NOTES DU JOUR

LEE LEADS THE NATION - Junior flanker Lee Evans is off to a remarkable start in 2001. He has made 19 receptions for a nation-leading 485 yards and three touchdowns in the Badgers’ first three games. His 161.7-yards-per-game average is third nationally. Evans has been on the receiving end of eight of Wisconsin’s 12 longest plays this season.

---

ONE AFTER THE OTHER - Few teams nationally are playing a tougher non-conference schedule than Wisconsin is this season. The Badgers’ first three non-league foes (including two currently ranked among the A.P.’s top 11) are a combined 6-1 thus far and this week’s opponent -- Western Kentucky -- was the preseason choice to win the Gateway Conference title.

---

ALIVE AND KICKIN’ - Mike Allen, Wisconsin’s freshman walk-on placekicker, connected on a 50-yard field goal in the second quarter against Fresno State on Saturday. Allen’s effort tied for the seventh-longest modern era field goal in Badger history and was the third-longest field goal ever by a Badger freshman.

WISCONSIN-WESTERN KENTUCKY NOTES

▷ The Badgers and Hilltoppers have never met on the football field.

▷ Wisconsin is 1-0-0 all-time against teams in the Gateway Conference. The Badgers defeated Western Illinois 31-13 to open the 1991 season.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

FIRST TRIP - How young is the 2001 Wisconsin football team? Consider that half of the Badgers that made the trek west to Oregon on Sept. 1 were on their first road trip as college football players.

CAMP RANDALL RATES - The Sporting News ranked Big Ten football stadiums in five categories last spring. Wisconsin’s Camp Randall Stadium drew high marks, including: No. 1 fan support; No. 2 overall (eighth nationally); No. 2 historical significance; No. 3 neighborhood setting; No. 3 facility structure.

NEW LOOK COMING - Wisconsin’s Camp Randall Stadium is in the early stages of a proposed $99.8 million refurbishing project that will be completed in 2004. The facility improvements will include new restrooms, wider concourses, concession stands and luxury boxes; an enclosed bowl in the south end zone; and a new athletic department office building. Capacity for the stadium will increase to nearly 85,000 when construction is completed.

HOME FIELD EDGE - The Badgers are 21-6 overall in their last 27 games at Camp Randall Stadium. Wisconsin has also won 13 of its last 14 non-conference home games. Prior to dropping their game with Fresno State, the Badgers had not lost at home to a non-Big Ten foe since 1995.

30 IN 3 - Wisconsin is one of only seven schools in the nation to have won at least 30 games from 1998-2000. The list includes: Florida State (34), Marshall (33), Kansas State (33), Nebraska (31), Virginia Tech (31), Wisconsin (30) and Tennessee (30).

FANS LOVE BUCKY - Wisconsin fans purchased more than 62,000 season tickets for the 2001 season. That is a school record and is the fifth time in the past seven seasons that the Badgers have eclipsed the 60,000 mark for season tickets sold. Wisconsin has played before 13 straight (and 18 of the last 19) sell-out crowds at Camp Randall Stadium.

EARLY ESTIMATES - Wisconsin was ranked nationally in both the coaches and media preseason polls for the fifth consecutive year and the seventh time in the past eight seasons.

ONE OF MANY - Western Kentucky (NCAA Div. 1-AA playoffs) is the last of four Wisconsin non-conference opponents who participated in postseason play a year ago. The others were Virginia (Jeep O‘ahu Bowl), Oregon (Holiday Bowl) and Fresno State (Silicon Valley Football Classic).

CONSISTENCY COUNTS - Wisconsin, Virginia, Florida, Florida State, Kansas State, Michigan, Nebraska, Ohio State, Penn State, Tennessee and Virginia Tech, are the only schools to have played in a bowl game in at least seven of the past eight years.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS - The Badgers have put together a 29-7-1 (.797) record against non-Big Ten opponents since 1993. Wisconsin has won 13 of its last 16 encounters with non-league opposition.

JOHNSON & JOHNSON - Wisconsin’s two most experienced linemen (Al and Ben Johnson) are cousins who played together as preps at Southern Door High in Brussels, Wis. They are the first relatives to start on the UW offensive line since Steve and Dennis Lick in 1975.

SEVEN SCHOLARSHIPS - Wisconsin football coach Barry Alvarez announced earlier this season that seven walk-on football players have been awarded scholarships for the 2001-02 school year. The seven players are seniors Mark Downing and Jason Schick, juniors David Braun, Russ Kuhns and Ryan Simmons and sophomore Kirk Munden and Nick Cochart.

UPCOMING MILESTONES

- Brooks Bollinger needs 60 rushing yards for 1,000 in his career.
- Wendell Bryant needs two QB sacks for 20 in his career.
- Nick Davis needs five receiving yards for 800 in his career and one kick return yard for 1,400 in his career.
- Lee Evans needs five receiving yards for 1,200 in his career.
- Jim Sorgi needs 58 passing yards for 1,300 in his career.

OFFENSIVE TEAM NOTES

- Lee Evans and Anthony Davis continue to lead the nation in total yards receiving (485) and rushing (414), respectively.
- Wisconsin remains perfect in the “red zone” with five touchdowns and three field goals in eight trips inside the opposing 20-yard line this season.
- The Badgers are averaging 393.7 yards per game in total offense. That is 35 yards per game more than last year’s team.
- Three offensive linemen – Kalvin Barrett, Dan Buenning and Jason Jowers -- have made the first three starts of their respective careers this season.
- Eight of Wisconsin’s 13 scoring drives this season have taken two minutes or less to complete.
- Sophomore running back Broderick Williams, who underwent knee surgery (ACL) last spring, saw his first action of the season against Fresno State.

CHAD KUHNS, SR., FB - Team captain ... two-time academic all-Big Ten choice ... third year as a starter ... key blocker for Ron Dayne as he ran to '99 Heisman Trophy ... good combination of rushing and receiving skills ... younger brother, Russ, is a backup fullback and plays on special teams for Badgers.

JIM SORGI, SO., QB - Started last two games ... was 16-32 for 231 yds., two TD passes and one rushing TD at Oregon ... career-high 246 yards passing, one TD strike and one rushing TD vs. Fresno State ... his three career starts have come vs. Purdue's Drew Brees (in 2000), Oregon's Joey Harrington (Sorgi record a higher pass efficiency rating in both of those head-to-head matchups) and Fresno State’s David Carr ... despite only three career starts, he is one of just nine Badger QBs with at least four 200-yard passing games ... has tossed at least two TD passes in four of six career games in which he has attempted more than two passes ... has come off the bench to lead UW to three wins (at Michigan State and Indiana last season, and vs. Virginia this season) after Bollinger was injured ... Wisconsin's Rookie of the Year in 2000 ... a student representative on the school's Athletic Board.

Bo Schembechler, Michigan 194
Fielding Yost, Michigan 165

BARRY ALVAREZ, WISCONSIN 60

HEAD COACH BARRY ALVAREZ

► Only coach in history with two Bowl Championship Series wins.
► Led Badgers to three winningest seasons in school history (11 in 1998 and 10 in both 1993 and 1999).
► Only person in history to coach back-to-back Rose Bowl winners.
► Winningest coach in school history.
► Only coach in Big Ten history, other than Ohio State's Woody Hayes, to win the Rose Bowl three times.
► His .857 (6-1) winning percentage in bowl games is tied for second-best all-time among coaches with at least seven bowl appearances.
► Has coached six consensus first-team all-Americans at Wisconsin.
► One of just 15 coaches in Big Ten history with at least 80 victories at one conference institution.
► Alvarez and his wife, Cindy, endowed a football scholarship at the UW in the spring of 2000. "I thought it was a small way for me to say thanks to the UW-Madison," Alvarez said of his quarter-million dollar contribution to the school's foundation.
► Alvarez set a goal to become a collegiate head coach by his 42nd birthday and was named to the Wisconsin post three days after he turned 42.
► Alvarez added administrative duties to his job description in 2000 when he was named Associate Athletic Director. In that role, he serves on the department's policy-making management team.
► Alvarez grew up in a small mining town (Burgettstown) in western Pennsylvania. He played all sports as a kid and idolized former Pittsburgh Pirate outfielder Roberto Clemente.
► Babcock Hall, which houses the UW-Madison's nationally acclaimed dairy school, developed an ice cream flavor in honor of the Badger head coach in 1994. It was named Berry Alvarez, and the flavor was a mixture of raspberry, strawberry and blueberry.
► Alvarez, a big baseball fan, helped honor former Chicago Cubs' announcer Harry Caray by singing "Take me out to the ballgame" during a seventh-inning stretch in May of 1999.
► He was the leading tackler among linebackers on Nebraska's 1967 squad, which led the nation in total defense and created a school-record 40 turnovers.
► Alvarez was a finalist for ESPN's College Football Coach of the Decade Award. He was one of 18 coaches named to new positions in 1990 and just three (Alvarez, Steve Spurrier and Ron McBride) are still at the schools which hired them.
