University of Northern Iowa Director of Athletics David Harris announced the hiring of Bruce Erickson as the new head women’s soccer coach for the Panthers on Feb. 10, 2017.

Erickson becomes the sixth head coach in the program’s history and brings a wealth of experience to the position. Erickson most recently served as the head women’s soccer coach at Wayne State (Neb.) for the past two years and prior to that was the head women’s soccer coach at Creighton University from 1999-2014. In 24 years as a head coach at the collegiate level, Erickson has compiled an overall record of 246-203-42 (.544).

“We are excited to announce the addition of Bruce Erickson as the head coach of the UNI women’s soccer program,” Harris said. “We believe that Bruce has the right combination of leadership, experience and a proven track record of success within the Missouri Valley Conference (MVC). Our soccer program made significant strides this past season and is poised to build on that momentum in 2017 and beyond. Bruce has won multiple MVC regular season and tournament championships and taken five teams to the NCAA tournament. We expect that Bruce will help us continue to build on our foundation while also giving our student-athletes stability in the leadership of our program. We look forward to having Bruce join the Panther family.”

“I’d like to thank Christina Roybal (UNI’s Senior Woman Administrator) and David Harris for this great opportunity to lead UNI women’s soccer,” Erickson said. “I have been blessed to work for great administrators in the past and look forward to working with them both in continuing the success of UNI soccer. I was impressed with everyone I met on my interview and can see why the athletic department is successful. I look forward to working with the team as we pursue winning a Missouri Valley Conference championship.”

Erickson guided Wayne State to nine victories in 2016, the most wins for the NCAA Division II program since the 2006 season. In each season he was at Wayne State, the Wildcats earned the NSCAA team academic award.

Erickson earned his bachelor of science degree in industrial organizational psychology from Viterbo University in 1990.

Erickson has three children – Emma (20), Olivia (18) and Noah (15).
Jeremy Clevenger
Assistant Coach
Second Season

Clevenger joined the UNI coaching staff for the 2016 season. The Panthers posted their highest finish in the Missouri Valley Conference in program history in 2016. Clevenger helped the Panthers to the No. 3 seed in the MVC Tournament with a league record of 2-2-2 and an overall mark of 8-8-3. UNI went 7-2-1 in 10 home matches. This past season, the Panther squad had six players earn all-conference recognition – the most in the program’s history. UNI set single-season school records for points (67), goals (27), goals per game (1.42), shots (250) and shutouts (7). UNI’s eight wins tied for the second-most in school history behind the 2003 squad’s total of 10 victories.

Clevenger had served as the head women’s soccer coach at Western State College, in Gunnison, Colo., the past four seasons. He was the first coach in the Mountaineer program’s history and guided the squad from a 1-14 mark in its inaugural 2012 season to a 7-7-4 record in 2015. In 2015, Clevenger guided WSC to a pair of wins over ranked Division II foes in No. 20 UC-Colorado Springs and No. 22 Metro State. The Mountaineers had nine student-athletes named to the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference academic honor roll. WSCU saw four players earned all-RMAC honors.

He was also on the staff on an inaugural season for both the men’s and women’s soccer program at Fort Hays State in 2011. He was responsible for startup of the programs, recruiting, travel and practice. The Tigers had two women earn All-Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association honors and two men earn a spot on the NSCAA All-Central Region First Team.

In 2010, Clevenger was the head women’s assistant soccer coach at Houston Baptist University. The Huskies were the Great West Conference champions and had four all-tournament selections during the conference championships. He was also the primary recruiting and travel coordinator and had responsibilities for practice and game coaching.

Clevenger was member of the coaching staff at Baylor University in 2009, and helped lead the Bears to their first winning season since 2000. Baylor advanced to its first Big 12 Tournament since 2006 and was second in the conference for its goals against average.

Clevenger spent a season at Ottawa University as the head assistant coach for the men’s and women’s teams. The Braves had two women on the NAIA All-America team and finished as the runner-up in the conference tournament. He was the primary recruiting coordinator for both teams, monitored academic progress and was involved in alumni relations and fundraising.

Clevenger was a graduate assistant coach at the University of Central Missouri and was part of a staff that led the Jennies to a share of the MIAA title in 2007. The Jennies advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division II National Tournament and were ranked as high as fifth in the nation.

Clevenger entered the coaching ranks as an assistant men’s soccer coach at San Joaquin Delta College. He was involved in practice and game coaching for the NJCAA program in California.

A native of Stockton, California, Clevenger boasts a NSCAA Coaching Diploma and Regional Goalkeeper Diploma, and has a United States Soccer Federation Coaching License. He holds a bachelor’s of science degree in kinesiology from San Francisco State University and a master’s degree in sports and business administration from Central Missouri.

“Brynell is easily the best athlete I’ve ever coached. She possesses tremendous speed and an extremely high fitness level, making her an exciting and dangerous attacking player. Brynell at times completely took over games at the club level, and led the team in both goals and assists for her U18 season. A great teammate who leads by example, Brynell will be a strong addition to the UNI attack”. – Club Coach, Jim Pereira.
