President Joan Ferrini-Mundy

Joan Ferrini-Mundy is the president of the University of Maine and the University of Maine at Machias. Prior to joining the UMaine and UMM communities July 1, 2018, she was the chief operating officer (COO) of the National Science Foundation (NSF).

As COO beginning in June 2017, Ferrini-Mundy was responsible for the day-to-day oversight of several operations offices that report to the NSF Office of the Director. She also chaired several two agency-wide review groups, and participated as a member of the senior leadership team in strategic budget planning and execution. She represented NSF on the President’s Management Council and co-chaired the National Science and Technology Council’s Federal Coordination in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Education Task Force.

Ferrini-Mundy served as an ex-officio member of President Bush’s National Mathematics Advisory Panel and co-chaired its Instructional Practices Task Group. From 2011–16 Ferrini-Mundy led the NSF Directorate for Education and Human Resources (EHR), overseeing an $850 million budget for competitive grants for the improvement of U.S. STEM education.

She joined NSF in 2007 as the inaugural director for the Division of Research on Learning in Formal and Informal Settings in EHR, while a professor of mathematics and of teacher education at Michigan State University (MSU) from 1999–2010. At MSU, she also served as Associate Dean for Science and Mathematics Education, and Director of the Division of Science and Mathematics Education.

Ferrini-Mundy received her Ph.D. in mathematics education from the University of New Hampshire (UNH) in 1980, and spent two years as a postdoctoral associate there. She taught for a year at Mount Holyoke College, then returned to UNH to teach mathematics from 1983–94.

Ferrini-Mundy is an author or co-author of more than 100 publications and reports, and has received numerous awards and recognitions. Among those are the Distinguished Executive Presidential Rank Award for the U.S. Senior Executive Service, election as a Fellow of the American Mathematical Society and the American Association for the Advancement of Science, selection as a University Distinguished Professor at MSU, the UNH Excellence in Public Service Award, and the UNH Distinguished Teaching Award.

After receiving her Ph.D. in mathematics education from the University of New Hampshire (UNH) Department of Mathematics in 1980, Ferrini-Mundy spent two years as a postdoctoral associate there, and one year in the Department of Mathematics at Mount Holyoke College, where she co-founded the SummerMath for Teachers program. She returned to UNH in 1983 as an assistant professor of mathematics, rising to the rank of full professor in 1994.

University of Maine

Interim Director of Athletics Jim Settele

Jim Settele was named Interim Director of Athletics March 12, 2018. He has been a member of the UMaine community since 2006, most recently as Chief of Staff to the President. He has served as Executive Director of the School of Policy and International Affairs (SPIA) and is an associate graduate faculty member. He also is active in the UMaine community as a member of the UMaine Veterans Outreach Committee, faculty liaison to the football team, and faculty representative for the UMaine Student Veterans Association.

Jim retired from the U.S. Navy in 2009 at the rank of Captain after serving more than 27 years on active duty. He graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1982 and became a naval flight officer. He served in four E-2 squadrons on the USS Midway, USS Carl Vinson, USS Enterprise and USS Harry S. Truman, and was Commanding Officer of the VAW-126 Seahawks. His career also included assignment to the U.S. Naval Central Command in Dhahran, Saudi Arabia and the Bureau of Naval Personnel in Washington, D.C. From 2001-03, Jim was a Military Assistant to Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld, and in 2004 became Director of Operations, and Policy and Strategy for the combined staff of Naval Forces Europe and Sixth Fleet, based in Naples, Italy. In 2006, he came to Maine as the Commanding Officer of the Naval ROTC unit at UMaine, Maine Maritime Academy, and Husson University. In addition to his extensive military education, he has a master's degree in information management systems from George Washington University and was a Senior Fellow at St Antony’s College in Oxford University.

We Are UMaine
We are the University of Maine, home to more than 11,000 students from across the U.S. and more than 70 countries. We’ve been around for 153 years and are the flagship university in the state of Maine. Here is some of what we are known for:

- Research: UMaine is ranked as a top research university by the National Science Foundation; we have 16 Research Centers and Institutes
- Commitment to Natural Resources: As both a land grant and sea grant institution, we work with the government and other partners on research, education and conservation

Learning and Living at UMaine
World-class academics to set you up for career success.

- Learn from premier professors — leading researchers, scholars and experts in their fields.
- Study in state-of-the-art labs with the latest technology and resources.
- Be in a classroom where your voice is heard — with a 16:1 student-to-faculty ratio.
- Participate in cutting-edge research as an undergraduate.
- Study abroad, choosing from 700 programs on six continents and still graduate in four years.
- Become one of our 109,000 alumni — leaders in industry, business, government, the sciences, social services, the arts, athletics and more.
The University of Maine was established in Orono in 1865 under the provisions of the Morrill Act. As Maine’s land grant and sea grant institution with a statewide mission of teaching, research and community engagement, the university extends the resources of its learning community to address the educational, economic, cultural and social needs of Maine.

UMaine provides a high-quality, affordable education that utilizes practices grounded in how people best learn. The university conducts research and scholarship that are critically evaluated within the disciplines, and often lead to national and international recognition. In its economic development initiatives and outreach, UMaine is connected to and supportive of the people and the enterprises of the state. As part of the UMaine experience, students are involved in real-world enterprises that inform their academic work and provide growth opportunities.

The university has seven Signature Areas of Excellence in education and research — forestry and the environment, marine sciences, STEM education, climate change, advanced materials for infrastructure and energy, College of Engineering and Honors College. UMaine’s Emerging Areas of Excellence focus on the Graduate School of Biomedical Science and Engineering, Northeastern Americas humanities, data science and engineering, sustainability solutions and technologies, aging research and finance education.

UMaine is one of the nation’s major public institutions of higher education, and the state’s center for research and graduate education. Maine’s flagship university enrolls more than 11,000 undergraduate and graduate students from across the U.S. and more than 70 countries. The University of Maine offers 35 doctoral degrees, 85 master’s degrees, and more than 90 undergraduate majors and academic programs. The research and scholarship of UMaine faculty members and graduate students greatly enrich the undergraduate experience. As a research university, UMaine offers undergraduates opportunities to be active participants in research, working with the university’s world-class scholars.

The university has the state’s largest mix of nationally and internationally recognized faculty, researchers and scholars, representing some of the most respected minds in their fields. Among the state’s public universities, UMaine awards 40 percent of all four-year degrees, 44 percent of all master’s degrees, and 92 percent of Maine’s Ph.D.s and Ed.D.s. This past year, more than 1,900 students graduated from UMaine, joining approximately 109,000 alumni.

The University of Maine has the Maine Business School and five colleges — College of Engineering; College of Natural Sciences, Forestry, and Agriculture; College of Education and Human Development; and College of Liberal Arts and Sciences. UMaine’s Honors College offers one of the oldest honors programs in the country.

The university’s commitment to lifelong learning goes beyond its academic degree programs to include its statewide outreach through University of Maine Cooperative Extension and other public service programs and departments, its involvement in public schools, and its accessibility through continuing education opportunities.

The University of Maine conducts nationally and internationally recognized research, and is in partnership with the private and public sectors to stimulate and support the state’s economic growth and development. The university makes an impact on Maine’s quality of life through basic and applied research in venues from the Gulf of Maine and Maine’s forestlands to the high-tech laboratories. The university also is the home of Maine’s largest library and the Emera Astronomy Center, with the state’s largest and most technologically advanced planetarium, and the second largest research observatory.
COACHING STAFF
Josette Babineau enters her 12th season as head coach of the UMaine field hockey team in 2018. While at the helm of the Black Bears, Babineau has coached and mentored five All-American selections and 42 All-Conference players. She holds a career record of 127-85, leading Maine to nine consecutive 10-plus win seasons.

In 2015, Babineau guided Maine to a 12-6, 6-2 America East Record, as the Black Bears finished nationally-ranked (No. 25) for the fourth time in the last seven seasons and earned a share of the East Division of the America East Regular Season Championship. The Black Bears boasted one of the top offenses in the nation; averaging 2.89 goals per game and 8.11 points per game which ranks 14th in the nation.

Coach Babineau has continued to form the Black Bears into a nationally recognized program as Maine received votes in the National Field Hockey coaches Association Top-20 poll. Maine finished the 2015 season ranked as the 17th team in the country. Coach Babineau and her staff had one of the best seasons in school history in 2015.

The Black Bears set a school record for most wins in a season with 19. They also reached the America East conference championship for the first time since 2005. Coach Babineau and her staff also received honors from the America East conference as coaching staff of the year. Other accolades that Babineau received, the 2015 4U Field Hockey / NFHCA Division I North coaches of the year. Other accolades that Babineau received, the 2015 4U Field Hockey / NFHCA Division I Northeast Region Coach of the Year In 2015, Coach Babineau also reached a career milestone surpassing 100 career wins, all with the University of Maine.

Babineau was named head coach of the University of Maine field hockey team on February 1, 2007. She became the sixth head coach in Maine field hockey history.

She came to Maine after serving as an assistant coach at Cornell University on February 1, 2007. She became the sixth head

Babineau spent nine years as a Technical Director and Provincial Coach of the Saskatchewan Field Hockey Association. She served as head coach of the Under-21 Canada Games Team in 1997 and 2001. She was responsible for the growth and development of field hockey in Saskatchewan.

During the 2003 season, Babineau served as the associate head coach at the University of Calgary.

She also served as head coach of the Canadian Under-18 National Team during the 2000 season. She coached the Canadian Under-18 team at the Youth Commonwealth Games in Scotland. She ran identification camps throughout Canada to select athletes for the Youth Commonwealth Games team.

From 1998–2000, Babineau served as an assistant coach of the Canadian Under-21 National team. The Under-21 team competed in the Qualifying tournament and finished third earning them a spot at the World Cup.

Babineau was an outstanding field hockey player at the University of New Brunswick. She led her New Brunswick team to the Silver Medal at the Canadian National Championships in back-to-back seasons. She was a five-time Atlantic University All-Star selection. She was selected to the Canadian University All-Star team four years in a row. Babineau was named most valuable player of the Atlantic Field Hockey conference from 1990–93. In addition, she was named best all round athlete at the University of New Brunswick in both 1992 and 1993. In 1991, she was named Athlete of the Year at the University of New Brunswick and in 1993 she was selected as the Canadian University Player of the Year.

Babineau graduated in 1993 from the University of New Brunswick with a degree in business administration.

Michelle Simpson enters her second season as associate head coach at UMaine in 2018. Simpson helped lead the Black Bears to a share of the East Division Championsip of the America East in 2017, as Maine finished the season with a 12-6, 6-2 AE record.

On April 28, 2017 University of Maine field hockey head coach Josette Babineau announced the hiring of associate head coach, Michelle Simpson.

Simpson came to UMaine after serving eight seasons as an assistant coach at her alma mater, UAlbany.

Simpson grew up in Middlesbrough, England and played one season at the University of Teesside, earning Sportswomen of the Year honors in 2004. Following her year stint at Teesside, Simpson committed to play at UAlbany for the Great Danes where she displayed one of the best careers in program history.

During her collegiate playing career, Simpson was named to the America East conference first-team her sophomore, junior and senior year. In Simpson’s sophomore season, she took home the America East conference Offensive Player of The Year accolade. During her senior campaign, Simpson guided the Great Danes to a conference championship and the program’s first NCAA Tournament berth in 2008. She also became the first play in Great Danes’ history to earn Division I All-American honors, which Simpson did twice in her junior and senior season. She received UAlbany’s female athlete of the year in her senior year. Following her decorated playing career at UAlbany, Simpson continued playing field hockey for a couple of years back in England before returning to UAlbany where she took the job as assistant coach.

Simpson specialized in coaching the offense and worked closely with the goalkeepers. Under Simpson, two goalkeepers combined for four America East Goalkeeper of the Year awards in seven seasons. The Great Danes were America East champions in 2010, 2012, 2014 and 2015 during Simpson’s tutelage in seven seasons. Though she may not have been the head coach for the Great Danes, her phenomenal work certainly did not go unnoticed as she was named to the America East Coaching Staff of the Year in 2014 and 2016. In 2016, Simpson was inducted into the University of Albany Hall of Fame for her amazing career accomplishments with the Great Danes field hockey program.

The University of Maine Field Hockey Complex is home to the Maine Black Bears. It features an all-turf playing surface, scoreboard and bleachers that seats up to 500 spectators.

In 2014, The University of Maine field hockey complex added several branded wind screens.

“It is always refreshing to see a group of people join forces to make UMaine a better place,” said Associate Athletic Director for Development Seth Woodcock. “This grassroots effort led by several field hockey parents and supporters has given our field hockey field a new look and feel. A big ‘Thank You’ to all of those who contributed to make the new windscreens a reality!”

“A big thank you to our parents and friends for their donations and support in taking on this project for our program,” said head coach Josette Babineau. “In addition to enclosing our playing facility, it enhances the look and atmosphere of the field as well as adds a sense of Maine pride with the colors and logos.”

Since the addition of the windscreens in 2014, the University of Maine has had a home record of 24-8 at home.

The Black Bears have also outscored opponents 80-39 and haven’t allowed more than three goals in a game while playing at the University of Maine Field Hockey Complex the past four seasons.
