TANK OF THE TAPE

NEW ORLEANS

OPPONENT

RHP: Brayan Smith (1-3, 5.11)
RHP: Tyler Miller (3-3, 4.15)
LHP: Bryan Warzek (2-2, 3.10)
RHP: Luke Taggart (4-3, 3.65)
RHP: John Michael Stephens (3-3, 3.53)

Quick Hits:

- Pearce Howard became the second Privateer to reach a double digit hitting streak this season. In that stretch, Howard is hitting .366 in that stretch (15-for-41) with 11 RBI.
- Collin Morrill posted season highs in hits (4) and runs (3) in last Wednesday’s game against South Alabama. Morrill has a hit in nine of his last 11 games and has raised his average 24 points in that span.
- Reeves Martin picked up his sixth save of the season and his first of more than an inning on Sunday against Texas. Martin went the final 2.1 innings to preserve a 4-1 win.
- The victory over the Longhorns was the first for New Orleans over Texas in 12 games. The win also marked the second against a David Pierce coached team (2-11).
- Scott Crabtree has reached base safely in eight straight games. Crabtree picked up three hits over the last two games at Texas.
- The Privateers have played 14 extra inning games in Blake Dean’s tenure. In that stretch, they are 9-4-1.
- New Orleans is 4-2 in extra inning games this season.

BEAU KNOWS
Beau Bratton extended his hitting streak to 14 games after going 1-for-4 against Louisiana on Wednesday. New Orleans had one player reach a double digit hitting streak in 2017 (Dakota Dean-11 games). The longest hitting streak in Privateer history is 27 games, achieved by Greg Battistella (1991) and Steve Rowell (2000).

LUCKY THIRTEEN
Bryan Warzek is currently tied for ninth in program history in strikeouts with 221 entering the weekend. Warzek is only three strikeouts away from vaulting up two spots on the list. The program record for career strikeouts is held by Bryan Cryer (2005-08) who has 340.

RECORD PACE
The Privateers pitching staff is marching toward a new mark for strikeouts in a single season. New Orleans has whiffed 420 opposing batters through 43 games (9.76 per game). The single season mark for strikeouts is 504, accomplished in 2007.

THE RACE IS ON
With four conference weekends left, the Privateers currently sit in a tie for the last spot in the tournament with Nicholls. All four conference opponents the Privateers have left are even or ahead in the standings.

GIVE ME 5
Cody Ducote homered in his return to the lineup after sitting the last five games due to injury. Ducote’s homer in the fourth inning on Wednesday was his sixth of the season, tying him for the team lead with Pearce Howard. The homer was his second hit on the road.

NO STEALING
The Privateers have not had a stolen base in nine straight games since their Apr. 11 win at Southern. In that span, New Orleans has only attempted three steals. The Privateers have attempted to steal 33 times, fewest in the conference.

FEELING A DRAFT
Last summer, Shawn Semple became the latest Privateer to be drafted when he was selected by the New York Yankees in the 11th round. Semple becomes the 88th UNO baseball player to be drafted. The last five Privateers drafted have been selected by American League East teams.

RUDY RUDY RUDY
Rudy Darrow spent his first season as Privateers pitching coach vastly improving the staff numbers. From 2016-17, UNO arms lowered their team ERA from 5.39 to 4.43. Total walks decreased by 40 total while strikeouts were up by 67.

I’VE GOT SUNSHINE
The state of Florida has the most representation on the Privateer roster with 10 players. New Orleans has also had a solid pipeline with Northwest Florida State over the past few years. Head Coach, Blake Dean is a Florida native and recruiting coordinator, Brett Stewart came from Northwest Florida State. The Privateers have four transfers from Northwest Florida State on this year’s roster.

SOUNDS FAMILIAR
This year, the Privateers were picked seventh in the preseason Southland poll. In each of the last two years, New Orleans has made the Southland Tournament as a seven-seed.
SCOUTING THE COMPETITION

INCARNATE WORD
- The Cardinals are entering the weekend on a four-game losing skid. Incarnate Word was swept by Houston Baptist and lost the last two games by a run each. Incarnate Word lost 11-1 in their lone mid-week contest against UTSA. Coming into the weekend, the Cardinals sit in sixth place in the standings.

- On April 10, the Cardinals broke the school record for most runs in a game during a 31-2 victory over Prairie View A&M in the first of two meetings. The previous mark was 27 on April 6, 2010. In the second meeting against Prairie View, the Cardinals put up 26 runs.

- Offense has been a big key for the Cardinals this season. Incarnate Word is leading the Southland in runs, batting average, on-base percentage, and hits. As a unit, Incarnate Word has drawn 199 walks, second only to Southeastern (219). The Cardinals rank third in stolen bases with 57.

- Patrick Hallmark is in his first season at the helm of Incarnate Word. Hallmark was hired last July, making him the fourth coach in program history. Hallmark spent 2017 as the pitching coach at Missouri. Prior to that, Hallmark spent 11 years as an assistant at his alma mater, Rice. As a player, Hallmark was drafted by the Kansas City Royals in 1995. He played nine years of pro ball and played in two minor league all-star games.

- Kyle Bergeron, Ridge Rogers, and Eddy Gonzalez have plastered their names on the Southland leaderboards in many categories. Gonzalez and Rogers are the top two in the conference in batting average. Bergeron is in the top three in runs, RBI, and hits. Gonzalez leads the conference in hits with 64. Gonzalez and Rogers are both also ranked in the top five in on base percentage.

- The Cardinals pitching staff has allowed the third most hits of anyone in the Southland. Only Abilene Christian and Nicholls have conceded more hits than UIW's 398. The staff has pitched to a collective ERA of 4.46, which ranks seventh in the conference. Their 307 strikeouts place eighth.

- Cody Allen has five saves on the season for UIW. He has pitched to a 2-2 record with a 2.29 ERA. Allen is one of two pitchers on the staff with more strikeouts (38) than innings pitched (35.1). Allen has pitched 3.0 or more innings in five of his 16 relief appearances. His longest outing was 4.1 innings in his last outing at Houston Baptist.

- Bernie Martinez has been nearly automatic in throwing at least 6.0 innings every time out. Martinez leads the Southland in innings pitched with 77.0. Martinez has gone at least 6.0 innings in all 10 starts. Martinez also has three complete games. He has walked 14 batters in his 77.0 innings of work and has only walked more than two batters once (at Stephen F. Austin).

Blake Dean was named the University of New Orleans’ seventh head coach in its 45 year history during the summer of 2015 following a brief stint as the school’s interim head coach.

In 2017, the Privateers won 30 games and qualified for the Southland Tournament for the second consecutive season. New Orleans was one of the last four teams remaining before being eliminated by eventual champion, Sam Houston State.

Under Dean’s guidance, 13 Privateers have been named to the All-Southland team in two years. That included Shawn Semple, who became the latest Privateer to be drafted (11th round to the New York Yankees). Orynn Veillon cranked 15 home runs, tied for ninth most in a single season in UNO history. Samuel Capielano was named to the All-Defensive Team at second base and entered the record book, collecting the seventh most hits in Privateer history. Hezekiah Randolph was named to the Southland All-Tournament Team.

In 2016, the Privateers’ 31-26 record marked the first winning record for the baseball program since 2008 and qualified for the Southland Conference for the first time since joining the league prior to the 2013-14 academic year. In his first season at the helm, UNO saw a 17-game turnaround, the eighth-best in Division I in 2016, while the team was one of 17 to increase their winning percentage by .200, boasting the fourth-highest improvement at .285.

The Privateers set eight-year highs in batting average (.300), total hits (600), doubles (77), on base percentage (.368) and fielding percentage (.966) saves (15), and strikeouts (400) in that span.

Nationally, UNO finished eighth in triples per game with a 0.44 average and 10th in total triples with 25 while Dakota Dean cracked the top 25 individually with six on the season, the 22nd-most. UNO’s resurrected offense led the Southland Conference in triples, while finishing second in in hits, batting average, third in RBI, fewest batters struck out (328) and fourth in slugging percentage (.416).

Following two years working under the legendary Ron Maestri, Dean was initially tabbed the interim head coach before officially becoming the Privateers’ seventh head coach on June 30, 2015. Prior to assuming his current position, Dean worked his way up the ladder starting as a volunteer assistant in 2014 before being promoted to a full-time position the following year.

During his time on the Lakefront, Dean was instrumental in Capielano and Randolph claiming Freshman All-America status in 2014 while helping several Privateer hitters improve their production at the plate.

Highlights on the diamond, however, are nothing new for Dean as the native of Crestview, Florida, has experienced success at every stop of his baseball career to date.

As a prepster at Crestview High, Dean was a four-year all-state honoree and was a member of the USA Baseball Youth National Team. Following his senior season, he claimed Louisville Slugger All-America recognition and was named to Baseball America’s Top 300 High School Players of 2006.

From there, he packed his bags for Baton Rouge where he helped LSU post a combined 175 wins, three trips to the NCAA Super Regionals and a pair of berths in the College World Series – including a National Championship in 2009. As they had done during his high school career, honors came in by the handful for Dean in college. As a rookie, he was named Freshman All-SEC, Louisiana Freshman of the Year and Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American.

One year later, Dean was tabbed first-team All-American by Baseball America, second-team All-South Region by the American Baseball Coaches Association and Louisiana Hitter of the Year by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association. He also claimed SEC Tournament MVP and Baton Rouge Regional Most Outstanding Player recognition during the Tigers’ march to Omaha.

Dean claimed first-team all-state honors in each of his final three collegiate seasons, was tabbed first-team All-SEC as a junior and was a candidate for the Lowe’s Senior CLASS Award in 2010. Along the way, he finished second in school history in hits (332), RBI (260) and total bases (575), fourth in home runs (56) and fifth in runs scored (223).

Dean completed his bachelor’s degree in sports administration from LSU in 2013.
