MEDIA DAY EMCEE:

Brenda VanLengen has worked as a women's college basketball analyst for the ESPN networks since 1996 and play-by-play announcer since 2010. Independently, she is the creator and executive producer of a groundbreaking documentary series on the origin story of college basketball entitled If Not For Them.

CONFERENCE NEWS AND NOTES

MIAA The MIAA had four NCAA Division II National Champion Teams (Central Oklahoma Wrestling, Pittsburg State Men's Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field, and Pittsburg State Women's Outdoor Track and Field) and one National Runner-Up Team (Washburn Women's Soccer) in the 2023-24 academic year.

The 2024-25 season is the first for MIAA newcomer, University of Arkansas-Fort Smith Lions. With the departure of Lincoln University, the MIAA remains a 14-member basketball conference.

MIAA For the last four consecutive seasons, six or more MIAA teams have advanced to the NCAA basketball postseason.

Two men's teams (No. 4 Northwest Missouri, No. 19 Fort Hays State) and one women's team (No. 21 Missouri Western) were ranked in the final 2023-24 NCAA Division II Top-25 Rankings.

Three men's program and one women's program features new head coaches for the 2024-25 season — Tom Billeter at Emporia State (M), Marty Levinson at Nebraska Kearney (M), Matt Keeley at Northwest Missouri (M) and Ashton Feldhaus at Missouri Western (W).

MIAA Three MIAA head coaches have won either an NAIA or NCAA national championship as a head coach: Bob Hoffman, Tom Billeter and Dave Slifer.

The MIAA has had a basketball national champion in five of the last seven NCAA Division II championships: Northwest Missouri men (2017, 2019, 2021, 2022), Central Missouri women (2018).

The MIAA has been the NCAA Division II attendance leader in both sports for 15 consecutive seasons.
