinalist Jake Elliott's 64 touchbacks out of 92 kickoffs (69.6 percent). Elliott's 64 touchbacks led The American and was third nationally. After Elliott graduated and moved on to the Super Bowl-winning Philadelphia Eagles roster in his rookie year, Norvell and his staff tapped freshman Riley Patterson to handle kicking duties and the Tigers still ranked among the country's best, finishing 13th in kickoff return defense (17.75 ypr).

Off the field, Norvell's Tigers are also excelling in the classroom. The team just posted its highest GPA in program history in the fall of 2017 and in his two seasons at the helm of the Tigers, 34 football players have earned their respective bachelor's degrees, including Riley Ferguson, Anthony Miller and Genard Avery, three players invited to the 2018 NFL Combine.

Norvell earned both his bachelor's (education in social studies, 2005) and master's (training systems, 2007) degrees from Central Arkansas.

OFFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (4)

Zach Abey, WR
Jake Hawk, OT
Malcolm Perry, QB
Andrew Wood, OT

Navy returns three quarterbacks who started at least one game at the position last year. QB Malcolm Perry became one of two players in NCAA FBS history to rush for 100 or more yards as a quarterback and a running back in the same season (joining Michigan's Denard Robinson).

FB Anthony Gargiulo rushed for 423 yards and three touchdowns and is expected to take over as the primary fullback in 2018.

WR Zach Abey was the Midshipmen's starting quarterback last season, but moves to wide receiver for 2018 to maximize Navy's production on offense. Abey rushed for 1,413 yards and 19 touchdowns.

Abey and Perry (1,182 yards) gave Navy two 1,000-yard rushers for the third time in school history last year.

DEFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (6)

Juan Hailey, S
Jackson Pittman, DT
Jarvis Polu, DE
Jarid Ryan, CB
Hudson Sullivan, LB
Sean Williams, S

Navy returns six starters from a defense that faced five of the top 24 scoring offenses in 2017 and held all but one below its season average.

S Sean Williams finished second on the team with 76 tackles and had an interception and four pass breakups last season.

DT Jackson Pittman and DE Jarvis Polu anchors the Navy defensive line as returning starters. Pittman had 20 tackles last year, while Polu finished with 32 stops, including 3.0 tackles for loss.

LB Hudson Sullivan is the lone returning starter at linebacker.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (2)

Benett Moehring, K
Owen White, P

K Bennett Moehring hit 8 of 15 field goal attempts in 2017 and was 7-of-10 from inside 30 yards.

P Owen White averaged a solid 40.5 yards per punt with only two touchbacks on 42 kicks.

STORYLINES

Navy is a combined 18-6 in American Athletic Conference regular-season games since joining the conference. Only USF (19) has won more conference games in that span.

Navy has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record in the last five years.

Ken Niumatalolo

Head Coach

In his 10 seasons at the helm of the Navy football program, and in his 20 years overall at the Naval Academy, head coach Ken Niumatalolo has engineered a program that has hit on all cylinders since he took over the reins at the end of the 2007 campaign.

Niumatalolo has repeatedly guided the Midshipmen to success both on and off the gridiron. Included in his accomplishments are a number of milestones never before achieved by a coach or team in the program's 134-year history.

Niumatalolo (84-48, .636) is the winningest coach in school history and is the only coach in the history of the Army-Navy game to start his coaching career 8-0 against the other Academy.

He led Navy to a school-record 11 wins in 2015, which included sharing the West Division title with Houston in Navy's first year in the American Athletic Conference, as well as winning the Lambert Trophy, awarded to the best team in the East, for the first time since 1963.

He led Navy to its first outright division title last fall as the Mids went 7-1 in The American and won the West division.

He is the first coach in school history to win three consecutive bowl games and his four overall bowl wins are the most in school history.

He has led Navy to five Commander-In-Chief's Trophies, which is tied with George Welsh and Paul Johnson for the most in school history.

Niumatalolo was one of just four coaches to be named a finalist for the Dodd Trophy and the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach Of The Year Award in 2015. He was a Dodd Trophy finalist again in 2016 and was also the AFCA Region 1 Coach of the Year in 2016. He has been named the AAC Coach of the Year in each of his first two seasons.

Since joining the American Athletic Conference in 2015, the Mids have compiled a conference record of 18-6, which is tied with Temple for the second-most wins in the conference.

Navy finished the 2017 campaign with a 7-6 record and a 4-4 mark in the American Athletic Conference, which included a 49-7 rout of Virginia in the Military Bowl. The 42-point margin of victory was the largest by a Navy team over a team from the autonomy 5 since the Mids beat West Virginia, 51-7, in the 1963 season opener. The Mids played eight games against teams that went to a bowl game and played five teams that won 10 or more games.

Navy compiled a 9-5 mark and a 7-1 record in the American Athletic Conference in 2016 despite a season that saw the Mids have 102 missed games by starters or key contributors. The Mids played Temple in the AAC Championship Game and played in a bowl game (Armed Forces) for the 13th time in the last 14 years. The nine wins tied for the fifth most in school history and the team set school records for points (531), touchdowns (73), touchdowns per game (5.2), rushing touchdowns (61), total offense (6,136 yards) and yards per play (6.8) despite playing four different quarterbacks.

In 2015, Navy won a school-record 11 wins against just two losses, qualified for a bowl game for the 12th time in 13 years, won a bowl game for the 10th time in school history (beat Pittsburgh, 44-28, in the Military Bowl), won a bowl game for a third straight year for the first time in school history, defeated Army for a series-record 14th consecutive year, won the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy for the third time in the four years, won the Lambert Trophy as the best team in the East for the first time since 1963, finished 18th in the country in both the Associated Press and Coaches polls and shared the West Division title of the American Athletic Conference with Houston in Navy's first year of being in a conference after being an Independent for 134 years.

Niumatalolo was promoted to head football coach at the Naval Academy on Dec. 8, 2007, by Naval Academy Director of Athletics Chet Gladchuk.

He is the second Polynesian head coach in Football Bowl Subdivision history and the first Samoan collegiate head coach on any level.

Niumatalolo was also an assistant at Navy from 1995-98, serving as the offensive coordinator in 1997 and 1998.

Niumatalolo coached at UNLV for three seasons (1999-01) and called the plays his final year (2001) in Vegas. He also worked with the kickoff return unit and, under his guidance, UNLV ranked sixth in the nation in kickoff returns in 2001 and finished second in 1999.

A 1989 graduate of Hawaii, Niumatalolo lettered three years as a quarterback and was a part of Hawaii's first bowl team in 1989. He was hired as a full-time assistant by his alma mater in 1992 and spent three seasons coaching on the offensive side of the ball.

Sonny Dykes

Head Coach

Sonny Dykes was named the head football coach at SMU on Dec. 11, 2017. Dykes arrives on the Hilltop after head coaching stints at Cal and Louisiana Tech.

Dykes spent four seasons at Cal (2013-16) and three seasons at Louisiana Tech (2010-12). He served as an offensive analyst at TCU in 2017.

At Cal, Dykes returned the school's football program to national prominence and a postseason bowl game. Inheriting a team that went 3-9 in the season before his arrival, Dykes had the Bears at 8-5 just three seasons later, capping the 2015 season with a win over Air Force at the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

Cal's eight wins in 2015 marked the school's most victories since 2009. Cal began the 2015 season with five straight victories to mark the program's best start since 2007 before dropping four of their next five games to teams that were all ranked in the top 10 at some point in 2015, including top-five foes Oregon and Utah, with four of those five contests on the road. Cal finished strong, though, with three wins in its final four contests.

At one point, the Bears were ranked for four consecutive weeks, moving as high as No. 19 in the Coaches Poll and No. 20 in the AP top 25 in Week 7. Cal's national rankings were its first since 2010 (Coaches Poll) and 2009 (AP).

The 2015 season was also the last in the Bay area for quarterback and NFL No. 1 Draft pick Jared Goff, who set 26 school records from 2013-15, including career marks for passing yardage (12,220), touchdown passes (96), total offense (12,086) and completions (977). In 2015, Goff ranked second nationally in passing yards per game (363.0), one of 10 categories in which he rated among the top 20 nationally. Goff was the first Cal quarterback to earn first-team All-Pac-12 honors since Aaron Rodgers in 2004, was a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award and was Cal's Most Outstanding Player in the Armed Forces Bowl.

In all, Cal's turnaround off the field was just as impressive over Dykes' tenure, as evidenced by a single-season Academic Progress Rate (APR) score of 997 in 2016. After successive one-year scores under 930 in the two years before Dykes arrived on campus, the rates for the football program under Dykes were 969, 946, 997 and 991, registering Cal's best-ever four-year APR with a score of 978, up 33 points over the his four years at the helm.

Dykes came to Cal after spending three seasons at Louisiana Tech where he directed an offense that led the nation in both scoring offense (51.50 ppg) and total offense (577.92 ypg) during his final campaign at the helm in 2012. He spent three seasons as head coach for the Bulldogs, compiling a 22-15 overall record and winning 16 of 17 regular-season games during one stretch over the 2011 and 2012 schedules.

The Bulldogs were 4-8 the year before he arrived in 2009, then proceeded to finish 5-7, 8-5 and 9-3 in successive campaigns. In 2011, Louisiana Tech won seven consecutive games to capture the Western Athletic Conference title – the team's first league championship in a decade – and a berth in the Poinsettia Bowl. For his work, Dykes was named the WAC Coach of the Year.

Dykes' 2012 Louisiana Tech team had road victories over Illinois, Houston and Virginia. The Bulldogs also lost a narrow 59-57 decision to a Johnny Manziel-led Texas A&M team that later defeated top-ranked Alabama and earned a spot in the Cotton Bowl. Louisiana Tech reached as high as No. 18 in the national polls according to USA Today and was No. 19 in the AP top 25 after jumping out to a 9-1 start.

Dykes, the son of former longtime Texas Tech coach Spike Dykes, boasts a resume that includes additional stops in the Pac-12, Big 12 and SEC, where he served under head coaches Mike Stoops (Arizona), Mike Leach (Texas Tech) and Hal Mumme (Kentucky).

As offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arizona for three seasons from 2007-09, Dykes helped the Wildcats to the 2008 Las Vegas Bowl and 2009 Holiday Bowl after Arizona had not reached the postseason for 10 years. Arizona posted marks of 8-5 both seasons and tied for second in what was then the Pac-10 in 2009 with a 6-3 league mark.

Prior to his tenure at Arizona, Dykes spent seven seasons at his alma mater Texas Tech, serving as receivers coach from 2000-04 and adding the title of co-offensive coordinator from 2005-06. The Red Raiders made seven straight postseason appearances and won 56 games during the span, including four postseason victories over his last five seasons in the Tangerine, Houston, Holiday and Insight bowls. In 2006, Dykes received the Mike Campbell Top Assistant Coach Award from the American Football Coaches Association, the same year he was recognized as one of the top 25 recruiters in the country by Rivals.

Robert Kennedy, DT
Chase Kuerschen, S
Donnie Lewis Jr., CB
Roderic Teamer Jr., S

LB Zachery Harris is the top returning tackler from last year. Harris, who had 69 stops and 3.0 tackles for loss, is the only returning starter among the Tulane linebackers.

CB Donnie Lewis Jr. had three interceptions and tied for the team lead with 14 passes defended in 2017.

Tulane ranked 20th nationally in turnover margin last season (+0.67 per game). The Green Wave defense recovered six fumbles and had 12 interceptions.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (2)

Merek Glover, K
Zachary Block, P

K Merek Glover made 8 of 9 field goal attempts last season. The Green Wave attempted only two field goals in its first eight games, but Tulane made 6 of 7 attempts in its final four games.

P Zachary Block enters his fourth year as Tulane's punter. He averaged 39.6 yards per attempt last season.

STORYLINES

The Green Wave's bid for a win against SMU – and bowl eligibility in 2017 – came up inches short as Tulane was stopped at the goal line as time expired.

Tulane has rushed for at least 100 yards in 27 consecutive games, dating to the final three games of the 2015 season.

Willie Fritz

Head Coach

In just two seasons, Willie Fritz has made an immediate impact on Tulane's football program, providing the Green Wave with a renewed sense of enthusiasm and a winning culture, which has Tulane poised to make the 2018 season a year to remember.

The 2017 campaign saw Tulane register its highest win total since the 2013 season despite facing one of the nation's toughest schedules. Nine of Tulane's opponents earned invitations to bowl games, while four of the Green Wave's losses came by six points or fewer.

Tulane earned three wins against bowl participants in 2017, while four players earned all-conference honors, including cornerback Parry Nickerson, who was a first-team pick and a Sports Illustrated second-team All-America choice.

In his first season in the Crescent City, he guided Tulane to a 4-8 record and earned his first American Athletic Conference victory in the team's season finale at UConn. The Green Wave posted 30 or more points in five games in 2016, four of which were in wins.

The Shawnee Mission, Kansas, native was named the Green Wave's 40th head coach on Dec. 15, 2015. At that time, he brought 33 years of collegiate experience as a football student-athlete or coach to Tulane, having led teams to six combined conference championships (one at every level he had coached) and two bowl appearances. He was twice named the national coach of the year, including the American Football Coaches Association FCS Coach of the Year in 2011 and the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year in 2012.

Fritz, came to Tulane from Georgia Southern, where he spent two seasons and led the Eagles to a combined record of 17-7, a 2014 Sun Belt Conference title and the school's first NCAA postseason bowl game with their berth in the 2015 GoDaddy.com Bowl. Georgia Southern concluded the 2015 regular season with an 8-4 overall record, including a mark of 6-2 in conference play.

Fritz led the Eagles to a 9-3 overall record and a perfect mark of 8-0 in conference play during his first season at Georgia Southern in 2014, and was named the Sun Belt Coach of the Year.

Prior to Georgia Southern, Fritz served as head coach at Sam Houston State from 2010-13, where he led the team to back-to-back Southland Conference titles, NCAA FCS championship appearances in 2011 and 2012, and a third-straight playoff berth in 2013.

The Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year at the FCS level in 2012, Fritz was recognized nationally in 2011 as the American Football Coaches Association Coach of the Year. Honored as the AFCA Regional Coach of the Year in 2011 and 2012, Fritz was the Southland Conference Coach of the Year in 2011 after his team went 7-0 in conference play.

In 2011 and 2012, Sam Houston State posted the two highest single-season win totals in program history with marks of 14-1 (2011) and 11-4 (2012) and Bearkat players were showered with accolades. All-America status from national coaching and media outlets were bestowed on 11 Sam Houston State players during his tenure.

After a highly successful tenure at Blinn College, averaging nearly 10 wins a season during his four years there, Fritz left to revitalize a Central Missouri program and guided it to 11 winning seasons. The NCAA Division II program's ledger included two 10-win seasons with the 2001 Mule squad earning its first postseason trip in more than 30 years.

In 2002, Central Missouri made its first appearance in the NCAA Division II Championship and was the Mid-America Athletic Association co-champion a year later. He was the only coach to win seven or more games in eight consecutive seasons and his victory total ranked him 15th among active Division II coaches at the time. More than 150 Mules were recognized with All-MIAA honors with 41 first-team selections and 24 All-Americans.

Under Fritz, Central Missouri recorded a graduation rate of 84 percent with 144 MIAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll recipients, 14 Academic All-Region and three Academic All-Americans.

Fritz was also the head coach at Blinn College, where he turned around a program that had only five wins in its previous three seasons.

From 1993-96, Fritz and the Buccaneers would rack up 39 victories against only five losses with a tie and claim two national junior college championships. He was inducted into the NJCAA Football Hall of Fame for the environment of success he created at Blinn.

Fritz played on two conference title teams and was a four-starter at defensive back at Pittsburg State and remained at his alma mater as a student assistant coach for his alma mater in 1982.

After entering last season without a quarterback who had started a collegiate game, Tulsa comes into 2018 with QB Chad President and QB Luke Skipper, who started six games each in 2017.

RB Shamari Brooks rushed for a team-high 10 touchdowns with 687 yards despite missing three games due to injury.

WR Justin Hobbs earned second-team all-conference honors last season after he had 55 receptions for 830 yards and three touchdowns.

C Chandler Miller and OG Tyler Bowling are both two-time all-conference selections who have been fixtures on the Golden Hurricane offensive line.

DEFENSE

RETURNING STARTERS (7)

Manny Bunch, S
Diamon Cannon, LB
Cooper Edmiston, LB
Myles Moulton, DT
Reggie Robinson II, CB
Shemarr Robinson, DT
McKinley Whitfield, S

S McKinley Whitfield, who had a team-high 113 tackles last year, leads a group of seven returning defensive starters.

LB Cooper Edmiston had 106 tackles last season, giving Tulsa a pair of 100-tackle performers who return in 2018.

Tulsa has 15 of its top 20 tacklers returning from last year, which should lead to improved numbers on the defensive side. The Golden Hurricane allowed 37.5 points and 528.9 yards per game last season.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RETURNING STARTERS (1)

Thomas Bennett, P

P Thomas Bennett averaged 42.3 yards per punt and had 11 kicks of at least 50 yards last season.

The Golden Hurricane will have to replace Redford Jones, who finished second on The American's career scoring chart for kickers (319 points).

STORYLINES

Tulsa looks to bounce back from a 2-10 campaign in 2017. The Golden Hurricane saw five losses come in the final minute of the game, including two setbacks on field goals as time expired.

Tulsa has reached double digits in wins five times in the last 11 years.

Philip Montgomery

Head Coach

Philip Montgomery enters his fourth season as head football coach at The University of Tulsa in 2018. He led his first two teams to consecutive bowl game appearances and guided the 2016 team to a 10-win season, the 10th double-digit win campaign in school history.

After winning six games in his first year, Montgomery's second team took a giant leap by posting a 10-3 record, finishing in second-place in the American Athletic Conference West Division and claiming a 55-10 victory in the 2016 Miami Beach Bowl. The 2016 Tulsa squad finished the season among the nation's best for total offense (527.0), scoring offense (42.5), rushing offense (261.7) and passing (265.3). The Hurricane ranked fourth for total offense, seventh for scoring, eighth for rushing and 30th for passing.

Tulsa's offense also established NCAA history in 2016, becoming the first team in FBS/DI with a 3,000-yard passer (Dane Evans), two 1,000-yard rushers (James Flanders and D'Angelo Brewer) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Keevan Lucas and Josh Atkinson).

Tulsa established 11 individual school records on offense a year ago, including nine career records, one single-season and one single-game record. It was also an offense that set a school record with eight 300+ rushing games.

The Tulsa defensive unit saw marked improvement from Year 1 to the second season, when the Hurricane held the opposition to 10 points and 110 yards less than in 2015. Tulsa's 2016 defense also forced 21 turnovers with 15 of those takeaways leading to 101 points.

Montgomery has brought excitement back to H.A. Chapman Stadium with his potent offensive style. In his first year as the Tulsa head coach, Montgomery transformed a previous two-win team into a squad that won six games in 2015. Considered one of the brightest offensive minds in college football, Montgomery became Tulsa's 29th head football coach on December 11, 2014.

Tulsa's 2016 season marked the 11th time that Montgomery helped take a team to a Bowl game. With Tulsa's Miami Beach Bowl appearance after the 2016 campaign, Montgomery became just the fourth Tulsa head coach to take his first two teams to a Bowl game. A year earlier, he was only the fifth Tulsa coach in school history to take a team to a Bowl game in their first year at the helm of the program.

Before coming to Tulsa, Montgomery logged nearly two decades of coaching experience, including seven seasons (2008-14) at Baylor University, where he served as the offensive coordinator in his final four years for the Big 12 powerhouse. The Bears posted 10 or more wins in three of his final four years, including 11 victories in each of his last two seasons there. In 2014, Baylor produced an 11-1 record and ranked as high as No. 4 in the Associated Press poll.

A Texas native, Montgomery coached alongside former Baylor Head Coach Art Briles for 16 seasons. He first coached under Briles at Stephenville (Texas) High School, then jumped to the collegiate ranks at the University of Houston in 2003, before moving to Baylor in 2008.

In his career, Montgomery has tutored several award-winning quarterbacks, including Big 12 Player of the Year Bryce Petty, Heisman Trophy winner Robert Griffin III, Baylor All-American Nick Florence, Conference USA MVP Kevin Kolb and Houston standout Case Keenum.

At Tulsa, quarterback Dane Evans became the school's all-time passing, total offense and TD passes leader in 2016 under Montgomery's tutelage.

Following Baylor's record-breaking 2013 Big 12 championship season, Montgomery was honored as the Offensive Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop.com and was named a finalist for the Broyles Award given to the nation's top assistant. In 2011, Montgomery was named the National Offensive Coordinator of the Year by Rivals.com and was the Quarterback Coach of the Year by SpeedTracs/FootballScoop.com.

Montgomery arrived at Baylor following five seasons coaching the offensive backfield at Houston, and serving as co-offensive coordinator in 2006 and 2007. During his Houston tenure, the Cougar offense ranked as one of the nation's most prolific.

Prior to joining the Cougars' coaching staff, Montgomery served one year as the offensive coordinator at Denton (Texas) High School and helped that team compile a 10-2 record and the 2002 Bi-district crown. Before that, Montgomery spent six seasons as the quarterback and backfield coach at Stephenville High School, and was part of a program that won back-to-back Class 4A Division II state championships in 1998 and 1999.

A four-year letterman at Tarleton State, Montgomery began his coaching career as a student assistant coach at his alma mater working with the running backs and serving as the summer weight room coordinator for two seasons.

POSTSEASON HONORS

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
McKenzie Milton • So. • QB • UCF • Kapolei, Hawaii
Milton finished the 2017 season ranked second nationally in pass efficiency rating (179.3), trailing only Heisman Trophy-winner Baker Mayfield of Oklahoma. Milton, who was eighth in the Heisman voting, threw for 4,037 yards and 37 touchdowns against nine interceptions and added 613 rushing yards and eight TDs on the ground. He was the engineer of a UCF offense that led the nation in scoring (48.2 ppg) as the Knights went 13-0 on the season.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Ed Oliver • So. • DE • Houston • Houston, Texas
Oliver entered the 2017 season as an Associated Press Preseason All-America selection and further established himself as arguably the nation's top defensive player as a sophomore. Oliver registered 73 tackles in 12 games, despite missing significant portions of two games due to injury. Oliver had 5.5 sacks, 16.5 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, three pass breakups and seven quarterback hurries. Oliver was named as a consensus All-America selection and won the Outland Trophy, as the nation's top interior lineman.

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE YEAR
Tony Pollard • So. • RB/KR • Memphis • Memphis, Tenn.
Pollard was chosen as Special Teams Player of the Year for the second straight season as he managed to improve on his already-impressive numbers as a return specialist. Pollard led the nation in kickoff return average at 40.0 yards and was chosen as an All-America First Team selection by the FWAA and CBSSports.com . He also led the nation with four touchdowns on kickoff returns and has six TDs on kickoffs in his first two seasons. Pollard became the fifth straight Memphis player to be named American Special Teams Player of the Year.

ROOKIE PLAYER OF THE YEAR
T.J. Carter • Fr. • CR • Memphis • Nashville, Tenn.
Carter is the first Memphis player to be named as The American's Rookie of the Year. He has started all 13 games as a true freshman and had a team-high five interceptions with two fumble recoveries to account for seven takeaways in 2017. He was additionally chosen as an FWAA Freshman All-America selection.

COACH OF THE YEAR
Scott Frost • UCF
Frost was the clear choice as The American's Coach of the Year award after he led the Knights to a 13-0 season, including an 8-0 mark in conference play, capped by the American Athletic Conference title and a win against Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Frost, whose roster included more than 50 players from the Knights' winless team of 2015, brought UCF to a 6-7 record in his first year before turning in the perfect 2017 season. Frost was a consensus choice as the national coach of the year as he earned the FWAA Eddie Robinson award, the Associated Press honor, the Home Depot award and the AFCA accolade.

UCF Caps Perfect Season With American Championship

ORLANDO, Fla. — The 12th-ranked UCF Knights captured the American Athletic Conference championship as they defeated No. 16 Memphis 62-55 in double overtime at Spectrum Stadium. It is the Knights' third American crown in the past five years.

It was a wild game. The top two scoring teams in the country combined for 117 points and 1,479 yards. It was tied at 48 at the end of regulation.

UCF had the ball first in the second overtime and scored on a 1-yard run by Otis Anderson. Memphis got as far as the UCF 9 on their possession but Riley Ferguson's pass on second-and-goal was intercepted by Tre Neal to end it.

The teams exchanged touchdowns in the first overtime. Memphis got the ball first and scored when Ferguson connected with Anthony Miller from 15 yards. UCF answered on a 2-yard run by Adrian Killins.

The Knights led 48-34 early in the fourth quarter but the Tigers rallied to tie with 4:13 remaining on Ferguson's 10-yard touchdown pass to Miller.

Memphis had a chance to win it in regulation but Riley Patterson's 51-yard field-goal attempt with 28 seconds remaining was wide left.

McKenzie Milton threw for 494 yards (28 of 40) and five touchdowns as he was named the game's most outstanding player.

Dredrick Snelson and Tre'Quan Smith caught two touchdown passes apiece for UCF.

Milton also rushed for 64 yards and a touchdown. Anderson rushed for 117 yards on 16 carries.

Notes
Polls for the 2013 season are listed as Associated Press/Coaches/Harris Interactive. For all seasons after 2014, only the Associated Press and Coaches' polls are listed.
The highest ranking for an American Athletic Conference team in the national polls is No. 5, by Houston in the Oct. 2, 2016, coaches' poll.
In its first five seasons, The American has had at least three teams ranked in the same week 19 times, including in each of the last 10 weeks of the 2017 season. The American had a record four teams ranked in the polls of Nov. 15, 2015.
Eight of The American's current 12 members have been ranked in the top 25 at least once since the league's formation in 2013.

Additionally, the following American Athletic Conference staff members will provide regular updates on the 2018 season on social media:

Chuck Sullivan, Assistant Commissioner (Communications)	@ChuckSullivan15
Scott Draper, Associate Commissioner (Football)	@sdraper72

The American Digital Network is the home of all live and on-demand video coverage of all 22 American Athletic Conference sports. The ADN will provide in-depth coverage of the 2018 American football season, beginning with reports from the league's annual Summer Kickoff & Media Days in Newport, Rhode Island.

Weekly Release & Statistics

Media members may access PDF versions of the complete weekly release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, on TheAmerican.org or via CollegePressBox.com. Regular updates of the weekly release will be distributed via e-mail from the conference office. To be included on the distribution list, send an e-mail request to Chuck Sullivan at csullivan@theamerican.org.

Weekly Football Highlights

The American Athletic Conference offers video highlights and clips of selected press conferences on a weekly basis through the XOS Digital XChange FTP tool. Content is available in full broadcast-quality resolution. Contact Chuck Sullivan (csullivan@theamerican.org) for information on how to access the highlights.

Weekly Awards

The American names offensive, defensive and special teams Players of the Week each Monday morning during the season. Winners are chosen from nominations provided by conference communications directors. The information will be available from the conference office via release as well as on the league web site.

Annual Awards

The American Athletic Conference will name first and second all-conference teams, players of the year on offense, defense and special teams, rookie of the year and coach of the year. The awards are chosen by a vote of the league's 12 head coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. The awards will be announced Nov. 28, 2018. The American Athletic Conference All-Academic Team is comprised of players who have an overall grade-point average of 3.00 or better over the previous academic year and completed at least two semesters of academic work. The team is announced in August. The American Athletic Conference Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year was established to recognize student-athletes who have achieved success in the classroom and on the field. The winner receives a scholarship which may be applied to graduate or professional studies.
