Blue Hose Travel to In-state Foe The Citadel

- Presbyterian will travel to in-state foe The Citadel on Saturday for the first time since 2010.
- The Bulldogs hold a sizeable advantage in the all-time series and have won the last 11 meetings heading in to Saturday.
- The last PC victory in the series came in 1979, a 21-13 win in Charleston.
- The two first met on the gridiron in 1915 and played with regularity until the late 80s.

Last Time Out

- Presbyterian fell to Wake Forest in the season opener for both teams on Thursday night in Winston-Salem, N.C.
- PC managed 207 rushing yards in the contest, giving it 404 on the ground over its last two games dating to last season.
- Freshman running back Mark Robinson scored the first PC points of the season with a fourth quarter touchdown, the first of his career as well.
- Defensive back Rock Ya-Sin recorded the first takeaway of the year with an interception in the fourth quarter, the first of his career, while KJ Presley recorded his first career sack for the first PC sack of the season.

Marable Shines in Collegiate Debut

- Freshman running back Torrance Marable proved a standout for the Blue Hose in week one, his collegiate debut.
- The rookie rushed for a Big South-leading 162 yards on 16 carries for 10.1 yards per carry. It was the fifth-most rushing yards by an FCS player in week one.
- It was the most rushing yards by a PC running back since 2015 when Darrell Bridges rushed for 186 yards against Coastal Carolina.
- It is also the most rushing yards for a PC running back against an FBS opponent in PC's Division I era.

Other Notables from Week One

- Cornerback Rock Ya-Sin recorded his first career interception in the fourth quarter of Thursday's game, PC's first takeaway of the season. The junior added six tackles in the contest, including a tackle for loss.
- Freshman running back Mark Robinson scored the first PC touchdown of the season on a 14-yard run in the fourth quarter against Wake Forest. The score came in his collegiate debut, as he rushed for 32 yards on seven carries.
- Redshirt freshman KJ Presley came away with his first career sack on Thursday night for the first PC sack of the season.
- Presley was one of five PC players to make their first career start in the season opener, along side Michael Branch, Dirk Cureton, Marquise Inabinet and Torrance Marable.
- A total of 15 PC players made their collegiate debuts on Thursday, including starters Cureton, Marable and Presley.

NOTES

Starting Tough

• PC is set to open the season at an FBS opponent for the fifth straight season. The Blue Hose have faced Central Michigan (2016), Miami (OH) (2015), Northern Illinois (2014) and Wake Forest (2013) in the last four season openers with three of the four coming on Thursday night (Miami (OH) lone Saturday opener).
• It is also the third straight season that PC will open the season with its first two games on the road. Last season, PC opened with three straight road games, not playing a home game until September 24.
• This season, PC travels to Wake Forest and The Citadel to open the season before its home opener on September 16 against Campbell. That is the earliest home opener for PC since 2014.

PC Renews Two In-State Series

• The 2016 schedule features a pair of in-state foes as PC will take on both The Citadel and Wofford in 2017.
• The Blue Hose will face the Bulldogs for the first time since 2010, while they will face the Terriers for the first time since 2013.
• PC and Wofford have a long history on the gridiron with 83 previous meetings. The series is currently tied at 40-40-3. Wofford comes to Clinton for the first time since 2011.
• PC and The Citadel have met 62 times on the gridiron but just twice since the Blue Hose moved to Division I, both coming in Charleston.

Spangler Leads the Program Again

• Tommy Spangler begins his second stint as the head coach of the Blue Hose this season, after previously leading the program from 2001-06.
• Spangler compiled a 42-24 overall record in his previous six seasons leading the program, including a 10-2 mark in 2005.
• Under his watch, PC went 28-14 in SAC games with an unbeaten 7-0 record en route to a conference title in 2005.
• In six seasons as head coach, PC put together five winning seasons with at least seven victories in four of the five.
• He led PC to its last conference title in 2005, winning the SAC with 10-2 overall record and a 7-0 conference record en route to a second round appearance in the Division II Playoffs.

Good to be Home

• PC is slated to play seven home games in 2017, the most ever in the program's history. The home-heavy schedule follows the 2016 season in which PC played just four home games.
• The slate includes a six-game homestand with the first five played on consecutive weeks, beginning Sept. 16 against (future Big South opponent) Campbell. PC's open date comes on Oct. 21 before capping off the homestand against Big South foe Kennesaw State on Oct. 28.
• The Blue Hose open the season on the road with a pair of road games in the Carolinas. They will make trips to Wake Forest (Winston-Salem, N.C.) and The Citadel (Charleston, S.C.) to begin the 2017 campaign.
• PC won't play a game outside the Carolinas until Nov. 4 when it travels to West Long Branch, N.J. to play Big South foe Monmouth. Its only other game outside SC & NC will be at Liberty on Nov. 18.

Thursday Night Football

• PC will open the season on a Thursday for the fourth time in the last five seasons, traveling to Wake Forest to kick off the 2017 season, just as it did 2013.

• Last season, PC took on Central Michigan on a Thursday night to open the year. The Blue Hose later hosted Monmouth in a Thursday night contest for its first Thursday home game since 1992.
• PC enters the season having played six Thursday games since 2007 with the two most previous coming last season.
• PC has played Wake Forest on two previous occasions since moving to Division I, in 2010 and 2013, both coming on a Thursday to open the season.

PC Begins 105th Season of Football

• Presbyterian is set to begin its 105th season of football in 2017. The program has fielded a football team every season since its inaugural season in 1913. PC has amassed 494 victories in the program's extensive history.
• The 2017 season also marks the 11th season since PC transitioned to Division I in 2007. It is also the program's ninth season as a Big South member, after joining the league for 2009 season.
• PC has managed 52 winning seasons throughout its history with the last coming in 2014. PC went 6-5 three seasons ago to achieve its first winning record since joining the Big South.
• Prior to turning Division I in 2007, PC was a member of the South Atlantic Conference (SAC) for 32 seasons from 1975 to 2006.

Offense Returns Seven Starters

• The PC offense returns seven starters for the second straight season, including second team All-Big South pick DaShawn Davis.
• Quarterback Ben Cheek, who made eight starts a year ago, returns for his redshirt-junior season. Redshirt-senior Will Brock and redshirt-junior John Walker, both of whom saw action last season, return as well to provide depth at the position.
• Davis returns to lead a receiving core that showed promise in 2016 with Daryl Wilson the lone departure. Senior Darquez Watson, PC's second-leading receiver a year ago, is back after starting all 11 games. Also returning at wideout will be sophomore Cedric Frazier and redshirt-sophomore Kyle Goddard, both of whom caught 16 passes in 2016.
• The offensive line remains nearly intact with the graduation of Ryan Bristow the only departure across the front five. Tobias Hagins, Jerius Duncan, Eli Teeselink and Thomas Hughes each return up front. John Biscardi, Zach Cooper, Zach Darst and Frank Keller return to provide depth to an experienced group.
• Running back will feature a new face in 2017 with the departure of Darrell Bridges. Zola Davis (26 carries, 117 yards in 2016) and Glass Wilson (7 carries, 14 yards) return as options in the backfield.

Defense Must Replace Front Four

• The PC defense will return six starters from last season but must replace the entire starting defensive line from last season's squad.
• Second team All-Big South defensive lineman Obinna Ntiasagwe and Khari Rosier depart, as does Ryan Brown, Kamren Mack, Curtis Bey and Derrick Washington. Gyasi Yeldell does return to the unit after suffering a season-ending injury in the season opener last season, while Michael Branch and Brien Washington bring back experience as well.
• PC's top two tacklers from last season, Grant Beidel (75) and Nick Moss (73), return to anchor the middle of the defense. Maleek Catchings and Michael Fisher return at linebacker after seeing significant action last season.

- The PC secondary remains intact from the 2016 team. Rock Ya-Sin and Kenneth Coleman are back at the corner positions, while Ryan Burgess, who started the final six games of the year, and Robert Baker return to the safety spots.

QB's Returning

- Quarterbacks Ben Cheek, Will Brock and John Walker each return for the Blue Hose after seeing action in 2016.
- Cheek, who started eight games a season ago, led the team with 95 completions and 837 passing yards. The redshirt junior also rushed 95 times for 168 yards, including a career-high 128 yards on 21 carries at South Alabama. He enters 2017 having started 12 of the team's last 15 games.
- Brock shined in limited action, playing in three games with two starts. The lefty threw for 462 yards and three touchdowns, as he completed 43-of-79 passes (54.4 percent) with just one INT. He led the team with an efficiency rating of 113.6 and averaged 154.0 passing yards per game.
- John Walker also returns after playing in three games and making his first career last season. Walker was 30-of-50 passing (60.0 percent, team-high) for 252 yards and one touchdown in limited action.

Norton Coming Off Record-Setting Year

- PC placekicker and punter Brett Norton returns to handle dual duties again in 2017 after a record-setting season a year ago in which he earned second team All-Big South honors as a punter.
- In his first season handling the putting duties, Norton punted 83 times for 3,354 yards, both Div. I era single-season records, for an average of 40.4 yards per punt, just shy of the D1 record.
- The junior kicker also tied the school's Division I era record for field goals made in a season with seven. He also converted all 11 PATs last season, making him perfect on all 28 attempts in his career.
- He established a new career-long make with a 36-yard field goal at Central Michigan in the season opener. Norton also booted a 64-yard punt at Chattanooga, the second-longest in PC's D1 era.
- Punted 12 times at Chattanooga for a Division I era school-record 526 punting yards, an average of 43.8 yards per punt.

Davis Looks to Build on Big 2016

- DaShawn Davis will look to build on a big 2016 season for which he was named second team All-Big South, the first PC wide receiver to earn the honor since 2014.
- The junior wideout led the team with 42 receptions, ninth-most in a season in PC's D1 era, for 455 receiving yards, the most by a PC player since 2014. He averaged 10.8 yards per catch, second-highest on the team in 2017.

- His standout performance came against Florida Tech as he caught a D1 era school-record-tying 12 passes for a career-high 129 receiving yards. The 129 yards was the ninth-best mark in PC's D1 history. He also added 81 kickoff return yards for 210 all-purpose yards against the Panthers, fourth-most in a single game in the school's Division I era.
- Davis ranked eighth in the Big South in all-purpose yards (975) and fifth in kickoff return average.

Back Under the Lights

- PC is expected to host three home night games this season, hosting Campbell, Monmouth and Wofford at 7 p.m. on Sept. 16, 23 and 30, respectively.
- Since night games came to Bailey Memorial Stadium in 2014, PC is 4-2 under the lights.
- The Blue Hose opened the 2014 season with a night game against Bluefield that ended in a 69-14 rout. PC then earned a 10-7 win over 12th-ranked Furman the following week under the lights.
- PC topped Campbell 23-13 on Sept. 19 last season to improve to 3-0 in night games at the time. Chattanooga ended the unbeaten night streak the following week with a 21-0 victory over the Blue Hose.
- PC then earned its fourth night victory in six tries with a Thursday night victory over Big South foe Monmouth, 17-13, last season.

Pair of Alums Join Coaching Staff

- A pair of Presbyterian College alums joined the coaching staff this off-season.
- Mitch Doolittle, a 2007 graduate of PC, was named defensive coordinator and DaRon Dickey, a 2016 graduate, joined as defensive ends coach.
- Doolittle returns to his alma mater after spending the last four years at Mercer as secondary coach and co-special teams coordinator.
- Dickey is back at his alma mater, this time as a coach, after spending last season as a graduate assistant coach for defense at Furman.
- Additionally, Taylor Cornett was promoted to full-time status coaching tight ends after a season as an offensive assistant with the program. The Citadel graduate assisted with the offense in his first season with a focus on tight ends.

Bethel, Antigha Playing Professionally

- Former PC standouts Justin Bethel and Tobi Antigha have risen to the professional ranks of football.
- Bethel completed his fifth season in the NFL as a member of the Arizona Cardinals in 2016.

Tommy SPANGLER

Head Coach

7th Year as Head Coach

15th Year at PC Overall

Tommy Spangler begins his seventh year as head coach at PC and first since the 2006 season, after being promoted from defensive coordinator on Nov. 22, 2016.

Spangler just finished his fourth year back at PC, and 14th season overall, after having served as a defensive coordinator, an assistant coach, and head coach.

Earlier this season, the defense was ranked first nationally in third down defense, holding opponents to 25.5% through the first six games. Donelle Williams, a linebacker under Spangler, finished his career third in Big South history in total tackles with 402. Ed Britt tied the school single season and career record for interceptions with four his last season and seven for his career.

Under Spangler several Blue hose have earned Big South defensive all-conference honors, including two in 2014 and three in 2015.

In his first season back, in 2014, Spangler helped PC to a 6-5 record, the program's first winning season since 2007. His defense shut down opponents and led to Blue Hose ranked wins over No. 12 Furman and No. 22 Charleston Southern.

Against FCS competition, PC finished with a 5-2 record, its only two losses coming to FCS playoff teams Coastal Carolina and Liberty. PC's defense set new school Division I records in nearly every category, including total offense yards (4163), opponent points scored (270), opponent touchdowns (36) and opponent total offense per game (378.5 yards). Those records come in a season that saw the Blue Hose play three FBS teams and against FCS competition, PC allowed only 15.9 points and 310.0 total offense yards per game. The Blue Hose also finished the season with the nation's second-ranked red zone defense.

Blue Hose defensive players earned four weekly awards in 2015, including the entire defense receiving the Big South Defensive Player of the Week award for PC's win over Western Carolina. Defensive back Ed Britt and linebacker Donelle Williams also earned First Team All-Big South honors in 2015 under Spangler.

Spangler spent six years as defensive coordinator at Louisiana Tech prior to returning to PC. During that time, Spangler took a Bulldog defense that ranked dead last in the country (among FBS programs) in scoring defense, rushing defense and total defense prior to his arrival and coached them into one of the top defensive units in the Western Athletic Conference.

He guided a defense that had six All-WAC selections in 2011, and that scored six defensive touchdowns, the best scoring defense Tech saw in two decades. The Bulldog defense ended the year ranked 13th in the nation in turnover margin and had a +15 turnover margin during the team's seven-game winning streak.

Spangler was a 2011 Broyles Award nominee for his defensive efforts that season.

Spangler has spent almost three decades as a full-time coach on the college football sideline. He began his first 10 years at Georgia Southern, helping lead the program to a pair of Division I-AA national titles.

After taking the job as the secondary coach for the Eagles in 1987, Spangler was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 1990 and then took over the sole reins of the program's defense in 1992.

The Stone Mountain, Ga., native earned the Southern Conference Defensive Coach of the Year Award in 1993 as the Eagles won the league title and advanced to the playoffs. His defense ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense.

Spangler spent 10 seasons at PC the first time around, first as an assistant coach from 1997- 2000 and then as head coach from 2001-06. During his six years as PC's head football coach, Spangler guided the Blue Hose to a 42-24 record - a mark that stands as the highest winning percentage (.571) among the school's 14 head football coaches.

In 2006, Spangler's defense ranked first in the South Atlantic Conference in scoring defense (13.2 ppg) and total defense (233.5 ypg) en route to a 7-4 record. In 2005, he led PC to a 10-2 mark, the South Atlantic Conference title, the school's first appearance ever in the NCAA Division II playoffs, and a top 10 national ranking, earning him the league's Coach of the Year Award.

Spangler garnered two American Football Coaches Association Region 2 Coach of the Year Awards while with the Blue Hose. His defenses were ranked in the top half of the South Atlantic Conference in all defensive categories each of his last eight seasons there, and his 1998 Blue Hose unit forced 48 turnovers in 11 games, and ranked first nationally in turnover margin (+2.27).

Spangler played defensive back at the University of Georgia from 1979 through 1982, and was a member of the 1980 Division I National Championship team that defeated Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl. He lettered his senior season after helping Georgia to the 1982 Southeastern Conference title, the program's third straight.

Spangler earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Georgia in the spring of 1984. He is married to the former Kim Pierce of Ft. White, Fla., and they are the parents of three children, Pierce, Peyton, and Gracie.
