ABOUT THE FLYERS

The University of Dayton Flyers will play their second season under former Flyer MVP Anthony Grant in 2018-19. Grant will tell you that is more important to recognize this is the first season together for a group that has grown and bonded quickly in the off-season.

Dayton returns four starters from last season and also returns redshirt junior Ryan Mikesell, who started 24 games two years ago and sat out last season after surgery on both hips. Along with five players with starting experience, UD also has four players who will make their Dayton debut this year, three Division I transfers who are sitting out the 2018-19 season, and two walk-ons.

The new faces in the program are not limited to the players on the court. During the off-season, the Flyers added assistant coach Donnie Jones (previously a head coach at Marshall and Central Florida), strength and conditioning coach Ed Streit (previously at UConn and the University of Houston), and five players with starting experience, UD also has four players who will make their Dayton debut this year, three Division I transfers who are sitting out the 2018-19 season, and two walk-ons.

The new faces in the program are not limited to the players on the court. The addition of Jones with associate head coach Anthony Solomon and assistant coach Ricardo Greer makes the University of Dayton one of 13 schools with at least two former head coaches on their staff. The others are Cal, Evansville, Fairfield, Georgia State, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland, Michigan State, Oklahoma State, Pitt, South Carolina and Washington. Solomon was head coach at St. Bonaventure from 2003-07.

UD will be led by redshirt senior forward Josh Cunningham. Cunningham is an All-Atlantic 10 performer who is a two-time team captain. He was ranked in the top 100 nationally in seven statistical categories and led the Flyers in scoring (15.6), rebounding (8.4) and field goal percentage (.646). He finished the season fifth nationally in field goal percentage.

Cunningham and walkon Jack Westerfield are the team’s two seniors. Westerfield played in 10 games as a junior.

The other returning starters are junior guard Trey Landers, and sophomore guards Jalen Crutcher and Jordan Davis. Landers averaged 11.3 points per game, 5.6 rebounds per game and shot .583 from the field. Crutcher and Davis started 22 games each. The combined 44 starts by a pair of freshman guards is the most in Dayton basketball history by a wide margin. Crutcher averaged 9.2 points per game and led UD in assists (4.4). He was named to the A-10 All-Rookie Team. Davis averaged 8.0 points a game and shot .394 from three-point range.

Dayton’s first public appearance on Tom Blackburn Court this season will be an exhibition game on Friday, Nov. 2 against Division III Capital, who is coached by Grant’s former teammate and Flyer Hall of Famer Damon Goodwin.
ALL-CONFERENCE CUNNINGHAM
• Josh Cunningham was named First Team Preseason All-Atlantic 10 at A-10 Media Day.
• He is the ninth Dayton player named to the preseason first team in the last 15 years.
• Bounded back from a horrific ankle injury early in the 2016-17 season to have an all-conference type of season in 2017-18.
• Cunningham was Second Team NABC All-District and Third Team All-Atlantic 10.
• Ranked in the top 100 nationally in seven statistical categories.
• Led the Flyers in scoring (15.6), rebounding (6.4) and field goal percentage (.46).
• That .646 FG% was fifth nationally.
• Set a program record with 22 consecutive field goals during a three-game stretch (Dec. 3-9) last year. The previous mark was 18 held by Sean Finn during the 2002-03 season.
• Had 10 double-doubles last year.
• Two-time captain (this season’s captains have not been selected yet).
• Transfer from Bradley.

TREY OF LIGHT
• Trey Landers earned UD’s Chris Daniels Memorial Award in 2017-18, which goes to Dayton’s most improved player.
• Landers qualified for it in two ways; He was Dayton’s most improved player from the 2016-17 season to 2017-18 season, and he was also the most improved Flyers from the beginning of last season to the end.
• Was the only freshman on UD’s 2016-17 team, playing in nine games and averaging 3.0 points and 1.4 rebounds.
• Third on the team in scoring (11.3) and second in rebounding (5.6) in 2017-18.
• Over the final 10 games of the year, the Dayton native was the Flyers’ top player, averaging 15.9 points and 7.1 rebounds, while shooting .634 (64 of 101) from the field, .391 (9 of 23) from beyond the arc and .724 (21 of 29) from the line.
• Dayton’s most physical and emotional player.
• One can only imagine games in the driveway between him and his brother, Ohio State defensive tackle Robert Landers.

DELIVERING IN THE CRUTCHER
Crutcher and classmate Jordan Davis each played in all 31 games and started 22. The 44 starts by a pair of freshman guards are by far the most in Flyer basketball history. Crutcher
He was named to the Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team.
• Jalen Crutcher was named to the Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team as a freshman in 2017-18.
• Played in all 31 games, starting 22.
• Was UD’s fourth-leading scorer at 9.2 points per game, and led the Flyers in assists (4.4).
• The 4.4 assists were the second-best mark ever by a Flyer freshman.
• In his first career start, he led UD with 18 points at Mississippi State, much to the delight of the nearly 100 family and friends who made the drive from his hometown of Memphis.
• Came close to recording Dayton’s first ever triple-double with 12 points, 10 assists and eight rebounds at home against VCU.

AIR JORDAN
• Jordan Davis played in all 31 games, starting 22.
• He was Dayton’s fifth-leading scorer (8.0).
• His .934 (56 of 142) three-point shooting percentage led UD, was ninth overall in the A-10 and was the top mark in the conference among freshmen.
• He is the first-ever Flyer from the state of South Carolina.
• Davis came to Dayton as a three-time all-region and two-time All-South Carolina Player of the Year.

YOUTH WAS SERVED
• Classmates Jalen Crutcher and Jordan Davis both started 22 games in rookie season.
• The combined 44 starts were easily the most by a pair of freshmen in Dayton basketball history.
• Not only did Davis and classmate Jalen Crutcher start a combined 44 games, they had the best two assist-to-turnover ratios on the team (Davis 2.48, Crutcher 2.11).

WHAT IS HIP?
• Ryan Mikesell sat out all of 2017-18 while rehabbing surgery on both of his hips that was performed during the summer of 2017.
• The improvement in his lateral quickness and overall mobility after the surgeries is clear.
• Even though he missed all of 2017-18, he has played more games in a Dayton uniform than anyone else on the team. Mikesell has played in 54 games, ahead of Josh Cunningham (42) and Trey Landers (35).
• Mikesell played in all 32 games and started 24 (after Cunningham’s injury) in 2016-17.
• He averaged 5.7 points and 3.9 rebounds as a sophomore.
• Would play guard on most teams due to his court vision and ball-handling ability.
• A steady, heady player whose return will be very welcome with four new faces joining the rotation.

TIP TOPPIN
• Obadiah (please call him “Obi”) Toppin was an academic redshirt in 2017-18, but he just didn’t get smarter, he got bigger, adding 24 pounds while setting a high standard for work ethic in practice.
• Even though he sat out 2017-18, he was awarded UD’s Dr. George Rau Spirit Award and was the first non-active player to win that award.
• Was 6-foot-2 as a high school junior, 6-foot-5 as a senior and is now UD’s tallest player at 6-foot-9.
• Played one season of varsity HS ball, and another prep season before coming to UD
• Averaged 20.6 points, 8.1 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 3.0 steals as a senior in high school.
• At Mt. Zion Prep in Baltimore in 2016-17, averaged 17 points, eight rebounds and four assists.

AIR JORDAN
• Jordan Davis played in all 31 games, starting 22.
• He was Dayton’s fifth-leading scorer (8.0).
• His .934 (56 of 142) three-point shooting percentage led UD, was ninth overall in the A-10 and was the top mark in the conference among freshmen.
• He is the first-ever Flyer from the state of South Carolina.
• Davis came to Dayton as a three-time all-region and two-time All-South Carolina Player of the Year.

JHERY! JHERY! JHERY!
• Jhery Matos comes to Dayton a standout season at Monroe Community College in Brighton, NY.
• He was a Third Team NJCAA All-American.
• Matos averaged 17.7 points, 6.2 rebounds and 3.0 assists in his only season at Monroe.
• He shot 43.1% from the field, 35.8% from three-point range and 71.3% from the free throw line.
• Matos was also NJCAA Region XV Player of the Year and team MVP for Monroe.
• A native of Santo Domingo, Matos has played for the Dominican Republic’s UIB team and has trained with the national team.
