THE AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The American Athletic Conference consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has fashioned an impressive list of accomplishments in the competitive arena, in the classroom and in support of student-athlete welfare. The American is firmly established as a Power 6 conference thanks to its collection of national team and individual championships, football and basketball postseason victories, expansive media rights contract with ESPN, and its commitment to providing the highest levels of support for student-athletes.

The league has produced four NCAA championship teams in addition to a College Football Playoff semifinalist, three New Year's Six bowl champions (UCF in 2013 and 2017; Houston in 2015), two NCAA Men's Final Four participants, six Women's Final Four teams, an NIT champion, 13 NCAA individual championships, and a Rhodes Scholar. Additionally, American Athletic Conference teams have advanced to the College World Series, qualified for the match play round of the NCAA Men's Golf Championship and registered multiple top-10 finishes at the NCAA Cross Country and Outdoor Track and Field championships.

The American has seen a member school claim a spot in a New Year's Six bowl seven times in the league's first nine football seasons, including the 2021 campaign, when Cincinnati became the first American Athletic Conference team to reach the College Football Playoff. The American was the only conference to have a team in the College Football Playoff and the NCAA Men's Final Four in the 2021 calendar year.

Individual teams in The American have enjoyed some of their best football seasons in program history as members of the conference. Cincinnati has registered back-to-back top-10 finishes after the Bearcats were No. 4 in 2021 after their historic CFP appearance and No. 8 in the final 2020 national polls. UCF finished in the national top 10 twice as a conference member - in 2013 and 2017. Houston went 13-1 in the 2015 football season, setting a school record for wins, while Navy won a program-record 11 games in 2015, its first season in the conference, and matched that mark with its 2019 campaign. Memphis, which had not won 10 games in a season since 1938, has registered three 10-win seasons in the last seven years (2015, 2017, 2019), including a school-record 12 wins in 2019. Temple enjoyed its first 10-win season in school history in 2015. South Florida finished in the top 25 for the first two times in program history (2016, 2017). SMU returned to national prominence in 2019 with a 10-win season, during which the Mustangs were ranked as high as No. 14 nationally. Tulsa returned to the top 25 for the first time in 11 years in 2020. East Carolina earned a top-20 ranking in 2014, while Tulane played in three consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history.

Since the conference's reconstitution in 2013-14, teams from The American have registered top-10 national rankings in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, baseball, men's soccer, women's soccer, women's lacrosse, men's golf, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's cross country and men's track and field.

Under The American's banner, Houston's men's basketball team reached the 2021 NCAA Final Four and was ranked No. 3 in the final coaches' poll, while Memphis claimed the 2021 NIT title. Houston's men's track and field team took third place at the 2018 and 2019 NCAA Outdoor Championships. Tulsa has registered top-six national finishes at the 2019, 2020 and 2021 NCAA Men's Cross Country Championships.

American Athletic Conference student-athletes have distinguished themselves in all facets of intercollegiate athletics. Memphis quarterback Brady White was the 2020 winner of the National Football Foundation's James V. Campbell Trophy as the top scholar-athlete in college football. Temple linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik Award and the Nagurski Trophy as the nation's top defensive player in 2015, while Tulsa linebacker Zaven Collins repeated that feat in 2020. Houston's Ed Oliver won the 2017 Outland Trophy as the nation's best interior lineman, while Cincinnati's Coby Bryant won the 2021 Jim Thorpe Award as the top defensive back. The American has had four top-10 Heisman Trophy finishes as Navy quarterback Keenan Reynolds was fifth in 2015, UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton was eighth in 2017 and sixth in 2018, and Cincinnati quarterback Desmond Ridder was eighth in 2021. Reynolds was also selected as the winner of the 2016 AAU James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete.

Additionally, SMU's Avery Acker was chosen as the Division I women's volleyball Academic All-America of the Year in 2015, South Florida star Georgina Corrick was the Division I softball Academic All-America of the Year in 2022, while Tulsa cross country standout Kirk Smith was chosen as a Rhodes Scholar in the fall of 2016.

American Athletic Conference alumni have made their mark in professional and international sports as well, beginning with the selection of UCF quarterback Blake Bortles by the Jacksonville Jaguars with the No. 3 pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. A number of American Athletic Conference athletes have been selected in the first round of the professional entry drafts in football, basketball, baseball and soccer, including former Memphis center James Wiseman, who was the No. 2 pick in the 2020 NBA Draft, and former Wichita State third-baseman Alec Bohm, the No. 3 selection in the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft. Former SMU standout Bryson DeChambeau, who was the 2014 American Athletic Conference individual champion, went on to win the 2015 NCAA Championship, the 2015 US Amateur title and has since become one of the top players on the PGA Tour, including a win at the 2020 U.S. Open. Former Memphis tennis player Joe Salisbury, a 2014 all-conference selection, has gone on to win the 2020 Australian Open men's doubles championship and the 2021 French Open mixed doubles title. Former Tulane standout Dominik Koepfer has earned a top-50 world ranking in men's tennis. Cincinnati's Jordan Thompson led the United States volleyball team to its first gold medal in the 2020 Tokyo Olympics.

The American announced a lucrative and comprehensive media rights extension with ESPN in May of 2019, providing the conference with a stronger and more extensive presence on ESPN's primary television networks (ABC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU). Since the extension took effect in the 2020-21 academic year, a minimum of 40 regular-season football telecasts and 60 regular-season men's basketball games per season will appear on those primary networks. Nearly every conference-controlled game in all sports will appear either on an ESPN network or on ESPN+. The football championship game, all rounds of the men's basketball championship, and multiple rounds of the women's basketball championship, will be on linear ESPN television networks.

The first seven American Athletic Conference Football Championships were televised by ABC as part of Championship Saturday. Subsequent championship games will appear on either ABC or ESPN through the duration of the 12-year extension.

American Athletic Conference teams have access to the pinnacle of college football's postseason structure. An American representative would be chosen for the College Football Playoff semifinals if it is among the top four teams in the CFP selection committee's final ranking. Otherwise, the league would place its champion in a New Year's Bowl if it is ranked higher than the champions of Conference USA, the Mid-American Conference, the Mountain West Conference and the Sun Belt Conference.

Additionally, The American holds primary or secondary partnerships with an expansive group of bowls for the new cycle, which began in 2020, ensuring multiple annual matchups against the nation's top conferences and providing desirable postseason destinations for member institutions.

Away from the competitive arena, The American has established itself as a leader in the area of student-athlete wellness, both through the adoption of NCAA autonomous legislation on matters including full cost of attendance and nutrition. The conference, in conjunction with its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee has also launched the Pow6rful Minds campaign to improve awareness and education on mental issues and recognize the scholarly achievements of the conference's student-athletes.

Georgina Corrick of South Florida was chosen as the Division I Softball Academic All-America of the Year in 2022

Regular-season championships include ties and divisional titles. A dash in the column indicates that the school has not sponsored the particular sport as a member of The American. Temple competed in baseball in the 2013-14 academic year, but no longer sponsors the sport.

Louisville and Rutgers competed in The American in the 2013-14 academic year; UConn competed in The American from 2013-20; Villanova competed as an affiliate member in rowing in 2013-14, Sacramento State competed as an affiliate member in rowing from 2014-20; San Diego State has competed as affiliate members in rowing since 2013-14. Old Dominion is an affiliate member in rowing as of 2019. Florida and Vanderbilt are affiliate members in women's lacrosse as of 2019, and Old Dominion is an affiliate member in women's lacrosse since 2021. All championships won by those institutions are listed in the 'Others' column.

Championships were not contested in men's basketball, baseball, softball, women's lacrosse, tennis, golf and outdoor track and field in 2020.

CONFERENCE STAFF

Mike Aresco Commissioner

Mike Aresco is one of the leading figures in intercollegiate sports as commissioner of the American Athletic Conference.

Aresco was named as commissioner of the Big East Conference Aug. 14, 2012, and conducted a strategic reinvention of the conference, which became the American Athletic Conference, one of the premier conferences in the nation. He had his contract extended to Aug. 1, 2022, by The American's Board of Directors in 2017 and most recently received a further extension to June of 2025.

American Athletic Conference teams have won four NCAA Championships and competed in seven College Football Playoff or New Year's Six bowl games, winning three, since the 2012-13 academic year. The American was named in 2016 as a finalist for the Sports Business Journal Sports League of the Year award, the only entity from college athletics to be so honored. The formation of the conference was named by Sports Illustrated in 2018 as one of the 10 best decisions of college football's last 10 years.

Among the milestones reached during Aresco's tenure have been the introduction of the American Athletic Conference Football Championship in 2015 and the launching of a dynamic Power 6 branding campaign, which aligns The American with its peer conferences and celebrates the competitive success that the conference has enjoyed at the highest level of collegiate competition.

Aresco additionally secured The American's prominent place in intercollegiate athletics by brokering a landmark 12-year media rights partnership with ESPN in 2019, which provides unprecedented revenue to member institutions while enhancing the conference's exposure on the premier platforms in sports media.

Aresco has been a leader in the NCAA governance redesign efforts and a strong and articulate spokesman in various forums for the integrity of the collegiate experience.

The American's inaugural year produced a remarkable string of accomplishments as UCF won the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and finished the season ranked No. 10 in the Associated Press poll. UConn won NCAA titles in both men's and women's basketball as American Athletic Conference teams had the best postseason winning percentage of any conference in men's basketball.

The American was the only conference to have a Bowl Championship Series win and teams in the Men's Final Four, the Women's Final Four and the College World Series in 2013-14. Teams from the conference finished in the national top 10 in football, men's basketball, women's basketball, men's soccer, baseball and men's golf.

The American, after having as many as five teams ranked in the Associated Press poll during the season, produced three teams in the final College Football Playoff poll of 2015, including Houston, which defeated Florida State in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl and finished No. 8 in the final national rankings with a 13-1 record. Navy, in its first year as a member of the conference, finished No. 18 nationally after a school-record 11 wins in 2015. UConn went on to win its fourth straight NCAA title in women's basketball, while The American sent four teams to the 2016 NCAA men's basketball tournament.

In the 2017 football season, UCF stood alone as the nation's only unbeaten team and was rated No. 1 nationally in the Colley Index after the Knights went 13-0, capped by a win against No. 7 Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. UCF joined Memphis and South Florida as The American's three teams in the final Associated Press poll, while the Knights' final ranking of No. 6 stood as the best in league history in the final poll. UCF's Peach Bowl win punctuated a 3-1 bowl record for American teams against other Power 6 conference opponents.

The American had four football teams ranked in the final national polls of the 2019 season as Memphis, Cincinnati, Navy and UCF all finished in the top 25. Memphis finished with a program-record 12 wins, while Cincinnati and Navy both registered 11-win seasons, and UCF turned in its third consecutive season with double-digit victories.

The 2020 football season produced another New Year's Six bowl participant as Cincinnati reached the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl and finished the season ranked No. 8 nationally. In men's basketball, Houston became the second team from The American to reach the NCAA Men's Final Four as the Cougars finished the season ranked No. 3 nationally.

The American made more history in 2021 as Cincinnati became the first team from outside the autonomous NCAA conferences to reach the College Football Playoff Semifinals as the Bearcats entered postseason play as the nation's only unbeaten team. The American was the only conference to have a team in the College Football Playoff and in the Final Four in the 2021 calendar year.

Aresco's first years as commissioner put The American on stable footing in an otherwise tenuous time in college athletics. He led negotiations for the young conference that resulted in television contracts with ESPN and CBS Sports, giving the league unprecedented national exposure and branding with the two industry leaders in sports television. Aresco organized the process to name the new conference and to create a graphic identity that was positively received across the country.

He has also successfully worked with the conference schools to arrive at an equitable distribution of existing revenue for the current and new conference institutions, bringing about a cohesiveness that has allowed the conference to grow and thrive.

Among his other significant accomplishments on behalf of The American were the spearheading of expansion efforts, which resulted in the addition of East Carolina, Tulane and Tulsa in 2014, Navy as a football member in 2015, and Wichita State as a non-football-playing member in 2017; launching the American Digital Network; successful site negotiations for the conference's men's and women's basketball championships; development of The American's broad-based strategic plan, and the launching of a multifaceted Power 6 brand marketing campaign.

More recently, the conference has partnered with the Atlantic Coast Conference on a football officiating alliance that allows both leagues to work collaboratively on a wide range of officiating matters, and has partnered with the Southeastern Conference on a men's basketball scheduling alliance for the 2019-20 and 2020-21 seasons.

Additionally, Aresco has brokered successful multi-year marketing rights agreements with Learfield and oversaw the development of The American's football bowl lineup, which features numerous annual matchups against the nation's other top conferences.

In basketball, Aresco has secured the conference's participation in an officiating consortium partnering with the Southeastern Conference, the Atlantic Sun Conference and the Sun Belt Conference to ensure that the highest-quality game officials are assigned to American Athletic Conference contests.

Aresco has played an active role in the formation of the College Football Playoff, serving on the College Football Playoff Management Committee and helping to select the 13 members of the CFP Selection Committee. Aresco also serves on the College Football Playoff Strategic Planning, Site Selection and Television committees and was the FBS conference chair from 2017-19.

Aresco is currently Executive Vice President of the Conference Commissioners Association and a member of the CCA's National Letter of Intent Policy and Review Committee as well as the enforcement and women's basketball working groups. He serves on the board of managers for both College Football Officiating, LLC, and Men's College Basketball, LLC, serves on the CFO National Coordinator Search Committee, and is also a member of the FBS commissioners' media subcommittee. He is a charter member of the steering committee of the Columbia University/New York City Chapter of the National Football Foundation and serves on the NFF's screening committee.

Aresco came to the conference from CBS Sports where he was Executive Vice President, Programming. He was responsible for all college sports programming for CBS Sports and CBS Sports Network. Aresco oversaw the acquisition and management of CBS Sports college properties, including the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship, regular-season college football and basketball, conference basketball championship games, football bowl games and other programming. His responsibilities included game selection and scheduling, day-to-day operations, contract negotiations, identification of future acquisitions, development of programming strategies and coordination of new media and marketing initiatives.

Aresco played an integral role in the landmark deal that created the CBS Sports-Turner Broadcasting partnership, which resulted in the acquisition of the NCAA Men's Division I Basketball Championship rights through 2024. He managed the complex 14-year agreement that provides expanded national broadcast and cable coverage of the NCAA basketball championship. Aresco also was instrumental in the CBS Television Network's groundbreaking bundled rights agreement with the NCAA, which granted CBS exclusive rights to the NCAA tournament from 2003 through 2010. The 2010 NCAA Championship won a Sports Emmy in the Outstanding Playoff Coverage category. He also was a significant contributor in the development of new media platforms for the NCAA Championship, including March Madness On Demand, a highly successful streaming platform.

In 2008, Aresco negotiated a historic 15-year agreement with the Southeastern Conference to televise the league's football and basketball games. The agreement also provided multiple new media rights for CBS, CBS Sports Network and CBS Interactive. He forged numerous basketball agreements with major conferences and negotiated 10-year extensions of the Army-Navy and Notre Dame-Navy football rivalries.

Aresco was the creator and executive producer of The Tony Barnhart Show and Courtside with Seth Davis, both of which aired on the CBS Sports Network. In 2004, he was appointed by the late NCAA President Myles Brand to the Basketball Partnership, a select panel whose mission was to explore ways to improve and promote college basketball.

Aresco joined CBS Sports from ESPN where he was responsible for overseeing the acquisition, scheduling and development of long-term strategies for all ESPN college sports properties. Earlier in his tenure at ESPN, he was responsible for programming a wide variety of sports properties, including College Football Association, Big Ten, and Pac-10 college football, NCAA events, including early rounds of the NCAA basketball tournament, the College World Series and various professional sports events, including thoroughbred racing, Top Rank Boxing, CFL football, Australian Rules Football, rodeo and yachting. He was the architect of ESPN's signature Thursday night college football series and helped develop ESPN's Bowl Week. He joined ESPN in 1984 as Counsel and was named Assistant General Counsel in 1988 before moving to the programming department.

Aresco is a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Tufts University (B.A., magna cum laude, history), The Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts (M.A., international relations), where he held a John Moors Cabot Scholarship, and the University of Connecticut School of Law (J.D.). He practiced law privately in Hartford, Connecticut, for several years.

Aresco has been a regular speaker and expert panelist at national symposiums and seminars on the topics of college athletics and sports television. He was awarded the 2013 Distinguished Graduate Award by the UConn School of Law Alumni Association and was elected to the Middletown (Connecticut) Sports Hall of Fame in January of 2015.

Aresco and his wife, Sharon, have two adult sons: Matthew, an Emmy-nominated television producer who lives in Connecticut with his wife, Elizabeth; and Brett, an actor who lives in New York City with his wife, Susan.

Tom Odjakjian Senior Associate Commissioner (Broadcasting)

Tom Odjakjian, who serves as the Senior Associate Commissioner for Broadcasting, is a longtime veteran of the conference's senior staff, having joined the office from ESPN in 1995 as Associate Commissioner.

Odjakjian has oversight of all external television and multimedia content, including its streaming content, and is The American's primary liaison with the league's television partners, managing those relationships on a daily basis.

Odjakjian has been the conference's primary point person for a number of significant television agreements, including The American's current partnerships with ESPN and CBS Sports that have given member institutions unprecedented exposure as well as the subsequent media rights agreement with ESPN, which took effect in 2019-20 and will provide and even more exposure and revenue to member schools over the course of the 12-year term.

Odjakjian also has direct involvement in the assembly of The American's annual schedules in football and men's and women's basketball, in order to fulfill the network's contractual obligations and maximize exposure for the conference while balancing institutional schedules.

Odjakjian served in various executive roles at ESPN from 1981-94, including as the director of college sports. He was responsible for negotiation, acquisition, scheduling and budget supervision for the network's collegiate sports programming. Odjakjian was the architect behind the creation of ESPN's basketball Championship Week and football Bowl Week and had a hand in the network's NFL, NBA, NHL and Olympic sports programming.

Prior to joining ESPN, Odjakjian also served as Associate Commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference and Assistant Sports Information Director at Princeton University. While at ESPN, in 1994, he was named as The Most Influential Person in College Sports by College Sports Magazine and was tabbed as one of the four most influential people in college basketball by Sporting News in 1990. He accepted the Sports Video Group College Pioneer Award in 2019.

Odjakjian is a 1976 graduate of Lafayette with a bachelor's degree in Economics and Business. He played football and baseball as an undergraduate and was the recipient of George Wharton Pepper Prize, Lafayette's most prestigious honor.

Ellen Ferris Senior Associate Commissioner (Governance and Compliance)

Ellen Ferris was promoted to her current position of Senior Associate Commissioner for Governance and Compliance in July of 2021. Ferris joined The American as an associate commissioner in October of 2013.

Ferris oversees all compliance and governance matters for the conference and provides leadership and guidance to The American's member institutions in the practical application of NCAA compliance issues.

Ferris is the current chair of the NCAA Division I Infractions Appeals Committee and a staff liaison to The American's Faculty Athletics Representatives Committee, the Racial Equality Action Group, the University Legal Counsel Committee and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. She also works closely with the conference's Senior Woman Administrators and has been instrumental in the development of The American's Academic Consortium and Symposium.

Ferris joined The American from the University of Southern California, where she served as associate vice president for athletic compliance. She joined the USC staff in 2006 and was promoted to her most recent position in 2010.

Ferris' role at USC included supervision of nine full-time staff members, the creation of a strategic plan for the compliance office and investigation of potential rules violations. She was responsible for providing counsel and instruction regarding implementation of NCAA and Pac-12 Conference rules and she served on the Provost Oversight Committee for Athletic Academic Affairs. She also served as the coordinator for USC's Academic Progress Program.

Before joining the staff at USC, Ferris served for more than three years at the NCAA, including one year as associate director of membership services. She served as a staff liaison to Division I institutions in the athletics certification process and presented rules education sessions at conference meetings and regional compliance seminars.

Ferris additionally spent three academic years as assistant commissioner for compliance services at the Big Sky Conference, where she also served as the league's Senior Woman Administrator.

Ferris was named chair of the NCAA Division I Infractions Appeal Committee in September of 2020. She is also a member of the professional development committee of the National Association of Athletic Compliance and has served as a member of the NAAC Reasonable Standards Committee, the NCAA Division I Legislative Review and Interpretations Committee, the Division I Management Council and the Division I Men's Tennis Committee.

Ferris holds an undergraduate degree in education from Texas State University-San Marcos and a master's degree in sport management from the United States Sports Academy. She earned a Juris Doctor degree from Southern Methodist University and was admitted to the Texas State Bar in 1999.

CONFERENCE STAFF

Scott Draper Associate Commissioner (Football)

Scott Draper joined the American Athletic Conference staff in April 2014 as Associate Commissioner for Football.

Draper is the conference's primary football administrator and contact for all football initiatives and programs, including scheduling, officiating, operations and bowl relationships.

As the conference's liaison with administrators and coaches from each member institution, Draper works with the commissioner on football budgets and special projects and also provides oversight of the American Athletic Conference Football Championship.

Draper additionally serves as the primary liaison with The American's Medical Advisory Group, administering the conference's health and safety initiatives in the wake of the 2020 pandemic.

Draper joined The American after most recently serving as Associate Director of Athletics and Director of Development for Athletics at Albion College, a position he held since 2011. Prior to that, he was the Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations at the University of Michigan, where he was a key staff member of teams that won four Big Ten Football championships, four Rose Bowls, played in 12 bowl games and won the 1997 National Championship. In his role, he supervised football sport administration, strength and conditioning, equipment operations, and athletic training operations. He also served as sport administrator and liaison to admissions, academic services, compliance and eligibility, and dining and housing.

Previously, he was a Football Offensive Graduate Assistant (1995-97) and Assistant Video Coordinator (1992-95) at the University of Michigan.

Draper holds a bachelor's degree in general studies from Eastern Michigan University (1994). He earned a master's degree in business administration from Madonna University in 2012.

Karl Hicks Associate Commissioner (Basketball)

Karl Hicks joined The American as Associate Commissioner for Basketball in December of 2021.

Hicks serves as the primary administrator for The American's men's and women's basketball programs, including oversight of scheduling, officiating and game operations as well as compliance with NCAA governance. He serves as the commissioner's liaison with the men's and women's basketball coaches at The American's 11 member institutions and oversees the conference's annual men's and women's basketball championships.

Hicks joined The American after serving as Managing Director/Regulatory Affairs at the NCAA national office for two years. That role followed a lengthy and successful career as a basketball administrator and coach at the collegiate and professional levels.

Hicks was Deputy Director of Athletics for External Operations at Florida State University from 2014-19 where he oversaw all athletics facilities and external departments. He additionally served as the sport administrator for men's basketball, helping the Seminoles to three NCAA tournament appearances, including an Elite Eight appearance in 2018 and a Sweet 16 finish in 2019.

Before joining the staff at Florida State, Hicks was Senior Associate Commissioner for Men's Basketball Operations at the Atlantic Coast Conference from 2007-14, where he had oversight of officiating, basketball operations and scheduling. He served as the tournament manager of the ACC Championship as well as two NCAA Championship sites and was the league's basketball television liaison. Hicks served on the NCAA Men's Basketball Competition Committee and Rules Committee from 2012-14 during his tenure with the ACC.

Hicks' position with the ACC followed seven years at the professional basketball level. He was Assistant General Manager and Senior Vice President of Basketball Operations with the Charlotte Bobcats from 2003-07, where he oversaw a $48 million basketball budget, developed the franchise's scouting system and was the primary basketball operations contact with the NBA office and other clubs. He was a member of the NBA front office staff from 2000-03, serving as Executive Director of the National Basketball Development League.

Hicks' previous administrative experience includes two years as Assistant Commissioner for Institutional and Student Services at the Southeastern Conference, a brief stint as Director of Athletic Compliance at the University of Maryland and four years as an Enforcement Representative at the NCAA.

Hicks served as an Assistant Coach at American University and the University of New Hampshire. He is a graduate of New Hampshire, where he was team captain of the Wildcats' 1983 ECAC championship basketball team as a senior. He went on to earn an MBA from Maryland in 1992.

Robert Weygand Jr. Associate Commissioner (Sport Administration & Championships)

Bobby Weygand, who has been a member of the conference staff since 2005, was promoted to his current position of associate commissioner for sport administration and championships in July of 2020.

Weygand serves as The American's primary Olympic sport administrator, overseeing management and operations of the conference's 19 Olympic sport programs.

Weygand provides on-site management for select conference championships, executes regular-season scheduling and responsible for overseeing regular season policies and procedures. He is the lead office liaison for communication with member schools' administration, coaching staffs and game officials.

Weygand also serves as the conference liaison with the members' sports medicine society and has served as the championship manager for The American Women's Basketball Championship.

Weygand previously served as assistant commissioner for sport administration and championships from 2014-20 and as director of sport administration from 2008-14. Prior to being promoted to the director position, Weygand served as assistant director of sport administration from 2005-08.

Weygand is a 2002 graduate of the University of Rhode Island with a degree in sports medicine. He earned a master's degree in education from Springfield College in 2004.

CONFERENCE STAFF

Chuck Sullivan Assistant Commissioner (Communications)

Chuck Sullivan was promoted to his current position of Assistant Commissioner for Communications in January of 2015. He has worked with the conference since August 2007.

Sullivan oversees a broad-based communications and external relations operation for The American, encompassing media and public relations and strategic direction of social media and video content to support the league's 22 Division I sports.

Sullivan plans, programs and coordinates the conference's preseason football media days and is the media relations coordinator for the conference's annual football and baseball championships. He additionally coordinated media operations at Madison Square Garden for the annual Big East men's basketball championship and oversaw all communications and media relations functions for the first two American Athletic Conference men's basketball championships.

Sullivan serves on the media coordination staff for the College Football Playoff National Championship and has served in a similar capacity with the NCAA Final Four and the BCS National Championship.

Before coming to the conference, Sullivan served as Director of Athletic Communications at Harvard University from 2003-07.

Sullivan also served as Assistant Director of Athletics for Communications at Bryant College from 1999-2003. He was previously Sports Information Director at the University of Massachusetts Boston and served as an Athletic Communications Assistant at Princeton University.

Sullivan is a graduate of Boston University with a degree in broadcasting and film.

Shane Elder Director of Football Operations and Sport Administration

Shane Elder joined the American Athletic Conference staff in July of 2022 as Director of Football Operations and Sport Administration.

Elder assists in the overall management and administration of all of The American's football initiatives and programs, including regular-season operational policies and coordination of all aspects of the conference's annual football championship game. He additionally serves as the staff administrator for select Olympic sports.

Before joining The American, Elder had served as assistant athletic director for football operations at the University of North Texas since 2016 and held a similar role at UTSA from 2014-16 after initially joining the Roadrunners' staff as director of football operations in 2009.

Elder was an administrative assistant for recruiting for Texas A&M's football program for seven years. He also has worked in the corporate communications department of the NBA's Dallas Mavericks for one summer.

Elder holds a bachelor's degree in kinesiology and a master's degree in sport management from Texas A&M

Bryan Platt Supervisor of Football Officials

Bryan Platt joined the American Athletic Conference in 2018 and serves as the league's Supervisor of Football Officials.

Platt is the primary point of contact on officiating matters between the conference and its 12 head football coaches. He works under the direction of Dennis Hennigan, the Supervisor of Football Officials for the Atlantic Coast Conference and the administrator of the officiating alliance between the two conferences.

Platt had served as an on-field official since 1994 and has worked 14 postseason games in his career. He five seasons as a back judge for the ACC and was part of the crews that worked the 2015 ACC Championship, the 2016 Cotton Bowl and the 2017 College Football Playoff semifinal at the Rose Bowl.

Platt spent 10 seasons as a side judge and back judge with the Big East Conference and was part of the American Athletic Conference's roster during the league's inaugural season in 2014. He was chosen to officiate the 2009 BCS National Championship at the Rose Bowl as well as the 2012 Rose Bowl and the 2013 Orange Bowl.

Platt spent two seasons with the Atlantic-10 Conference as a side judge and was a back judge for the Eastern College Athletic Conference for seven years.

Platt is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts Boston. He is the director and a board member of the Boston chapter of the Eastern Association of Intercollegiate Football Officials and was previously a treasurer and director of the Big East and American Athletic Conference Football Officials Association.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

Every Game Counts

The College Football Playoff (CFP) is a postseason event to determine college football's national champion on the field, while emphasizing the significance of college football's unique regular season where every game counts.

Rankings

The selection committee ranks the teams based on the members' evaluation of the teams' performance on the field, using conference championships won, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, and comparison of results against common opponents to decide among teams that are comparable.

Tradition

The New Year's holiday period belongs to college football, with two semifinal games rotating annually among the Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Peach Bowl, Rose Bowl Game and Sugar Bowl.

Championship Monday

The two teams that win the Playoff Semifinals compete for the College Football Playoff National Championship. The national championship game is in a different city each year, always on a Monday night.

Universal Access

Every FBS team has equal access to the College Football Playoff based on its performance. No team automatically qualifies.

Governance

University presidents and chancellors from all 10 FBS conferences and Notre Dame serve on the CFP Board of Managers and govern the administrative operations, with commissioners (the Management Committee) managing the event. A small staff in the playoff office in Irving, Texas, carries out the detailed responsibilities.

Selection Committee

A talented group of 13 high-integrity individuals with experience as coaches, student-athletes, college administrators and journalists, along with sitting athletics directors, comprise the selection committee. Members of the committee are Mitch Barnhart, Tom Burman, Boo Corrigan (chair), Rick George, Chet Gladchuk, Jim Grobe, Warde Manuel, Will Shields, Gene Taylor, Joe Taylor, John Urschel, Rod West and Kelly Whiteside.

Selection Committee Responsibilities

- Rank the top 25 teams and assign the top four to semifinal sites.
- Assign teams to New Year's bowls
- Create competitive matchups
- Attempt to avoid rematches of regular-season games and repeat appearances
- Consider geography

Participants In New Year's Bowls

Both participants in the Orange, Rose and Sugar Bowls are contracted outside the playoff arrangement (Big Ten and Pac-12 to Rose Bowl; SEC and Big 12 to Sugar Bowl; ACC to Orange Bowl against the highest ranked available team from the SEC, Big Ten and Notre Dame). If a conference champion qualifies for the playoff, then the bowl will choose a replacement from that conference. When those bowls host the semifinals and their contracted conference champions do not qualify, then the displaced champion(s) will play in one of the other New Year's bowls.

When not hosting semifinals, the Cotton, Fiesta and Peach Bowls will welcome displaced conference champions and the top-ranked champion from a non-contract conference. The highest-ranked available teams will fill any other berths. The selection committee will make the pairings.

BOWL PARTNERSHIPS

The American Bowl Lineup

American Athletic Conference teams are guaranteed at least seven bowl appearances annually as part of the conference's new postseason lineup, which began in the 2020 season and is in place through 2025..

The American, as it has done five times in the first seven years of the current bowl cycle, will continue to send its champion to a New Year's Six bowl if that team finishes higher than the champions of four other conferences in the final College Football Playoff rankings. American Athletic Conference teams are also eligible for the College Football Playoff if they are among the top four teams in the final CFP rankings.

As part of the current bowl cycle, The American will annually send teams to the Military Bowl presented by Peraton against an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent, the Fenway Bowl in Boston, also against an ACC team, and a third annual spot which will alternate between the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl and the SoFi Hawaii Bowl. The 2022 season will include the Radiance Technologies Independence Bowl among The American's guaranteed spots.

Additionally, The American will annually have regular appearances from a group of eight bowls. The American extended its existing partnerships with the TicketSmarter Birmingham Bowl, the Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl, the RoofClaim Boca Raton Bowl, the Tropical Smoothie Cafe Frisco Bowl and the Duluth Trading Cure Bowl.

New to The American's lineup in the current cycle are the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl, the New Mexico Bowl and the Myrtle Beach Bowl.

Three Selections From

AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE NOTEBOOK

Glass Ceiling

Cincinnati became the first American Athletic Conference team to reach the College Football Playoff when the Bearcats were No. 4 in the final CFP ranking.

One And Only ...

Cincinnati finished the 2021 regular season as the nation's only unbeaten team (13-0). The Bearcats' only loss in 2021 came to Alabama in the CFP Semifinals.

... But Not The Only One

The American Athletic Conference has had an undefeated team entering Bowl Season in four of the last five seasons (UCF in 2017 and 2018; Cincinnati in 2020 and 2021).

Variety Show

The American Athletic Conference was the only Division I conference that had a team in the 2021 NCAA Men's Final Four (Houston) and in the 2021 College Football Playoff (Cincinnati).

Guess Who's Back

Ten of The American's 11 teams return their regular starting quarterback from last season. The only team in The American to not return its starting signal-caller is Cincinnati (Desmond Ridder).

The American's Returning Starting Quarterbacks

UCF	Mikey Keene
East Carolina	Holton Ahlers
Houston	Clayton Tune
Memphis	Seth Henigan
Navy	Tai Lavatai
South Florida	Timmy McClain
SMU	Tanner Mordecai

Tulsa	Davis Brin

Draft Cards

The American matched its best showing in the NFL Draft with 19 players selected in 2022. Two American players – Cincinnati CB Ahmad Gardner at No. 4 and Tulsa OT Tyler Smith at No. 24 – were chosen in the first round, while The American had 10 players taken in the first two days of the draft, surpassing the league's previous high of six players.

Magnificent Seven

Seven of The American's 11 teams were selected for Bowl Season in 2021. American Athletic Conference teams were 3-1 in bowl games that were played (three games were canceled).

Mark Your Calendars

Cincinnati's selection to the CFP Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl marked the seventh time in the nine-year history of The American that the league has had a team in a Bowl Championship Series or CFP New Year's Six bowl.

The American in CFP/New Year's Six Bowls

2013	UCF 52, Baylor 42 (Fiesta Bowl)
2015	Houston 38, Florida State 24 (Peach Bowl)

Variety Show

Nine of the 11 American Athletic Conference schools have been ranked in the top 25 since the 2018 season.

Murderers' Row

Navy played the third-toughest schedule nationally according to the NCAA's strength-of-schedule rating. Eleven of the Midshipmen's 12 opponents in 2021 are playing in bowl games.

You're The Best Around

Cincinnati coach Luke Fickell was chosen as the 2021 national coach of the year by seven different organizations.

Within Reach

East Carolina QB Holton Ahlers enters the 2022 season needing 563 yards to tie The American's career passing yards record, set by Tulsa's Dane Evans from 2014-16. Ahlers has 10,219 career passing yards, good for fifth on The American's career chart.

Career Passing Yards

- 10,782 Dane Evans, Tulsa (2014-16)
- 10,690 Brady White, Memphis (2018-20)
- 10,668 Phillip Walker, Temple (2013-16)
- 10,235 Desmond Ridder, Cincinnati (2018-21)
- 10,219 Holton Ahlers, East Carolina (2018-)

Career Total Offense

- 12,418 Desmond Ridder, Cincinnati (2018-21)
- 11,802 Quinton Flowers, South Florida (2014-17)
- 11,481 Holton Ahlers, East Carolina (2018-21)

Cream Of The Crop

Houston and Cincinnati, the two teams that competed in this year's American Athletic Conference Championship, had a combined record of 23-1 entering Championship Week. The only other FBS championship game in which the teams had a similar record was the SEC (Georgia and Alabama).

Combined Records of FBS Conference Championship Participants

23-1	American	Cincinnati, Houston
	SEC	Georgia, Alabama
21-3	Big Ten	Michigan, Iowa
	Big 12	Oklahoma State, Baylor
	Sun Belt	Appalachian State, Louisiana
20-4	ACC	Pitt, Wake Forest
	Mountain West	Utah State, San Diego State
19-5	Conference USA	UTSA, Western Kentucky
	Pac-12	Oregon, Utah
15-9	MAC	Kent State, Northern Illinois

We're Streaking!

Cincinnati saw a 13-game winning streak end with the loss to Alabama in the CFP Semifinal. The Bearcats have gone 22-2 in the last two seasons. The two losses were to the two participants in the 2021-22 National Championship Game (Georgia, Alabama).

Everybody's All-Americans

The American Athletic Conference had three players named as NCAA Consensus All-America selections in 2021. Cincinnati CB Ahmad Gardner, Houston CB Marcus Jones and South Florida's Brian Battie earned the nod, as Jones and Battie were chosen as return specialists. Among the 10 NCAA FBS conferences, only the SEC (eight selections) and Big Ten (six selections) had more picks than The American.

Bullies

Cincinnati has won 38 consecutive games against non-ranked teams.

Point Production

SMU QB Tanner Mordecai set the American Athletic Conference's single-season record with 39 touchdown passes. Mordecai broke the old mark of 38, set by former Memphis QB Riley Ferguson.

Cue The Punt Team

Houston led the nation in third down defense in 2021. The Cougars held opponents to 25.6-percent efficiency on third down (44 of 172).

Got It Covered

Cincinnati finished the 2021 season as the national leader in pass efficiency defense (100.47). The Bearcats limited opponents to a 54.0% completion rate and allowed only 13 passing touchdowns.

Welcome Wagon

The American Athletic Conference will feature two new head coaches in the 2022 season. Rhett Lashlee takes over at SMU, while Stan Drayton is the new head coach at Temple.

2022 MAJOR RULES CHANGES

Targeting

In games that have instant replay, when a targeting foul occurs in the second half, the carryover penalty (of sitting out the first half of that player's next game) will be eligible for further appeal.

The process will begin with a conference submitting a request to the NCAA national coordinator of officials, who would review video of the play. If it is obvious that a player was incorrectly penalized for targeting, the call would be overturned, and the player would be cleared to play in the first half of the next game.

Deceptive Actions

To address teams that are awarded an injury timeout through deceptive actions, panel members approved a reporting and investigation process. Schools and conferences will be able to report questionable scenarios to the national coordinator of officials, who will review and provide feedback to the conference for further action. Any penalties levied would be up to the conference office or school involved.

Blocking Below The Waist

The panel approved a proposal to improve safety and simplify the rules governing blocking below the waist. The proposal will allow blocking below the waist only by linemen and stationary backs inside the tackle box. Outside the tackle box on scrimmage plays, blocking below the waist will be prohibited.

Analysis of available NCAA injury surveillance data indicates a decreasing knee injury trend that coincides with recent rules changes in this area.

Feet-First Slides

If a ball-carrier simulates a feet-first slide, officials will declare the runner down at that spot.

Illegal Block or Contact (Fair Catch)

A player who has made a valid or invalid signal for a fair catch and does not touch the ball shall not block or foul an opponent during that down. The penalty is 10 yards from the spot of the foul on a free kick or 10 yards from the postscrimmage kick enforcement on a scrimmage kick. A personal foul committed in conjunction with the action would result in a 15-yard penalty, with flagrant offenders ejected or disqualified.

Illegal Touching

The penalty for illegal touching a legal forward pass shall be five yards from the previous spot and a loss of down.

Defensive Holding

Defensive Holding will remain a 10-yard penalty, but will always carry an automatic first down.

2022 Points of Emphasis

- Protection of defenseless players/targeting
- Concussions
- Disconcerting signals and pre-snap actions
- Feigning an injury
- Unsportsmanlike conduct/taunting
- Sideline control
- Illegal contact against a quarterback/passers

POSTSEASON HONORS

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Desmond Ridder • Sr. • QB • Cincinnati • Louisville, Ky.

Ridder becomes the second player to repeat as American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year, joining former UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton, who won in 2017 and 2018. Ridder led Cincinnati to a 13-1 record and back-to-back American Athletic Conference titles while improving his career record to 44-6 as a starter, the best of any active NCAA quarterback. Ridder passed for 3,334 yards, accounted for 36 touchdowns (30 passing, six rushing) and is The American's career leader in total offense (12,418 yards) and touchdown responsibility (116).

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Ahmad Gardner • Jr. • CB • Cincinnati • Detroit, Mich.

An NCAA Consensus All-America selection in 2021, Gardner is the first Cincinnati player to earn American Defensive Player of the Year honors after he was selected for the honor by each of the other 10 conference coaches. Gardner leads a Bearcat defense that leads the nation in pass efficiency (103.36) and ranks third in interceptions (19) and second in passing yards allowed (169.2).

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Marcus Jones • Sr. • CB/RS • Houston • Enterprise, Ala.

Jones, who earned NCAA Consensus All-America honors this season, is the third Houston player to be named as The American's Special Teams Player of the Year, joining 2013 winner Demarcus Ayers and 2019 winner Dane Roy. Jones averaged 34.0 yards on 15 kickoff returns and 14.4 yards on 26 punt returns and led all NCAA FBS players with four special teams touchdowns in 2021 (two kickoff returns, two punt returns).

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Alton McCaskill • Fr. • RB • Houston • Conroe, Texas

McCaskill is Houston's third American Athletic Conference Rookie of the Year, joining quarterback John O'Korn in 2013 and defensive tackle Ed Oliver in 2016. McCaskill finished his rookie season with 957 rushing yards and was second in the conference with 16 rushing touchdowns as a true freshman.

COACH OF THE YEAR

Luke Fickell • Cincinnati

Fickell was named as The American Coach of the Year for the third time as he took his Cincinnati squad into the College Football Playoff Semifinals at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic. Cincinnati also became the first American Athletic Conference team to earn a spot in the College Football Playoff. The Bearcats are a combined 22-2 in the last two seasons, have won 15 consecutive regular-season conference games and 27 consecutive home games. Fickell also was named as the Eddie Robinson Award winner, the Home Depot National Coach of the Year, the Walter Camp Foundation National Coach of the Year, the Sporting News National Coach of the Year and the AFCA FBS National Coach of the Year.

2021 CHAMPIONSHIP

Cincinnati Wins Second Straight American Crown En Route To CFP Semifinal

CINCINNATI – Jerome Ford rushed for 187 yards and two touchdowns, Desmond Ridder threw three touchdown passes and No. 3 Cincinnati broke open a close game in the third quarter and rolled past No. 16 Houston 35-20 in the American Athletic Conference championship game.

Cincinnati which extended the nation's second-longest home winning streak to 27 games, scored three touchdowns in fewer than eight minutes to finish off its second straight American crown. The fans rushed the field amid a shower of confetti.

"I don't really remember last year (after beating UCF in The American title game), but this year I wanted to get out there and celebrate with the fans," Ridder said. "It's a blessing to have never lost a game I've played at Nippert. We have such a great atmosphere here."

Cougars junior QB Clayton Tune passed for 250 yards with two touchdowns and an interception as Houston (11-2) lost for the first time since dropping its season-opener to Texas Tech on Sept. 4.

It was a wild first quarter on Saturday with the teams combining for 24 points and 316 yards.

After the Cougars settled for a field goal on their opening possession, the Bearcats responded by going 82 yards in five plays capped by Ridder's 25-yard TD pass to Tyler Scott.

Nathaniel Dell's diving 16-yard TD catch put the Cougars back in front, 10-7. But on the first play of Cincinnati's next possession, Ford broke free for a 79-yard TD run to give the Bearcats a four-point lead.

"We went toe to toe with them for as long as we could," Houston head coach Dana Holgorsen said. "They are first-class and deserving of top four. I don't know how you keep Cincinnati out."

Cincinnati led 14-13 at halftime despite Houston having possession for more than 22 minutes.

But momentum shifted to the Bearcats early in the third quarter.

Bearcats linebacker Joel Dublanko intercepted Tune and Ridder hit Alec Pierce for a 21-yard TD. Just like that, it was 28-13 Bearcats.

"They were attacking the middle of the field. I just read the QB's eyes and made a play," Dublanko said.

Ford had another long touchdown run of 42 yards, and within fewer than eight minutes, Cincinnati turned a one-point lead into a 22-point advantage.

Polls for the 2013 season are listed as Associated Press/Coaches/Harris Interactive. For all seasons after 2014, only the Associated Press and Coaches' polls are listed. The highest ranking for an American Athletic Conference team in the national polls is No. 5, by Houston in the Oct. 2, 2016, coaches' poll. In its first six seasons, The American has had at least three teams ranked in the same week 19 times, including in each of the last 10 weeks of the 2017 season. The American had a record four teams ranked in the polls of Nov. 15, 2015. Eight of The American's current 12 members have been ranked in the top 25 at least once since the league's formation in 2013.

MEDIA SERVICES

TheAmerican.org

The official website of the American Athletic Conference features up-to-date information on all facets of the league and serves as the central point of distribution for live video and statistics of conference games.

CollegePressBox is the official media website for American Athletic Conference football and the media home for information on every Division I team and conference. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides, photos and more for the conference and each of its 11 member schools throughout the season.

Social Media

Fans and media members are invited to follow the latest American Athletic Conference football news through social media. The American Twitter feed may be accessed @American_FB and the conference's official Facebook page is available @AmericanConf. The American's Instagram handle is @Amercan_Conf.

Media Hub

The American Athletic Conference maintains a comprehensive online hub designed to assist members of the media in their coverage of The American and its member football programs.

The media hub will be updated daily and will contain links to the most recent media sessions of coaches and student-athletes as they are made available. The hub will also list the weekly media schedule for each American team and will link to media guides and weekly game notes.

Annual Awards

The American Athletic Conference will name first and second all-conference teams, players of the year on offense, defense and special teams, rookie of the year and coach of the year. The awards are chosen by a vote of the league's 11 head coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. The American Athletic Conference All-Academic Team is comprised of players who have an overall grade-point average of 3.00 or better over the previous academic year and completed at least two semesters of academic work. The team is announced in July. The American Athletic Conference Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year was established to recognize student-athletes who have achieved success in the classroom and on the field. The winner receives a scholarship which may be applied to graduate or professional studies.
