NADINE MUZERALL
HEAD COACH
8TH SEASON

The 2023-24 season marks Nadine Muzerall's eighth season at the helm of the Buckeyes.

In her tenure at Ohio State, she has taken the Buckeyes from a below .500 team to national champions. Along the way, she has led the team to multiple conference tournament titles and Frozen Fours and a regular season WCHA trophy.

The 2022-23 season continued a historic trajectory for the Buckeyes under Muzerall, with the team finishing with a program record 33-win season, a league title for the first time in program history and a second consecutive national title game appearance. Sophie Jaques won Ohio State's first Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award after earning WCHA Player of the Year and Defender of the Year honors.

In 2022, the Buckeyes won the program's first national title. Headed into the postseason, the team won a then-program record 21 WCHA games and went on to win its second Final Faceoff title in three seasons with thrilling wins over Wisconsin and Minnesota. Following the conference tournament, the Buckeyes earned No. 1 overall rankings in national polls for the first time in program history. With that came the top seed in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, bringing NCAA tournament games to Columbus for the first time. The program earned its first national championship in its first national title game to cap off a program-record 32-win season. Jaques became the program's first top-three finalist for the Patty Kazmaier Memorial Award.

Muzerall led the Buckeyes to their first WCHA title in 2020. With the success on the ice during the 2019-20 season, numerous Buckeyes earned individual honors, headlined by Jincy Dunne earning AHCA First Team All-American and WCHA Defensive Player of the Year for the second year in a row, while Emma Maltais was named AHCA Second Team All-American and a Patty Kazmaier Top 10 Finalist. It marked the first time since 2012 that a Buckeye has received the honor.

Muzerall took Ohio State to new heights in the 2019-20 season as the team posted its third-straight, 20-win season and tallied eight wins against Top 10 opponents, including six Top 3 upsets. The Buckeyes also won their first ever WCHA Championship in just their second conference championship appearance. In the Final Faceoff, Ohio State defeated Minnesota and Wisconsin in overtime to give the Buckeyes their first automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament. In her second year as head coach, Muzerall and the Buckeyes made the NCAA tournament and NCAA Frozen Four for the first time in program history. Along the way, the Buckeyes set new program records for wins (24) and WCHA wins (14), while posting an 11-5-1 record against top-10 ranked teams. Thanks to her efforts on the bench, Muzerall earned the first WCHA Coach of the Year award in program history.

While at Ohio State, Muzerall has coached five Olympians, including Maltais (Canada), Andrea Braendli (Switzerland), Dunne (United States), Sara Saekkinen (Finland) and Sofie Lundin (Sweden).

Off the ice, Muzerall's student-athletes have excelled in the classroom. Thirty-six student-athletes have achieved WCHA All-Academic Team honors while 29 were named WCHA Scholar-Athletes.

Muzerall coached Canada's U22 National Team in a three-game series against the USA U22 Team in August, and at the 2017 Nations Cup. In 2016 she was an assistant coach for a three-game series against the United States that took place in Calgary (during which Canada took two of the three games), and she has served as a camp coach at Canada's National Women's Under-18 Team selection camp. Back in July of 2016 she was named to the coaching staff for Canada's National Women's Development Team.

A two-time All-American and national champion as a player at Minnesota, Muzerall spent five years behind the bench as an assistant coach with the Golden Gophers. The first women's hockey player to be inducted into her university's hall of fame, she helped guide her former team to four national championships and five-consecutive spots in the title game. During her tenure she coached five Olympians (Mira Jalosuo, Megan Bozek, Amanda Kessel, Anne Schleper, and Lee Stecklein), none of whom had made Olympic rosters prior to Muzerall's arrival.

While serving as a member of the Golden Gophers staff, Muzerall's teams accrued a record of 182-14-8, including a perfect 41-0-0 record during the 2012-13 season. Thirteen Minnesota team records are held by squads she either coached or played for.

Prior to her return to Minneapolis, Muzerall made a couple significant career stops. She spent two seasons playing for Hockey Club Lugano in Switzerland, skating on the first line and leading her team in both points and goals. During her tenure, the team won a Swiss National Championship and advanced to the European Cup, where they won a bronze medal.

PETER ELANDER
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
2ND SEASON

Peter Elander enters his second season in his second stint on the Ohio State bench as the associate head coach after rejoining the program in 2022. Elander has over 20 years of coaching experience and has left his mark on virtually every level of women's hockey.

During his original coaching stint at Ohio State during the 2017-18 season, Elander was a key part of the year that could be considered the turning point of the program. In that season, Ohio State earned its first NCAA tournament berth and went on to advance to the program's first Frozen Four appearance. Elander helped the team to a then-program record 24 single season wins, marking just the second time in program history the team won more than 20 games in a season.

Since his departure from Ohio State in 2018, Elander was named the head coach of Denmark's national women's team in 2020. He helped the team win its Final Olympic Qualification tournament in January to advance to the 2022 Winter Olympics in Beijing. This year's Olympic Games marked the first Olympic appearance for Denmark in the history of the team.

Elander spent seven seasons as the associate head coach of the women's hockey program at the University of North Dakota prior to joining Muzerall's staff in 2017. While in Fargo from 2010-17, he helped the team to the only two NCAA tournament appearances of the program's existence.

In addition to his most recent national team coaching stop in Denmark, Elander previously served as the head coach of Sweden's Women's National Team for nine years. The most successful coach in the team's history, he led Sweden to an upset of the United States in the semifinals of the 2006 Winter Olympics, which has now been coined the "Mirakel" in Turin. Sweden ultimately took silver that year for its first Olympic medal in the team's history. He later guided the team to a fourth-place result at the 2010 games. In addition to Olympic success under Elander, the Damkronorna also took home bronze at the 2005 and 2007 IIHF Women's World Championships.

As a player, Elander won bronze with Team Sweden at the 1980 U20 World Championships and played in the Swedish Elite League with Sodertalje and Frolunda during the 1980s.

KELSEY CLINE
ASSISTANT COACH
2ND SEASON

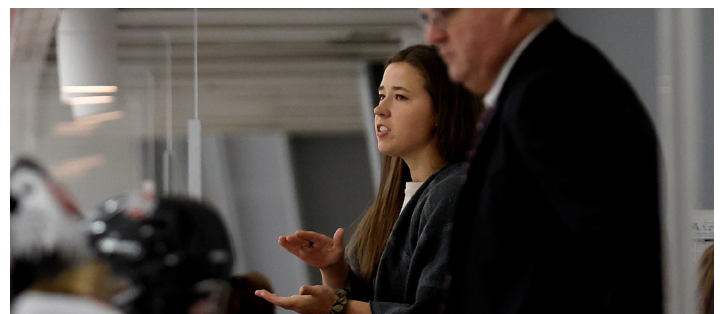

Kelsey Cline enters her second season as assistant coach of the Ohio State women's hockey team. She previously served as the Buckeyes' director of operations for the 2021-22 season. She brings an extensive resume of experience from all levels of the game, including coaching and playing, to the Buckeye staff.

Cline is no stranger to working with Ohio State head coach Nadine Muzerall, as she played for Muzerall at the University of Minnesota from 2013 to 2017. During her time with the Gophers, Cline won two national championships and skated in 161 games. She recorded 29 points (5 goals, 24 assists) and blocked 102 shots in her collegiate career.

In 2019, the Bloomington, Minn. native made her WNHL debut, signing with the Minnesota Whitecaps for the 2019-20 season. She played in 12 games, scoring a goal, adding three assists and finishing the season with a +10 on ice.

Prior to joining the Ohio State staff, Cline served as the associate head coach at the Blake School for the 2020-21 season and at Jefferson High School from 2017-2020. She was also the operations manager and coach for OS Hockey, assisting in organizing hockey programming and operating the Upper Midwest High School Elite League.

Cline graduated in 2017 with a degree in marketing from the University of Minnesota – Carlson School of Management.
